HARRISBURG, PA.

MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 29, 1864.

ESCORT OF DR. THOS. ST. CLAIR.

PROCESSION THIS MONDAY EVENING.

At a meeting of the Union citizens, held on Friday evening last, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee to make suitable arrangements for a public procession for the purpose of escorting Dr. Thomas St. Clair, the Union Senator from the Indiana district, to the Senate chamber, this evening, viz: George Bergner, Chairman; Gen. Knipe, Gen. Williams, Col. Jennings, Col. Worrall, D. A. Balt, Jno. Lowry, Alex. Koser, Col. Jno. Wallower, Daniel Muench, Frank Darby, Daniel Hull, J. C. Young.

At a meeting of committee Saturday morning, it was unanimously resolved to invite all the Union men of Harrisburg and vicinity to meet at the Court House this (Monday) Evening at half past six o'clock, at the ringing of the Court House bell, for the purpose of escorting the Union Senator, Dr. St. Clair, to the Senate chamber.

In accordance with the above, all loyal men in the city are respectfully invited to meet at the place designated, and join the procession. Col. James Worrall has been appointed Marshal, and will make all proper arrangements.

Let the loyal men turn out in their strength, and show the Copperhead Senators that their days are numbered, and that the wheels of Government cannot be stopped by their traitorous course in future.

GEO. BERGNER, Chairman of Committee.

CITY ITEMS.

SAVAGE'S Ursina or Real Bear's Grease from the Canada bear, an excellent pomade for the hair, just received and for sale at C. A. Bannart's drug store.

BANNART'S Bronchial Troches for hoarseness and throat diseases, for sale at Dr. Miles' Drug Store, corner Third and North streets, and Dr. Wm. H. Eggle's Drug Store, Ridge Avenue. Jan 30-df

The celebrated crystal spectacles properly adjusted to the eye; microscopes from 100 to 700 diameter; lower telescopes, field glasses, defining an object from one to ten miles, and all kinds of optical, mathematical and philosophical instruments at Rosendale's Optical Institute, 8 Market Square. Artificial eyes inserted. Send for a circular! Jan 21-df

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

We would again call attention to the advertisement of Mr. Jacob Mish, who offers for sale a fine assortment of garden seeds, all of which are of excellent quality.

The election held for borough officers in Sunbury, on the 19th inst., resulted in the choice of the entire Union ticket, with but a single exception, and that in a case where the Union nominee declined an election.

ATTENTION, 55TH!—The members of the 55th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, (Col. Richard White), are requested to meet at the Cotton Factory Hospital to-morrow (Tuesday) morning, at 9 o'clock. By order.

SODA WATER! Soda Water!—If you feel like drinking a good glass of soda water, you will go well by giving Kunkel & Brother a call, No. 118 Market street, Harrisburg. Feb 27-2*

FAIR.—The fair gotten up under the auspices of the Sabbath School and ladies of the New School Presbyterian Church, will open at five o'clock, to-morrow evening, in Brant's lower hall. As the proceeds will be devoted to the benefit of the Sunday School, this fair should be liberally patronized.

CIGARS! CIGARS!—Persons wishing to smoke a good cigar, will do well by giving Kunkel & Brother a call, as they keep a well selected stock of the finest cigars that can be had in the market, which can be had either by the box or by the thousand. Give us a call. S. A. Kunkel & Bro., No. 118 Market street, Harrisburg. Feb 27-2*

LOIC.—A German lady called at the Post Office, in Dushore, the other day, for the purpose of mailing a letter, and called for two stamps. When informed by the Post-Master that the letter needed only one stamp, she insisted upon having two, saying: "That the letter would go faster with two stamps upon it."

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Benjamin Schwartz, a resident of Allentown, in the employ of the East Pennsylvania railroad company, was instantly killed on Thursday last, at the junction of the East Pennsylvania and Lehigh Valley railroads, whilst moving some cars. The "bumping stick" broke, throwing him on the track, and the wheels of the tender passed over his breast.

The Harrisburg Daily Telegraph is out in new type, and its spicy columns look neat and clean as possible. It is the only loyal daily at the State capital, and has a wide and increasing circulation. We have always considered the Telegraph the best newspaper for this locality, as it reaches us 12 hours in advance of the Philadelphia papers.—Holidaysburg Whig.

