HARRISBURG, PA. Monday Evening, October 19, 1863.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

FOR SALE.—A Bay Mare will be sold cheap by applying to Edward Balhager, at Mrs. Black's boarding house, on Third street, between Market and Walnut.

THE PERSON who received in mistake on Saturday, Oct. 10th, a black frock coat (repaired) will please return it to Sayford's clothing store and get his own.

WE have been furnished with the official vote of Somerset county for State Senator. It is as follows: Householder, Union, 2,957; Bear, Cop., 1,114.

THE Columbia Spy says it has heard nothing about the reconstruction of the bridge across the Susquehanna at that place. The old piers are being boxed up.

WE learn from the Reading papers that that city is infested with pick pockets. Quite a number of persons have been relieved of their wallets within the past few days.

GERMAN REFORMED SYNOD.—The Synod of the German Reformed Church in the United States will convene at Carlisle, on Wednesday evening of this week.

SERGEANT JOHN HAMILTON, of Co. K, Third Pennsylvania Artillery, who was formerly a clerk with Capt. Dodge, U. S. A., Chief Muster-rol and Disbursing Officer in this city, has been detailed for special duty as clerk in the Adjutant General's office, at Washington, D. C.

FOR ONE NIGHT ONLY.—The Richings' Opera Troupe will make their first and only appearance in Brant's Hall, this evening, in Donizetti's grand comic opera, entitled "The Daughter of the Regiment." Don't fail to go early. See advertisement.

SUICIDE.—A young unmarried man, 22 years of age, by the name of John Lemon, son of Isaac Lemon, residing in Martio township, Lancaster county, about a mile south of Maggie Forge, committed suicide on the evening of the 8th inst., by hanging himself in his father's stable.

GENERAL JAIL DELIVERY.—On last Thursday night, six of the prisoners confined in Cambria county jail made their escape from "durance vile" by sawing asunder the iron bars encompassing one of the windows of their cell. They immediately made themselves scarce, and have not since been seen or heard of.

THE number of buildings erected here during the present season, although large, is very far short of the demand. Enquiries for dwelling houses and rooms are heard on every hand, but none are to be had. If there were one hundred new houses now ready for rent, every one would be taken before the month was up.

NOTES BOYS.—We learn that the soldiers composing the Forty-ninth and Fifty-third regiments of Pennsylvania volunteers (three years' men) have unanimously consented to extend their term of service three years longer. This act is highly commendable, and is the best possible evidence that these noble soldiers are enlisted heart and soul in their country's cause.

DROWNED.—On the 4th inst., Alexander P. Winner, of Williamsport, Lycoming county, was drowned under the following circumstances: He was suffering from a severe attack of typhoid fever. During a period of mental derangement, he escaped from the house unobserved, and went into the canal below the railroad bridge, where he was drowned. He was found about half an hour, but life was extinct.

THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND MORE!—The President has issued a call for three hundred thousand volunteers, "to serve for three years or the war, not however exceeding three years." Persons volunteering under this call will receive very liberal advance pay and bounty. Should any of the States fail to furnish their quota of the three hundred thousand men by enlistment, by the first day of January, 1864, a draft will then be made to fill up said quota. Each State or portion of a State shall receive due credit for all volunteers it may furnish.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—Before Alderman Kline.—A number of drunks who were in the lock-up on Saturday night, had a hearing yesterday morning, and were discharged. They were as follows: Mrs. Hamilton, arrested by Officer Massey; James Duin, arrested by Officer Campbell; Mary Wright, arrested by Officer Stock; Lewis Harris, arrested by Officer Massey; Joseph Myers, (aged 31 and costs), arrested by Officer Esig; Elizabeth Boony and William Everhart, arrested by Officer Costello.

A New Yorker, named Nolen, whilst intoxicated, on Saturday evening, laid his hand on the notion stand of Philip Daugherty, in front of the City Hotel, near the depot. Daugherty struck him with a hammer, attacking him. Officer Fry afterward conveyed Nolen to the lock-up, where he became sober, and was discharged. The difficulty between Nolen and Daugherty was adjusted, and the stranger "went on his way rejoicing" that he had fared no worse.

Mary Hennison, for vagrancy, was arrested by Officer Campbell, on Saturday night. She had a hearing yesterday morning, and was sent to the Lock House.

An effort is being made to raise funds for the purchase of instruments for the brass band in Mechanicsburg.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A boy named Josiah Lince, aged ten years, residing in Fairview, on the Cumberland side of the river, opposite this city, was shot dead by his brother, on Saturday last, while on a hunting expedition near that village. We learn that the deceased was standing in front of the muzzle of a gun, which was discharged, while his brother was repairing its lock. Persons handling fire arms ought to be careful.

