THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

HARRISBURG, PA.

Saturday Evening January 16, 1864.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS IN THE CITY I have appointed Mr. J. B. Zimmerman sole agent for the "DAILY TELEGRAPH" in this city. He will purchase his papers at the office hereafter, and serve them through an additional force of carriers, in every part of the city. As he will be obliged to pay cash for all the papers received at the office, it will be necessary oblige me by settling with him immediately. GEORGE BERGNER.

The Reliability of the New York Herald In the New York Herald of the 13th inst., the following paragraph appears as a telegraphic dispatch from Washington city:

GEN. CAMERON AND THE RE-ELECTION OF PRISI DENT LINCOLN.

Simon Cameron is here, as the bearer of the resolutions of the Benublicans of the Pennsylvania Legislature favoring the re-election Mr. Lincoln. Mr. Cameron's claim to the credit of having procured the passage of these resoluamong the strongest advocates of the election of Mr. Chase. Events have changed all this, and now the elevation of a man means the success of a principle, the enforcement of some vast policy in which is involved the good or the evil of the people. The quota of Pennsylvania in the approaching draft amounts to 30,000 men. In the State, at a rough calculation, there are at least sixty thousand soldiers—that is men who have had more or less experience in the field, and forty of these sixty thousand at least have been under fire, have faced and fought the for in some of the hardest battles of the war. It is this material that General Hancock now seeks to attach to his command. He comes to his native State in tions has taken the friends of Mr. Chase com-pletely by surprise, as he was surely counted now fight beneath his banners, to secure the the name of the brave Pennsylvanians who service, if possible, of entirely veteran troops, but he is of course also ready to enlist all who come zealously and ardently to serve their

-We may have occasion hereafter to refer before that body. But that there should have been a hesitancy, and even a refusal to pay claims after they were properly passed, when the Treasury was full of money, is a matter involving an injustice which others must explain, and which the soldiers will not permit to pass without satisfaction.

The Expulsion of Garret Davis from the U. S. Senate.

When the resolution to expel Garret Davis was offered in the U. S. Senate, we supposed got all her coal gratis from the Government.

Another neat case is that of an old canal barge called the Miss Mary, which was worth to admonish not only Davis, but all such as he. that henceforth no man will be permitted to insult, with impunity, the dignity of our highest legislative bodies, by the uttefance of rank treason. Congress has tolerated the utterances of the sympathizers with treason beyond the endurance of the people's patience. The proseedings of the Senate and the House of Representatives have been already too foully disgraced by just such men as Garret Davis. Hence the motion for his expulsion is well timed and judicious. If it has the influence to silence the voices of such noisy beraters of loyal men as Davis and others of his ilk, it will have effected its object; but if the country is to be outraged by the persistency of Davis and his companions in sympathy for treason, then the Senate will be only responding to what is the unanimous desire of loyal men, by the prempt expulsion of the traitor.

-The example of the resolution for the expulsion of Garret Davis from the U. S. Senate, could be profitably emulated by every legislative body in the country. The man who is not solely and wholly and conscientiously devoted to the support of the Government-who is not willing to facilitate the most rigorous operations to end the war of treason-is not fit to occupy a place in the councils of the State or Nation, and the sconer he is expelled the better for the peace and prosperity of the people.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Model Operations of Steamboat Owners

FORTRESS MONROE, Jan. 14. The Military Commission, now in session in Norfolk, of which B.ig. Gen. J. L. Wistar is President, have investigated another model teamboat operation.

The steamer Nellie Baker was chartered in February, 1862, at $350 per day. Capt. A. W. Cader, Capt. Ohas. Spear and J. H. B. Long, all of Boston, were the owners.

The Nellie Baker cost $19,800. She was in the employ of the Government about ten months, receiving $106,200 charter meney.— She was then sold to the United States for $42,000, the owners realizing the sum of $148,-000. In addition to this the profits derived sold, or employ agents who will work for the from the sale of refreshments was about $25 per day during the time she was running from Old Point to General M'Clellan's army, and she from $800 to $900. She was chartered in November. 1862, at the exorbitant rate of $25 per day, and remained in charter until she harrisburg. For further particulars inquire of any and the particular and the particular inquire of the particular inquire earned her patriotic owners $4,000. She was nominally a prison bulk, but the evidence goes to show that she was used a very small portion of the time. Her owners were the note John Corblentz and John F. Pickernell of Baltimore, who figured in the Grimes committee of investigation. The testimony thus goes to show that a most culpable lack of system prevailed in the Quartermaster's Department during the year 1862.

GEN. M'NEAL IN ST. LOUIS. Suffering in Arkansas.

St. Louis, Jan. 15. Brigadior General McNeal, commanding the District of the Frontier, arrived to-night from Fort Smith, under orders from departmental headquarters, to act as a witness in the case of Wm. B. Strachein, late Provost Marshal of North East Missouri. The General reports that the rebels in Arkansas are suffering severely from the cold weather, which extedded through out the South.

Kirby Smith, commanding the trans Missis singe Department, is ordered to march north. as Arkansians and Missourians refuse to go farther south. Desertors in large numbers are coming over into our lines, acknowledging the rebellion hopelessly lost.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. Capt. Frank Marston, of the Signal Corps o the Army of the Potomac, has been ordered to New Orleans, as chief Signal Officer of the Department of the Gulf. Accounts received, brought from the Army of the Potomac, show that the reported move ment of Stuart's Cavalry occasions no alarm ment of Stuart's Cavalry occasions no alarm, as it is not believed that he has a sufficient number of men even for a less arduous duty than a campaign on our right. If a cavalry movement is progressing in that direction, it cannot be of much magnitude.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16. The ice is very thick in the harbor and doing considerable damage to the shipping. The ship Daniel Webster had her quarter stove and 3 rudder carried away. The ship Compromise was badly chafed, and by careening lost her main yard. The ship Belle Wood, for Liverpool, was so badly injured that she had to be discharged, and the amount of damage done to at CARLISLE, Penna. her is estimated at $10,000. The brig Lucretia was badly chafed and lost her fore yard by careening. The steamer Sidon, which arrived yesterday morning from Liverpool has not yet danded her passengers, in consequence of the difficulty in getting her through the ice.

The ship Elizabeth Hamilton parted her moorings and lost her rudder by coming in contact with the ship Daniel Webster.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. Mr. Fessonden (Me.) stated that upon exam ination he had found that the opinion which he expressed yesterday in the Senate, that the commutation paid in released the State from their proper quota, was erroneous. It was im-possible to construe the commutation clause in any other way than that the procuration of sub-stitutes, or the payment of the commutation in lieu thereof, exempts the State from the quots.

Mr. Clark offered an amendment providing that the money paid for commutation shall be applied to procure substitutes in the district
