DR. JOHNSON'S BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL.

It has discovered the most certain, speedy and effective remedies in the world for DISEASES OF IMPURITUDE.

RELIEF IN SIX TO TWENTY HOURS. NO MERCURY OR NOXIOUS DRUGS. A Cure Warranted. No Charge, is from One to Two Days.

Weakness of the Back; Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder; Involuntary discharges; Impotency; General Debility; Nervousness; Dyspepsia; Lassitude; Low Spirits; Contusion of Ideas; Palpitation of the Heart; Trembling; Swelling of the Legs; Giddiness; Diseases of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin. Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the Solitary Habits of Youth—those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Sirens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN
Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have embraced shining Genesises with the thunders of eloquence or walked in ecstasy the living lyres, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.
Married Persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debility, deformities, &c., speedily cured.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a Physician, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS
Immediately Cured, and full vigor restored. This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent. Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged; the physical and mental functions weakened; loss of preservative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, a wasting of the frame, cough, consumption, decay and death.

OPURIA, No. 7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET,
Left hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Fall not to observe name and number.
Lenses must be paid, and contain a stamp. The Doctor's Diploma hang in his office.

DR. JOHNSON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons in London, graduate from one of the most eminent colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, &c. and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with itching in the head and ears, who have nearly given up, being alarmed at epidemic diseases, and being afflicted with epiphora, attended sometimes with derangement of mind were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of vice; viz: weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervous irritability, symptoms of consumption, &c. Many persons, however, being alarmed at epidemic diseases, and being afflicted with epiphora, attended sometimes with derangement of mind were cured immediately.

YOUNG MEN.
Who have injured themselves by certain practices indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit! Such persons must, before contemplating marriage, be cured.

MARRIAGE.
Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote domestic happiness. Indulge not in the solitary vice, through which it becomes a weary pilgrimage; the through which hourly darkens the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another, becomes blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPURITUDE.
When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-judged resort to applying to those who have a detestation and respectability, can alone afford relief. He falls into the hands of ignorant and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing, fill his pecuniary substance, keep him trifling month after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him with ruined health, to sigh over his galling disappointments, or, by the use of the deadly poison, Mercury, hasten the constitutional symptoms of this terrible disease, such as affections of the Head, Throat, Nose, Skin, &c., progressing with frightful rapidity till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to that undiscovered country from whence no traveler returns.

INDOUBTED CURE OF THE PRESS.
The many thousands cured at this institution year after year, and the numerous important surgical operations performed by Dr. Johnson, witnessed by the reporters of the Sun, Express, and many other papers, notices of which have appeared in all the leading newspapers before the public, best and most reliable notices of which have been given, are a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

SKIN DISEASES SPEEDILY CURED.
Office No. 7 South Frederick St. HARRISBURG, PA.

For my Drops stand before the world as the best and only remedy for the cure of all diseases of the kidneys and bladder, Leucorrhoea, Prostatitis, and the mild, but positive correction of all irregularities.

by those who have other preparations, which they desire to pain upon the strength of the popularity of my Drops, and who recommend their own "inventions," thus appropriating to themselves the constant demand for my Periodical Drops, as a medium for selling something which is worthless and inefficient. But when the Druggist you apply to, has not got them, either make him buy them for you, or else enclose one Dollar to the nearest general wholesale agent, who will return you a bottle by return Express.

You will thus save yourselves trouble and obtain relief from the greatest Female Regulator of the Nineteenth Century.

Over 25,000 Bottles of this medicine have been sold within the last six months, and every Lady that has used them, but for the nature of the cure, would furnish us with her own certificate of their efficacy. It takes but one Dollar to make the experiment, and I appeal to those of your sex who are suffering, will you waste away when a single Dollar will give you instant relief.

USEFUL AND VALUABLE DISCOVERY!

HILTON'S INSOLUBLE CEMENT!
Is of more general practical utility than any invention now before the public. It has been thoroughly tested during the last two years by practical men, and pronounced by all to be SUPERIOR TO ANY Adhesive Preparations known.

Hilton's Insoluble Cement is a new thing, and the result of years of study; its combination is on Scientific Principles, and under no circumstances or change of temperature, will it become corrupt or emit any offensive smell.

