THE TRIBUNE ALMANAC FOR 1864 .- This popular and highly useful publication is now before the people. In its condensed form-with its varied fund of information, it is undoubtedly the most valuable publication issued from the American press. No family, no man of business, statesman or politician in the United States, should be without the Tribune Almanac. It is for sale at Berguer's cheap bookstore, Market street.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A intal accident occurred at Can v Curtin about ten e'clock to-day. The guards had stacked their guns, when one of them fell and was discharged—the contents striking and i stantly killing a recruit named George Moss, of Allegheny county. The ball also struck David Mace, of Battery L. First N. Y. Artillery, on the cheek and nose, but did not seriously injure him. Moss, who was killed, was about eighteen years of age, and had but recently enlisted.

THE BOARD OF APPRAISERS.—The Board of Appraisers on the Stuart raid, yesterday reported to Hon. John J. Peater the cases which they have heard up to this time—numbering three hundred and forty. We understand that the Board is now sitting in Adams county, at Gettysburg. Franklin and Fulton counties maity of ten per centum to their United States have been attended to. The members of the Board are Hon. A. O. Hiester, Col. Worrall and Jacob Weidle, Esq.

They then tried the window opening into the office, in which they partly succeeded, but the noise disturbed the watchman, who, seeing a light, thought the warehouse was on fire, and went to the window to see the cause, when the burglar threw a large knife or dirk through the glass, and struck Mr. Buck in the right breast, in the region of the heart, inflicting a severe, though not dangerous, wound. The dirk after striking Mr. Buck, fell on the floor. It is very evident that bke in thunder tones on Capitol Hill, on in it was the intention of the burglars to silence the watchman and then to forcibly operate on the safe in the effice.