FOUND DEAD.—On Saturday morning, 3d inst., Samuel Michael was found dead upon the premises of Charles P. Dietrich, in Greenwich township, Berks county. An inquest was held upon the body by Silas Christian, Esq., and a verdict rendered of death from natural causes. The deceased was an unmarried man, well known in the neighborhood and about 35 years of age.

We find the following beautiful lines going the rounds of our exchanges, bearing the title of "October Harvest Song": We gather them in—the mellow fruits, From the shrub, the vine and tree, With their russet, and golden and purple suits, To garish our treasury.

We gather them in—the goodly store— But not with a miser's greed; For that great All Father we adore, Hath but given it in trust. And our work of death is but for life, In the wintry days to come; Then a blessing upon the reaper's strife, And a shout at his Harvest Home.

WITHIN the past week we have had some of those bright and beautiful autumn days which glid the canvass of the passing year and remind us of the slow but sure approach of winter. Sportsmen have been abroad in the field with dog and gun after the wary quail, and those who delight in taking the fanny tribe from their aqueous retreats, have found sport at the river side with rod and line.

The "saw and yellow leaf" is visible in the woods; the wind sighs ominously among the dry corn leaves; the birds have ceased to sing; the disturbed partridge pipes the notes of alarm to his comrades; on the waves of rivers and rivulets the faded leaf is born ruthlessly away, on every hand are the emblems of the dying year—the departure of summer's bright days—and Nature's deep sleep in Winter's tomb.

DEATHS ON ERIEKNON DAY.—In Wayneborough, Franklin county, on Tuesday last, Mr. Henry Unger was shot in the breast by a young man named Flora, who had been in the nine months' service, and instantly killed. At the time of the occurrence, Mr. Unger, who was a constable, was endeavoring to quiet a disturbance of the peace, when he was shot by the man Flora. We understand Flora was arrested, but afterwards managed to make his escape from custody. The deceased leaves a wife, and several children. We understand also that a gentleman named Coble, a citizen of Hamilton township, Franklin county, was shot and instantly killed the same day, whilst on his road home in the evening, on the Western turnpike, a short distance from Chambersburg. He had been one of the officers of the election. The deceased leaves a wife and a number of children.

CORNERS.—Corners have always been popular—they are a great institution. The chimney corner, for instance, is endeared to the heart of all, who have experienced its winter glow of pleasures, from the earliest to the latest hours of existence. The corner cupboard! Oh! who would not feast again, as in youth, upon its store of goodies—how its shelves groaned with luxuries, but its glory has departed. The pantry and "saw" has robbed it of its identity, and it contributes no more to the desires of the appetite. A snug corner in a will! Who objects to such a thing? A corner in a woman's heart! Once get there and you will soon command the whole domain, if you are at all worthy and reciprocal. A corner in the Temple of Fame! That's a corner which is worth occupying, and which perchance may make you immortal. The corner-lots are always best. In fact the possession of a corner of anything, is a matter of tenacity, is about equal to the possession of half of the object. Therefore never hang around a street corner, lest you become a loafer and a subject for a corner's outburst.

CONSECRATION OF THE NATIONAL CEMETERY.—David Wills, Esq., of Gettysburg, has addressed the following letter to Gov. Curtin, concerning the consecration of the National burying-ground: To His Excellency A. G. Curtin, Governor of Pennsylvania: Sir.—I have been in communication with the Governors of the States interested in the Soldiers' Burial Ground at this place, about the arrangements for the consecration of these grounds.

They have all most cordially united in the selection of the Hon. Edward Everett to deliver the oration on that solemn occasion, and in accordance with the unanimous wishes of the Chief Executives of the several States, I addressed a letter of invitation to Mr. Everett to deliver the address at the consecration of these grounds on the 22d of this month. He replied that his engagements were such that he could not possibly make such preparation as would enable him to do justice to the interesting and important occasion; and meet the expectations of the multitude that will be assembled. But if the day could be postponed to Thursday, the 19th of November, he would cheerfully undertake the honorable duty.

The proposition to postpone the time has been acceded to, and therefore this burial ground will be consecrated and set apart to its holy purposes, with appropriate ceremonies, on Thursday, the 19th day of November next. Mr. Everett suggests that "the ceremonies would be rendered more interesting, if deferred till after the removal of the soldiers. All references to their self-sacrificing bravery in the cause of their country would be far more effectively uttered over their remains, than if only pronounced on a spot to which they are hereafter to be removed.

