I do not say that this newspaper office ought to have been mobbed. I know not the ground upon which it is was done, nor anything of it except the fact that it was done; but I do say that it is impossible for a free people, for a loyal community, to stand by and see and hear the enunciations which are made from mouths and from papers, and not feel as if those things ought to be suppressed, and that it is dangerous to the welfare of the country that they should not be suppressed. It is only a wonder to me that this kind of mobbing which is spoken of has prevailed to so small a degree as it has.

I want now, sir, to ask another question or two. Have you ever heard of any paper being suppressed for praising the soldiers of the country, or for urging the suppression of the rebellion? Have you ever heard of any paper being suppressed for calling upon the young men and the middle aged men to enlist in the defence of their country? Have you ever heard of any paper being suppressed or any man being imprisoned for denouncing Jeff Davis? Have you ever heard of any man being imprisoned or papers suppressed for approving of the hanging of traitors for tearing down the flag of their country? Or have you ever heard of any paper being suppressed—and I will ask this of the Senator from Philadelphia—for refusing to negotiate with Jeff Davis? You never have, and you never will in this country. The idea of negotiating with Jeff Davis! The idea of making peace by going down upon our knees and saying to Jeff Davis, "What terms do you want us to submit to!" The idea of recognizing that man as at the head of any organized government which ought to be recognized by honest men, loyal men, civilized men, or any class of men but barbarians!

And then we are met here to-night—and I confess that I was astonished—by the remark that we are disloyal because we sustain a President who refuses to stop—what? "An inhuman war!" And the implication of that remark is, if I understand it, that this war should never have been commenced; the implication of that remark is, if I understand it, (it was said in connection with remarks upon the language,) that this war might have been stopped if we had negotiated with those traitors in the beginning, and that we were wrong in rushing to arms for the suppression of this rebellion.

I have heard of no paper being torn out in 1832–33 which sustained General Jackson in suppressing John C. Calhoun, and there would have been none torn out at this day if General Jackson had had his way and been permitted to hang John C. Calhoun at that day. I was willing then, I wanted then John C. Calhoun should be hung; and I want now that the brood, which has sprung from him North and South, be hung.

Then this glorious old Democratic party existed in its men and in its principles. Its principles being that the country was above everything else, and its men refusing to calculate the value of the Union. Now, they calculate the value of this great Union, at a penny stamp upon the plaster placed upon a sick man's back. That is the way that the gentleman from Northumberland meets this great question. I will say, in conclusion, that this old Democratic party and this old Democratic principle—found in whatever party they may be—will sustain the country; and in times past when we called ourselves Democrats and Whigs or Democrats and Republicans, or Democratic and People's Party, there was nothing between us that went down—down to the root of Democracy and found us there differing. It needed this rebellion to bring out that all Democracy was the same thing wherever it might be; and that all the principles of loyalty and patriotism sprung from the Democracy of which I spoke at the commencement of my remarks.

The Democracy which will put the country above everything else is the Democracy that we all love. I care not whether the man calls himself a Democrat or a Republican, if he places his party above his country—if he desires, to grind out of the groans and tears of the people that which will make him rich—he is disloyal, according to the test which I think ought to be applied—according to the test which I am willing to be applied to myself.

This is not the time to defend Abraham Lincoln; but I must be permitted to say here, that having done all that I could as an an honorable partisan to prevent his obtaining the position which he now occupies, feeling that I was sustaining principles which I had always sustained by voting for and endeavoring to secure the election of another man, I am prepared now to say—not that I esteem Abraham Lincoln a perfect man—not that he has done everything that I would have desired—but that, looking at Abraham Lincoln disinterestedly as the head of the nation, I think he has pursued the course which he has followed with an eye single to the best interests of the country. I do not say that better means than those which he has used might not have been adopted; but I do say—and I firmly and solemnly believe and am willing to meet this expression of opinion at a higher bar than the tribunal before which I am now speaking—I do say, that I believe that to the best of his ability and with the desire to save bloodshed—with the desire to bring back those who had grievously wronged their country, with the desire to secure peace to the country, when war had already intervened, and following up his desire to prevent war, his single object has been the welfare of the country. I believe him to be a true patriot, and I believe that if his power was equal to his wish, and his wisdom was equal to his wish, (and I do not say that it is not,) that everything would be done in this country which the heart of its best citizens could desire. [Applause.] I believe that in any of the hovels or in any of the palaces, of which the gentleman of Philadelphia has spoken and into which desolation has entered—you will not find from any mother or any father, in any of these houses, a denunciation of Abraham Lincoln. If you will meet that mother in the quiet of the night, when she can do nothing but meditate upon her brave boy, whose loveliness is made the brighter to her vision by the dark clouds that have come over in his death, and then ask her to denounce Abraham Lincoln for having led out the armies into which that boy went. She will refuse; she will say, "My boy went into the service of his country, and love him as I did, I love my country more." No widow will denounce this war, though it has taken her stay from her; and no father will say that Abraham Lincoln did wrong in calling out seventy five thousand men for the service of the country—nor in calling out three hundred thousand more, although their ranks come back without the son that he loved best upon earth. [Applause.]

