TO RETURNING SOLDIERS—Information Wanted.—Simon Cameron Mish, late Serg't Major of the Fourth Pennsylvania Cavalry, has been missing since the fight at Sulphur Springs, Va., which occurred October 12, 1863. His horse was seen to be shot under him in said fight, but nothing has been heard of Mr. M. since then. Any returning soldier or other person who can give any information concerning the missing man, will confer a special favor upon his friends by communicating the same to this office, or to Jacob or H. A. Mish. Feb10-3t

There is not a carriage maker or a wagon maker in Huntingdon. There is a splendid opening for a mechanic of the above class.

The old Mary Ann Iron Works, on the South Mountain, back of Shippensburg, have been purchased by a Reading firm, and a new furnace is to be erected the coming season.

A SUBSTITUTE FOR EGGS—Eggs are now retailing at from 30 to 35 cents a dozen, and are not to be obtained at that. As a matter of general interest, we will state that corn starch is an excellent substitute for eggs for culinary purposes, one spoonful of corn starch being reckoned as equal to a single egg.

Last night we saw a number of colored women beasily intoxicated, and rendering the night hideous with the most blasphemous language that we ever heard proceed from any individual. We hope that the reprobate who sold them the bad whisky which fuddled their brains may be attended to by the proper officers.

YOUNG BOYS OUT AT NIGHTS—We would advise parents who wish their sons to grow up to be respectable young men, to keep an eye on their associations and their conduct. We have heard young boys on the streets at early and late hours of the night, following in the footsteps of the most abandoned young men. The places where young boys most do congregate should receive the attention of parents. "As the twig is bent, the tree is inclined."

Fire—On Monday morning week, about 2 o'clock, the stable belonging to the "Traveler's Rest Hotel, in Shippensburg, was entirely destroyed by fire. The loss of Mrs. Matser, the owner and proprietress of this property, is about $600. In the stable was stored about twenty tons of baled hay, the property of Mr. J. B. Duncan, which of course was also consumed by the devouring flames. The origin of the fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary or incendiaries, and proper measures have been taken to bring to punishment those who may be found guilty of this aggravated offence.

ARRIVAL OF VETERANS—The Eleventh Pennsylvania Regiment, commanded by Col. Richard Coulter, arrived here yesterday afternoon. The regiment was originally in the three months service, under its present gallant commander. At the close of said campaign, they re-enlisted as a three years' regiment, and have proven themselves noble soldiers on every occasion. Now they have again re-enlisted for the war. They number about three hundred men. After a month's sojourn at home they will return to the field, with full ranks.

THE SMALL-POX IN HARRISBURG—A private letter, received from the country the other day, informed us that the small-pox was prevailing to an alarming extent in Harrisburg. There appears to be a rumor such as the above in circulation throughout our neighboring counties. We have the pleasure of stating that, to the best of our knowledge, there is not a case of small-pox in this city, or its suburbs. How the report of its prevalence here originated we know not, but presume the author of it was the individual who telegraphed from here a week ago that Impodan's cavalry was across the Potomac, and coming down the valley, to Harrisburg.

LABORERS WANTED—An advertisement for two hundred colored men, as laborers, in the Quartermaster's Department of the Army of the Potomac, appears in our paper to-day. Here is a fine opportunity for colored men. They will receive $25 per month and boarding, will always be at headquarters, out of danger of being captured or injured in any way, and will have light work to perform. The able-bodied portion of our colored population should give this matter their attention. They can get all particulars by calling on James Jeffries, Second street, below Mulberry.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE—This great institution is enjoying full and fashionable houses, and the entertainments are rendered very attractive. The Mummy, one of Sanford's great personations, has been performed the past three evenings to very laughable auditors. This evening a grand change is on the bill—Romeo and Juliet—Sanford as Romeo, and Myers as Juliet; also the Distressed Manager—Haven as the distressed; concluding with the phantom scene from La Sonnambula, in which the ghost appears amidst a blaze of Greek fire. We learn a grand dress night is soon to come off, at which the Governor and the heads of the departments will all be present. Those nights were made very fashionable last season. This being the first, there will, we presume, be a grand gathering of the elite.

POLICE AFFAIRS—Joseph Alderman Klime.—Yesterday morning, Joseph Gross, Daniel Foreman and Seth Coover, who had been arrested for participating in a muss with some soldiers, were brought before the Alderman, and, after a hearing, and paying their fines, were discharged. These men are said to belong to Middletown.

Henry Lininger and J. B. Thomas, two soldiers, who had become "obstreperous" through the use of ardent spirits, were handed over to the military authorities. A man named Carson, arrested for assault and battery, on oath of M. H. Smith, was brought up for a hearing, but the case was compromised between the parties. William Clark, a negro, was arrested for robbing a white man named Gottlieb of a sum of money. He gave bail for his appearance at court. Mahaleh Payton, who stole money and clothing from a Miss Anderson, on Strawberry alley, had a hearing and was committed to Fort Simons for trial at next term of court. Last night two drunken soldiers inhabited the lock-up, from which they were released this morning.

