HOOPS.—Twenty thousand girls in New York make their living by the manufacture of hoop skirts.

A PROTESTANT Episcopal church, called St. Luke's, at Lebanon, Pa., was consecrated by the Bishop of the Diocese, on Wednesday last.

HYDROPHOBIA is prevailing to a great extent in Chester county. Quite a number of persons have been bitten by the rabid animals.

DEAD.—Henry J. Bush, who was so seriously injured by falling from a cherry tree, last June, died, on Sunday evening last, at the residence of his parents, in this city.

DEATH OF A METHODIST CLERGYMAN.—The Rev. John Wesley McCaskey, A. M., Pastor of the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal Church, died at the parsonage in Philadelphia, on Tuesday of last week.

THE Old School Presbyterian Synod, which held its annual meeting in Washington, last week, selected Gettysburg, Pa., as the place for its next meeting, which will commence on the 23rd Thursday of October, 1864.

THE Erie Observer, a rank copperhead sheet, says: "Our Democratic exchanges promised their readers that the 'Cartin would fall on the second Tuesday of October. It has fallen, but unfortunately it has left us on the outside.'"

We have been gratified with several of those fine, mellow days for which the month of October is so justly celebrated. How delightful these days are! Who does not love the month of October above all other months in the year.

SCARLET will be the fashionable color during the coming winter, and even now an occasional scarlet cloak is seen in the street. These are called red-riding hoods, and are very handsome indeed. The head-dress will consist of a handsome jockey hat, with scarlet feathers.

CURE FOR DIPHTHERIA.—Here is a remedy said to be excellent for the cure of diphtheria: A small quantity of sheep's suet, say a spoonful, chopped fine and boiled in a gill of milk, and drank on retiring to bed. Of course the throat is to be bound with flannel.

THE Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, which has been leased by the Pennsylvania R. R. Co., is now in use for freight and passenger business from Harrisburg to Emporium, a distance of one hundred and ninety-five miles. Passenger trains leave Harrisburg for the North, daily, at 1.15 P. M., and 3.03 A. M.

OUR readers have read much in our columns concerning the latest mode of velvets and silks, of shawls that cost one thousand dollars apiece, and bonnets that cost fabulous sums; but the most important thing after all, pertaining to fashions, is a beautiful hat. A glossy tile finishes up the dress. You can get a tip-top article by going to where they are offered for sale, and forking over the spool-dicks.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Friday morning, at about half past five o'clock, a woman by the name of Kulp, forty-eight years of age, as we understand, on crossing the railroad bridge between Scranton and Hyde Park, for the purpose of taking passage on the Bloomsburg train, fell and severed an artery, by which she bled to death. She was found near the depot a few minutes after the accident, but too late for relief.

MAN SHOT.—On Saturday last, a young man named Town, living at Townville, Crawford county, accidentally shot himself in such a manner as to cause instant death. He was alone in the barn at the time working, when, it is supposed, he attempted to shoot a squirrel which was near. The gun missed fire, and it is believed that while blowing the barrel, it was discharged, the load passing through his head. It was at first supposed that he had committed suicide, but from the manner in which it was done, it is believed that his death was accidental, as stated.

The Dauphin County Bible Society will hold its annual meeting at Middle town, on third Monday (17th) of November.

EAST PENNSYLVANIA ELDERSHIP of the Church of God will meet in Middletown to-morrow (Wednesday) evening. Rev. E. H. Thomas will preach the opening.

THE Democrats of Franklin county must have been desperate at the late election, for their Sheriff, one Brandt, actually brought prisoners out of jail to vote the Democratic ticket. The election board "didn't see it," and sent the Sheriff's novel voters back to jail without the luxury of voting for Woodward.

THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE in Pennsylvania is now in full operation. It is situated near the Allegheny Mountains. Four hundred acres of land are connected with it. The college building is immense, costing $100,000. The students rise at 6 and breakfast at 6 1/2 the year round. The course is for four years, and students are educated for practical and scientific farming.

