TOWN AND COUNTRY.

We are again enjoying pleasant, spring-like weather.

ARRIVED—the season for pruning fruit and shade trees and grape vines.

The blue birds have made their appearance—rather too early.

COMING—Flitting time of Year. We pity the moths.

The United States Assessor publishes an important notice concerning the annual taxes, etc., imposed by the excise law.

Look out for bogus fifty cents postage currency. They are getting to be almost as plenty as the genuine article.

CONSUMERS of gas who do not pay their bills to-morrow (10th inst.) will find themselves in darkness, as the flow of gas will be stopped.

ROBBERY.—A daring robbery was committed at Shippensburg, night before last. The warehouse safe of H. Buly & Co., was blown open, and about $225 taken therefrom.

HAVING A GOOD TIME GENERALLY—our returned soldiers. Go it while you're at home, boys, for when you get back to camp you can't.

SUICIDE.—Andrew Hart, a citizen of Lancaster, committed suicide at Mrs. Jordan's, in North Street, this city, yesterday morning, by taking laudanum. When found he was dead, in bed.

TERRAPINS.—A fine, fresh lot of Terrapins just arrived from Baltimore, and will be served up this evening at Snively's restaurant under the Jones House. Epicures attend. 3t

ATTENTION, UNION VOTERS OF THE FOURTH WARD.—You are requested to meet at the public house of Wm. Hughes, on Canal street, on Saturday evening at seven o'clock, for the purpose of nominating candidates for city officers.

RECAPTURED.—One of the rebel officers who escaped from the cars between Harrisburg and Baltimore, while en route from Johnston's Island to Point Lookout, a week or two since, was arrested near Harper's Ferry on Tuesday, and sent to the Old Capitol.

YESTERDAY we noticed the fact that an individual had been "spotted" as an accomplice in the robbery of Mr. Lazarus, at the Depot. Later in the afternoon office Campbell arrested him in Middletown. He gave his name as Jacob Davis. A portion of the missing goods were found on him, and he was brought to this city for a hearing. Being a soldier, and it is said a deserter from the Twentieth Pennsylvania cavalry, Davis was handed over to the military authorities.

THREE CHILDREN AT BIRTH.—Who Westmoreland Republican says: "We learn that a few weeks ago, Mrs. Trimble, wife of James Trimble, of Indiana county, formerly of Lionier Valley, in this county, gave birth to three female children, the combined weight of which was twenty-one pounds. They are doing well, and are all unusually healthy. As the mother was formerly a resident of this county, Westmoreland will claim the credit of this increase in the human family."

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Theodore J. Burnett, proprietor of the hat store in the Jones House, died yesterday afternoon, after an illness of but a few hours. He was at his store in the morning, in the apparent enjoyment of health. Mr. B. was one of our most respectable citizens, and his death will be deeply lamented by a large circle of friends. His remains were taken to Litiz, Lancaster county, this afternoon, and will be interred there to-morrow.

BOUNTIES FOR RECRUITS IN THE 184TH REG'T. P. V.—We have just been informed by Major Stover, commanding the 184th regiment, P. V., that he has been authorized to insure all the Government bounties to recruits for his regiment, the 184th, and that he has also made arrangements to secure the highest local bounties, paid in the State. We make this statement in justice to Major Stover, as efforts were attempted to interfere with his recruiting by asserting that volunteers for his regiment would not receive the Government bounties. It is now settled, that recruits for the 184th will be treated as all others. No man could fight under a braver officer than Major Stover.

SANFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.—A glorious bill is provided for this evening, and it is expected that the Military Cadets from West Chester will be present; also, the Governor, as Mr. S. has invited them to visit the performance—consequently a select programme is announced, which will be minstrelsy, burlesque, circus, acts of horsemanship, Ravens' pantomime, etc. We would advise all who intend patronizing Sanford's this evening, to be on hand early to secure seats, as the house is unusually full with the extra inducements.

P. S.—Since the above was put in type, we have been informed by Mr. Sanford that Wye's Cadets will positively be at the Opera House to-night, in a body. We advise everybody to go very early. The Cadets will be there at 6 1/2 o'clock.

Forty-five years' Men.—Those persons who have reached the age of forty-five since the last draft should at once go before a magistrate and make oath to that fact, and have their names stricken from the enrollment books. This course would save inconvenience to themselves and the draft officers.

