THE Secretary of the Treasury has caused to be issued a circular to brokers and banking houses, claiming one-eighth per cent. tax on the deposits lodged with them, under the law taxing deposits.

SABBATH DESECRATION.—Yesterday a party of negroes passed down Fourth street, beastly intoxicated. They had been drinking intoxicating liquids, and somebody sold them the fluid. Who was it?

ST. S. H.—At the regular annual meeting of the St. S. H., the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing term: President, M. Stutzman; Secretary, W. Forney; Treasurer, T. J. Scheffer; Librarian, A ·Cooper.

BAPTISM.—The ordinance of baptism was administered last (Sunday) evening, in the First Baptist Church, on Second street .-Rev. Mr. Robertson, of said Church, baptized two persons, and Rev. Mr. Colder, of the First Free Baptist Church, seven.

Two more pick-pockets had quarters furnished them in our jail. They gave the names of Kirkpatrick and Stapleton, and are sleek-looking individuals. They were caught in the act of committing a robbery on one of the trains coming to this city.

Owing to the severity of the weather, the annual sermon was not preached at the Bible Society meeting on Wednesday evening last. It will be delivered in the New School Presbyterian Church, on Wednesday evening of this week, by Rev. John Walker Jackson, of the Locust Street Methodist church.

WE have been requested to state that the Concert which was to have been given this evening under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, has been postponed until the 11th of March. Although the concert has not been advertised, there may be persons who entertain the idea that it would take place this evening.

CATHOART & BROTHER advertise a splendid assortment of Ladies' Dress Goods, of the latest styles; also Mourning Goods of every description—all of which they will dispose of at much below the usual rates. Cathearts are doing an extensive business, hundreds of buyers being attracted thither by the superior quality of goods, and the unusually, low prices at which they are disposed of. Give them a call, examine their goods and learn prices. You will find them next door to the Harrisburg Bank, on Market Square.

FOR THE LANCASTER FAIR. - This morning we had the pleasure of seeing, at a private residence in this city, a large assortment of fancy articles intended as a donation to:the fair now being held under the auspices of the Patriot Daughters of Lancaster, for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers. These articles consisted of children's clothing, ornamented in the finest style; ladies' headdresses, pin-cushions, etc., etc., and were contributed by a few of our city ladies, whose names we are not permitted to publish. The table on which they will be exhibited at the fair, will have a collection that can scarcely be excelled, either in point of beauty or value We feel assured that the ladies who so kindly contributed these articles will receive the hearty thanks of those noble women who are holding the fair, for their handsome donation.

A Successful Swindler. —A man of genteel appearance called upon a watchmaker in Market street, Philadelphia, a day or two ago, and represented that he wanted to buy some silver watches to sell again. He was shown the kind of watches he designated, and selected about five hundred dollars' worth, which he directed to be sent to the Continental Hotel, saying that he would pay the bill on the destore who had once been swindled out of jewthe county.

LEFT Town.—The Fifty-seventh regiment Pennsylvania volunteers, left here yesterday en route for the Army of the Potomac-the time for which the men were furloughed having expired.

The Twentieth Pennsylvania Cavalry have been ordered to encamp for drill, seven miles above Chambersburg, and left for that place to-day. The regiment is full.

THE TWENTY-SECOND.—There was no general observance of Washington's Birthday in this city, A national salute was fired from Capitol Hill, at noon. There was a fine display of flags from the public buildings and business houses. A large number of soldiers, jurors, witnesses, &c., were in town, and the streets presented a lively appearance.

The First Provost Battalion (six companies,) had a street parade in 'the afternoon. They made a fine display.

THE 22D AT CARLISE .- Oration by William H. Merriam, of New York.—The anniversary of Washington's Birth-day is being most approprietely observed at Carlisle. This morning an eloquent and impressive oration upon the Duties of the Hour, and the Relation of the Young Men of the Country to them,' was delivered in Union Hall, before the Union Philosophical Society of Dickinson College, by William H. Merriam, Esq., of New York, a gentleman who is visiting Pennsylvania upon business with his Excellency Governor Curtin. Mr. Merriam's address was well timed, and admirably calculated to arouse the public solicitude to the dangers that threaten the existence of the Republic. He is an energetic and persuasive speaker, and the matter of his oration will not be without its good patriotic effects upon the minds of those who listened to his glowing periods. At the close of the address, Mr. Merriam was unanimously elected an honorary member of

This evening addresses will be delivered by several of the students appropriate to the day, on the occasion of the Seventy-fifth anniversary of this learned society.

THE THEATRE. -The popularity of the Ticket-of-Leave Man is increasing. The rush on occasion. How long it is to continue, we shall not undertake to conjecture. Certainly the Ticket-of-Leave Man is one of the best dramas we have ever witnessed in this city, being so admirably cast as to prove exactly adapted to the varied talent and personality of the company. Mr. Rouse wins us more and more from the restrictive demands of comedy with which he has been so long identified, and exacts the highest appreciation of the resources of his genius in the illustration of intense, emotional sympathy, and the quivering pathos of the stricken, suffering heart. He is so ably sustained by the company that the brilliant success thus achieved is easily accounted for, as the drama is presented in a style that is faultless. This play will be repeated to-morrow (Tuesday) evening. Owing to the hall having been engaged by the Washington Club, there will be no entertainment by the Combination Troupe this evening.

Much credit is due Mr. Rouse for relinquishing the use of the hall for this evening. The Washington Club having occupied it regularly on the 22d for a number of years past, Mr. R. kindly consented to dispense with his entertainment this evening, although it was not profitable (pecuniarily) for him to do so.