CITY ELECTION.—The annual election for city officers will be held on Friday, the 18th day of March, at which time the citizens of each ward will vote for one person for city treasurer, three persons for city auditors, two persons for school directors, one person for member of city council, (except in the Third ward, where two councilmen are to be elected,) one person for judge of elections, two for inspectors of elections, one for assessor, and one for constable. The election will be held at the usual places, in the various wards, between the hours of 9 A. M. and 7 P. M. of said day.

HON. THOMAS BRUNSON, of Greene county, died on the 17th inst., at the advanced age of eighty-three years. The deceased was for years a member of the Legislature from that county, was an Associate Judge two terms, and enjoyed a large degree of public confidence and esteem.

NATIONAL BANK.—The Mechanicsburg bank will commence doing business under the National Banking law, on the 3d of May next, with a capital of $100,000; with the privilege of increasing it to $200,000. The name of the bank will then be the First National Bank of Mechanicsburg.

Look! Look!—Sunday Hours for Opening.—The Drug Store of Kunkel & Brother will be open regularly on Sunday morning from 8 to 10, and in the afternoon from 5 to 7, for the accommodation of physicians and persons wishing to get drugs. Kunkel & Bro., No. 118 Market street, Harrisburg. Feb 29-2*

FREE.—A small unfinished house, the property of Mrs. Brogan, on East street, near the reservoir, was destroyed by fire about eleven o'clock on Saturday night. It was the work of an incendiary. A couple of the fire companies were promptly on the ground, but could not save the building.

WELCOME HOME!—We have the pleasure of announcing the return of Harry Thomas, Esq., of this city, who has been on a visit to Europe. Mr. T. returns with improved health, and gives a favorable account of his visit to the "old country." His numerous friends will extend him a hearty welcome.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVAL.—Daniel Pratt, Esq., the editor of the Grid Iron, and late candidate for the Presidency, has arrived in this city, and expects to deliver an address to both Houses of the Legislature. He is a genuine poet and ready writer. We hope all will go and hear his address to be delivered in the State Capitol.

No doubt there will be a grand Union demonstration this evening to escort to the capitol the key that will unlock the Senate, and send the despairing copperheads howling to their holes. Those intending to participate will meet at the court house at 6 1/2 o'clock.—Col. Jas. Worrall has been selected as marshal for the occasion.

SANFORD'S version of the Ticket-of-Leave Man has attained a popularity, excelled only by its author—who is the head and front of minstrelsy. The beautiful little opera house is constantly besieged by large crowds of persons eager to witness the very laughable doings and sayings of Sanford's fine band of minstrels and delineators of negroism. Don't forget to go where rest-buttens are seriously damaged. Sanford can't afford to insure them, as his auditors are bound to "laugh and wag fat," and an insurance on those little waistcoat fasteners would make sad inroads on his receipts.

Too Much Truism.—The Organ gives, as a reason for not publishing the report of the proceedings of the loyal convention held in West Tennessee, that "the dispatch was so miserably put together that it would cost more time and trouble to make it intelligible than it is worth." A very lame excuse! The dispatch appeared in full in our paper of Saturday, and could have been appropriated by the Organ if it desired to publish it. Such dispatches do not suit its columns. Anything that exhibits the growth of loyalty in the South is carefully suppressed by the copperhead editors.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RESERVES VINDICATED.—A pamphlet has been published defending the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps from imputations cast upon them in General McClellan's report of the battle, together with the reports of the subordinate officers, and ends with the following statement: "We, the undersigned, officers of the Pennsylvania Reserves, who fought in the battle of the 30th of June, 1862, variously called the battle of Nelson's Farm, Glendale and New Market Cross Roads, do hereby distinctly state that our division was not routed in that battle, and, although temporary reverse was sustained by Seymour's brigade early in the day, the division was at no time routed."

The thrilling plays, The Manic Lover, and Jack Sheppard, drew immensely on Saturday night—the hall having been entirely filled, and many persons unable to obtain seats. Popular plays, fine casts of character, and splendid acting, are sufficient to attract the public, and they have been successful in doing so, ever since Rouse's Star Troupe arrived in Harrisburg, some six weeks ago, and we predict similar success as long as the management continue to please the public. For this evening, two new plays will be introduced:—Still Waters Run Deep, and The Wandering Minstrel. The selection of characters could not be more appropriate, and as the pieces are popular, they will be a large audience. Still Waters Run Deep, was written by the celebrated Tom Taylor, author of the Ticket-of-Leave Man, and needs no recommendation from us. The Wandering Minstrel is a very laughable farce, in which Mr. Rouse, the "funny man," will appear as Jem Pags. Go early.