The Wye's Cadets, from the military institute at West Chester, arrived here at one o'clock to-day, and drilled before the Legislature at a later hour. They numbered eighty-two, rank and file, and made a very imposing appearance. Their fine evolutions when on drill are highly spoken of by all who were present.

GEN. FRANZ SIGEL, says the Chambersburg Repository, passed through Martinsburg on Monday last, on his way to assume command of the Department of West Virginia, and was greeted with artillery salutes as became the occasion. The loyal people throughout the country seem to rejoice that the gallant Sigel is again placed in a command worthy of his deserts.

THOSE CARS.—Yesterday we published an item concerning a number of fine passenger cars just built for the use of the Pennsylvania railroad company. We since learned that they were built in this city, (instead of Altoona), under the direction of Mr. Hildrup, Superintendent of the car shops, and were sent to Altoona to receive the "finishing touch."

A young lady once hinted to a gentleman that her thimble was worn out, and asked what reward her industry merited. He sent her in answer a thimble beautifully engraved as follows:

I send this thimble
For fingers unable,
Which I hope will fit you as snugly
As the hint you gave me to buy it.

LAZY BOYS.—A lazy boy makes a lazy man, just as pure as a crooked twig makes a crooked tree. Who ever yet saw a boy grow up in idleness that did not make a shiftless vagabond when he became a man, unless he had a fortune left him to keep up appearances?

The great mass of thieves, paupers, and criminals that fill our penitentiaries and almshouses have come up to what they are by being brought up in idleness. Those who constitute the business portion of the community, those who make our great and useful men, were trained up in their boyhood to be industrious.

SAD ACCIDENT.—The Indiana (Pa.) True American, of Thursday, says: On yesterday morning a most terrible affair occurred in Hayne township. Mrs. Margaret Thompson, aged about 70 years, who has been residing with James Vanhorn, of said township, for some time, was discovered lying in the fire of her room; shockingly burned and dead. Mr. Vanhorn, as was his custom after rising, made a fire in her room and went out to attend to his stock. His wife entered the room with breakfast for Miss Thompson, who was very frail, when she discovered her lying with her head in the fire shockingly burned. She had her arms crossed upon her chest, and appeared to have fallen forward in the position she was found. It is supposed from her position that she had fallen dead, when approaching the fire.

INFORMATION GIVEN.—Many of our readers desire to know the price list of army clothing. We give below the prices of the more important articles of clothing.

Uniform hat.....	$1.65	Knit shirts.....	$1.25
Forage cap.....	50	Flannel drawers.....	50
Cap cover.....	15	Knit drawers.....	1.00
Flannel necker.....	75	Stockings.....	35
Private's unit jacket.....	4.25	Bootes, sewed.....	2.05
Private's trousers.....	2.50	Bootes, pegged.....	1.45
Flannel necker.....	75	Great coats.....	5.00
Blued.....	3.12	Blankets, woolen.....	3.25
Knit jacket.....	2.55	Blankets, rubber.....	2.45
Flannel shirts.....	1.65

In examining the above list of prices, we are convinced that Uncle Sam keeps the cheapest clothing emporium in the Union. Selecting from the above the highest-priced articles, and we find that the "soldier gent" can equip himself for a Sunday's stroll at the wonderfully small sum of $15.45. A soldier is allowed $42 worth of clothing in a year, which, as a general thing, is amply sufficient. We have known cases in which the soldier did not use more than one-half of his quota.

WYER'S CADETS.—The West Chester Record publishes the following very handsome compliment to the "Wyers Cadets" and their instructor, Major Eckendorf, from Major General Pleasanton. The compliment is the more valuable for being well deserved:

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 10, 1864.
To William F. Wyers, Esq., Principal of the West Chester Academy and Military Institute, West Chester, Pa.
DEAR SIR:—Having been a spectator at the drill of the Cadets of your institute, which was exhibited last night at the Academy of Music by their instructor, Major Eckendorf, I have great pleasure in bearing my testimony to your proficiency in the drill of the company. I was particularly impressed with the strict attention of the Cadets to "the position of a soldier," whether at a halt or in the use of their weapons; their alignments and the preservation of their distances were excellent; the duties of the guides were admirably performed; the readiness, rapidly and ensemble of all their movements excited my highest admiration. I may say, sir, that the excellence of the drill of your Cadets last night cannot be surpassed, and has rarely been equaled. I congratulate Major Eckendorf on his brilliant success, and the Cadets on their good fortune in possessing so able and efficient an instructor.

