Relieved.—An enlisted man, hailing from the country, was relieved of his bounty money last night, by some of the light-fingered gentry about town, while he was in a "glorious. state of intoxication," caused by drinking too much bad whisky. Doubtless he would like to be "relieved" of a severe headache, this

Reeside, proprietor of a hotel in Baltimore, was a few days since arraigned on a charge of having partridges in his possession, contrary to the law of the State of Maryland. On Thursday he was fined five dollars and costs in each of nine cases, the number of birds he had on exhibition in his window. The decision establishes that a quail is a partridge.

TRIMMING TREES. The present is the proper time to attend to this work, before the sap begins to ascend from the roots to the trunk and limbs, and thus insure a plentiful growth of shoots and consequently an abundant foliage, which, as every housekeeper knows, is a very desirable thing around ones dwelling during the sultry months of summer. This month and April will do for preparing and planting out young trees, but the latter month is rather too late for trimming. In this section too little attention is paid to a proper time for trimming, and too many prune their trees in the latter part of April and in May, when buds are not only ready to burst, but even are open. We have found from our own imited experience that this is the month to trim grapevines, and we never knew of one thus managed not to flourish and bear abund-

LEAP YEAR. -- Who would be a bachelor, and know that during the entire year of 1864 the privilege of making love is taken from him and bestowed upon the ladies. Who would be a spinster, either, and be caught violating the proprieties of life by declaring love to a bachelor? So leap year is a preplexing period for both parties. However we would not blame any lady, who has waited long and anxiously for a husband if she should take it into her head to take advantage of the law, which is upon-her side. Read it

"Albeit, it is now become a parte of the the Common Lawe in regard to the social re-laytions of life, that so often as everie besextile year dothe return the ladves have the sole privileges during the time continueth of making love unto the men, which they may do either by words or looks, as unto them seemeth proper; and moreover no man will be entitled to the benefits of the clergy who dothe in any wise treat her proposals with slight or contumely.

THE UNLOCKING OF THE STATE SENATE Grand Demonstration of the Loyal Men of the State Capital-Torch Light Procession and Escort of Senator St. Clair to the Capitol.-The members of the Loyal League of Harrisburg, deeming that the presence of the newly elected Senator, Dr. St. Clair, in the State Capital, should be bailed with the respect due to its importance, resolved that the Senator elect should be met and welcomed and escorted to the State Capitol with every demonstration of popular honor and congratulation. Accordingly arrangements were made under the auspices of the League, a band of music procured, a large transparency prepared, and last evening a procession formed at the Court House to escort Senator St. Clair to the Senate Chamber. After the band had executed several patriotic airs at the Court House, the meeting was called to order by Col. James Worrall, President of the League, who fully explained the object of the assemblage.

On motion, Gen. E. C. Williams, Valentine Hummel and John Wallower, were appointed marshala. The procession having then re-formed, headed by the band of music, the line of march was taken up to the United States Hotel, where Dr. St. Clair has taken rooms. Immediately in the rear of the music followed a large transparency, with these inscriptions: St. Clair unlocks the Senate. 2,000 ma-

The triumph of the Loyal People in support of the Loyal Senators. The Defenders of our Country should elect their Rulers. The Keystone State honors the Man.

On the side containing the first inscription was a large key, representing the new Senator, who was to unlock the Senate. On reaching the hotel, an immense throng of people had assembled to witness the proceedings, and as the committee, instructed to wait on and inform Senator St. Clair of the objects of the League, returned with that gentleman, he was received into the ranks of the League with the utmost enthusiasm. Countermarching then, the procession proceeded up Market to Second. out Second to State, and thence to the State Capitol. Along the line of march, crowds of people assembled, who vented their approval in loud cheers, and when the procession reached the portico of the capitol, there were a large number of citi- cure for which all other washes and salves zens present to honor the approach of the man who was to end the proceedings in the Senate which had so long disgraced the entire Commonwealth, and filled loyal men all over the country with shame. Before proceeding to the Senate Chambers Dr. St. Clair thanked the Loyal League of Harrisburg for the cordial reception that was given to him, and the honorable escort he had just received. He then at once proceeded to the Senate Chamber. For the proceedings which followed in that body, we refer the reader to our report of the regular legislative proceedings.

