TIONS are taught gratuitously.

Young men having a fair common school education, and physically sound, and especially privates and non commissioned officers in the army, who desire to command colored troops, are invited to become students of this School.

Those who already have military knowledge may review it, and be prepared for immediate examination at Washington: Those who are wholly unacquainted with tactics may remain until they are made pro-scient in them. Students, properly advanced, will be allowed to visit Camp William Penn, drill and train troops there, and practice as officers.

Three Sessions will be held every day, Sundays excepted, one of which will be a NIGHT

Each applicant must apply to the Committee for admission, by a letter of his own composi-tion and written by himself. Testimonials of good character must be laid before the Committee before applications can be acted on. If satisfactory, permission to enter the School will be forwarded to the applicant.

Further information can be found in pam-phlet, published by the Committee, which will be sent free to any one at a distance requesting a copy, and it can also be had at the office of the Committee, or at the office of this paper.
