charges, Impotence, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Langour, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lunges, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders resulting from the Solitary Habits of Youth, those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the sting of scorpions, to the Mariners of Ulysses; blighting their most pill-lance hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN
Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that distressing and destructive habit, which, gradually progresses to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men, of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entered listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence or walked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE
Married Persons, of Young Men, contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debility, deformities, &c., speedily cured.

He who places himself under the care of Dr.
J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS
Immediately Cured, and full vigor restored.
This distressing affection, which renders life unpleasant and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impure indulgence.
Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lessened by those excesses, and that the "fruitful" habit, than by them.

colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has cured some of the most astonishing cases that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when sleeping, nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, heartiness, with frequent fainting, attended sometimes with derangement of mind
were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz:
weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervous irritability, symptoms of consumption, &c.

Pennsylvania Legislature

REPORTED EXPRESSLY FOR THE DAILY TELEGRAPH.
'SENATE.
FRIDAY, JAN. 8, 1864.
The Senate met at 11 o'clock, a. m.
The Journal was read.

ADJOURNMENT OVER.
Mr. RIDGWAY. I move that when the Senate adjourns to-day it will adjourn to meet on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

I would suggest that a mutual agreement be made by which if any Senator on either side be absent, the other side will not take advantage of that fact.

Mr. TURRELL. I would suggest that an arrangement of this kind be effected, that in case of the absence of any member a Senator on the opposite side will pair off with him.

Mr. CLYMER. That is fair.

Mr. FLEMING. I would suggest that Senator WURRIS be included in that arrangement (laughter). He is not in the cart.

Mr. CLYMER. He is not in the cart.

The motion of Mr. RIDGWAY was therefore agreed to.

A MEMORIAL.
Mr. CONNELL. I present a memorial of the members of the Board of Controllers of the First school district, praying for the enactment of a law to provide for old and faithful school teachers.

Laid on the table.

ANNIVERSARY OF JACKSON'S VICTORY.
Mr. WORTHINGTON. I offer the following resolution:
Resolved, That this day being the first anniversary of the great victory achieved by Gen. Jackson over the British army at New Orleans, and in appreciation of his patriotic devotion to the Union which President of the United States, we deem it highly proper to appropriate a portion of our session this morning to the reading by the Clerk at 12 o'clock, his Proclamation and Farewell Address to the people of the United States.

On the question, Will the Senate proceed to
a second reading of the resolution?
Aye—Messrs. Champey, Connell, Dunlap, Fleming, Graham, Hoge, Householder, John-
son, Lowry, McCallister, Nichols, Ridgway, Turrell, Wilson, Worthington and Penney,
Speakers—16.

NAYS—Messrs. Beardslee, Bucher, Clymer,
Donovan, Glaz, Hopkins, Kinsey, Lamberton,
Latta, McSherry, Montgomery, Rellly, Smith,
Stark, Stein and Wallace—16.

So the question was determined in the negative.

PAY OF ARMY AND NAVY OFFICERS AND PRIVATE.
Mr. GRAHAM. I offer the following resolution:
Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania urge upon the Congress of the United States the propriety of increasing the pay of the officers and privates of the army and navy, the former twenty-five and the private one-hundred per cent.

On the question, Will the Senate proceed to
a second reading of the resolution?
The yeas and nays were required by Mr.
KINSEY and Mr. DONOVAN, and were as follow:—

YEAS—Messrs. Champey, Connell, Dunlap,
Fleming, Graham, Hoge, Householder, John-
son, Lowry, McCallister, Nichols, Ridgway, Turrell, Wilson, Worthington and Penney,
Speakers—16.

NAYS—Messrs. Beardslee, Bucher, Clymer,
Donovan, Glaz, Hopkins, Kinsey, Lamberton,
Latta, McSherry, Montgomery, Rellly, Smith,
Stark, Stein and Wallace—16.

So the question was determined in the negative.

ORGANIZATION.
Mr. BEARDSLEE. Believing that the only business that can properly be considered before the Senate at this time is that of organizing, I therefore move that we proceed to a further ballot for Speaker.

On the motion,
The yeas and nays were required by Mr.
LOWRY and Mr. WILSON, and were as follow:—

YEAS—Messrs. Beardslee, Bucher, Clymer,
Donovan, Glaz, Hopkins, Kinsey, Lamberton,
Latta, McSherry, Montgomery, Rellly, Smith,
Stark, Stein and Wallace—16.