MEDICAL.

LYON'S PERIODICAL FOR FEMALES.

DR. JOSEPH L. LYON'S
FRENCH PERIODICAL DROPS.
THE GREAT
FEMALE REGULATOR,
Are the only known remedy that will successfully and invariably restore and regulate the female system, removing all irregularities, and producing health, vigor and strength.

LYON'S PERIODICAL DROPS

Are a fluid preparation, the only true one of the kind ever discovered in this country, and acts directly on the parts affected, while pills and powders can only reach them as they work through sympathy, but not at all direct and positive.

Are you suffering from a constant anxiety for the regular return of nature's prescribed laws?

Give yourself no uneasiness, for Lyon's Periodical Drops, if taken a day or two before the expected period, will positively and invariably regulate its coming, as sure as effect follows cause, as certain as daylight follows darkness.

Are you sick, disgusted by disease, or unable to bear the labor and danger of increase?

LYON'S PERIODICAL DROPS

Come to you as a blessing, for is not prevention better than cure?

If regularly taken, it is a certain preventive, and will save you much peril and many hours of suffering.

Have you been afflicted for many years with complaints incident to the sex, that have baffled the skill of physicians, and are hurrying you on to an early grave?

LYON'S PERIODICAL DROPS

Are the most reliable regulator ever known, and cure, like magic, all those irregularities that have defied the doctor's skill.

Will you waste away with suffering from Leucorrhœa, Prolapsus, Dysmenorrhœa, and a thousand other difficulties, all summed up under the name of suppressed and obstructed nature, when an investment of one dollar in will surely save you.

Do not use the drops when forbidden in the directions, for although a positive cure, and harmless at all other times, they are so powerful and finely calculated to adjust and govern the functions of the sexual organism, that, if taken at improper times, they would produce results contrary to nature, against which all, particularly those who would reproduce, should carefully guard.

LYON'S PERIODICAL DROPS

Cannot harm the most delicate constitution at any time; yet the proprietors wish to guard against its misuse, hoping that a thousand bottles will be used for a good purpose where one is used for an illegitimate one.

LYON'S PERIODICAL DROPS,

the never-failing Female Regulator, is for sale by every Druggist, in the city and country, and do not, if you value your health and wish for a reliable medicine, buy any other. Take no other, but if the Druggist to whom you apply has not got it, make him send and get it for you.

MEDICAL.

DR. WISHART'S
PINE TREE
TAR CORDIAL

Is the Vital Principle of the Pine Tree, OBTAINED by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medicinal properties are retained.

It is the medicine that cures when all others have failed.

A GREAT REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

I am constantly receiving such certificates as the following. READ IT!

DR. WISHART—Dear Sir:—I had a very dreadful cough and sore throat for one year, and my whole system was fast giving way, and I was prostrated on my bed with but little hope of recovering. My disease baffled the power of all medicines, and in a short time I must have gone to my grave, but, thank God, my daughter-in-law would not rest until she went to your store, No. 10 N. Second street, and related my case to you, purchased one bottle of your Pine Tree Tar Cordial, and commenced to use it, and in one week I was much better, and after using three bottles I am perfectly well, a wonder to all my friends, for they all pronounced me past cure. Publish my case if you think proper. REBECCA HAMILTON,
No. 1321 Wylie street, Philadelphia.

TAR CORDIAL.
AN INFALLIBLE CURE FOR BRONCHITIS.

MR. WARD says:
DR. WISHART, Sir:—I had the Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, and Palpitation of the Heart in their worst forms; I had been treated by several eminent physicians in Philadelphia, but they could not stop the rapid course of my disease, and I had despaired of ever being restored to health. I was truly on the verge of the grave. Your Pine Tree Cordial was highly recommended to me by a friend; I tried it, and am thankful to say that, after using four large and one small bottle, I was restored to perfect health. You can give reference to my house, No. 963 N. Second street, or at my office of Receiver of Taxes, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., corner of Chestnut and Sixth streets. JOHN WARD.

BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS.

READ THE FOLLOWING:
Mr. WISHART, Sir:—I return you my grateful thanks for the discovery you have made in making a medicine that will cure Inflammation of the Lungs and Liver Complaint. When I commenced to use your Pine Tree Tar Cordial I was, to all appearances, near my grave. I had been for a length of time spitting blood, and would at times vomit it. My physicians (for I employed two) pronounced me past cure; but my sister had used your Pine Tree Tar Cordial, which did her so much good that she prevailed on me, as a last resort, to try it; and, thank God, I commenced to use it. I have taken twelve bottles and am perfectly cured, and am ready and willing that any person that is sick should call on me, and I will tell them what your cordial has done for me. All my friends and neighbors were utterly astonished at my speedy return to health, for they had seen me vomit blood in a clotted state frequently. Publish my case, for I want every person that is suffering as I was to know of your invaluable medicine. Respectfully. JOHN VERDIN,
Crease street, six doors above Richmond street Philadelphia.

The Pine Tree Tar Cordial will cure Coughs, Sore Throat, and Breast, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Hooping Cough, Diptheria, and is also an excellent remedy for diseases of the Kidneys, and female complaints.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.