THE TICKET-OR-LEAVE MAN—This play is most decidedly one of the greatest dramatic successes that has ever been achieved. It was written by Tom Taylor, and first presented in London over two-thirds of a year ago, and has run every night continuously since then, and still occupies the boards of the principal theatres of that city; nor has its success been less in this country. In New York it was first produced at the Winter Garden, thirteen weeks ago, and is still drawing crowds of people, who can only obtain seats by securing them one week in advance. It was shortly afterwards produced almost simultaneously at three theatres in Boston, where it is still running. At about the same time the managers of the Philadelphia and Arch Street Theatres, in Philadelphia, produced and ran it for many weeks to an immense business, but were obliged to withdraw it in consequence of engagements made with other stars.

The piece is now running to great business in nearly every principal theatre in America. In Baltimore at two, in Cincinnati, in Chicago, and everywhere that it is possible to cast and play it. It requires a carefully selected and really fine company, for every part is a good one.

ROUSE'S COMBINATION TROUPE—The Hall last night was crowded again, as usual. The company is meeting with success never before known in this city. "Ingomar" was nobly played. The role of "Parthenia" was sustained by Miss Josephine Tyson, who played it in excellent style, and as we have before said, it shows that Miss T. is an actress of no small ability. "Ingomar"—this role was also well sustained by Mr. J. W. Jennings. When Mr. J. appeared before the audience it made one feel as if he was in the forests, among barbarians. In fact, the piece was well played throughout. Mr. Crossen, Mr. Dunn, Mr. Hall and Mr. Kent all played their parts with ability. The farce of "Our Gal" was played very well, but as we have spoken of this play before, we can say nothing new, only that Miss Fanny Denham, as "Our Gal," personated the true "Yankee Gal."

To-night the splendid five-act Drama of "Willow Copse" will be given. If you wish to avoid the rush go early and get a good seat.

The Star Troupe has already given nine entertainments here, and nineteen very large audiences have witnessed their performances, which have on all occasions been of an unexceptionable character. Every character is so well sustained that not the slightest defect is discernible. Every member of the troupe has maintained a good reputation both on and off the stage, since their arrival in our city, and as a body the company is the most respectable we have had in our midst. The play for this evening (the twentieth of the troupe here) will no doubt densely pack the hall. There is a splendid cast of characters, and each will assume "the one best suited to his or her style of acting." "Long may the Star Combination Troupe continue to entertain the citizens of Harrisburg."

UNION INSTITUTE—The teachers of South Hanover and Derry townships have formed a joint institute, and held a meeting in the Bethel at Union Deposit, on Saturday last. They had a very interesting time, and a number of subjects were ably discussed. Want of space compels us to omit the report of the proceedings. The following resolutions were reported by a committee and adopted:
Resolved, That Union Institutes should be held in the different sections of this county, the next school term, in lieu of a county institute.
Resolved, That every teacher should feel a part of his duty to recommend the Pennsylvania School Journal and Clark's School Visitor, to his patron and all friends of education.

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be given to those who so ably entertained us with their lectures, essays and to all who have added to the interest of the meeting.
Resolved, That the thanks of this Institute be tendered to the Harrisburg Telegraph, for kindly publishing the proceedings of our meetings.
Resolved, That the Directors of this county should increase the salaries of Teachers at least fifty per cent, or with a corresponding advance of the salaries of life.
Resolved, That we take this opportunity to reiterate our firm, unwavering loyalty to the Union, and that we will do all in our power to suppress this unholy, wicked and fiendish rebellion.

Resolved, That the heart-felt thanks of this Institute be tendered to the trustees of the Bethel church, (viz: D. B. Miller, Messrs. Peters and Boyer,) for the use of the same, and also to the citizens of Union Deposit, for their kind hospitality in entertaining its members so kindly.
Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Harrisburg Telegraph, Dauphin Journal and Pennsylvania School Journal.

TO THE PURCHASERS OF DRY GOODS—Another season of scarcity and high prices is at hand. Our advices from New York and Philadelphia say that already many favorite styles of goods are rapidly disappearing from the market, and in view of the movement in gold the general impression is that the advance in prices will be very great. C. L. Bowman, of No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets, has a large stock of dry goods on hand, and is receiving additions daily to his assortment, and respectfully invites public attention.

New Cumberland, Pa., Jan. 20, 1884.
DEAR LADY—Mrs. Ball, will you please pardon me for the liberty that I have taken in addressing you, a stranger, and I feel myself bound to you for the benefit I have derived from your medicine and eye salve, having suffered for many years most excruciating pain in my head, breast and side, not being free from pain day or night. And I have been doctoring with well-skilled and practical physicians for some years, and all attempts proved a failure. I had given up all hopes of recovery and felt fully resigned to await my fate, when you sent me an unforgotten letter. My father being a resident of Siddonsburg, and living quite a distance from you, I did not get to hear of your medicine—that has proved a wonderful cure indeed. Some few months ago I was advised by a lady friend of mine to try your medicine. She stated to me that she made use of your medicine and salve which proved a cure. Feeling rather loath at first to try, as it had cost me money time and pains, which made me express an unfriendly and all for naught. But having great confidence in my friend's integrity, I was prompted to hearken to her kind entreaty and try for myself. I therefore purchased two dollars and a half worth of your medicine, and to my utter astonishment, in one week I felt a great change, and in two weeks was entirely free from all pain, and the expression very heavy and all for naught. But having great confidence in my friend's integrity, I was prompted to hearken to her kind entreaty and try for myself. I therefore purchased two dollars and a half worth of your medicine, and to my utter astonishment, in one week I felt a great change, and in two weeks was entirely free from all pain, and the expression very heavy and all for naught.
