A GRAND PAINTING -Yesterday we visited the studio of our young artist friend, Mr. Harry H. Davis, and found him giviog the finishing touches to his painting of the great Battle at Gettysburg. It is a fine ploture, and will be greatly admired when exhibited. It represents the charge of Fickett's division of Longstreet's (rebel) corps on our left centre. The Blue Bidge looms up in the distance. In the middle ground is the house of Mr. Bliss. Near the Emmitts. burg road are seen two long lines of rebels, receiving the fire of our troops. In the first line we have a good view of the new rebel flag, eleven stars. In the fore-ground of the picture are seen the gallant men of the Second division, Second corps, Army of the Potomac, bearing has arrived in the train, and may be seen buy, ily aloft the Stars and Stripes.

DRIED BEEF. Michener s

your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouch ed for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended; and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. always on hand or made to order. Come and I am, and have been for the last four years, a try our Bread and Cakes. member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain B. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my ardnous duties, I was attacked in Noember last with inflammation of the lungs, ad was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then remov-ed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swal low anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my tomach. Life could not last under these cirstomach. Life could not last under these cir-cumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though un-successfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman more for me and advised me to see a clergy man and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Stein-bron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your bitters, and kind-ly procured a bottle. From the time I com-menced taking them the gloony shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, with the taken but two death receded, and I am now, mank you for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles. I have gained ten pounds, and I feel anguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of many of the wour Bitters will T owe the vague fears to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clamping to my boom those who are dearest to me in life. Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE. We sully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
