

CITY ITEMS.

DOLLARD'S Regenerative Cream, an elegant pomade for the hair, at C. A. Bannwart & Co.'s drug store.

BANNVART'S Bronchial Troches for hoarseness and throat diseases, for sale at Dr. Miles' Drug store, corner Third and North streets, and Dr. Wm. H. Eggle's Drug store, Ridge Avenue.

The celebrated crystal spectacles properly adjusted to the eye; microscopes from 100 to 700 diameter; lower telescopes; field glasses, reflecting an object from one to ten miles, and all kinds of optical, mathematical and philosophical instruments at Rosendale's Optical Institute, 8 Market Square.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

The weather continues pleasant, and spring-like.

B. F. McNEIL, formerly of the North American, has purchased the Bedford Inquirer.

The crossing of the river, by walking on the ice, has ceased. The ice has disappeared.

MARKET, this morning, was well attended. Prices were high, yet the demand caused a ready sale of all kinds of produce.

The Presbyterian, Lutheran and United Brethren congregations of Johnstown intend building new churches the coming summer.

The annual exhibit of the county finances will be found in to-day's paper. Owing to its insertion, we are compelled to limit our report of local affairs.

Over one hundred styles of pocket-books, portmonies and wallets offered for sale, at fair prices, at Keller's drug and fancy goods store, No. 91 Market street.

The officers at Carlisle Barracks say that this district is putting more volunteers into the service than any other in the Middle-District of the State.

We are pleased to learn that Major W. H. Hicks, of the 76th Pa. Vols., has been promoted to the Lieutenant Colonelcy of that regiment.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—The horrible expression "Bully boy with a glass eye," is considered endurable when rendered, "Taurine youth with a vitreous optic."

A NEW DODGE.—A substitute broker in Springfield, Mass., is said to have made much money by passing in toothless men, whom he supplied with teeth made of wax.

HARRISBURG BIBLE SOCIETY.—Interesting exercises may be expected this evening at the Presbyterian church, Market Square. Rev. Mr. Jackson will preach the annual sermon.

HUNTINGDON BROTHERS has an excess of forty men over and above her quota in the coming draft. Our friends there, subject to the draft, must feel decidedly comfortable in consequence.

The Harrisburg Daily Telegraph is out in new type, and its spicy columns look neat and clean as possible. It is the only loyal daily at the capital, and has a wide and increasing circulation.—Norristown Herald and Free Press.

NICK NACS.—Soldiers' small wares, such as pocket glasses, pocket combs, pocket flasks, pocket tooth and hair brushes, pocket ink stands, pocket knives, pocket books, pocket tablets, and an extensive assortment of fancy goods, at Keller's drug store, 91 Market street.

As the first of March approaches, the recruiting business increases. Our streets are thronged by our country cousins, who have come here in answer to the calls of their Uncle Samuel. The paymasters' offices are besieged by the recruits, who are eager to grasp the greenbacks allotted to them.

CONDENMED HORSES.—The Government advertises sales of condemned horses in March, at the following places: At Millifin, Pa., March 4, 300; Williamsport, Pa., March 8, 300; Altoona, March 11, 300; New Brunswick, N. J., March 15, 300; Lebanon, Pa., March 25, 300; Newark, N. J., March 22, 300; Easton, Pa., March 28, 300; Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 28, 300. These horses will be sold singly, having been condemned as unfit for the cavalry service. For road and farm purposes they are serviceable, and will undoubtedly sell at low rates.

THE GREAT FAIR at Lancaster, Pa., for the benefit of the soldiers, has been crowded since the day of opening. Jam-jam, is the order. The Hall is very beautifully decorated with flags and evergreens, and does credit to the ladies. The arrangement of tables is complete. As you enter the hall from Prince street, on the right and left are two small rooms where oysters, etc., are to be had. The first table on the right is the ice cream stand; that on the left for cakes. On this table stands the beautiful cake manufactured by Mr. Felix, of this city. On the right and left sides, the full length of the hall, are tables for the sale of fancy articles. On the centre are two tables for the sale of confections. On the second floor is the concert room, where tableaux are held during the evening. On the third floor is the curiosity room, and it contains a very fine collection. On the fourth floor is the picture gallery—this room is splendidly arranged, with a fine collection of paintings. Take it all in all, this is the grandest fair ever held in Lancaster, and as it is for a good cause the managers will realize a splendid sum for the soldiers in the field. During the first day (Monday) upwards of $2,000 worth of goods were sold, and the sale of tickets increased the income to over $3,000.

The greatest variety of hair, tooth, nail, cloth, shoe and ladies' brushes to be found in this city is at Keller's drug and fancy goods store, No. 91, Market street.

PHALON'S EXTRACT NIGHT-BLOOMING CEREUS.—The finest extract ever presented to the public. Call and see us, as we can only be found at S. A. Kunkel & Bro., No. 118 Market street, Harrisburg. feb23-3*

GOOD TEMPLARS.—Advance Lodge, No. 39, I. O. of G. T., will meet in Mechanics' Hall, Weyhing building, corner of Market street and Raspberry alley, this (Wednesday) evening. Punctual attendance is requested, as business of importance will be transacted.

FIRE.—The residence of Mr. Matthew Simpson, near Sarah Furnace, Greenfield township, Mercer county, together with all its contents, was consumed by fire on Sunday morning last. The family had barely time to escape—having to make their way over a burning stair-way in order to make good their exit.

