CONDEMNED government horses are now styled "veteran quadrupeds."

THERE was a tremendous crowd at Market this morning. There was a fair supply of marketing, and prices were about the same as they have been during the past month.

SEVERAL soldiers rode down Second street to-day, at a gait not authorized by our city laws. We have not heard whether they were arrested, but they should have been jugged.

MURDER IN COLUMBIA-An affray occurred at a German ball held in Columbia, on Thursday night, in which a man named Hogendobler was shot by another named Smith. Mr. H. died directly after being shot.

ONE of the Carlisle papers speaks of that town as being a city. We would like to know by what process the population was so largely increased as to entitle that borough to a city charter. A year ago there were probably six just below the Paxton Furnace, he commuthousand individuals there, including those of all ages and colors.

Lost Girl. - A girl eight years old, has been missing since yesterday forenoon. When last seen she was going in the direction of Camp Curtin. We have not learned her name. Her parents are deeply distressed on account of her absence. Any person knowing anything of her whereabouts would do well to make known the fact.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—A very distressing and pa inful accident occurred in the mill of Mr. Garre tt, in Manheim township, York county, on Mon, lay morning last. It seems that a daughter o. Mr. Garrett, aged about 14 years. was sent to the a mill on some errand, and while there some of he." clothing caught in the mar chinery and dragged her into a wheel which broke one of her legs in no less than four dif-

WILLIAM McFADDEN, refe. red to yesterday, as the bail for one of the parties connected with an affair that has already cru ated such a deep feeling of indignation in this city, entered into that security at the instance of the District Attorney, who desires to use the party thus put under bonds as a witness in the suits which have grown out of this affair. The people of Harrisburg know Mr. McFadden too well to believe that he would willingly save any one from the penalties of the outraged law, or that he would interpose an obstacle to prevent the full operations of justice in a case so flagrant as the one involved in the circumstances of the arrest made in connection with the Boston Criminal Life.

THE STAR COMBINATION TROUPS.—The twenty-first appearance of this splendid company was greeted by an overflowing house Every available spot was jammed, including the aisles and windows. The great Ledger story, the Hidden Hand, was the play of the evening. It is grand, and the Star Troupe render it doubly attractive by the manner in which they present it on the stage.

This (Saturday) evening will be repeated, positively the last time, the celebrated sixact drama, Uncle Tom's Cabin. The managers have only consented to repeat it at the most earnest solicitation of numerous citizens. Those who desire to witness this absorbing play should go very early, as there will un doubtedly be a tremendous rush to-night -Hundreds of our citizens have not seen Undle hall on former occasions, and they will be pre-

Ordination.-Mr. Frederick Fox, a licentiate of Lancaster Classis, will be ordained to the Holy Ministry, at 101 o'clock on Sabbath morning, February 14, 1864. Services will take place in the German Reformed Church, in Chestnut street, and will be conducted by Rev. Thos. C. Porter, Rev. J. S. Demund and Rev. Isaac Gerhart. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

REV. WARS WOOD, recently of Harrisburg, is blessed with a revival of religion in his present pastoral connection with the Hatboro' Baptist church, near Philadelphia. Among the accessions to the church are Gen. John Davis, formerly M. C.; Dr. Chas. H. Hill, late a member of the H. R., Harrisburg; and other influential citizens. Several churches in that region are enjoying seasons of refresh-

CAVALRY BRIGADE.—Col. John E. Wyncoop, of the 20th Pennsylvania Cavalry, has received authority to raise a brigade of cavalry, to be composed of the 20th, 21st and 22nd Pennsylvania regiments of that branch of the service. The 20th and 21st are already full, and the 22d is rapidly filling up. Under the gallant Wyncoop, the brigade cannot fail to be a terror to rebels.

REBEL PRISONERS.—A train containing about four hundred rebel prisoners passed through here vesterday, en route for Baltimore These prisoners were brought from Johnson's Island, and were in charge of a detachment of the 129th Ohio regiment. Among the number, it was said, was the notorious Jeff Thompson, the guerrilla chief. The prisoners were comfortably dressed, and looked as though they had been well cared for.

Accident.—Leg Broken.—A son of Mr. Daniel Wilson, of Third street, had his leg broken this morning, at the Capitol ground. A cannon was being removed from the arsenal, and as it was passing out of the enclosure, ran against a gate, which, falling, struck the boy, and fractured his limb. P. S.-Since the above was put in type, we have been informed that the boy also had his nose broken, and sustained other injuries by the falling of the gate.

OPENING OF THE SOUTH WARD BOYS' HIGH SCHOOL. -The Boys' High School, of the South Ward School District, formerly taught by Mr. F. U. Worley, will re-open on Monday next, at 91 o'clock, in the building in Mulberry street. Prof. Theophilus Weaver, the newly elected teacher, comes among us highly recommended as a gentleman of high literary attainments and good moral character. He is an experienced teacher, and we hope he may flourish in his new sphere.