HARRISBURG is full of Ghosts. They meet you at every turn. Look where you will, a Ghost can be seen. The topic of conversation on the street corners is "The Ghost." Everybody sees Ghosts, thinks of Ghosts, and talks of Ghosts. To-night the Ghost will appear in Brant's Hall, where it can be seen by all who are so fortunate as to get there in time to secure a seat.

A BAND has been organized in Mechanicsburg. Funds were raised, and the beautiful clarinet, and fine silver horns of the old Hanover Band were purchased, at a cost of some eight hundred dollars.

Will our citizens permit our neighboring town to excel Harrisburg in the line of music? We have an abundance of material for two or three bands; and certainly one good one could be organized and sustained.

NEW COURTS MARTIAL.—A court composed of invalid officers has been formed in Washington of which Col. Warren, of the 10th Pennsylvania Reserves, has been appointed President. Another court martial has also been formed for the trial of military officers, of which Col. Roy Stone, 149th Pennsylvania Volunteers, (Back-tails) is the President. The members are all under medical treatment, although able to perform light duty.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—A call has been issued for a County Sabbath School Convention, to be held in Middletown, commencing on Monday, November 16th, at 2 o'clock, P. M. The call is signed by pastors of a number of churches, and by the superintendents of several of the Sabbath schools in this city. It is believed that a meeting of the friends of the Sabbath school cause in this county, to take counsel in regard to its best interests, and provide for its advancement, would have a good effect.

IMPORTANT OFFICIAL DECISION.—Col. W. Hoffman, Commissary General of Prisoners, U. S. A., has decided, in a case recently submitted by Messrs. J. & C. Bowman, of Philadelphia, that the allowance for the commutation of a prisoner, is entirely a personal one, and cannot be claimed by heirs or relatives. This decision is one which affects the interests of many families of prisoners who may have died in Libby or the other prisons of rebellion.

A SUCCESS.—The meeting of the Harmonic Society last evening was a decided success. Everything went off harmoniously, and the large number of members present seemed quite animated and fully awake to the interests of the art musical in our community. The friends of the society will be pleased to learn that they have determined to commence immediately their pleasant rehearsals. Next Monday evening they will meet for usual practice of music. From the happy indications afforded by last night's meeting, we would predict that the "Harmonic" will soon be in full sail, and regain even more than its former glory and prestige.

THE Philadelphia Bulletin, in an article headed "Our Inland Cities," compares the growth of Harrisburg and Reading with that of Lancaster, and gives Harrisburg a very flattering notice, showing that in point of prosperity all other interior cities and towns are left in the background. The following is an extract from the Bulletin's article:

"The vote of the three cities was as follows: Reading, 2168; Lancaster, 1468; Harrisburg, 1274. Allowing seven inhabitants to every voter, the population of the three cities would be as follows: Reading 29,869, Lancaster 20,825, Harrisburg 18,119, and this we believe to be very nearly the actual number of inhabitants in each city. At all events, it fairly shows the relative numbers. Comparing this population with the population reported in each city by the census of 1850 and 1860, we have the following figures:

Table with 4 columns: City, 1850, 1860, Increase. Reading: 15,748, 23,161, 29,869. Lancaster: 12,369, 17,603, 20,825. Harrisburg: 7,894, 13,406, 18,119.

The increase in the last three years may be stated as follows: Reading, 6708, or about 29 per cent. Lancaster, 3224, " 18 " " Harrisburg, 4914, " 36 " "

The ancient city of Lancaster, which was once much larger than either Reading or Harrisburg, has been distanced by the former and bids fair soon to be left behind by the latter. Reading grows steadily and rapidly; but at the present time Harrisburg is growing faster than any interior town in the State, as any one may learn who visits the place, sees the great number of new buildings, and learns of the demand for houses and the high rates asked and obtained for them. As Harrisburg increases in size, it is satisfactory to know that it grows in sound political faith. In former times, when it had a population of five or six thousand, it could be relied on for a Democratic majority of from two to four hundred. But at the last election, when it had a population of about eighteen thousand, the majority for Woodward was only sixty-nine!

