

LAST MOVE OF THE FACTIONISTS.

Secession in the State of Pennsylvania-The Banner of Treason Flung to the Breeze by the Democratic Leaders.

We asserted, a few days since, in these columns, that the conduct of the minority in the Senate reminded us forcibly of the action of the conspirators in Congress during the last year of the Buchanan Administration. The traitors in Congress went on paving the way to secession by offering all kinds of quibbles to the progress of legislation-provoking all. sorts of passionate debate, until they had prepared the minds of their ignorant followers outside the halls of legislation, to second them in their desperate games to break up the Government. Identically in the same lineproceeding step by step in the same direction -with a like defiance of the public safety, the dignity of legislation and the perpetuity of the Government, the leaders of the faction known as the Democratic party, and the avowed allies of the slaveholders in rebellion, have been conducting themselves in the Senate of Pennsylvania, until their action. culminated this morning in an act of secession such as opened the war of rebellion on the part of the Southern conspirators. At the roll-call in the Senate this morning, not a single Democratic Senator was in his seat to answer to his name ! This is organizing secession in the State o Pennsylvania! It was not the result of an impulse which only seized these "bold, bad men" this morning; but the conclusion of a plan long in deliberation, to reach the awful point of a bloody struggle in Pennsylvania, by which the State Government is to be disrupted, and whatever willing force there is in our midst, cast in favor of the slave-holders, rebellion. The representatives of the Knights o the Golden Circle who met in the Land office a few days since, undoubtedly convened to encourage the factious Senators who left their seats this morning, to the suicidal course which they have thus insanely adopted !

--The action of the majority of the Senate must, of course, decide the continuance of the absent Senators from their seats. The law gives that majority the power to compel the presence of all absent members, and the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate will undoubtedly be authorized to bring the absentees to their senses and their seats, if there is such a thing as force in the law and strength in justice. This action on the part of the minority is an insult to the people of the entire Commonwealth-a step in the programme of treason, which is a disgrace to the soil of freedom, and which must not go unrebuked and unpunished. Let the loyal men of the State, then, prepare themselves for action. We have long admonished them as to the machinations of these desperate men. Confronted then by the imminent peril of the danger which is apparent to all true men, the time has arrived for every man to buckle on his armor and resist the foe.

The Excentive Mansion.

Stover's Regiment of Sharp Shooters. A month since Major Stover was in the Army of the Potomac, without any plan of returning to his native State, to recruit an entirely new regiment. He received orders from Goy. Curtin, who had been authorized by the War Department, to raise a regiment of sharp shooters, so that little less than a month since Major Stover made his headquarters in this city, issued his appeal for recruits, and now we have the satisfaction of announcing that he has a full regiment-a maximum number of men, all of whom have either seen service in the field or are so far acquainted with the du-ties and discipline of a soldier as to be almost to so the soldier as to be almost the soldier at once ready for active service. The alacrity in raising this regiment is suggestive of lessons which should not be lost upon those in authority as well as those in rebellion. It proves the indomitable determination of the people to make every sacrifice to crush rebellion. All that the American people have-all that they are, is in the hazard of the effort to put down the slave-holders' rebellion, and before that effort becomes a failure, the country. had better be made a howling wilderness.

-We congratulate Col. Stover 'on 'his success. Indeed, we congratulate the brave men who have rallied to his standard, equally, on the devotion which they have displayed for the just cause of the country. Nor are we too sanguine in anticipating for this regiment, a distinction in the field for the same alacrity which has marked its recruitment and final organization. · 法 计算机算法 计注

Annual Taxes for 1864.

The U. S. Assessor for the Fourteenth Revenue District publishes a very important circular, in which he impresses the imperative necessity upon all persons, partnerships, firms, avocations, or corporations, made liable to any annual duty, license or tax, to make lists of the amount of the annual income of the business, on or before the 1st of May ensuing. Those failing to comply with this order, will be charged an additional fifty per cent. on the amount of a list to be made out by the assessor himself, from such sources of information as he may, in his discretion, deem it just to use.

-From this circular it will be seen that all that is required or necessary, is alacrity on the part of the tax payer. Without any refer ence to the matter as it relates to the payment of the U. S. taxes, every business man understands the importance of promptitude. Success is never achieved without it. In the payment of U.S. taxes it becomes a matter of the utmost economy for every man; partnership or company, coming within the class referred to by the assessor, only to display ordinary alacrity, to avoid the increase of fifty per cent. on their taxation.

Personal and Political.