DISGRACEFUL.—Early this morning, as a few quiet and inoffensive colored men of the upper end of town were passing along Ridge Avenue, on their way to work, they were attacked by a number of drunken soldiers, and shamefully abused and beaten. One of them was pursued into a store, and in endeavoring to escape broke a large glass which he was compelled to pay for. The soldiers threw large stones at the negroes, and struck a number of houses near by, besides endangering the lives of passers-by. Persons who witnessed the affair state that it was disgraceful in the extreme. We sorely know who deserves the most severe censure, the drunken soldiers, or the party who sold them liquor.

Numerous outrages occur in West Harrisburg. Would it not be well for some of the police to make that portion of our city the theatre of their operations?

Wescott's Patent Cigar.—We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the important invention which is destined to make a great revolution in the operation of churning. This churn will make good butter in five minutes. Mr. Tupper, the proprietor, may be seen at Buck's Union Hotel, and is offering great inducements to those who wish to purchase county rights. Call and examine for yourselves. Feb 29-2*

SOMETHING NEW!—A new brand of prime cigars have been introduced here. They have been manufactured expressly and exclusively for C. A. Bannart & Co., and bear the name of the fighting hero, Gen. U. S. Grant. These cigars are of the very best quality, possess a fine flavor, and are in great demand.—Messrs. Bannart & Co. have the sole right to sell these cigars to dealers and others, and those desiring to purchase will have to call on them. Each box contains a fine portrait of Gen. Grant, the copyright of which has been secured to the above firm. The General Grant cigars are bound to an immense sale, as they are unexcelled.

For the Telegraph.

Congressional Grant of Public Lands.—We respectfully invite the attention of the Legislature of our State to the following facts and reasonings concerning the appropriation of lands by Congress for the endowment of one or more Agricultural Colleges: 1. The act of Congress contemplates one of two things, to wit: Either one or more schools for the purpose of originating knowledge on the subject of agriculture and the mechanic arts, such as the Smithsonian Institute, or a strictly scientific school; or its object is to establish one or more schools for the purpose of diffusing among the industrial classes the knowledge already originated, and to do this for the purpose of elevating the industrial classes, and increasing the productive power of the country.

If the former were the object of Congress, the grant is too small and would not produce the desired result; besides, the language of the act seems to determine the point, (see section fourth, towards the close), to wit: "To the endowment, support and maintenance of at least one object should be, without excluding other scientific and classical studies, and including military tactics, to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and mechanics, in order to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions in life." The design, therefore, seems to be to educate "the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions in life," not to educate a few industrial classes.

Now, we maintain that this end will be most successfully attained by distributing this fund to eight or ten colleges in the State, and by devoting to each one of them the provisions of the bill, as modified by our State Legislature, and for the following reasons: 1. These colleges are already teaching nearly all the branches of knowledge taught by the Agricultural School in Centre county, as may be seen by comparing together their lists of studies; and, in addition, they are teaching for the most part, the industrial classes. Their students are generally the sons of farmers, mechanics and merchants.

2. We need not attempt to prove that ten colleges, distributed throughout the State, from local, denominational and other causes, will educate many more than one college, however largely patronized, and that they will educate more thoroughly, on the principle that smaller classes will be more thoroughly drilled than larger ones. 3. By distributing the fund, say to ten colleges in the Legislature will at once secure, as a basis of co-operation and concert, the capital already productive in these colleges, the organization, the apparatus, libraries and experienced instructors in them. There are ten colleges in this State, whose average endowment and fixed capital we estimate at five hundred thousand dollars each; so that the State would begin her work with an active capital of at least a million of dollars, besides the prestige of the influence which the colleges exert already.

4. All they need, in addition, to make these colleges agricultural, &c., according to the act, is additional endowment, so that the principles which they now inculcate may be applied to agriculture and the mechanic arts. 5. It seems to be conceded on all sides that the colleges could sell the lands to their friends for twice or thrice the sum which the State could realize.

In view of the above considerations, it is believed that the Legislature would more successfully carry out the intention of Congress by distributing the lands than by concentrating them.