NAYS—Messrs. Champey, Connell, Dunlap,
Fleming, Graham, Hoge, Householder, John-
son, Lowry, McCallister, Nichols, Ridgway, Turrell, Wilson, Worthington and Penney,
Speakers—16.

So the question was determined in the negative.

During the call,
Mr. GRAHAM said: Mr. Speaker, I vote because I think that we have already a Speaker and that we are now organized and prepared to do business.

Mr. HOPKINS said: I vote, Mr. Speaker, because I believe we are not organized.

Mr. LOWRY said: Mr. Speaker, I will vote with the opposite side of the house if any gentleman on that side will say that he expects by another vote to elect a Speaker. It is merely for the purpose of still further trifling with the country, as they have been doing, I will vote no.

Mr. STEIN. If the Senator from Erie will pledge himself to vote with me I have no doubt we will be able to elect a Speaker.

Mr. TURRELL said: For one I would have no objection to giving our friends a chance to vote once a day on the question of electing a Speaker, for the reason that every man should have time for repentance, but I cannot vote on this motion in view of the motives which I conceive to have prompted it.

The result of the vote was then announced as above stated.

REGULAR BUSINESS.
Mr. CONNELL. I offer the following resolution: Resolved, That the Senate, having eleven times decided by ballot not to change the Speaker, it will now proceed with the regular business of the session.

On the question, Will the Senate proceed to
a second reading of the resolution?
The yeas and nays were required by Mr.
DONOVAN and Mr. LAMBERTON, and were as follow:—

YEAS—Messrs. Champey, Connell, Dunlap,
Fleming, Graham, Hoge, Householder, Johnson, Lowry, McCallister, Nichols, Ridgway, Turrell, Wilson, Worthington and Penney, Speakers—16.

FROM MASSACHUSETTS.

THE MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR ANDREW.
Boston, Jan. 8.
The annual message of Gov. Andrew was delivered to-day. It is very lengthy.
The receipts in the State Treasury for 1863 were $7,220,000, and the payments $6,728,000.
He recommends that the revenue act providing for bounties, and also those in aid of the families of volunteers, be extended to meet the needs of persons enlisting as soldiers in the regular army and credited to this Commonwealth in the same manner as all State volunteers. He also recommends that such modification be made to laws relating to the State resist to the families of soldiers as to include all such families, irrespective of residence, and to authorize relief to be given when the situation of the family may require it.

A reasonable hope is expressed, that the United States General Hospital will be established in this State.

The establishment of a military academy under the patronage of the Commonwealth is urged.

The total number of men furnished to the land service by Massachusetts previous to October 18th, 1863, was 75,000.

Governor Andrew argues at length in favor of extending our warred regiments on the fields where these regiments have borne the national flag with honor, and in every State that they have helped to grasp from the rebel usurpation. Every man who might thus add to the national Union, one soldier added to the army of the Union, one less possible victim of rebel conscription, one Union man of the South enjoying in the form of Massachusetts bounty some compensation for the waste and loss with which the rebellion had visited him.

ORGANIZATION.
Mr. KINSEY. I move that the Senate proceed to a further ballot for Speaker.

On the motion,
The yeas and nays were required by Mr.
KINSEY and Mr. STEIN, and were as follow:—

YEAS—Messrs. Beardslee, Bucher, Clymer,
Donovan, Glaz, Hopkins, Kinsey, Lamberton,
Latta, McSherry, Montgomery, Rellly, Smith,
Stark, Stein, Turrell, Wallace, Worthington
and Penney, Speakers—16.

NAYS—Messrs. Champey, Graham, Householder and Wilson—4.

So the motion was agreed to, and a further ballot was taken with the following result:
YEAS—Messrs. Beardslee, Bucher, Clymer,
Donovan, Glaz, Hopkins, Kinsey, Lamberton,
Latta, McSherry, Montgomery, Rellly, Smith,
Stark, Stein, Turrell, Wallace, Worthington
and Penney, Speakers—16.

NAYS—Messrs. Champey, Connell, Dunlap,
Fleming, Graham, Hoge, Householder, John-
son, Lowry, McCallister, Nichols, Ridgway, Turrell, Wilson, Worthington and Penney,
Speakers—16.

So the question was determined in the negative.

