The sporting season will not close until the first of February. Persons desiring to shoot birds have twenty days' time to engage in the business.

Two brakemen on the Oil Creek road were frozen to death on New Year's night, while in the discharge of their duties on the train. One of them fell frozen from the train, and the other lived but a few minutes after arriving at Corry.

The real and personal property of Dauphin county was valued, for 1883, at $12,528,140. The assessment of State tax thereon amounted to $32,828. The half mill tax (authorized per act of May 16, 1861), was $6,195. Number of taxables, 10,821.

These new ordinances passed by the council, appear in to-day's paper. One of them is the repeal of a former ordinance authorizing the erection of a bridge over Paxton creek at Paxton street; and another appropriates two thousand two hundred dollars to supply the deficiency in the appropriation for the ordinary expenses of the water works; the other appropriates one hundred and eighty dollars for the laying of water pipe.

SANFORD and several of his company arrived in town yesterday, and spent the day with us. Sanford assures us he opens on the 25th, at the expiration of Mr. Hitchcock's lease. Sanford looks none the worse of his trip to New Orleans. S. and his boys left this morning to perform at Hollidaysburg, and to-morrow evening, thence to Lewistown, after which the company has a furlough prior to the opening of the gay opera season.

CHANGE OF MARKET HOURS.—IMPORTANT NOTICE.—We would remind our citizens that the change in the hours of opening market will not take place until Saturday next. Wednesday's market (this week) will open at five o'clock, as heretofore. These attending market should remember this. But on and after next Saturday, the opening hour will be eight o'clock. The market master intends to enforce the ordinance in every case where it may be violated.

NEW BAKERY.—Mr. John Alcorn announces that he has opened a new bakery, on Broad street, between Second and Third streets, West Harrisburg, where he is prepared to supply bread and cakes at reasonable rates. Mr. Alcorn is an old and experienced baker, and was for a number of years superintendent of one of the largest bakeries in this city. He is now selling his bread by weight at the rate of five cents per pound. Persons in want of good bread and cakes, get the worth of their money will do well to go to him a call.

Bread will be supplied to customers in all parts of the city, and persons desiring anything in his line of business, can leave their orders at the bakery in Broad street, between Second and Third, or in Mr. Alcorn's box on the counter in the DAILY TELEGRAPH office. Jan 11-1w

A CUP OF COLD WATER.—In 1862 a western regiment of soldiers arrived here, when a large number of its men were taken sick. No hospital large enough to accommodate them was then in existence, at this point. The sick men were taken into the houses of our citizens, and kindly cared for. In one instance a little girl kindly administered to the wants of one of them. A day or two ago that soldier, on passing through this city, called to see the little girl above mentioned, and gave her a handsome present—stating that she had given him "a cup of cold water" when he was afflicted, and that he would never forget her kindness. A kind act, though small, does an immense amount of good, and is certain to bring its reward in some form.

THE SPIRITUALISTS IN SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—Yesterday afternoon and evening the spiritualists held a grand pow-wow in Sanford's Opera House. We anticipated that the brethren of the Tory Organ would report the efforts of their affiliates in full, and therefore did not take a note of what occurred on the occasion. But we cannot refrain from giving expression to the disgust which we experienced when the leading spirit sought in prayer to give religious phase to his efforts at juggling. If he had omitted the prayer, the proceedings might have passed off as so similar attempts of the mountebank and the trickster, but when the awful name of the Deity is sought to be mingled with efforts of this description, they challenge our disapproval and deserve the severest censure of the community.

Our good friend, Rev. Gates, has challenged the spirits, and it is proposed to have a discussion of the business of rapping as soon as a place can be secured to accommodate an audience. Rev. Gates has the ability to assist in exploding this monstrosity, but while he is doing so, he must look out for the Tory Organ.

FOR SALE CHEAP—Two horses and a carriage suitable for hacking. Enquire of Edward Balthaser, at Mrs. Black's boarding house, on Third street, between Market and Walnut. 10t

Y. M. C. A.—The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in their reading room, to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock. All the young men connected with the association are cordially invited to be present.

A PROTRACTED MEETING is announced for this week, in the first Lutheran church on Fourth street. There will be preaching every evening, and prayer meeting every afternoon at three o'clock. The pastor, Dr. Hay, will be assisted by ministers from abroad.

The county superintendents of common schools throughout this State will assemble in the court house in this city, to-morrow, by order of the State Superintendent. Important matters will be brought to the attention of the convention.

A FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. Caleb Barton, Sr., one of the oldest and most respectable citizens of Bloomsburg, Columbia county, was killed on the Bloomsburg and Lackawanna Railroad, about a mile from Bloomsburg, on Tuesday night of last week.

