The State Senate Unlocked. Private dispatches from Indiana and Armstrong counties announce the triumphant election of Dr. Thomas St. Clair, the Union candidate for Senator to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Major White, by a majority of twelve hundred. The vote polled nas very small; but the majority is much larger than was expected, considering the num-Ler of loyal men from that district in the army.

-This is the last act in the proceedings to end the dead lock in the Senate, and put a Etop to the machinations of the treason sympathizers in that body.

An Important Work for the People

Since it has been fairly ascertained that the great masses of the people are unalterably fixed in their resolution to re-elect Abraham Lincoln, the politicians who have heretofore arrogated to themselves the legitimate right to control such affairs, have entered into combinations to defeat the wishes of the people on this subject. So far as our own efforts will go, therefore, we intend to labor for the frustration of the schemes of the politicians; and as events develope the elesperation of the schemes concocted bylevery aspiring politician in the land, to defeat the people, we are resolved that the people shall know their friends, and hence we are determined to expose these demagogues to the just indignation of the masses. In the meantime we carnestly counsel the people in every district in the State, to indicate the men who are to represent them in a National Convention; and after the delegates have been thus fixed upon, let it be distinctly understood that no alternate delegates be appointed. If two sets of delegates are appointed to a National Convention, the politicians will cheat the people. This is a very important fact. Let the people in every county in the State give it their most careful consideration. Let the people henceforth rule in every assemblage that has any connection with the safety and the purity of the Government. Let them rise in their might, and crush beneath their heels, the cabals which corrupt politicians are now forming. By such a course, alone, can the people hope to rule.

The Indiana Senatorial Election. The election for Senator in the Indiana and Armstrong district, was all that was necessary to fix the stigma of eternal condemnation on the minority in the Senate. It will be recollected that the leaders of that minority exhausted their cunning in devising obstacles to frustrate the organization of the Senate. When those demago gues discovered that their parliamentary subterfuges were about to fail them, and that an election for Senator to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Senator White, would take place, the leaders of the minority insisted that such an election could not be held, that the Speaker of the Senate had no right to issue a warrant for its holding, and that it would be illegal if held. This was the last dodge. But how did the people of the who are supposed to follow the lead counties recognized the legality of the proceedings in the Senate, made necessary to the ordering of this election, by nominating a candidate and contesting at the polls for his election. Thus, the organization of the Senate was recognized by the people of both parties and thus the most withering rebuke ever administered to a corrupt faction, was dealt out to the demagogues of the minority in the State Senate. -This recognition, by the people of both parties, establishes the precedent of the or ganization of the Senate. It will now leave the majority with a high warrant to proceed at once to the discharge of the regular legislative business. The present organization of the Senate, is the legal, Constitutional construction of that body, prepared immediately for the transaction of business. This is a fitting termination of the struggle between the friends of law and order, and the faction which · has been able so long to delay legislation : It is a compensation, too, almost sufficient for all he evils we have suffered from the treasonable course of the faction led by Clymer, Lamberton & Co.

The Climax.

A few months since, we asserted that the climax, or rather the result of rebellion, would be infidelity. We desired to be understood by this assertion, to mean that the failure of the slave-holders to destroy a free government. would be the signal for the allies of the slaveholders to attempt the destruction of a free religion. The foe which made the effort in the South to overthrow the American Union, is the ally of infidelity. Slavery and Infidelity are twin sisters—both the prolific breeders of rebellion, anarchy and bloodshed. Hence where one fails, the other is ready with a brood of evils to plague mankind. This is verified by the movements of the sympathizers with the slave-holders' rebellion in the State of Ohio, who now propose to organize a new church in opposition to the church of the only true and living God. The Tory Organ a day or two since, alluded to this movement, by declaring it to be the undertaking of the people to get rid of political preachers; but since the announcement we have seen a copy of the Western Christian Advocate, from which we learn that the movement had its origin with such men as Dr. Olds and Virgil B. Shaw, of Lancaster, Ohio, both of whom are notorious own State predict that the leading Kentucky treason sympathizers, as well as avowed implacable infidels! Here, then, is the new church which the leaders of modern democracy are about to organize—a church with slavery for its corner. Will the War Department Remove the loss $22,000; insured for $17,000. A. Lorna, ganize—a church, with slavery for its corner, and infidelity for its cap, stone. We have been looking for just such a movement the last year. As the slave-holders fail in their ance, and to the fair decision of those who Belles, effort to destroy political freedom, the infidels are apprehensive for the success of our milipossible, to man's religious liberty. And such to see commenced in this region. Of course that sheet is prepared to advecate and defend infidelity with the same zeal with which it has devoted itself to the advocacy and defence of slavery!

Washington's Birthday.

The approaching anniversary of the birth of the Father of his Country reminds us, so far as our knowledge extends, that there have been no preparations made by the citizens of Harrisburg for its proper observance. There never was a time when the 22d of February deserved such honor, as its recurrence in a few days will demand. Well has a cotemporary writer remarked, that since the firing of the last gun which announced an acknowledgement of our independence, there never has been a period when there was so much actual necessity, and so much real cause to demonstrate our loyalty to the Union as at the present time. The failing spirit of the rebellion would thereby be made to feel and know that in the North there was still an abiding confidence in the righteousness of the war in which we are engaged; and further, that in heart we are enlisted for the perpetuation of the war until no such thing as Rebellion is known from the lakes to the Gulf of Mexico. The remains of the sire of Mt. Vernon are still within the boundaries of the Union, and the birth-day of the great hero is certainly deserving a proper tribute from those who enjoy the great blessings for which he fought through the darkest period ever known to a young but energetic nation.

