plating Beffect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage: the MARRIAGE, prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes hlighted with our own.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an illimed sease of shame or the dread-of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befrigad him. IN SULUBLE CEMENT Seventy-two Toniof Metal at One Heat."—We have Is of more general practical diready noticed the fact that preparations were utility than any invention progressing at the Fort Pitt Works, in this city, now before the public. It has been thoroughly tested during the last two years has dition. As the seventy in an advanced condition. gun of such a calibro, however, is one of grea risk, it was determined to settle at least on point practically before attempting to mould the great gun, by melting, at a single heat, nearly the same quantity of metal as would be required for the twenty-inch. For this purpose Is a new thing; and the result of years of study; its combination is on the tough weight of each of the guns nearly as great as that of the columbiad fifteen inch.
These moulds were placed side by side in the pits of the new foundry, and on Saturday morning. pig of the new toundry, and on sactural incoming five of the furnaces in the foundry were charged, three for the special purpose of casting the great guns, and two for the ordinary work of the shop. The respective weights of these charges will give some idea of the capacity of these enormous furnaces, being thirty-four, pineteen, nineteen thirteen and eight and a half tong an agree part of nearly ninety four tons. half tons, an aggregate of nearly ninety four lors, and a far greater amount of metal, we believe, than was over reduced in furnaces in a single establishment in one day. Seventy-two tons of this metal, being the charge of the three large furnaces, were designed for the casting of the experimental guns. The metal was led from each of these furnaces to a large pool, equidistant from each of the moulds, and communi cating by two "runners" with the two "gates

About 1 o'clock the three furnaces wer tapped in quick succession, and in a moment three streams of molten iron were pouring into three streams of molten iron were pouring into the pool, from which, as the metal rose to the level of the openings, two flery lines shot into each of the moulds. The intense heat of the iron pouring along these seven streams, with the 11th corps, portion of the 12th, and Paline iron pouring along these seven streams, with the molten mass in the reservoir, seemed to have no extraordinary effect on the workmen, who performed their accustomed duties of skimming and clearing the moulds with as much indifference as if the glowiog metal surrounded them ence as if the glowing metal surrounded them and filled the air and showers of sparks were harmless streams of water. Familiarity with ger, but we believe that no accident has ever yet occurred at the works during the operation of casting. Notwithstanding the unqually cavatry command and ordered to report here.

The furnaces charged with seventy-two tons of 2 metal on Saturday have an aggregate capacity of Gyer ninety tons, and can supply that amount of metal if required, for a single casting. We have seen no reliable statement of the weight of the projected gun, but presume lifabits hough deatt, in the pt, will be between seventy and eighty, tons. The rough weight of the fifteen inch columbiad is about thirty-seven tons and the new gun will be nearly struce as heavy. THE TRIALS TO COMB. From the Richmond Whog, Oct. 24

Our citizens are awars that the coming winter will be one of unusual trials, and they are to overcome these trials by spontaneous liberality and not by law, by mutual assistance and not by law, by mutual assistance and not by law, by mutual assistance and not by mutual gouging. There is no restraint except that imposed by their own consciences; they are free to give or withhold, as pleases them best, being responsible only to their Maker and to each other for the part they are about to play in the trying scenes which must shortly come.

We think they may be safely trusted in this emergency. Already there are cheering indications of that true spirit of liberality and good citizenship which will do a hundred fold more than any maximum. The Sentinel informs us that Messrs. Haxal & Crenshaw seat one hundred barrels of flour to be sold at $27, while the price in the stores is from $65 to $75.

They promise to the city all the flour they hard and and all the tolls they may results.

appropriations for the distribution of provisions amongst the most needy; and the authorities, we understand, intend to continue these distributions." The Young Men's Christian Association is playing a noble part, as usual. All the churches and the civic societies are supporting their commonst to a great extent. These LATS tons, being, within two per cent. of the churches and the civic societies are supporting their own poor to a great extent. There were no begars here last winter, and with the spirit which is now beginning to warm the hearts of our citizens, sustaining the municipal last September; and swore that he was an alien, upon which he was exempted. On last Tuesday, he voted the Dimerat ticket, and on Friday he was arrested near Manayunk Bridge by Constable Thomas and brought to the Provost Marbidot to the Pro account of his travels in Blackwoods Magazine.

In this connection we must call attention to pondent of the Enquirer, that many of General Lee's colders are without shoes, and made the late of cance to Manazza and back again, through mud and mire, barefoot in These, are our peculiar champions. They belong to us and we to them.

It is continually asked "What are we to do for provisions this winter?" It is a serious question, indeed, where there are so many mouths to feed, and so little pro-pect of getting the requisite amount of supplies in the city to meet the demand. For that matter, the merchants have been unable to keep up a supply commensurate with the demand for twelve months past, and, though much privation has occurred, and some excitement engendered, we have managed to get along. In order to bring the question to a rolution, however, a reduction of the inflated population of the city will be roment of such comfortable country places as Amelia Springs, for the accommodati departments as are not actually necessary in Richmond, would effectually relieve the city of everal thousands of consumers, and, while benefitting the remainder, would insure comfort, cheap living, (comparatively) and the advanta-ges of pure air to such consumera. We can see no reacon why the clothing department, which employs so many women; cannot be removed to the country without detriment to the interests of the confederacy. The Labratory, with the ground burden and country with ects of the confederacy. The Labratory, with its several hundred operatives of both sexes, might, with equal advantage, be removed to some safe and convenient place, where, if necessary, temporary residences, could be erected for them. Some of the sub-departments of the several Cabinet Departments might with the same advantage be similarly disposed of. The question of supply at the places at which they become located would very soon regulate itself; for it is well known that the supplies of bread and meat in the country, in many portions at least, are largely in excess of the local demand. We give the suggestion, as it was given to us. We give the suggestion, as it was given to us, for what it is worth."

[From the Eichmond Dispatch] SCARCITY OF FLOUR.

An intelligent merchant of twiscity, who has peretofore been a large flour dealer, accures us that he has made strenuous efforts f r several days, past to purchase a lot of flour for the accommodation of his customers, but had failed to find any, even at the mills, and gives it as his opinion that there is no new flour in the market, and but little of the old crop. He shicks that farmers are prevented from sending in their wheat because they are required to gell it at $5 per bushel, and contends that the emoval of all restrictions on trade would cause grain to flow into the market, and prices to