On Saturday last, as the "fast line" was coming east, and when near Duncannon, the fireman, Mr. John Holsendollar, fell from his engine, and was seriously injured, both his arms being broken and his head bruised. It is feared that he will not recover. He resides in Liberty street in this city.

COL. MONTGOMERY, editor of the Vicksburg Whig, and who, it will be remembered, rendered such noble service in the late contest for Governor in this State, is now in this city making arrangements to repeat his lectures on the subject of immediate emancipation in Mississippi.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Hitchcock & Co., who continue to give interesting entertainments at Sanford's Opera House. The performers are all fully competent for their parts, and general satisfaction is given. "Variety" is the motto, and we doubt not that all who are fond of the "spice of life" can spend an evening pleasantly at Hitchcock's.

A SUDDEN DEATH occurred at the house of Mrs. Focht, on Second street, on Saturday night. Mr. Daniel Neyhart, who commenced boarding there on Saturday morning, complained of feeling unwell during the evening, but was not supposed to be in a dangerous condition. At nine o'clock, the same night, however, he was found dead in his bed. Mr. Neyhart was a resident of Lewistown, to which place his remains have been sent.

M. H. LEE, No. 98, Market street, between Third and Fourth streets, furnished two more beautiful and elegantly finished canes, for presentation by parties connected with the Soldiers' Rest, on Saturday evening last. The presentation was made by officers and men connected with Co. H, 1st Provost Battalion, P. V., to the Captain and the Lieutenant thereof. The cane presented to Captain M. Shrock, was large and of the finest cherry, surmounted with a massive gold head. The other cane, manufactured of similar material, was presented to Lieut. John M. Shrock.

These canes were of the most perfect workmanship, and reflect great credit upon the mechanical skill and genius of this city. Indeed, Lee has brought the manufacture of canes to such a perfection as to defy all competition from abroad as well as at home.

THE HOLMAN OPERA TROUPE have consented to remain in Harrisburg during the present week, and will continue to entertain our citizens each evening. The Holmans have created an immense sensation in all the cities where they have appeared, and the crowded houses they have attracted here warrant the belief that they are worthy of patronage, and give a full return for the money invested in the purchase of a ticket of admission. We hope our citizens will not fail to see the Holman Troupe in their rendition of such grand operas as Cinderella, Daughter of the Regiment, Beauty and the Beast, La Sonnambula, &c.

This (Monday) evening, by general request, Bellini's magnificent opera entitled "La Sonnambula, or the Village Phantom," will be reproduced in grand style; to be followed by Master Alfred's wondrous drum performance. "Three too Many," a laughable operetta, will close the entertainment. In this Miss Sallie Holman will represent four characters. Go early, to get a seat.

The troupe goes to Baltimore next week.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—Before Algerian Klina.—The only cases before the Alderman since our last report, were sent there by Captain Whiskey. On Friday night Julia McKeel, Daniel Cushing and John Burns were the occupants of the lock-up. They were discharged on Saturday morning. On Saturday afternoon the above-named Julia was tipsy again, and was taken before the Alderman by officer Esig. She was committed to jail for five days, at the end of which time she will probably be "herself again."

On Saturday night Henry Weldon was arrested by officer Esig; James Allen; by officer Campbell, John Martzoff and Jacob Martzoff, by officer Callender. Allen was found in the snow, by officer Campbell, and had a considerable amount of money in his possession. He is a soldier. The two Martzoffs are foreigners. They were highly intoxicated, and threatened to bring ten thousand Frenchmen here to "take Rapsay Campbell's head off." Doubtless they have snuffed off the effects of mean whiskey, and are again in the possession of their senses. We don't think toppers should become beastly intoxicated now, as ten cent whiskey should have a better effect than the old five cent rattlefoot.

THOSE STEERS.—Mr. Alex. Koser exhibited his mammoth steers on the street in front of our office this afternoon. They were inspected by a large number of persons, all of whom pronounced the animals the largest, fattest and most beautiful that were ever brought here to be offered in our market. Mr. Koser will have them slaughtered for Wednesday's market, when all who want best of an extra quality can obtain a supply by calling at Mr. K.'s stand, in the market house.

Special Notices.
OUR SOLDIERS.—It was midnight upon a bleak bluff near the winding stream of the far famed Rappahannock; there might have been seen on Monday night last a company of federal soldiers on picket guard; the drifting snow, with cold piercing wind was their only shelter, and the tedious monotony of their duty relieved only as their watchful fancy seemed to hear the footsteps of an approaching foe, or when danger was passed, to let their thoughts carry them home to their wives and little ones. Reader, this is no fancy sketch, but should remind those who are their only shelter, and the tedious monotony of their duty relieved only as their watchful fancy seemed to hear the footsteps of an approaching foe, or when danger was passed, to let their thoughts carry them home to their wives and little ones.