"PATIENCE ON A MOUNTAIN" sitting on the dock at Wilkesbarre, waiting for dispatches from the American side, and sadly whistling—

"Do they miss me at home, Do they miss me, 'Twould be an assurance most dear, To know that this moment the loved ones Were saying 'I wish she were here.'"

THE BELL RINGERS ARE COMING!—The Blaisdell Brothers' Swiss Bell Ringers are coming, and will give one of their grand musical entertainments in Brant's Hall, in this city, on Friday evening next. This excellent troupe is well known throughout our State, and has the reputation of being the best company of Bell Ringers now traveling. Not a word of praise is needed from our hands. We would remind our citizens that but one entertainment can be expected from the troupe, as the Hall was previously engaged for the other evenings they had intended remaining here. Don't fail to attend on Friday evening.

AN ITEM EVERY MAN SHOULD READ.—We have probably all of us met with instances in which a word heedlessly spoken against the reputation of a female has been magnified by malicious minds until the cloud has become dark enough to overshadow her whole existence. To those who are accustomed—not necessarily from bad motives, but from thoughtlessness—to speak lightly of females, we recommend these "hints" as worthy of consideration: "Never use a lady's name in an improper place, at an improper time, or in mixed company. Never make any assertions about her, that you think are untrue allusions or that you feel she herself would blush to hear. When you meet men who do not scruple to make use of a woman's name in a reckless and unprincipled manner, shun them, for they are the very worst members of the community—men lost to every sense of honor—every feeling of humanity. Many a good and worthy woman's character has been forever ruined and her heart broken by a lie, manufactured by some villain, and repeated where it should not have been, and in the presence of those whose little judgment could not deter them from circulating the foul and bragging report. A slander is soon propagated, and the smallest thing derogatory to a woman's character will fly on the wings of the wind and magnify as it circulates until its monstrous weight crushes the poor, unfortunate victim. Respect the name of woman, for your mother and sisters are women; and as you would have their fair name untarnished, and their lives unembittered by the slanderer's biting tongue, heed the ill that your own words may bring upon the mother, the sister, or the wife of some fellow creature."

A CARD.—I am requested to state that the "Aureator" announced to appear in the exhibition of the Ghost this evening, at Brant's Hall, are not members of the Harrisburg Theatrical Association.

MISS HIGHTLER'S PARTY.—Good morning, January, as you go to Miss Hightler's party on Thursday evening? Yes, cousin, and have called to ask you to accompany me a shopping this morning. In looking over my wardrobe I find that I have nothing in the way of a dress that just pleases me. Mary Kline called at our house on Saturday, and had in her hand such a beautiful dress pattern that she had just purchased at Bowman's, the style of which pleased me so well that I braced up my courage, and with my best smile asked father for fifty dollars. Cousin, did you ever know me to ask for money and not get it. Reader, the beautiful girl received the money, and the greatest portion was spent at C. L. Bowman's Cheap Dry Goods Store, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS! Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years' trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivaled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN, LAWYERS, PHYSICIANS and CITIZENS.

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

DO YOU WANT SOMETHING TO STRENGTHEN YOU? DO YOU WANT A GOOD APPETITE? DO YOU WANT TO BUILD UP YOUR CONSTITUTION? DO YOU WANT TO FEEL WELL? DO YOU WANT TO GET RID OF NERVOUSNESS? DO YOU WANT ENERGY? DO YOU WANT TO SLEEP WELL? DO YOU WANT A BRISK AND VIGOROUS FEELING? If you do, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

PARTICULAR NOTICE. There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste distinguished by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life.

For those who desire and WILL HAVE a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following notice: Get ONE BOTTLE OF HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS AND MIX WITH THREE QUARTS OF GOOD BRANDY OR WHISKY, and the result will be a preparation that will FAR EXCEL in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the nameless Liquor Bitters in the market, and will COST MUCH LESS. You will have all the virtues of HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS in connection WITH a GOOD article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS! AND THE FRIENDS OF ALL BARRING or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposure and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion of the names are cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters":

PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862. Messrs. Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouchsafed for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who are fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working feebly, through unsuccessfulness, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try the Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE. We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