General Kilpatrick and General Custar, whose exploits are to-day the leading theme of comment and of social remark, are both of them men in the hey-day of youth. Kilpatrick is twenty-eight: years old, and has been a widower for about a year. Custar, the youngest General in the service, is but twenty-four years of age, and was married only three or four weeks ago. Both of these brave young men are West Pointers, and were graduated in the same class-that of 1861. General Averill, who made the brilliant raid into Western Virginia, is a little the senior of these two. He is now lying in Washington with both feet suffering severely from frostwith both [feet suffering severely from frost-bite. During the dash into Southwestern THE WAR IN THE SOUTH-WES forty-eight hour Virginia he was at one time in the saddle, exposed to the fury of a bitter The Rebels Pressing Our Line cold storm; and he has been disabled ever since. The public, which appreciate such gallant service as Averill has rendered will be pleased to learn that he is recovering, and will be, before long, once, more in the saddle. There was a "bazaar" in Rochester. New York, recently, held by the ladies of that city, one of whom wrote to Gen. Grant for a lock of his hair, to be set and sold in the fair. The General, of course, acceded to the request. and expressed his satisfaction, in view of the demand, that his stock of hair is so abundant as it is, though admitting that "time or some other cause, is beginning to intersperse, here and there, a reminder that winters have passed." He replied that he could not find it in his heart to refuse such a request, even though, by granting it, he exposes the fact to 73373 the ladies of Rochester that he is "no longer a boy." We hope the ladies won't follow the hint of his Rochester correspondent now, and cut all the hair off the hero's head.

The Election -- Army News, &c.

KNOXNILE, March 6.

The county elections yesterday passed off quistly. The whole number of votes cast in Knoxville was 261, against an average poll, in peaceful times, of 700. Making allowance for absontees in the army and elsewhere, the vote is full and larger than was anticipated. In the country districts it was even fuller. One hundred votes were polled in the neighboring district, in Sevier county, against a usual vote of one hundred and seventy. The returns of Knox county will not be all in till to-morrrow. There is no report at all as yet from the adacent counties.

The vote would have been much larger, but many, undoubtedly loyal men, objected to the oath required by Gov. Johnson as a condi-tion, and did not vote. There is nothing new in army affairs to report, except the capture, at Chilhawel Moun-tain, of sixty rebels, by the 4th Indiana cav-alry. A brigade of rebel cavalry dashed into our lines to day at Mossy creek, but were handsomely repulsed. They took a few prisoners.

Nothing new from Charleston except that the bombardment was continued with good effect. The rebels replied at intervals, but

The letter says nothing further about C Dahlgren.

We see that Mr. Smith, of Chester county, has introduced into the House a bill providing for the sale of the edifice now occupied as an Executive mansion, and providing, also, for the purchase of a more suitable residence for the Governor of the Commonwealth. Every man in Harrisburg, who has the opportunity -of knowing anything of the interior arrange ment of the present Executive mansion, has long desired to see the residence changed, as well to secure a more eligible locality as to procure a house at once desirable and comfortable as a home, in keeping with the importance of the station of the occupant. The Executive mansion, on Second street, is, in all respects, unfitted for such a residence. It has neither the advantage of surrounding grounds, or the accommodation in its internal arrangements, essential to comfort and convenience. Its dining room and parlor are scarcely large enough to accommodate an ordinary family, which undoubtedly renders it incapable of entertaining the guests of the Chief Magistrate. It has no accommedation for a library or private office a It is so located that during the fall and spring months the cellar is generally filled with water: and we believe that some portions of the basement are now covered with ice. When the vacant lot adjoining is occupied with buildings, as the owner designs it shall be in a short time, the rear of the Executive mansion will be rendered almost uninhabitable, dark, dreary and mouldy. -We trust that there will be no delay in the passage of this bill, and that the residence thus proposed to be purchased will be one in all respects worthy of the purposes to which it is to be devoted. There are many, very many private residences in the city, far supe rior to the residence of the Executive of the Commonwealth; and more than one Pennsylvanian has expressed his surprise and disgust when the Executive mansion was pointed out to him. We repeat our hope, then, that those who have the enterprise in charge, will lose no time in hurrying it forward to success. so that the Governor, his estimable wife and family, may be removed to a suitable residence, where they will be able to entertain the numerous guests which daily fill the mansion, and find the comfort, convenience and accommodation to which they were accustomed before they came to reside in our midst, and to which they are eminently entitled at the hands of the people of the Commonwealth.
