money to fill up their quotas, will find that they have not in reality furnished a soldier to secure exemption on the present call. The error is committed in this manner: Agents are now in this city from all parts of the State, looking after the veterans who have just returned on furlough. These agents make it a business to bargain with the veterans, paying each soldier a certain sum of money to allow himself to be credited to a certain district, when that veteran has already been credited and received a bounty. The locality of the enlistment of the veteran-where he was first credited, cannot be and was not changed when he re-enlisted. Hence the wrong of to be credited to localities only now offering bounties. In all cases, such credits will be disallowed by the Provost Marshals in the several districts. The people will at once see that if the double credit were allowed, the Government would get no soldiers while the

has been destroyed, and at length the way is clear, though the plots and the counterplots of such miserable demagogues and tricksters as Clymer and Lamberton, to secure the progress of the legitimate business of legislation. When the writs for an election to fill the vacancy in the Indiana Senatorial district were issued, it was confidently asserted, in copperhead circles in this city, that an election could gal-and that the Sheriff of Armstrong county, a Democrat, would positively refuse to recognize the writ. These declarations were made on the strength of the plots entered into in this city. The leaders of the minority in the Senate, were determined that the Sheriff in Armstrong county should be used as a tool to carry out their base purposes, and still further disgrace the State with the delay in the legislature. But the Sheriff of Armstrong county appears to ke an honest man, with too much integrity for the manipulations of Clymer and Lamberton. He recognized the writ for an election, as issued by Speaker Penney, and accordingly we find in our Kittaning exchanges, the proclamation of the Sheriff of fill the vacancy in the district, to take place the gold market.
