HARRISBURG, PA. Wednesday Evening, October 21, 1883.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

FOR SALE.—A Bay Mare will be sold cheap by applying to Edward Balthasar, at Mrs. Black's boarding house, on Third street, between Market and Walnut.

The journeymen shoemakers of Lancaster are on a strike for higher wages.

FOR GUT WHISKY.—The style that kills at thirty yards, off-hand—is now politely termed "Greek fire."

NOT GATHERING.—Like the squirrels, the boys are now busily engaged laying in a supply of walnuts, hickory nuts and chestnuts for winter consumption. Right—better than than idling away their time on the streets.

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—We regret to learn that George H. Merklein, Esq., formerly editor of the Chambersburg Repository, and more recently of the Dispatch, died, in that town, a few days ago.

FOUND DEAD.—On Tuesday morning, Thomas Fair, an elderly man, and a resident of Swedesburg, Montgomery county, was found dead in his bed. An inquest was held by Coroner Jacobson, and a verdict rendered of "death from causes unknown."

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received until ten o'clock of the 31 day of November, for the erection of the new house for the Paxton Hoop and Engine Company, by the building committee. The proposals will be opened at the Paxton Hoop House at the time above named.

The present season is very favorable for the planting of shade trees. Those who intend planting this fall should do so at once. Much of the Keystone Nursery, has a choice assortment of trees which are worthy of notice. He offers them at low prices, and will superintend their planting in this neighborhood, if orders are sent in at once. He also offers a very select lot of grape vines to the public.

AN MAN MISSING.—Yesterday a man named William Berry left the hospital at Camp Curtin, having no clothing on except a shirt and pair of drawers. Nothing has been heard of him since he left the hospital, but it is supposed that he went to the canal or river, and drowned himself. For several days previous he had expressed a desire that some one would shoot or kill him. He imagined that somebody or something was after him continually. Doubtless his mind was somewhat impaired. Should any person know anything as to the whereabouts of Berry, they should inform the officers of the Camp Curtin Hospital of the fact.

"TOODLES" AT BRANT'S HALL.—A few days ago we noticed the organization of the "Harrisburg Thespian Society." Now we have the pleasure of stating that their first entertainment will be given in Brant's Hall, to-morrow (Thursday) evening. The performance will commence with the "imitable Drama" of "Toodles," and conclude with the "laughable burlesque" entitled "The New Footman," in which the various characters will be represented by the members of the Society. A first-class Orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Weber, will furnish the music. The Thespian Society are determined to give entertainments that shall be free from all objectionable features, so common at places of amusement, and, if the citizens of Harrisburg encourage the undertaking, the members pledge themselves to use their utmost exertions to deserve public patronage and confidence. We hope our citizens will give the society such encouragement as it may deserve.

FILL UP THE RANKS.—The proclamation of President Lincoln calling for three hundred thousand men to fill up the decimated ranks of our army, will send a thrill of joy to every war-worn soldier now in the service. The old regiments that have gone through so many fiery ordeals are still as ardent as ever in their desire to see this rebellion crushed out forever, and all they ask is that their ranks be filled up, so that they can complete the work so nobly begun. The inducements to volunteers are such as have not been offered since the war began. With the proper efforts, and the right man at the head, we think Dauphin county could send another full regiment, or a battalion at least, with some over for the old organization. Who will move in the matter? More men must be put in the field if we want to preserve the government. One more rally round the flag and victory is ours, and the Union will be restored.

SINGULAR CASE OF MISTAKEN IDENTITY.—In the battle of Gettysburg there was engaged with the Union forces a young man, whose parents reside in Birmingham, Allegheny county, Pa. It was announced that he was among the killed in that sanguinary fight, and his friends proceeded to the battle-field to recover his remains. After some difficulty, they managed to recover what they were positive was his body, and brought it home and had it interred in the family-burying ground. A few nights since, the house of the parents was visited by a young man from the army, who aroused the household. On entering the house what was the surprise and astonishment of the parents to discover in their visitor their deeply mourned son, whose remains they fancied were resting quietly in the cemetery. It turned out that the body brought on and interred there was that of a rebel, whose name in the battle of Gettysburg was "Woodward," whose resemblance to the Union soldier was DUKES.—There were two drunkards in the lock-up last night. They were: John Burns, arrested by Loyd, and John Collins, arrested by Messoy. Both discharged.

ATTENTION, HOPERS!—There will be a special meeting of the Hope fire company this (Wednesday) evening, at 7 o'clock. All active members are requested to be present, as business of importance will be transacted. By order.

THE EASTERN COAL TRADE.—The Philadelphia Ledger says the coal trade continues very active, and for the season reaches the enormous aggregate of seven millions, five hundred and four thousand, eight hundred and seventy-one tons. This aggregate is one million, four hundred and seventy-six thousand, seven hundred and seven tons in excess of the tonnage from the same sources to corresponding time last year. The demand for coal is still in excess of the supply.

EVIL INCIDENTS IN CHESTER COUNTY.—At Kennett Square, Capt. Yerkes of Co. C, of the Bucktails, who was severely wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, was carried to the polls at this request, in order to vote the Union ticket. He had previously expressed his determination of thus voting, if he should have strength to raise his hand to vote.