Relative to the reasons why there should be n unusual celebration of the coming 22d in our city, we might chronicle an almost endiless enumeration. Beyond the display of our militia forces, it would afford an opportunity in which we find in parade the war worn vete rans who have come back from the camp and the battle-field, and are dwelling temporarily in our midst until they shall be called again to face the storm of leaden hail on the plains still held by those in arms against the General Government.

It would have also a good effect upon the regiments themselves. The men have never had an opportunity of showing themselves in the pride of their military organization, with the battle-torn flags and the trophies won by them in many gallantly fought fields. Nor have they ever experienced the public enthusiasm and the gratitude whice are felt for their services in the field. They have come quietly into our midst unheralded by the sounds attendant on an enthusiastic reception; they have quietly settled down among their friends, and, with the exception that they can be seen singly or in squads in our streets, we would in the meanwhile. scarcely know that they had for a time retired from the soldier's life. Such a celebration would give them renewed determination on their return to service, and the acknowledged appreciation of their services which it would afford would cheer them in many an arduous march and in many an hour of peril.

The above areas were computed by a competent person in the General Land Office, at Washington, and may be relied upon for their general accuracy, although in some instances materially varying from printed authorities found in atlases and gazetteers.

ALL IS NOT GOLD THAT GLITTERS.—The Cleveland Herald says that a Mr. Chase, who left Iowa some two years ago on a tour through the land of gold, has returned. He spent a month in Idaho, leaving some time in November. He gives "the other side of the story' -states that the mines of California are much richer than those of Idaho—that in the latter country they occupy a very limited space, and are very poor at that. It was estimated that 30,000 men in Idaho were out of the employment, and everything exorbitantly high. The climate is cold, and they have ice there in August. It is nothing uncommon to have four or five feet of snow, which lasts all through winter. Rather a discouraging picture without the usual gold setting. A SIGNIFICANT FACT IN CONNECTION WITH POPULATION. During the last sixty years, while the population of France has increased but thirty-seven per cent., and that of England twenty-one per cent., Prussia increasing seventy-nine per cent., in forty-five years, the increase in the United States has been five hundred and ninety-three per cent. No wonder the aristocracy of England say the Union is not desirable, because it is building up a nation too strong and wealthy for the rest of the world.

We submit it to the candid judgment of those who are now suffering from the nuiswill begin their work of putting an end, if tary operations, whether the recruiting service ever was in a more deplorable condiis the movement which the Tory Organ desires tion, so far as the influence which Col. Bumford holds, in the State of Pennsylvania. Committees are here from all parts of the Commonwealth, urging and fretting for decisions which this officer is either too ignorant or too timid to make, and which come directly within his scope of duty. Every case submitted to Bumford, is at once referred to the Department at Washington, when it was reserved for him, (Bumford,) at the time of his appointment, to deal with such cases promptly himself. In this manner, a ruinous, wasteful and harrassing delay is imposed upon recruiting officers, districts and individuals. We have been supplying recruiting officers and agents with blanks, which should have been issued by the Superintendent of the Recruiting Service, but the utter want of system in the transaction of business under the Bumford administration, thus results in the neglect of the simplest as well as the most important details of his department. If a draft is made neessary, in many portions of Pennsylvania, the people may either thank Bumford, or give the credit to the War Department in refusing to remove him and detail a man of brains and energy to conduct the public business. Why this change has not been made long since, we are at a great loss to divine. Perhaps when the full force of the evil thus being daily wrought, bursts like a thunder clap on Mr. Stanton, he will see the necessity of ordering a change. But then, alas, it will be too late to effect any good. In the meantime, we leave the responsibility of the irritation worked by the imbecile administration of affairs at this recruiting post, to the responsibility of the Secretary of War. He can remove the evil, if ne chooses; and if he does not choose, he must take the responsibility.

THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE appointed by the Chicago Convention, will meet at Willard's Hotel, in Washington, on Monday, the 22nd inst., under call of ex-Governor (now Senator) Morgan, to fix the time and place of the meeting of the National Union Convention. Five vacancies will be filled by loyal members of Congress. If the committee fairly take into consideration the advantages of every locality, they cannot fail to fix upon Harrisburg as the place for holding the coming National Union Convention.

WHAT WILL WE DO with the emancipated negro? is reciving its solution in Maryland. The Frederick Examiner says that negro laborers have become so scarce in that State that the agriculturists may entertain reasonable apprehensions about obtaining labor to secure the growing crops, unless a timely abolition of slavery in Maryland shall offer its attaactions the immigration of free labor

Major Gen. H. W. Hallack, General-in Chief, U. S. A., Washington, D C .: GENERAL: I have the honor to report that a portion of my commad, under Brig. Gen. Seymour, convoyed by the gunboat Norwich, Capt. Meriam, ascended the St. John river on the 7th inst., and landed at Jacksonville on the afternoon of that date. The advance, under Col. Geo. V. Henry, comprising the 40th Massachusetts infantry, the Independent battalion Massachusetts cavalry, and Maj. Stevens and Elder's battery, Co. B, 1st artillery, pushed forward into the interior on the night of the 8th, and passed by the enemy, drawn up in line-of-battle at Camp Vinegar, seven miles from Jacksonville, surprised and captur ed a battery three miles in the rear of the camp about midnight, and reached this place about sunrise this morning. At our approach the enemy absconded and sunk the steamer St. Mary's, and burned two hundred and seventy bales of cotton a few miles above Jacksonville. We have taken without the loss of a man, about one hundred prisoners, eight pieces of artillery, in service-able condition, and well supplied with amnunition, and other valuable property to a large amount.
