FROZEN TO DEATH.—On Wednesday night of last week, a man named Riley, employed at Big Pond Iron Works, in Cumberland county, was frozen to death. Whisky was the cause.

SODA WATER, SODA WATER.—If you feel like drinking a glass of good soda, call at S. A. Kunkel & Bro.'s drug store, No. 118 Market street. Feb 23-3t

CONNECTION.—An error occurred yesterday in the notice of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, by which 1843 was substituted for 1863. The error has been corrected in to-day's issue. Attention is invited to it.

A VERY important proclamation has been issued by the Governor, relative to recruiting for other States. It is hoped that this respectable practice may be discontinued. The proclamation will be found in to-day's paper.

TO BE SHOT.—Private Benjamin Van Horn, battery F, First Pennsylvania Artillery, is to be shot on the 26th inst. for desertion. Private George W. Entelene, Company D, Sixty-second Pennsylvania, charged with desertion, is to be shot at the same time, in the presence of the Second Corps.

FAIR.—A fair will be held by the Sunday School and ladies of the New School Presbyterian Church, commencing on Tuesday next, March 1st, in Brant's lower hall. The proceeds will be devoted to the benefit of the Sabbath School connected with the Church. Our citizens should patronize it liberally. Particulars will be found in the advertisement elsewhere.

The police are responsible for the continuance of every gambling hall, bawdy house and rum hole in the city.—Harrisburg Telegraph. The responsibilities of the Harrisburg police are heavier than those of any other set of men we know of; why, in this city we don't have such things as rum holes, gambling halls or bawdy houses.—Reading Times.

Get the State Capital removed to Reading, Mr. Times, and you will soon have an abundance of those other "institutions."

THE SEVENTY-NINTH COMING.—We learn that the noble veterans composing the Seventy-ninth Pennsylvania regiment, under command of the gallant Col. Hambricht, will arrive here, from the field, in a few days. Two hundred and sixty-four men in the ranks, and a number of absentees have re-enlisted. This regiment has won many laurels—having been engaged in many severe contests with the rebels. The gallant veterans will receive a hearty welcome on their return home. The majority of them belong to Lancaster county.

In a NEW DRESS.—The Harrisburg Daily Telegraph has appeared in an entirely new typographical suit, and presents a clear and attractive face to its readers. The Telegraph has become a State institution; and is conducted, both in its business and editorial departments, with most creditable ability. It has done faithful service in the great cause of Liberty and Union, and for this reason, as well as for our kindly feelings for the proprietor, editor and business manager, we rejoice in this indication for its advancing success and influence.—Lancaster Express.

Dr. ADDISON.—It will be seen by his advertisement in another column, that he will remain a short time at the State Capital Hotel, and from what we can learn of his practice in this place, we are prepared to acquiesce in the following extract from the Miners' Journal, of Pottsville: "This eminent physician is announced to remain in Pottsville another week. His successful treatment of those who visit him has brought him great numbers of patients, some of them coming many miles to avail themselves of this opportunity to obtain what sufferers so earnestly desire—a cure."

TO COUNTY OR DISTRICT AGENTS.—An agent from the country will take his men to any office on recruiting service in this city; that officer is bound by his duty to the United States to enlist all the men who, in his opinion, are fit for service, without fee or reward of any kind.

After the men are enlisted, have passed the Surgeon, and been mustered into the service, it is equally the duty of the recruiting officer to give to the person who brought the recruit a certificate of the fact, that he may draw the premium of the disbursing officer.

Do not take your men to recruiting agents. Take them to recruiting officers, and if these do not enlist the men, or charge you for any service whatever, report the officer to the Superintendent of the Recruiting Service.

Agents are now actually discouraging enlistments by refusing to take men until the country agents agree to give up nearly the whole Government premium to their rapacity.

By attention to the advice given, country agents will have their men enlisted and credited without expense, and obtain the $15 or $25 premium which the Government has provided for them.

Over one hundred styles of pocket-books, portmonaies and wallets offered for sale, at fair prices, at Keller's drug and fancy goods store, No. 91 Market street.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM.—For beautifying the complexion, eradicating freckles, eruptions, sunburns and tan. Kunkel & Bro., sole agents of this city, No. 118 Market street, Feb 23-3t

FREE.—The house and barn of John Linn, in Tuscarora township, Perry county, were burned on Jan 27, Sunday week. The house was occupied by Mr. Linn and his widowed daughter. Furniture, clothing and provision in the house were all destroyed. Nothing was saved in the barn but the horses. The daughter is the widow of a soldier killed in service. She had only time to save a little money received as back pay, &c., of her deceased husband.

