HARD ON THE SOLDIERS .- Last Saturday night was one of the coldest that ever drew its and intelligent, that no one would have sup dark curtain around the earth. It was bleak, posed for a moment, that they belonged to the bitter and intensely cold, and will long be rebitter and intensely cold, and will long be remembered in this latitude as a perfect freezer. In the midst of this terrible weather, the evening train from Baltimore brought hither a short furlough among their friends, after months and years of hard service on the field. When these heroes reached the depot, and sought lodging and entertainment at the hotels in the neighborhood, they failed to get accommodation because all these were full, and when the weary and travel worn fellows attempted to treat, they were rudely repulsed with the plea the best of authority that the custom of the that they had no right to the accommodations Spanish ladies has not changed for two hundred years. If we can import a lot of these feminines, we warrant that bachelors will be a scarce commodity.

The state of the second of the depot, where they had to be contented to dream away the time on empty had to be contented to dream away the time on empty so loudly clamor.