One old gentleman upwards of 70 years of age, voted who had never before voted. Another who had not voted for more than 20 years.

In New Garden Township, Wm. Wilson, aged 96 years, voted. Another who had not (it is said) voted for 20 years, voted the Union ticket.

A SINGULAR and fatal accident happened in Pittsburg, Pa., last week. Two boys were playing "horse" in the streets, and used a cord, one end of which was tied to the shoulders of the lad acting as a horse, while the other end was fastened to the wrist of the driver by a slip knot. While thus sporting, a street railway car came up, and the boys went in opposite directions to let it pass. This brought the cord across the track, and the horse striking against it jerked the lads in front of the wheels of the car, which passed over them. One of the boys was instantly crushed to death, and the other will probably die.

A QUAKER WEDDING.—Yesterday Robert Eistman, a widower of thirty-five, and Ann E. White, a buxom lass—both of the Quaker persuasion—appeared before Alderman Kline, of this city, and in his presence were married according to Friends' ceremony. The bridegroom repeated the formula, "I take this woman to be my wedded wife," &c., and the bride, "I take this man to be my husband," &c. The Alderman said nothing, but was a mere spectator, until the conclusion of the ceremony, when he pronounced them man and wife. The parties were from Bucks county, and on their way to Illinois. The Alderman received a handsome fee for his services.

ARREST OF SUPPOSED PICK-POCKETS.—Three men were observed (by Officer Fry) passing through some of the passenger cars at the Depot, in such a manner as to cause them to be suspected of being pick-pockets. Mr. Fry made oath to that effect before Alderman Kline, when a warrant was issued for their arrest. Chief of Police Campbell succeeded in arresting two of the party on Third-street, in the vicinity of the Brady House. When taken before the Alderman they gave the names of John Horst and Thomas Burns—the former stating that he was from Dayton, Ohio, and the latter from Pittsburg. The third man of the party succeeded in getting out of the reach of the police. After a hearing, Horst and Burns were committed to prison for a further hearing. One of them, we are informed, is suspected of being a thief, whose likeness adorns the Rogues' Gallery in Philadelphia.

We hope, if there is any evidence that they are guilty, that they may be tried and punished to the full extent of the law. They should not be allowed to escape punishment.

KEEP THE BIRTH-DAYS.—A western exchange makes the following excellent suggestions, which must meet the approbation of all youthful readers. We trust they will also be received with favor by the "old folks." It says, "Keep the birthdays religiously; they belong exclusively to, and are treasured among the sweetest memories of home. Do not let anything prevent some token, be it ever so slight, that it be remembered. Birth-days are great events to the children. For one day they are heroes. The special pudding or cake is made for them; a new jacket or trousers, with pockets, or the first pair of boots are donned; and big brothers and sisters sink into insignificance beside 'little Charlie,' who is 'six to-day,' and is soon 'going to be a man.' Mothers who have half a dozen little ones to care for, are apt to neglect birth-days; they come too often—sometimes when they are 'nervous'—but if they only know how much such anniversaries are cherished by their pet Susy or Harry, years afterwards, when away from the hearthstone and they have none to remind them that they have added one more year to the perhaps weary round of life, or to wish them, in old-fashioned phrase, 'many happy returns to their birth-day,' they would never permit any cause to stop between them and a mother's privilege."

The Hollidaysburg Standard, a "Woodward" got very sleepy—some of our Democratic friends about 10 o'clock on the night of election day. Indeed, we felt so drowsy ourselves that we had to retire shortly after hearing the returns from Allegheny and Philadelphia. Fanny, what an effect some election news has on the human system.

"BLANK WITH ASTONISHMENT."—The Lancaster Express, of yesterday, says, under the above heading: "We have often heard of people looking 'blank with astonishment,' but we never saw it illustrated in the case of a newspaper until we yesterday picked up the Harrisburg Patriot & Union, containing an immense margin of blank paper, fully equalling one-half the surface of printed matter. The natural solution of the matter seems to be that it took this method of manifesting its 'blank astonishment' at the result of the recent elections in Ohio and Pennsylvania."

We regret to hear of the death of William S. McAllister, Esq., U. S. N.—son of Capt. R. McAllister, U. S. A. He died recently at Detroit, Michigan. The Detroit Advertiser gives the following notice of the deceased:

William McAllister was appointed Ensign in the United States Navy in the early part of our present trouble, and for nearly the last two years has been in active service in the Mississippi Squadron, under the command of Admiral Porter. In one so young he showed high qualifications for the position he filled—and collected in danger, and prompted by a high moral courage, was first to offer himself when necessity called; respectful to his superiors, gentlemanly to his equals, and kind and humane to those under him, he won the just respect and confidence of his fellow-officers.

His last post of duty was on the gunboat Eastport which has been stationed during the sickly season, in the Mississippi river, below Helena, when a few weeks ago he took sick with the fever, or malarial fever; still, with fever consuming him he would be at his post of duty. He received a leave of absence and was brought to this city, with the hope that he would recover, but the fever had infused its deadly night shade into his veins; he was brought home but to die—early in life he has become a sacrifice to his country. He leaves behind him many friends who sincerely mourn his loss from their midst, and who truly sympathize with his bereaved parents.
