

will be removed to Lexington, Ky., to-morrow. A special dispatch to the Commercial, dated at Cairo, says a delegation of the prominent citizens of Arkansas had arrived there en route to Washington, to arrange for Arkansas to resume her position in the Union.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5. The following is the message sent to Congress to-day by the President of the United States: Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives:—By a joint resolution of your honorable bodies, approved Dec. 23d, 1863, the paying of bounties for veteran volunteers as now practiced by the War Department is to the extent of three hundred dollars: It also provides that after the 5th day of the present month it should terminate. I transmit for your consideration a communication from the Secretary of War accompanied by one from the Procurement Marshal to him, both relating to the subject above mentioned. I earnestly recommend that that law be so modified as to allow bounties to be paid as they now are, at least until the first of February. I am not without anxiety lest I appear to be impertinent in thus recalling your attention to a subject upon which you have so recently acted, and nothing but a deep conviction that the public interest demand it, could induce me to incur the hazard of being misunderstood on this point.

The executive approval was given by me to the resolution mentioned, and it is by a closer attention and a fuller knowledge of the facts that I feel constrained to recommend a reconsideration of the subject.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN. January 5, 1864. The Secretary of War, in a letter accompanying the message, says no one seems to doubt the necessity of increasing the military force for the speedy termination of the rebellion; although much difference of opinion in respect to the merits of the system of raising troops by volunteers, and the payment of bounties, and the system of raising an adequate force by draft. Yet two things are certain: First, That whatever may be the weight of argument, or the influence of individual opinion, a large portion of the people in every State prefer the method of contributing their proportion of the military force by bounty to volunteers rather than by draft.

Second, That veteran soldiers who have become injured to service, even when paid a bounty, constitute a cheaper force than raw recruits or drafted men without bounty. The information received by the War Department from the armies in the field, prior to the passage of resolution of December last, indicating that a very large proportion of the forces now in the service would have cheerfully re-enlisted for three years, under the terms authorized by the order of this Department, and that such enlistments have been checked and will, in a great measure, be put an end to by the restriction imposed by the action of Congress, it is believed, that if any limitation should be imposed upon the payment of bounties to encourage the enlistment of the veteran forces now in the field, it might not be sooner than the first of February.

The Provost Marshal General in a communication says: "After great labor, the volunteers recruiting for the service under the President's call of Oct. 13th, is fairly in progress." Letters, all dated between the 20th and 24th of Dec., from the superintendents of the recruiting service in the sixteen States are in the main encouraging as to the prospects of getting a large number of recruits by volunteers. The enlistments in several States were in a fair way to raise the quota assigned them. The act approved December 31, 1863, forbidding, after January 5th, the prepayment to volunteers of all bounties except three hundred dollars authorized by the act of 1861, was not known at the time these favorable reports were made to me. I have no doubt that the effect of that act will be to check, if it does not stop enlistments. Of the one hundred dollars bounty provided by the act of 1861, but twenty-five dollars can be paid in advance seventy-five dollars being due only after two years' service. It needed some time after October 17th to get the people roused to the subject of volunteering. They are now in most of the States earnestly engaged in it, and I have reports from October, November and a part of December, showing that forty-two thousand five hundred and twenty-nine men have been enlisted, and the daily average of men is increasing.

Under these considerations, I respectfully suggest the propriety of a reconsideration of the act forbidding the payment of bounties after January 5. The communications were referred to the Committee on Military Affairs. Senator Wilson's new enrollment bill introduced to-day omits the exemptions, with the exception of those only who are physically disabled, and the Vice President, the judges of courts, the heads of the Executive departments, and the Governors of States. It receives as substitutes only those who are not liable to the draft, and the penalty of one hundred to one thousand dollars, and from three to six months' imprisonment, is provided as punishment of enrolling officers, who are engaged directly or indirectly in procuring substitutes.

NOTICE. IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Honorable Bank will make application to the Legislature at its next session, for the passage of a law re-chartering said bank, with its present name and style, location and privileges, and with a capital of two hundred thousand dollars. By order of the directors. S. D. WARD, Cashier. Honorable, July 4, 1863. Jy4doaw6m.

Medical. DR. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL.

Is the Vital Principle of the Pine Tree. OBTAINED by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medicinal properties are retained. It is the medicine that cures when all others have failed. A GREAT REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

I am constantly receiving such certificates as the following. READ IT! Da. WISHART—Dear Sir:—I had a very dreadful cough and sore throat for one year, and my whole system was fast giving way, and I was prostrated on my bed with but little hope of recovering. My disease baffled the power of all medicines, and in a short time I must have gone to my grave, but, thank God, my daughter-in-law would not rest until she went to your store, No. 10 N. Second street, and related my case to you, purchased one bottle of your Pine Tree Tar Cordial, and commenced to use it, and in one week I was much better, and after using three bottles I am perfectly well, a wonder to all my friends, for they all pronounced me past cure. Publish my case if you think proper.

BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS. Mr. WISHART, Sir:—I return you my grateful thanks for the discovery you have made in making a medicine that will cure Inflammation of the Lungs and Liver Complaint. When I commenced to use your Pine Tree Tar Cordial I was, to all appearances, near my grave. I had been for a length of time spitting blood, and would at times vomit it. My physicians (for I employed two) pronounced me past cure; but my sister had used your Pine Tree Tar Cordial, which did her so much good that she prevailed on me, as a last resort, to try it; and, thank God, I commenced to use it. I have taken twelve bottles and am perfectly cured, and am ready and willing that any person that is sick should call on me, and I will tell them what your Cordial has done for me. All my friends and neighbors were utterly astonished at my speedy return to health, for they had seen me vomit blood in a clotted state frequently. Publish my case, for I want every person that is suffering as I was to know of your invaluable medicine. Respectfully, JOHN WARD. 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., corner of Chestnut and Sixth streets.

Mr. WISHART, Sir:—I had the Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, and Palpitation of the Heart in their worst forms; I had been treated by several eminent physicians in Philadelphia, but they could not stop the rapid course of my disease, and I had despaired of ever being restored to health. I was truly on the verge of the grave. Your Pine Tree Cordial was highly recommended to me by a friend; I tried it, and am thankful to say that, after using four large and one small bottle, I was restored to perfect health. You can give reference to my house, No. 968 N. Second street, or at my office of Receiver of taxes, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., corner of Chestnut and Sixth streets.
