THE SCHOOL DIESCIORS.—We see by the School Journal, that immediately after the annual appointment of teachers in each district the secretary of the board is required to send a written list of names, and the schools to which they have been respectively appointed, to the proper county superintendent, with a notice of the day upon which the ensuing term of school, in the district, will commence, and the deter mination thereof, as directed by the board.

Poisoning of a Bride. -The Europe, o Frankfort, publishes an account of a strange case of poisoning at Wiesbaden, after a wedding dinner, at which about twenty persons were present. In the evening a dance was organzed, when during the quadrille the bride. Mdlle. von Puyenbrock, was taken suddenly ill. Medical assistance was obtained, but un mistakable symptoms of poisoning declared themselves, and the young lady expired a few hours later. Either from the grief occasioned by this unexpected calamity, or from the effects of some unwholesome food, the bridegroom died two days after in great agony. With the exception of a few slight cases of indisposition the other persons present escaped.

po ed ordinance, and pledge ourselves to sustain the Council in carrying out such measures as may free the City from the approaching draft. The preamble and resolutions were adopted by acclamation. Messrs. Col. Lamberton, Col. M'Dowell and John W. Simonton, Esq., addressed the meeting approving of the proposed bounties and their emarks were received with deafening applause Mr. HICKOK, President of the city council, being present, expressed himself favorable to the prospess of paying bounties, but he desired some expression of opinion as to the method of raising the amounts necessary to pay these bounties, whether the moneys should be raised by a permanent loan or direct taxation.

Mr. LAMBERTON then offered the to following resolution, viz.

Resolved, That in the judegment of the citizens of Harrisburg to pay off the said loan."

The resolution was unanimously adopted. Mr. Smull moved that the Rev. Dr. De Witt, who was present at the meeting, be asked to express his views upon the subject. The motion was agreed to. Rev. Dr. Dewitt arose and remarked that he heartily approved of the proceedings of the meeting, and that he would give all the aid possible to carry the wishes of the citizens of Harrisburg into effect. (Applause.)

On motion of Capt. Awl, the meeting adjourned. Signed by the officers.

decl4-d2taw3m LIQUID EXTRACT

TARAXACUM.

The Concentrated Juice of the Fresh Root

A SLIGHTLY TONIC, DIUREITO AND APERIENT. It has a specific action upon the LIVER, exciting it, when languid, to secretions, and resolving the CHRONIC enorgements. It has been much employed in gorgements. It has been much employed in Germany and is a popular remedy with our practitioners in this country. The diseases to which it is especially applicable are those con-nected with the LIVER, and of the digestive organs generally. It is the best preparation ever offered to the public for that disease, and every person that is troubled with that disease should procure a bottle immediately. Price 50 cents per bottle. Made in our own laboratory from the fresh root dug in October, (the period of its greatest activity.)