BOOT & SHOE MANUFACTURERS, using Machines, will find it the best article known as Cementing for the Channels, it works without delay, is not affected by any change of temperature.

JEWELERS. Will find it sufficiently adhesive for their use, as has been proved.

It is especially adapted to Leather, and we claim as an especial merit, that it sticks Patches and Linings to Boots and Shoes sufficiently strong without stitching.

It is the only LIQUID CEMENT known, that is a sure thing for mending Furniture, Crockery, Toys, Bone, Ivory, and articles of Household use.

REMEMBER
Hilton's Insoluble Cement is in a liquid form and is easily applied as paste.

Hilton's Insoluble Cement is insoluble in water or oil. Hazardous to the Chamber Adheres only to Leather.

Letter from Carlisle Barracks CAMP OF DRAFTED MEN, CARLISLE BARRACKS, October 20, 1863.

Since the election is over the Board of Enrollment of the several districts that sent drafted men to this camp; seem to be at work in earnest. During the past week nearly two hundred men arrived here, and yesterday afternoon they took their departure for the Army of the Potomac. I believe they were intended to fill the 149th regiment, P. V. Last week there were also twenty-five conscripts voluntarily joined battery A, Fifth United States artillery, Lieut. James Piper commanding, at present stationed at Chambersburg. This morning there is over fifty in camp, and every train brings an acquisition.

The detachment which left yesterday afternoon was the finest lot of men yet sent from this camp. There were but few substitutes among them. They left here in the finest spirits and seemed anxious to get to the front. Quite a number of officers and men belonging to detachments from the old regiments, stationed here to receive conscripts for their several commands, have been ordered to join their regiments. Detachments from the 7th, 9th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd, 44th, 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st, 52nd, 53rd, 54th, 55th, 56th, 57th, 58th, 59th, 60th, 61st, 62nd, 63rd, 64th, 65th, 66th, 67th, 68th, 69th, 70th, 71st, 72nd, 73rd, 74th, 75th, 76th, 77th, 78th, 79th, 80th, 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, 85th, 86th, 87th, 88th, 89th, 90th, 91st, 92nd, 93rd, 94th, 95th, 96th, 97th, 98th, 99th, 100th.

The permanent company of drafted men, who were picked from the conscript camp to go guard duty, still remains. Capt. E. P. Zinn, of the 7th Reserve, has command of the permanent boys. They are now daily drilling in the bayonet exercise, and in reference to the bayonet, a proficiency that has elicited the envy of the regulars.

The weather has been very fine for several days past, and there is no sickness at this post, except a few cases of fever and ague.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

REMOVAL OF BRITISH CONSULS.
The Richmond Enquirer of the 17th instant publishes the official correspondence between Mr. Benjamin, the rebel Secretary of State, and Messrs. Mason and Selden, in reference to the British Consuls resident within the limits of the "Confederacy." These Consuls have all been notified to cease their consular functions and travel homeward. The Enquirer thus comments on this correspondence and its object:

"Be it so; we are content that the right thing is done at last, in this most provoking matter. We pay our compliments also to the Secretary for the clearness and precision with which he has set forth what he thought 'it mattered to place on record; and though some of his views about continuing and revoking consulars, and the like, are liable to exception, there is no occasion to controvert them any further on the present occasion. Practically, the right position was regard to the British Government is now reached."

"We may now expect, ere long, to see a British Minister at Richmond; and Consuls asking acquaintance from Mr. Benjamin; nor England ever neglects her subjects, nor leaves them without the shadow of her wing and the guardianship of her flag. The sooner the better. We do not want to hurt either her or her subjects."

THE REBEL TERMS OF PEACE.
The Richmond Enquirer, of the 16th inst., in an editorial upon "Peace," says:

"So long as our own terms are not accepted, no matter what, and what right will do us rather than yield an iota of them; and our terms are:

Recognition by the enemy of the independence of the Confederate States.
Withdrawal of Yankee forces from every foot of Confederate ground, including Kentucky and West Virginia.
Withdrawal of Yankee soldiers from Maryland until that State shall decide, by a free vote, whether she shall remain in the old Union or ask admission into the Confederacy.

Consent on the part of the Federal Government to give up to the Confederacy its proportion of the navy as it stood at the time of Secession, or to pay for the same.