"THE LOCHIEL IRON COMPANY."-An Imnense Enterprise—Employment for Five Hundred Men -General Simon Cameron, fully understanding the geographical importance of the city of Harrisburg as a point from which diverge railroads connecting with all the great business marts of the country, as well as appreciating our facilities for reaching the great iron and coal fields of the State of Pennsylvania, has long been considering a project for establishing, somewhere in the environs of Harrisburg, an iron works which should at once be a monument to native energy and enterprise, as well as a benefit to general trade and prosperity. Having satisfied himself as to the advantages of an exact location, and having, after careful investigation of the benefits of several localities, fixed upon ground between the Susquehanna river and the canal, nicated his whole plan to some of the capitalists of this and other cities, who gladly entered into the enterprise, and at, once gave the project a practical shape. In immediate connection with General Cameron were William Colder and Jacob R. Eby, who brought the business prominently before the capitalists of Philadelphia, Baltimore and Sunbury. In a short time a capital of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars was subscribed; one hundred thousand of which was taken by people outside of Harrisburg. This sum was considered sufficient to warrant the immediate commencement of the work. It is important here to state, for the benefit of the capitalists of the State, that the books of this immense concern, for the sale of additional stock, are still open; so that those who desire to make a profitable investment, need only apply to realize a handsome return on the capital in-

The works will consist of two main buildings, each three hundred and nine feet long, resting on iron columns. One of these buildings is to be used for heating, and the other for rolling the iron. The plans for these buildings are of the most extensive architectural proportions, and, when complete, will present an imposing appearance, adding greatly to the interest and attraction of that portion of the city of Harrisburg. The building committee, G. Dawson Coleman, of Lebanon: William Colder and J. R. Eby, of Harrisburg, with Benjamin Haywood, of Pottsville, have completed contracts for the erection of the main superstructure. They have also made contracts for the construction of three engines of stupendous power, boilers and other machinery neessary to the full operation of the works.

It is expected to have the buildings under cover by the 1st of July; and as soon as the machinery can be constructed and placed in position, the works will be put in full operation. To do this will require at least five hundred men; with which force it is calculated that there will be produced 70 tons of railroad iron per day. The practical reader will at once be able to appreciate the magnitude of such a production. We will not attempt, at this time, to estimate the vast importance of this enterprisethe invaluable benefit which it will confer upon the local prosperity of the city of Harrisburg—the influence which it will exercise on the traffic of the neighborhood-the wealth which it will create the labor it will organize, Tom's Cabin, owing to the crowded state of the and the importance which it will undoubtedly give us abroad. These must be estimated sent to-night, as this is the last opportunity as they are felt. That they will all be realized they will have to witness this attractive to a great extent, is not for a moment to be doubted.

SANFORD has a great bill for this evening, out the gem of the season will come off on Monday evening, when every lady present will receive a beautiful and witty Valentine, worth more than the admission ticket. Sanford has given Valentines the past ten years on St. Valentine's Day, to his lady patrons. This curiosity and novelty will certainly create a flirtation among the fair sex, and many a laugh at the curious. Lady reader, do not fail to be on hand on Monday. A great bill is prepared for the occasion.

SCARCITY OF DWELLING HOUSES.—There will be a great scarcity of dwelling-houses the coming season, particularly of small tenements. Rents have "gone up" in proportion to everything else, and our mechanics and business men in a small way are looking about for convenient dwellings at a reasonable rent. The emigration to our city is constantly on the increase, and to accommodate those who are here and to come will require a large number of small, comfortable dwellings. -There is also a great demand for moderate sized dwellings, for which good rents are offered. With such a demand as this indicates, with a certainty of obtaining a large per cent. on investments, is it not strange our capitalists do not erect dwelling-houses, such as are so much needed at the present, and no doubt for all future time? We hope our moneyed men will take this matter into serious consideration, and that they will conclude to immediately commence the erection of dwellings suitable to the demand.

OPERATIONS OF THE CHRISTIAN COMMISSION. -From the second annual report of the Christian Commission, held in Philadelphia, on Friday, we learn that the eash received at the Central Office and the Branch Offices during the year amounted to $358,239 29; value of stores donated, $385,829 07;_value of Scriptures contributed by American Bible Society, $45,071 50; value of Scriptures contributed by British and Foreign Bible Society. $1,677 79; value of railroad facilities contributed, $44,210; value of telegraph facilities contributed, $9,390; value of delegates' services, $72,420. Total, $916,837 65. Cash expended in purchase of stores, publications, expenses of delegates, &c., $265,211 23; balance on hand at central office, 1st January, 1864, $43,547 41; balance on hand at branch offices January 1st, 1864, $49,480 60; Christian ministers and laymen commissioned to minister to men on battle-fields and camps, hospitals and ships, during the year, 1,207; copics of Scripture distributed, 465,715; hymns and psalm books distributed, 371,859; knapsack books distributed, 1,254,591; library books distributed, 39,713; magazines and pamphlets distributed, 120,492; religious newspapers distributed, 2,931,499; pages of tracts distributed, 11,976,722; silent comforters, &c. distributed, 3,255.

