Irwin, Commissary General of the State, recently conceived the idea of recogs chase a rare production of art, in the possession of Ward, on The street, the work of one of the most gifter attists in the country. Accord-ingly a street ption was started and confined exclusively to the intimate personal friends of the General, and after the contribution of an adequate sum, the work imquestion was purchased and devoted the purpose designed. The subject of the arest in this instance, is of a floral character, in which he blends the colors of the rarest exotics, with the soft hues of the grape, peach and other choice fruit, constituting an en semble of color, tint and shading which can only be excelled by the highest perfection of nature. PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans:—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouch-defer by numbers of my contrades some. of Dress; by the Australia 1 00 life. There is no mistake in the last of my comrades, some of all new books received as soon as published ed for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully whose names are appended, and who were fully ognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayers. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swal low anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though an successfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised me, as a forlora hope, to try your bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my processor those who are dearest to me in life.