NICK NACKS.—Soldiers' small wares, such as pocket glasses, pocket combs, pocket flasks, pocket tooth and hair brushes, pocket ink stands, pocket knives, pocket-books, pocket tablets, and an extensive assortment of fancy goods, at Keller's drug store, 91 Market street.

COL. ROSE RE-CAPTURED.—Among the Union officers who escaped from Richmond and were re-captured by the rebels, was Col. Rose, of the 77th Pennsylvania Regiment. The Colonel and three others left Richmond together, and for two or three days succeeded in eluding the vigilance of their pursuers. When near our lines they were unfortunately enough to stumble on a rebel picket, who, as he was dressed in the United States uniform, they mistook for one of our soldiers. He soon undeceived them, however, by firing on the party, and the report bringing several of his companions to his assistance the capture of Col. Rose and two of his associates was soon effected. The third, to whom we are indebted for the above particulars, fell on his face in the brush, and by dragging himself on his belly through the close undergrowth succeeded in reaching a place of safety, from which he afterwards found his way into our lines.

BRANT'S HALL.—The Ticket-of-Leave Man, which has been so admirably represented during several evenings, will be produced again this evening. Those who have been accustomed to Mr. Rose's comedy, will be struck with the quiet and touching, the easy and natural manner in which he represents the character of Bob Brierly. The dialect of the Lancashire youth was maintained throughout with great exactness. The recognition of Hawkshaw was an exquisite piece of acting. The difficult struggle between the impulse to divulge his secret to his benefactor at what he thought the proper time, and fear of detection by irascutiveness and, tell-tale, expression of countenance—by no outburst, no noisy demonstration. The whole portraiture was as natural and perfect as it could well be. Mr. Jennings' Hawkshaw could not be excelled. He was repeatedly applauded, and nobly played his part. He has few superiors on the stage. All the other characters were capitally sustained. The first young Willoughby by Fanny Denham could not have been better hands. The garrulous old lady, by Miss Wilford, was perfect; and the gentle May Edwards by Miss Tyson won the attention of the large audience. Do not fail to witness this great moral play: Go this evening. Secure a seat early.

To-night the Ticket-of-Leave Man will be presented for the last time. Let not this opportunity of seeing it pass by unimproved.

HARRISBURG BIBLE SOCIETY.—The meeting last evening in the Presbyterian church, Market Square, in commemoration of the establishment of the Harrisburg Bible Society, just fifty years ago, was highly interesting, and has given a new impetus, in this community, to the noble work in which that Society is engaged.

The discourse by Rev. Mr. Jackson was listened to with marked attention, and could not fail to arouse every lover of the Bible to more ardent enthusiasm in the work of its universal dissemination.

The appeal of the Board of Managers to the Society and the public generally, for special contributions to constitute a jubilee offering, was liberally responded to, the following life-memberships being at once taken:

By Charles L. Bailey, five life memberships, $50; W. T. Hildrup, five life memberships, $50; David Fleming, five life memberships, $50; John C. Kunkel, five life memberships, $50; Jas. W. Weir, five life memberships, $50; Miss E. R. Haldeman, five life memberships, $50; E. H. Robinson, five life memberships, $50; James McCormick, Jr., five life memberships, $50; Albert Hummel, five life memberships, $50; D. W. Gross, two life memberships, $20; John A. Weir, two life memberships, $20; Mrs. Jno. B. Simon, one life membership, $10; Wm. A. Parkhill, one life membership, $10; Daniel Eppley, one life membership, $10; J. Walker Jackson, one life membership, $10; William Buhler, one life membership, $10; J. F. Sailer, one life membership, $10; Charles A. Hay, one life membership, $10; J. M. Vandiver, one life membership, $10; Mrs. Sarah Doll, one life membership, $10.

The effort will be continued throughout the community during the coming week by committees of ladies, appointed by the various churches, and we bespeak for them a kind and liberal reception.

Let not this semi-centennial jubilee of our venerable Bible Society pass by without a suitable testimonial of our gratitude for the possession of the Word of Life, and of our earnest desire to see it disseminated among all nations.

The Society has determined to publish the historical sketch drawn up, at the request of the Board of Managers, by the Secretary, Rev. Dr. Hay. This will be distributed gratuitously among all who contribute to the funds of the society. It will contain a list of the contributors to the Jubilee offering. That will be a roll of honor. Reader, will your children find your name inscribed there?

STILL THEY COME!—A hundred or more recruits, headed by an excellent band, arrived here this afternoon. They were from Selinsgrove. Uncle Samuel's patriotic nephews are rushing to the defence of our glorious Union.

