West Virginia.

Sufficient returns have been received from West Virginia to show that the Union men have carried all before them, electing their Congressmen and other candidates by overwhelming majorities. These Union men in West Virginia, says the North American, do not county gave a majority for John Cessna, though occupy the same position as those elected in the joint district elected two Union members. sort of Unionism generally as the followers of Householder, elected by the vote of Somerset, Seymour of New York and Woodward of Penz-sylvania. Those of West Virginia, on the other hand, are decided, unqualified, unconditional Union men, who support the Administration in all its war measures, and have no trouble over since elected each its own member. the slavery question.

This is the result of the emancipation policy adopted by the people of the new State, which has separated them from the interests of slavery and identified them with the progress of freedom. They deem the value of the republic so far superior to that of slavery, that they cannot stop to stipulate for the salvation of the latter in preference to the former, or as a condition

The West Virginia Union men have had a will not be likely to repeat the error they committed in trusting him. He has been of service to us in warning the unconditional Union men of the new State against being misled into Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia, Tennessee and Missouri, these Kentucklans stand alone, and are likely to do so, unless they bles. change their ground, as we trust they will.

Since the untoward elections of last fall we have carried Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, Rhede Island, Pennsylvania, was unconstitutional. If that be true, then Delaware, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri, California, Nebraska, Nevada and Colorado. To this array we hope soon to add add two Uniou votes in the House, and leave Maryland, New York and all the rest of the loyal States. Outside of the copperhead metropolis, Gotham, there is not a more loyal State in the Union than New York. Some Seymour will not allow New York to be carried by the same means that triumphed in Pennsylvania. Now, although Seymour is Governor of New York, he does not carry the State in his breeches pocket, as the ensuing election will show. The people of the State will not ask to be allowed to vote as they please, and any effort of his to tamper with the right of the soldiers to vote will be futile. The Union men control four-fifths of the election districts, and will act for themselves.

The Armstrong District. The Pittsburg Journal, whose editor is a mem ber of the next Legislature, says by the Appertionment bill of 1857 the counties of Armstrong and Westmoreland were united to form a joint legislative district, and allowed three members in the House. This union was avowedly for political reasons, because Armstrong had an excess of taxables to entitle her to one member, and so, too, had Westmoreland for two members. In the same bill Bedford and Somerset were united and each allowed one member; so, too, were Cumberland and Perry, and each al lowed one member.