Yielding up all professions on the part of the Federal Government to that portion of the old territories which lies west of the Confederate States.

An equitable settlement, on the basis of our absolute independence and equal rights, on all accounts of the public debt and public land, and of the advantage accruing from foreign trade.

These provisions, we apprehend, comprise the minimum of what we must require before we lay down our arms. That is to say, the North must yield all; or nothing. The whole pretension of that country to prevent by force the separation of the States—must be abandoned, which will be equivalent to an avowal that our enemies were wrong from the first; and, of course, as they waged a cruel war, we will also to enforce and call of the treasure for our own reimbursement out of the wealthy cities in the enemy's country. In other words, unless we can destroy or scatter their armies and break up their government, we can have no peace; and if we can do that, then we can and ought not only to extort from them our own full terms, and ample acknowledgment of their wrong, but also a handsome indemnity for the trouble and expense caused to us by their crime.

"Whether this last proviso is to be insisted upon or not, certain we are that we cannot have any peace at all, until we shall be in a position not only to demand, and exact, but also to enforce and call of the treasure for our own reimbursement out of the wealthy cities in the enemy's country. In other words, unless we can destroy or scatter their armies and break up their government, we can have no peace; and if we can do that, then we can and ought not only to extort from them our own full terms, and ample acknowledgment of their wrong, but also a handsome indemnity for the trouble and expense caused to us by their crime."

A Slaveholder Driving His Slaves to the Recruiting Office.
The Baltimore correspondent of the New York Evening Post writes:

"A slaveholder in Dorchester county, in this State, recently said to his slaves that they had his permission to volunteer in the army, but requested them, when they had made up their minds to go, to inform him, and as they had only a time to give him to Cambridge, he would himself drive them in his carriage thither in this important mission."

Sure enough, they heeded his request, and drove them to town in his carriage on their way to Baltimore, after fitting them out quite liberally. Last Friday he came to the city and went out to Camp Birney to get his certificates for the three hundred-dollar substitute money for each slave, and to grant his obligation for the same.

WHOSE FATHER WAS HE?—After the Battle of Gettysburg, a Union soldier was found in a secluded spot on the field, where, wounded, he had laid himself down to die. In his hands, tightly clasped, was an ambrotype containing the portraits of three small children, upon this picture his eyes, set in death, seem to be fastened upon which the dying father looked was the image of his children, and as he gazed upon them his soul passed away. How touching! how solemn! What pen can describe the emotions of the patriot father as he gazed upon these children, so soon to be made orphans! Wounded and alone, the din of battle still sounding in his ears, he lies down to die. His last thoughts and prayers are for his family. He has finished his work on earth; his last battle has been fought; he has freely given his life to his country; and now, while his life's blood is ebbing, he clasps in his hands the image of his children, and, commending them to the God of the fatherless, bids his last lingering look up to heaven.

When, after the battle, the dead were being buried, his father was thus found. The ambrotype was taken from his embrace, and has since been sent to this city for recognition. Nothing else was found upon his person by which he might be identified. His grave has been marked, however, so that if by any means this ambrotype will lead to the recognition of his father, it will be a precious relic to the possession of Dr. Bourne, No. 1104 Spring Garden street, Philadelphia, who can be called upon or addressed in reference to it. The children, two boys and a girl, are, apparently, nine, seven and five years of age, the boys being, respectively, the oldest and youngest of the three. The young girl is sitting in a high chair, and on each side of her are his brother and sister. This picture is now in the possession of Dr. Bourne, No. 1104 Spring Garden street, Philadelphia, who can be called upon or addressed in reference to it. A MAX was intending to be married the other day, or rather night, in Greenwich, Mass. All preparations were completed, and the bride and two hundred guests were present at the ceremony. After waiting for the bridegroom till a late hour, the party broke up on account of his non-arrival. The next day the history was made his appearance, saying that he had not thought it best to venture out the previous evening, on account of the storm.

The London Times devotes two columns to a description of the British iron-plate and turret-ribs of the Royal Navy. One is a rib of a fearful power, and an almost invulnerable build, in order to draw a contrast between her and the American Monitor. The London Times does not, however, mention the Union Iron Works, which the Paritan, or the Union Iron Works, such as the Dandery, now in course of construction.