ATTEMPT TO ROB A SAFE AT YORK.—Last night an unsuccessful attempt was made to blow open the safe of Messrs. Kurtz & Ness, malt dealers at York, Pa. The outside door was blown open, when the burglars, from some cause or other, gave the job up. Two men have been arrested—one at York, and Officer Shaffer arrested another on the arrival of the express train north, this a. m., at the depot, in this city. Officer S. took his prisoner, handcuffed, to York, this morning, on the Harrisburg Accommodation train. The accused was a man of genteel appearance, well dressed, probably about twenty-five years of age. We will give further particulars in our morning edition.

STILL THEY COME.—The city continues crowded with new recruits, of all ages and colors. The army is rapidly filling up, and so are the pockets of "loyal" bounty brokers.—Organ.

Would the tory sheet like to see in print the names of those copperhead lawyers of this city, who are engaged in the disreputable practice of speculating in the bodies and even lives of men who are inspired with sufficient patriotism (an article not possessed by these patriotic editors) to enter the ranks of the army? Will it inform us how many individuals connected with the Organ are engaged in similar speculations? It should be the last sheet to cry out against "bounty brokers."

PARDONED JAIL-BIRD.—This evening will be presented at the Opera House, on Third street, the great play written by S. S. Sanford, entitled the Pardoned Jail-Bird, or Ticket-of-Leave Man. The scene of this deeply interesting play is Philadelphia. Mr. Sanford will appear as Bob Brierly; Hall as Hawkey the detective; Haven as Jack Dalton; Myers as Moses, a Southwark Jew; Williams as Gibbons, a broker; Master Jasper, as Sam Wilby; Porter as Old Malt; Woods as John Smith, a "detective"; Villiers as Mary Edwards; Rudy as grandmother Wilby. This play will be interesting, and will attract large crowds. Sanford stands at the head of his profession, and is always introducing something new to please his visitors. In this instance he has struck a new vein, the result of which will be a liberal flow of greenbacks into his treasury. Go early, or you will run the risk of missing a seat.

What's that gives color to the cheek? For which so many daily seek? That's in its cure so quick and meek? Feb 23-3t

WHEN THE WAR IS OVER.—Arches of spruce and flowers met the view at all corners of the streets. The military in gayest colors marched to the tune of Yankee Doodle, and "See, the Conqueror Comes." Sable humanity seemed a shade lighter in color from very joy and happiness, and general rejoicing with its million voices echoed from the South, East, West and North, and praised God for the successful progress of liberty and civilization. The minds of tyrants were seriously exercised in English and French localities. All these things are supposed to have taken place when the war is over. At present the minds and fancy of those interested in handsome and cheap dry goods, will find large stock of new and reasonable goods to examine upon at C. T. Bowman, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets.

NEW CUMBERLAND, PA., Jan. 20, 1864. DEAR LADY.—Mrs. Ball, will you please pardon me for the liberty that I have taken in addressing you, a stranger. I feel myself under obligations to you for the benefit I have derived from your medicine, and eye-salve, having suffered for many years' most excruciating pain in my head, breast and side, not being free from pain day or night. And I have been doctoring with well-skilled and practical physicians for some years, and all attempts proved a failure. I had given up all hopes of recovery and felt fully resigned to await my fate, which foretold an untimely grave. My father being a resident of Sidons, and living quite a distance from you, I did not get to hear of your medicine, that has proved a wonderful cure indeed. Some few months ago I was advised by a lady friend of mine to try your medicine. She stated to me that she made use of your medicine and salve which proved a cure. Feeling rather loth at first to try, as I had laid out money-time after time, which made the expenses very heavy and all for naught. But having great confidence in your medicine, and eye-salve, I determined to hearken to her kind entreaty and try for myself. I therefore purchased two dollars and a half worth of your medicine, and, to my utter astonishment, in one week I felt a great change, and in two weeks was entirely free from all pain, and your eye-salve perfected a cure for which all other washes and salves proved useless. My eyes were so much inflamed that I was forced to wear glasses for some years, and now I have no occasion at all to wear the glasses, my eyes being well. I therefore have resolved, dear lady, to let you know that I could not rest content until I would return my heartfelt congratulations to you, my friend and benefactress, for the good you have accomplished, feeling myself a new creature entirely.

You are at perfect liberty to publish this if you feel so inclined. I close by requesting you to accept my warmest regards, with the hope that for humanity's sake your life may be prolonged. Success be yours forever in performing the wonderful cure.

Yours with respect, MARY E. BROWN.

P. S.—For further information, address Mary E. Brown, New Cumberland, Cumberland county, Pa. Mrs. T. BALL, No. 27 South Pine street, Harrisburg, Pa.

BANNVART—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. BANNVART—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Troches. I consider them very superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c., G. G. KAKESTRAW, Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.