ORGANIZATION.
Mr. MCANDRESS. I offer the following
resolution:
Resolved, That the people of Pennsylvania, through their representatives, tender their profound and heartfelt thanks to Major George G. Meade and the Army of the Potomac, for relieving our native State from the hand of the rebel hordes, and hurling them back from the banks of the Potomac to the ocean, and we thus tender our thanks to the immortal dead who sacrificed their lives on the battlefields of their beloved country.

On the question, Will the Senate proceed to
a second reading of the resolution?
The yeas and nays were required by Mr.
DONOVAN and Mr. STARK, and were as follow:—

YEAS—Messrs. Champey, Connell, Dunlap,
Fleming, Graham, Hoge, Householder, John-
son, Lowry, McCallister, Nichols, Ridgway, Turrell, Wilson, Worthington and Penney,
Speakers—16.

NAYS—Messrs. Beardslee, Bucher, Clymer,
Donovan, Glaz, Hopkins, Kinsey, Lamberton,
Latta, McSherry, Montgomery, Rellly, Smith,
Stark, Stein and Wallace—16.

So the question was determined in the negative.

During the call,
Mr. CLYMER said: As with the resolution in respect to Gen. Grant, not only myself, but every Democrat here will vote for it.

ADJOURNMENT.
Mr. STARK. I move that the Senate do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to, and the Senate Adjourned.

The Rumored Raid on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad—Official Denial of the Report.

Baltimore, Jan. 8.
The rumor has not at any time the last month
been within twelve miles of our line.
Our passenger-trains have regularly run.
Except short detentions from snow-storms and the cold, we apprehend no raids or military trouble of any kind, and passengers have not been turned back as reported.

WM. F. SMITH,
Master of Transportation, B. and O. R. R.

The Late Railroad Accident.

Cincinnati, Jan. 7.
The inquest held at Dayton, upon the body of Mrs. Kitchenger, who was killed in the recent railroad accident near that place, concluded today. The verdict of the jury was that the deceased came to her death through the negligence of Samuel Stevens, train dispatcher, in not knowing positively that one train was held at Carlele before giving another the right of the road against it.

The Carlele operator was dismissed this morning.

Fire in New Haven—Loss of Life.

New Haven, Jan. 8.
The Hooley and Yarn manufactory of Messrs.
Ailing, at Birmingham, was burned last night.
The loss is estimated at $50,000, which is partially covered by insurance. An employe by the name of Cooper, was burned to death.
The establishment employed three hundred hands.

Death of Hon. Caleb B. Smith—Indiana's Quota Filled.

Indianapolis, Jan. 7.
The Hon. Caleb B. Smith, Judge of the United States District Court, and Ex-Secretary of the Interior, died this morning.
The quota of Indiana has been filled by volunteering. There will be no draft here.

The Chesapeake Piracy.

Boston, Jan. 8.
The Burgoyne learns that Blake, one of the leading pirates who captured the Chesapeake, has been arrested and handed over to the Halifax authorities.

XXXVIII Congress—First Session.

SENATE.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.
The Senate met at 10 o'clock, and the President's message was read. There was no disposition to enter into investigation, and a condemnation of the professional conduct of the Administration who indulged in attacks upon it.
Mr. Grimes hoped Mr. Hale would modify his resolution so as to confine the investigation to specific charges.

Mr. Hale had no choice of precedence, and mentioned that the Navy Department had paid for freight for supplies than they could be bought for in open market, and were Mr. Grimes showed that this was the fault of Congress in requiring supplies to be procured by contract from the lowest bidder. Further consideration of the resolution postponed till to-morrow.

Mr. Wilson then introduced a resolution providing for the expulsion of Senator Davis, owing to sentiments set forth in a recent resolution introduced by the latter, which, in the opinion of Mr. Wilson, incited people to treasonable insurrection and rebellion. Stripped of its verbiage, this, Mr. Wilson said, was his purpose.

Mr. Davis explicated that the language quoted in Mr. Wilson's resolution was a garbled version of his own resolution. What he proposed was that the people should rise at the polls and take the power of this Government into their hands. He would give this advice everywhere.
He repeated the terms of Mr. Wilson's resolution were against the terms of his own, and were false in fact. The subject was passed over, and the Senate resumed the consideration of the bill amending the enrollment act, and debated the three hundred-dollar commutation clause, during which Mr. Lane, of Indiana, advocated its repeal.

Mr. Wilson opposed striking out, and believed the country would sustain him. He believed the term of service ought to be reduced from three years to eighteen months.
Without a vote the Senate went into executive session and adjourned.