-We cannot close this article without referring in justice to the music furnished for the occasion by the Mechanicsburg Band. The efforts of the members of this Band claim for them the highest opinions of our citizens.

SANFORD'S OPER HOUSE .- The Ticket-of-Leave, (or the Pardoned Jail Bird, as Sanford terms it) has made a great hit at his establishment. To-night is positively the last night of its representation, as new novelties are announced. The American Cousin, by Sanford, is to follow. This is one of his burlesques, and we know the company will be more "at home" in this line than in the previous drama-this will be followed with a great sensation show piece, Mother Goose a pantomime. This will be glorious news for

ROUSE'S STAR COMBINATION TROUPS. This very popular and superior combination of dramatic artists whose performances have achieved a triumph of success never before equalled by any dramatic company that has ever appeared in this city—and received the highest meed of praise from large, intelligent and critical audiences, met with another hearty reception, last night, from a very large and attentive crowd that witnessed the production of Tom Taylor's celebrated three-act play, Still Waters Run Deep, which was followed by The Wandering Ministrel. This evening, by particular request, the troupe will repeat the first named play, and will conclude the entertainment with the very excellent piece called The Rough Diamond, in which Mr. Rouse will appear as Cousin Joe, and "will have buttons all over him." This is a superb bill, and will attract an immense concourse of

It seems strange to us in the recent sentence of Mr. F. P. Hill, that while he was sent to the Eastern penitentiary, the bigger rogues were left to slip clear. Is this justice? We hope the Governor will grant him an unconditional pardon at once, and if possible place the detectives, upon whose evidence he was convicted, in his place. We don't believe Mr. Hill intentionally robbed the railroad-company of a cent. This is his character at home, among his own citizens. - Easton Ex-

NEW CUMBERLAND, PA., Jan. 20, 1864. DEAR LADY:—Mrs. Ball, will you please pardon me for the liberty that I have taken in addressing you, a stranger. I feel myself under obligations to you for the benefit I have derived from your medicine and eye salve, naving suffered for many years most exeruoi ating pain in my head, breast and side, not being free from pain day or night. And I have been doctoring with well-skilled and practical physicians for some years, and all attempts proved a failure. I had given up all hopes of recovery and felt fully resigned to await my fate, which foretold an untimely grave. My father being a resident of Siddonsburg, and living quite a distance from you, I did not get to hear of your medicine—that has proved a wonderful cure indeed. Some few months ago I was advised by a lady friend of mine to try your medicine. She stated to me that she made use of your medicine and salve which proved a cure. Feeling rather loth at first to try, as I had laid out money time after time which made the expenses very heavy and all for naught But having great confi-dence in my friend's integrity, I was prompted to hearken to her kind entreaty and try for myself. I therefore purchased two dollars and a half worth of your medicine, and, to my utter astonishment, in one week I felt a grea change, and in two weeks was entirely free from all pain, and your eye salve perfected proved useless. My eyelids were so much inflamed that I was forced to wear glasses for some years, and now I have no occasion at all to wear the glasses, my eyes being well. I therefore have resolved, dear lady, to let you know that I could not rest content until I would return my heartfelt congratulations to you, my friend and benefactress, for the good you have accomplished, feeling myself a new creature entirely. You are at perfect liberty to publish this if you feel so inclined. I close by requesting you to accept my warmest regards, with a hope that for humanity's sake, your life may pe prolonged. Success be yours forever in performing the wonderful cure

ELEGANCE AND DURABILITY. THE PATENT DOUBLE TUBE PIPE. THE PATENT DOUBLE TUBE PIPE.

THIS very popular Pipe has now been introduced into this community. Its peculiar merit consists in the use of two tubes, one for the smoke alone, and the other for the passage of the saliva and nicotine to the cap at the bottom whence it is discharged. The smoke being thus kept clear of contact with saliva is always delicious and pure in its odor, and the collected matter which renders all other Pipes offensive being entirely removed, the Pipe will always centime sweet and agreeable. In the cities of Baltimore and Washington where thousands have tested its merits, amongst the Editorial notices are the following:

The Baltimore American says:—This Pipe has many of the qualities of the costly Turkish "chibouk," giving to the smoker the pure exhalation of the tobacco, free from its noxious nicotine.

The Daily Gastele says:—Its economy and the greater uxury it imparts while smoking, recommend it favorably of all lovers of the weed.