The removal of the dead will be commenced about the 26th of this month, and a large portion of the bodies will be interred in the Cemetery before the 19th of November.

A STATE MEETING of the Friendship Fire Company will be held in their Hall this evening at the usual hour.

WOODWARD AT THE POLLS.—The Philadelphia Daily News says: "Judge Woodward stepped up to the polls on Tuesday to exercise his right of franchise. The learned Judge lives in a precinct whose place of voting is in Sansom street, above Twenty-first. He walked up to the window and handed in his own ticket. "What name, sir?" asked the Inspector. "George W. Woodward," was the response. "Your name is not here, sir, on the Assessors' list."

"Very likely, and yet I've paid more taxes 'this year than I ever paid before, (with annex), and on less property, too." The men outside the window said, "Qualify him, qualify him." The Inspector took a look at the tall man, holding the tickets in huge digits, and now saw who he was. "Oh! you're Judge Woodward. I didn't at first know who you were. Your name is certainly not here, but it ought to be. All right, sir, vote away."

The Judge voted for himself, and then left, looking slightly pompous. He doesn't like paying United States taxes. In the opinion of a large portion of the community, he would prefer helping Mr. Jefferson Davis to pay of the Confederate debt.

AUCUM.—The following beautiful paragraph, suited to the season, is well worth a perusal, and we transfer it to our columns for the benefit of our readers: High festival seems about to be held; the modest sumac is arraying himself in robes of scarlet—the giant oak in vestments of golden green—the asplring maple is putting on his crown of fire—then more lowly companions are being clad in russet and brown—the tardy reavers in the forest, still retain their faded emerald tints, whilst the hardy unimpressive evergreens who seem to defy the almost universal edict, assume a borrowed freshness, and more distinctive features from the contrast.

This new array is being made in solemn stillness, and the "hollow woods," cheered no more by the notes of those "delicate ariels," the feathered songsters, who have sought more southern climes and warmer skies, and throbbing no more to the drowsy hum of insect life which has performed its mission and expired—tessellated with fire, and inlaid with "partines of bright gold" by many a fallen leaf, are fitting scenes for deep reflection, and rigid self-examination, and for listening to that still, small voice too often unheard, and if heard, too often unheeded, amidst the bustle, the jar and discord of active life, calling upon us, too, to prepare for that change which comes upon all of earth, and to array ourselves in that "taintment whiter than snow," which was seen in the Apocalyptic vision. Thus to us shall come a more glorious springtide, and more beautiful Eden, in which we shall call far more lovely flowers, and partake together of richer and more luscious fruit, than ever bloomed or ripened in the Paradise, which, by transgression we have lost.

Special Notices.

THE FALLING LEAVES.—The falling of the leaves, and indications generally of the changing season, reminds us that providence, guided by the experience of the past, would suggest the advantage of providing against the coming winter. Prices generally advance as the weather becomes cold, and the unsettled condition of our country at this time makes room for the opinion that dry goods will run up to very high prices. Now is the time, then, to supply your wants from the large stock of seasonable dry goods, at the cheap store of O. L. Bowman, No. 1, corner of Market and Front streets.

CLERGYMEN, LAWYERS, PHYSICIANS AND CITIZENS. Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters. DO YOU WANT SOMETHING TO STRENGTHEN YOU? DO YOU WANT A GOOD CHEERER? DO YOU WANT TO BUILD UP YOUR CONSTITUTION? DO YOU WANT TO FEEL WELL? DO YOU WANT TO GET RID OF NERVOUSNESS? DO YOU WANT SLEEP ENERGY? DO YOU WANT TO SLEEP WELL? DO YOU WANT A BRISK AND VIGOROUS FEELING? If you do, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

PARTICULAR NOTICE. There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed. This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulents of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death. For those who desire and WILL HAVE A Liquid Bitter, we publish the following receipt: ONE BOTTLE OF HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, mixed with THREE QUARTS OF GOOD BRANDY OR WHISKY, and the result will be a preparation that will FAR EXCEL in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquid Bitters in the market, and will COST MUCH LESS. You will have all the virtues of HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS in connection with a GOOD LIQUOR, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS! AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposure and privations incident to camp life. In the lists published almost daily in the newspapers, of the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost. We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters":

Philadelphia, August 23d, 1862. Messrs. Jones & Evans, Gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouchsafed for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain E. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer "The Maine," from which I landed on the 29th of December. Since that time I have been as weak as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to walk any thing, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances, and, according to the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread anchor, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE. We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
