

CITY ITEMS.

Budd's Canterbury, in Walnut street, is doing a thriving business. The performers are all first class artists, and the performance is conducted in a style of novelty never before presented to the public.

KUNKEL'S DIAMOND CEMENT—For rejoining fractured articles of Glass, Porcelain, Bone, Ivory, Marble, Wood, or Shell, with all the elegance and durability of the original ware themselves.

KUNKEL'S PECTORAL CORDIAL—For Dry, Chronic and Catarrhal Coughs, &c. We can recommend this to be one of the best Cough Mixtures ever brought before the public.

HAGAN'S MACULOUS BALM—For beautifying the complexion, extracting Freckles, Eruptions, Sunburn and Tan, &c. Sole agents for this city, and for sale by the bottle, dozen or gross.

If you want any Patent Medicines, we would advise you to go to S. A. Kunkel & Bro., as they keep the largest and best assorted lot of said medicines in the city.

BANNART'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES for hoarseness and throat diseases, for sale at Dr. Miles' Drug Store, corner Third and North streets.

The celebrated crystal spectacles properly adjusted to the eye; microscopes from 100 to 700 diameters; tower telescopes, field glasses, defining an object from one to ten miles, and all kinds of optical, mathematical and philosophical instruments at Rosendale's Optical Institute, 8 Market Square.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

GRAPES.—Fine Catawba Grapes, just received and for sale cheap, at Wise's Fruit and Confectionery Store, Third street near Walnut.

FOR SALE.—A Dauphin county bond for $1200. Inquire of A. REEL, State street, three doors from Filbert.

FOR RENT.—Two brick houses, on Pennsylvania avenue, above the Round House. Rent $9 per month. Inquire of A. REEL, State street, three doors from Filbert.

The election of State Senator in the Indiana and Armstrong district will take place on Friday next.

The publication of the Lancaster Daily Inquirer is about being discontinued. Cause—a penny paper don't pay.

We notice that Barney Campbell, the Chief of Police, is again on duty, he having recovered sufficiently from his recent wounds to enable him to "cob around."

BRING IT BACK!—The fellow who carried away the upper part of one of the iron posts in front of the Jones House is requested to return it.

ORDINATION AND INSTALLATION.—Yesterday morning Mr. Frederick Fox was ordained to the holy ministry, in the German Reformed Church, and in the afternoon was installed, in the Good Will Engine House, as pastor of that mission.

BAPTISM.—Rev. James Collier, of the First Free Baptist Church, baptized two persons in the river, yesterday. One of them was the young Chinaman, Ping-Lo, who has been a resident of this city during several years past.

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY.—The fiftieth anniversary of the Harrisburg Bible Society will be celebrated in the Fourth Street Lutheran Church, on Wednesday evening. The sermon will be preached by Rev. John Walker Jackson, of the Locust Street Methodist Church, and a number of addresses will be delivered by other eminent speakers.

RETURNING HEROES.—The 105th Pennsylvania regiment arrived here this morning. As they marched up Market street they attracted marked attention. They bore aloft their flag-staff, to which were attached a few shreds of the good old flag which they nobly fought under on numerous battle-fields.

GOVERNOR CURTIS.—The Washington Chronicle, of Friday last, says: "A brilliant reception was held last night at the residence of Colonel Pulstun in honor of this distinguished son of Pennsylvania, famed alike for his energetic loyalty, his late hard fought but successful canvass in the face of a sanguine opposition, and his careful forethought for the soldier, which has endeared him to thousands."

WARNING TO SOLDIERS.—The city is continually thronged with soldiers who are on their way home to see their families and friends before returning to the war as re-enlisted veterans. Many of them have lived in camps for over two years without furlough until now. They are paid off and re-clothed on their arrival here, and feel an exhilaration of spirits consequent upon the change from dirty and ragged clothes to new ones, from empty pockets to abundance of greenbacks, that they hardly know what to do with themselves.

LENGTHENING—The days.

JEWISHISM ANTI-CRIPPLED.—In by-gone days, when calico was only one shilling per yard, all merchants had to contend with an everlasting, grumbling class of customers, that never made a purchase until they had spent a good half hour in "jewing down." But the high prices which have been "raging" during the past two years, it seems, has had the effect of diminishing that portion of the community instead of increasing their numbers.

THE LAST SLAVE.—The Washington Examiner notices the death of Hannah Kelly, an old colored woman, residing in Cross Creek township, and believed to be the last slave in Pennsylvania, at the extraordinary age of 103 years.

NATIONAL BANKS AS GOVERNMENT DEPOSITORIES.—It appears by a circular from the United States Treasurer, Mr. Spinner, that the regulations respecting the employment of the National Banking Associations as depositories of public money, have been modified so that any such banking association may qualify itself to become a depository of the public money, and a financial agent of the United States, by giving security in any amount not less than fifty thousand dollars.

THE LARGEST STEER IN THE WORLD.—We noticed in our local columns, some time ago, an account of the large steer "Gen. Hooker," owned by Mr. George Myers, of Mt. Joy, Lancaster county, Pa. The steer is about six years old and weighs three thousand eight hundred pounds.

HARRISBURG AWAKENING FROM ITS RIP VAN WINKLE SLEEP.—The reader must not expect us to give a connected detail of occurrences that have happened at Harrisburg for the last thirty years. It will suffice for our purpose to say, that the ancient borough, true to the instinct, industry and enterprise that characterized the founder of Harrisburg, is the genius of location, and in extending to this, his favorite offspring, (so to speak), his own name, has notwithstanding, a sickly condition or want of energy in earlier life, broke through the effeminate advice and care that guided it then apparently doubtful future, and to-day, as if in a disposition of gratitude to his far seeing founder, has, from his central location, and beauty, engaged the attention of capitalists, and the youthful old borough of our boyhood days bids fair in a few years to become a large and prosperous city, and in our humble opinion invites profitable investments from abroad—not only in city lots and houses, but in dry goods, especially at the cheap store of C. L. Bowman, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets.

THIS MORNING there were no drunks in the lock-up, but at noon to-day, a "valiant" soldier, who had swallowed enough Greek fire to fuddle the brains of a half dozen individuals, was escorted by an efficient guard to the "rest" prepared for disorderly characters. It was with considerable difficulty that he was placed in the quarters allotted to him, but he was finally engaged.

TO C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in line of need, most effectually.

TO C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that what has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

TO C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: Having used your Bronchial Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried, and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or hoarseness of voice arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c., G. G. KALKREUTH, Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.

him, knowing that he has money, to possess themselves of it. Officers will fall to do their duty if they do not do all in their power to prevent the soldiers in their charge from being freed.

CELEBRATION OF ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.—St. Valentine's Day will be appropriately celebrated this evening at Sanford's Opera House. Each lady who attends will receive a beautiful Valentine worth the price of admission. A splendid bill has been prepared for the occasion. In addition to a fine selection of sentimental and comic songs, there will be several laughable plays, viz: The Two Old Maids, Johnas and the Musician, The Irish Ambassador, The Street Warblers, and Box and Cox; besides overtures by the orchestra, etc. etc. Sanford will appear in various characters. Front seats are reserved for ladies accompanied by gentlemen. Go early. There is no danger of the supply of valentines "running short."