RECRUITING STOPPED.—The recruiting officers of the 20th and 21st Pennsylvania Cavalry have succeeded in raising the number of men required to bring those regiments to their maximum strength, and therefore orders have been issued to stop recruiting for the same. Hereafter, the efforts of the recruiting officers will be directed to the great object of securing men for the regiments allotted to the command of Maj.-Gen. Hancock.

WASHINGTON LODGE, No. 1, Independent Order of Good Templars, will hereafter meet in the 'Mechanics' Hall, Market street, next to the Court House, fourth story, entrance on Raspberry alley, every Thursday evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock. All adjoining Good Templars, and especially our brother soldiers, are cordially invited to attend. Regular meeting tomorrow (Thursday) evening, at above named time and place. JNO. W. YOUNG, W. S. feb24-2t

FURLONGS TO RECRUITS FORBIDDEN.—Provost Marshals can grant no more furloughs to recruits, in consequence of the following order:

WAR DEPARTMENT, PROVOST MARCHAL GEN'L OFFICE, WASHINGTON, Feb. 11, 1864. Provost Marshals are hereby forbidden to grant furloughs to recruits enlisted by them, unless by special authority, in each case, of the Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General of the State or Division. JAMES B. FRY, Provost Marshal General.

WHAT'S that gives color to the cheek, For which so many daily seek? That's in its cure so quick and meek? Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. feb23-3*

A CURIOSITY.—A curiosity which has excited quite an interest among the curious in such matters was discovered the other day at Galion, O. It was the tooth of some huge animal, of a race or species of animals long since extinct, measuring eighteen inches in circumference, and weighing five pounds. It is a little petrified, but otherwise is almost as natural as it could be. Those who saw the tooth of the remains of the animal found by Hahn, near Bucyrus, say that this tooth is nearly as large again as those. It was found at the end of a marsh about a mile northwest of Galion, by a lad some twelve years old; not knowing its value the boy sold it for $1.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—Before Alderman Kline.—Yesterday morning eleven persons, viz: J. Mackison, Martin Swartz, John A. Young, C. H. Sponser, Jos. Crawford, James Donahue, George Warren, Edward Waterbury, Isaac Lyons, John M'Cooy and Andrew M'Cooy, were brought forth from the lock-up, and had a hearing before Alderman Kline, when they were discharged—some of them paying a fine. Drunkenness was their offence.

This morning eight occupants of the lock-up had a hearing. A negro woman, "Black Sall," was sent to Fort Simons for 30 days. The others, Jonas Slus, Michael Howard, Edward Jordan, Daniel Baus, J. Bechtel, B. Kunsman, and John Nelson, were discharged. They had been imbibing freely.

Tilgham Guyser, for threatening to shoot Joseph W. Stone, was arrested, and held for Court.

CONTINUED SUCCESS.—The crowd attending the twenty-ninth entertainment by Rouse's Star Combination Troupe, was as large as the one that greeted their first appearance. That great sensation play, The Ticket-of-leave Man, was again repeated, last evening. This is undoubtedly the greatest moral production of the age, and we are not surprised that it draws the people. There is nothing in it to which the most fastidious can object, and it enforces the adage, that "honesty is the best policy." Mr. Rouse admirably sustains the character of Bob Brierly, the Lancashire lad, in his desperate struggles between right and wrong—Mr. Jennings never appeared to better advantage than in his personation of Hawkshaw, the detective, and was loudly applauded when, throwing off the disguise, he engaged to convey Brierly's note to Gibson, the broker, whose character was assumed by Mr. Dunn. Mr. Kent appeared as the villainous Melter Moss, and Mr. Crosser as the notorious Jim Dalton, who hunted down poor Bob and sought to ruin him. Miss Fanny Denham, as the mischievous Sam Willoughby, was perfectly at home, and caused the old dame Willoughby (Miss Willford) a vast deal of trouble. Miss Josephine Tyson, as May Edwards, as usual, won the admiration of the entire audience, by the excellent manner in which she performed her part in the great thrilling play. We say to all our readers, do not fail to see The Ticket-of-leave Man. It will be repeated this evening. No pen can properly describe the Ticket-of-leave Man. It must be seen to be fully appreciated.

HAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM.—For beautifying the complexion, eradicating freckles, eruptions, sunburns and tan. Kunkel & Bro., sole agents of this city, No. 118 Market street, Harrisburg. feb23-3*

TICKET-OF-LEAVE MAN. TICKET-OF-LEAVE MAN. TICKET-OF-LEAVE MAN. THE LONDON TIMES, in speaking of this great moral drama, mentions a fact to which the Provincial Press of Great Britain and Ireland has given confirmation. A clerk who had absconded from Liverpool with $2,500 of the property of his employers, and after visiting many places arrived at Birmingham, about five o'clock, and after taking some refreshments, went to the theatre, to watch an hour. As it happened, the piece which was being performed on the occasion of this visit was THE TICKET-OF-LEAVE MAN, and the guilty man seems to have drawn a moral from the representation; for when the scene in the interior of Hawkshaw, the detective, and the "Ticket-of-leave Man" took place, Parker, the clerk, became so affected that he went out of the theatre, got some envelopes, and sent $1,500 back to his employer.