TATTLING.—'It is a great thing to mind ones' own business," said a certain philosopher and he was right. It is a "great thing" to let other people's business alone, and this much is implied by the maxim above quoted. In our view, there is hardly a class of pests in modern society—and they are numerous—so superlatively contemptible as that class known as tattlers, or meddlers in other people's business. We don't admire a thief; we have no affinity for gamblers; abominate drunkards, and have no respect for misers; but either of these are first-class gentlemen in comparison with the jealous minded tattler, who goes mousing about in a garb of social respectability, poking his or her nose into the affairs of his neighbors, and seizing upon every tri-fling circumstance that comes within the wide swoop of his remorseless curiosity, for the purpose of making capital against those whose character he cannot understand because it is pure and above impeachment. The mischief making busy-bodies are simply an unmitigated nuisance, and should be frowned upon by all sincere lovers of social peace and happiness. The man or woman who can find no better employment than tattling, had better jump into the nearest pool of water and become food for respectable fishes. In that way the finny tribe would gain a little in their commissary department, and society above water would be immensely purified.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On the 28th ult., an accident occurred at the distillery of Mr. Levi W. Groff, in West Earl township, which resulted, subsequently, in the death of Mr. Daniel Balso, an employee of the establishment. From some cause the head of the doubling still was blown off, and the steam and whisky flew over Mr. Balso, scalding him severely, and setting his clothes on fire. Mr. Adam B. Groff, a son of the proprietor, who was present, promptly hauled him to a pond near by and immersed him in the water, and he afterwards seemed in a fair way of recovery; but, although he received all care and attention at the hands of Mr. Groff's family, he died on the 15th inst, and was buried from his residence in this city on Sunday. The deceased was a native of Germany, and leaves a wife and two children.-Lancaster

NEW CUMBERLAND, Pa., Jan. 20, 1864. DEAR LADY:—Mrs. Ball, will you please pardon me for the liberty that I have taken in addressing you, a stranger. I feel myself under obligations to you for the benefit I have derived from your medicine and eye salve, having suffered for many years most excruciating pain in my head, breast and side, not ating pain in my head, breast and side, not being free from pain day or night. And I have been doctoring with well-skilled and practical physicians for some years, and all attempts proved a failure. I had given up all hopes of recovery and felt fully resigned to await my fate, which foretold an untimely grave. My father being a resident of Siddonsburg, and living quite a distance from you, I burg, and living quite a distance from you, I did not get to hear of your medicine—that has proved a wonderful cure indeed. Some few months ago I was advised by a lady friend of mine to try your medicine. She stated to me that she made use of your medicine and salve which proved a cure. Feeling rather loth at first to try, as I had laid out money time after time, which made the expenses very heavy and all for naught. But having great confi dence in my friend's integrity. I was prompted to hearken to her kind entreaty and try for myself. I therefore purchased two dollars and half worth of your medicine, and, to my utter astonishment, in one week I felt a great change, and in two weeks was entirely free from all pain, and your eye salve perfected a cure for which all other washes and salves proved useless. My eyelids were so much inflamed that I was forced to wear glasses for some years, and now I have no occasion at all to wear the glasses, my eyes being well. I therefore have resolved, dear lady, to let you know that I could not rest content until I would return my heartfelt congratulations to you, my friend and benefactress, for the good you have accomplished, feeling myself a new creature entirely.

You are at perfect liberty to publish this if you feel so inclined. I close by requesting you to accept my warmest regards, with a hope that for humanity's sake, your life may be prolonged. Success be yours forever in performing the wonderful cure.

Yours with respect,
MARY E. BROWN. P. S.—For further information, address Mary E. Brown, New Cumberland, Cumber-land county, Pa. Mrs. L. BALL, No. 27 South Pine street,

SPECIAL NOTICES. The most disagreeable things in the world are a rank pipe and had tobacce; but we are happy to call the attention of our readers to a new article of smoking tobacce which can be smoked in any pipe and yet be pleasing and fragrant to those around him. This is the new Indian tobacce, Kin-ne-no-ne-aw. We have spoken of this article, but we now wish particularly to call the attention of the smoking population to it. Being so many times lately thrown into the atmosphere of bad pipes and inferior tobacce, it more than ever becomes our bounden duty to give it publication. There is, however, but one genuine Indian Kin-ne-no-ne-aw, and that article is always accommanded by the signature of the proprietor and manufacpanied by the signature of the proprietor and manufac turer, B. HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864. O. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Brouchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON,

Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864. To C. A. BANNVART-Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking; very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expecto rant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any

Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing th effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c.,

To C. A. BANNYART-Dear Sir: Having used your Bronchial Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.