MANY FRIENDS OF THE "INDUSTRIAL CLASSES."

INQUIRY, A BARBERIAN CHIEF.—It is not our purpose to criticize the most excellent dramatic company at Brant's Hall, but in borrowing money from your friends to see the play of Ingomar, and while we have seen the representation in large theatres in our Atlantic cities, under more favorable auspices, from greater facilities, being left the control of the performers, and/or compels us to state that the conception of the play, as performed by the different actors, would not blanch the reputation of those whose names are more prominent in the dramatic field. The happy control of the Barbican Chief, from his love for the Greek Girl, is but a just tribute to that genius which is implanted in the nature even of the untutored savage. We are sometimes inclined to think that, though civilization has smoothed the outward seeming of society in our country, there is still large room for the exercise of Greek Girls, and this leads us to the object of this advertisement. The Greeks and Barbarians have their style of dress—so have the Americans; and perhaps at no time, in the city of Harrisburg, has there been so large and handsome a stock of ladies' and gentlemen's dress goods, with a general assortment of seasonable dry goods, as can be purchased now at the cheap store of O. L. Bowman, No. 1, corner of Front and Market streets.

NEW CUMBERLAND, PA., Jan. 20, 1864. DEAR LADY.—Mrs. Ball, will you please pardon me for the liberty that I have taken in addressing you, a stranger. I feel myself under obligations to you for the benefit I have derived from your medicine, and eyes I have having suffered for many years most excruciating pain in my head, breast and side, not being free from pain day or night. And I have been doctoring with well-skilled and practical physicians for some years, and all attempts proved a failure. I had given up all hopes of recovery and felt fully resigned to await my fate, which foretold an untimely grave. My father being a resident of Sidonsburg, and living quite a distance from you, I did not get to hear of your medicine—till I had proved a wonderful cure indeed. Some few months ago I was advised by a lady friend of mine to try your medicine. She stated to me that she made use of your medicine and saline which proved a cure. Feeling rather loth to fight to try, as I had laid out money time after time, which made the expenses very heavy and all for naught. But having great confidence in my friend's integrity, I was prompted to hasten to her kind entreaty and try for myself. I therefore purchased two dollars and a half worth of your medicine, and to my utter astonishment, in one week I felt a great change, and in two weeks was entirely free from all pain, and your eye salve perfectly cured me for which all other washes and salves proved useless. My eyelids were so much inflamed that I was forced to wear glasses for some years, and now I have no occasion at all to wear the glasses; my eyes being well. I therefore have resolved, dear lady, to let you know that I could not rest content until I would return my heartfelt congratulations to you, my friend and benefactress, for the good you have so compassionately feeling myself a new creature entirely.

You are at perfect liberty to publish this if you feel so inclined. I close by requesting you to accept my warmest regards, with a hope that for humanity's sake, your life may be prolonged. Success be yours forever in performing the wonderful cure. Yours with respect, MARY E. BROWN.

P. S.—For further information, address Mary E. Brown, New Cumberland, Cumberland county, Pa. Mrs. L. BALL, No. 27, South Pine street, Harrisburg, Pa. j21-df

BANNART'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES.

For the cure of Hoarseness, Throat Diseases, &c., are specially recommended to ministers, singers and persons whose vocation calls them to speak in public. Manufactured only by C. A. Bannart & Co., Harrisburg, Pa., to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by druggist every where.

Read the following testimonials from some of our eminent clergymen:

C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Troches, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles; and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend your own as a most admirable specific, for public speakers, and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually. Yours truly, TH. H. BOBINSON, Pastor of M. S. Presbyterian Church, Harrisburg, Jan. 1864.

To C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that what has been supplied in your excellent Troches, is, in my opinion, the best I consider them very superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c., W. WALKER-JACKSON, Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church, Harrisburg, Pa.

To C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: Having used your Bronchial Troches, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c., G. G. HAKESTRAW, Pastor of Ridge Avenue Methodist Church, Harrisburg, Pa.

MISCELLANEOUS. PROCLAMATION. In pursuance of the 10th article of the Constitution of the United States, I, A. A. ROUNDTOP, Mayor of the City of Harrisburg, do hereby certify that the following is a true and correct copy of the act of the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, passed at the session of 1863, and approved the 21st day of March, 1863, and in force from the 1st day of April, 1863, to the 1st day of April, 1864.