WESTMORELAND COUNTY.-Jeremiah Hunt, of South Huntingdon township, who, a few days since, forged the names of some of his best neighbors to notes, was arrested in Greene county last week, and on Sunday committed to jail in Greensburg.---Recruiting is quite brisk in the county, and the officers in Greensburg are kept busy mustering in the men. The financial exhibit of the affairs of the county presents a most satisfactory and healthy condition. During the past year, of the debt of the county there has been paid $19,239 31, leaving only a debt of $13,650 00. livery of the watches. The proprietor of the to meet which there is over $14,157,18 due SENTENCED. - F. P. Hill, convicted at the last court for embezzling the money of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad company, and whose sentence was postponed by a motion for a new trial, received his sentence today, after the delivery of an able opinion denying the motion. He was ordered to pay a fine of one hundred dollars, costs of prosecution, and undergo imprisonment for one year in the Eastern Penitentiary. We shall publish the opinion at length in a few days,

A STRANGE PHENOMENA. - The Trumpet, published at Elizabethtown, Lancaster county, rélates the following singular phenomena:

An unnatural phenomena took place in Rapho township, three miles east of Mount Joy, on Thursday last, at the residence of Martin Inly. His daughter, aged eighteen years, died a quarter before eight o'clock. After the usual ceremonies were attended to, towards morning the attention of the mother was drawn to the corpse, when she discerned something unusual on the lips of the deceased Attempting to remove it, apparently a voice seemed to say, "Let it remain." Astonishment caused an examination, and the fact was, there appeared in the middle of the light and teeth, a complete rose-bud ready to open and on the left side of the bud a full bloomed rose-what florists call a double levy rose. On close examination it was ascertained that the bud and rose were a hard substance to the touch, and in appearance like ivory. It was perceptible that from the first and last was perceptions that from the first and last nights of the phenomena it enlarged.—
Thoughts were entertained that the removal of the body to the burying-ground (which was in a hearse and over a mile of rough road) might cause a separation, but the bud and recogniting and as when first seen only rose still remained as when first seen, only increased perceptibly in size. The rose and bud were as white as ivory, and supposed equally as hard. Many persons were eye-witnesses of the fact. The rose was very natural, and those not knowing the fact, felt satisfied that it was a real rose and bud placed there as an ornament; and reports caused many to witness the fact.

The disease of the deceased was measles, a relapse took place attended with a cold, which caused her death.

NEW CUMBERLAND, Pa., Jan. 20, 1864. DEAR LADY: Mrs. Ball, will you please pardon me for the liberty that I have taken in addressing you, a stranger. I feel myself under obligations to you for the benefit I have derived from your medicine and eye salve, having suffered for many years most excruciating pain in my head, breast and side, not being free from pain day or night. And I have been doctoring with well-skilled and practical physicians for some years, and all attempts proved a failure. I had given up all hopes of recovery and felt fully resigned to armit my fets which foretold an antimaly nopes of recovery and tell fully resigned to await my fate, which foretold an untimely grave. My father being a resident of Siddons-burg, and living quite a distance from you, I did not get to hear of your medicine—that has proved a wonderful cure indeed. Some few months ago I was advised by a lady friend of mine to try your medicine. She stated to me that she made use of your medicine and salve which proved a cure. Feeling rather loth at first to try, as I had laid out money time after time, which made the expenses very heavy and all for naught. But having great confidence in my friend's integrity, I was prompted to hearken to her kind entreaty and try for myself. I therefore purchased two dollars and a half worth of your medicine, and, to my utter astonishment, in one week I felt a great change, and in two weeks was entirely free from all pain, and your eye salve perfected a from all pain, and your eye saive periected a cure for which all other washes and salves proved useless. My eyelids were so much inflamed that I was forced to wear glasses for sometyears, and now I have no occasion at all to wear the glasses, my eyes being well. I therefore have resolved, dear lady, to let you have I have I ample I was to content and I was to cont know that I could not rest content until I would return my heartfelt congratulations to you, my friend and benefactress, for the good you have accomplished, feeling myself a new creature entirely. You are at perfect liberty to publish this if you feel so inclined. I close by requesting et-of-Leave Man is increasing. The rush on you to accept my warmest regards, with a Saturday evening was equal to those of any hope that for humanity's sake, your life may be prolonged. Success be yours forever in performing the wonderful cure.

Yours with respect,

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.

C. A. BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.

Yours truly, T. H. ROBINSON,
Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

Harrisburg, Jan., 1864. To C. A. Bannvart—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expecto rant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising com its too frequent use, and impairing th effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c., JNO. WALKER JACKSON.

Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNVART-Dear Sir: Having used your Bronchial Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons fflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing.
Yours, &c., G. G. BAKESTRAW.

TICKET-OF-LEAVE MAN. The LONDON TIMES, in speaking of this great moral drama, mentions a fact to which the Provincial Press of Great Britian and Ireland has given confirmation.

A clerk, who had absconded from Liverpool with £2,500 the property of his employers, and after visiting many places arrived at Birmingham, about five o'clock, and after taking some refreshments, went to the theatre, to while away an hour. As it happened, the piece which was being performed on the occasion of this visit was

THE TICKET-OF-LEAVE-MAN, and the guilty man seems to have drawn a moral from the representation; for when the scene in the interview between Hackshaw, the detective, and the "Ticket-of Leave Man" took place, Parker, the clerk, became so affected that he went out of the theatre, got three envelopes, and sent £1,500 back to his employers.

Oh! the prophetic rision of Shakespeare.

"I have heard

That guilty eventures sitting at a play."

That guilty creatures sitting at a play — Have by the very cunning of the scene, Been struck so to the soul, that presently They have proclaimed their malefactions.