Go on, sir, in your career of usefulness; extend your course of military instruction. The country needs and will need as officers of its troops all of your pupils; and they can only be assured that your gratitude will extend the efforts of its people, whether employed in moulding the youthful mind to future usefulness, or in resisting its enemies on the field of battle.

I remain, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
A. J. PLEASANTON.

The "Wyers Cadets" will give a public drill on the Capitol grounds this (Wednesday) evening at half-past-four o'clock; also at nine o'clock Thursday morning. They will be reviewed by Governor Curtin.

NOTHING can deter the people from attending the theatre. Notwithstanding the inclement state of the weather, last night, there was a large crowd at Brant's Hall, to witness the last representation of The Ticket-of-Leave Man. The performance was even better than it has always been excellent. The Star Troupe is winning the esteem of everybody, and commands the patronage of the most refined classes of the public.

To-night that fine play entitled The Lady of Lyons, will be presented for the first time. It cannot fail to attract an immense audience, as it is popular everywhere. There is a splendid cast of characters. The Bonny Fish-Wife, a very amusing farce, will conclude the entertainment.

HOW HEADACHE, TOOTHACHE, NEURALGIA AND CICATRACH MAY BE SUCCESSFULLY TREATED AND PERMANENTLY CURED. For Nervous Headache, Neuralgia in its worst forms, and most cases of Sick-Headache, it is a certain cure. Of course there will be exceptions, but we speak of the majority of cases.

TOOTHACHE.—This common complaint can be cured immediately and the pain annihilated without putting anything in the tooth. What is it and how to use it. To annihilate pain there's a remedy found. Its novelty in use beats all medicine's sound. 'Tis a positive cure, but would you suppose 'The only way to use it is to snuff it up your nose; S. A. NEW CUMBERLAND, Pa., Jan. 20, 1864.
DEAR LADY.—Mrs. Ball, will you please pardon me for the liberty that I have taken in addressing you, a stranger. I feel myself under obligations to you for the benefit I have derived from your medicine and eye salve, having suffered for many years most excruciating pain in my head, breast and side, not being free from pain day or night. And I have been doctored with well-skilled and practical physicians for some years, and all attempts proved a failure. I have given up all hopes of recovery and felt fully resigned to await my fate, which foretold an untimely grave. My father being a resident of Sidonsburg, and living quite a distance from you, I did not get to hear of your medicine. Some few months ago I was advised by a lady friend of mine to try your medicine. She stated to me that she made use of your medicine and save which proved a cure. Feeling rather loth at first to try, as I had laid out money time after time, which made the expenses very heavy and all for nothing. But having great confidence in my friend's integrity, I was prompted to hearken to her kind entreaty and try for myself. I therefore purchased two dollars and a half worth of your medicine, and to my utter astonishment, in one week I felt a great change, and in two weeks was entirely free from all pain, and your eye salve perfected a cure for which all other washes and salves proved useless. My eyes, were so much improved that I was forced to wear glasses for some years, and now I have no occasion at all to wear the glasses, my eyes being well. I therefore have resolved, dear lady, to let you know that I could not rest content until I would return my heartfelt congratulations to you, my friend and benefactor, for the good you have accomplished, feeling myself a new creature entirely.

You are at perfect liberty to publish this if you feel so inclined. I close by requesting you to accept my warmest regards, with a hope that for humanity's sake, your life may be prolonged. Success be yours forever in performing the wonderful cure.

Yours with respect,
MARY E. BROWN.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 8th, 1864.
O. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: I have used Brown's Bronchial Trochies, Wistar's Lozenges and other preparations for hoarseness and throat troubles, and in comparison with them all, can cheerfully commend you as the most admirable specific for public speakers and singers, in cases of hoarseness, coughs and colds. I have found them serving in time of need, most effectually.
Yours truly,
T. H. ROBINSON,
Pastor of N. S. Presbyterian Church.

I agree with Mr. Robinson as to the value of Bannart's Bronchial Trochies.

HARRISBURG, Jan., 1864.
To O. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: In the habit of speaking very frequently, and in places where the vocal organs are very much taxed, I have found the need of some gentle expectorant, and that want has been supplied in your excellent Trochies.

I consider them very far superior to any Lozenges that I have ever used, in removing speedily that huskiness of the voice arising from its too frequent use, and impairing the effectiveness of the delivery of public addresses. Yours, &c.
J. WALKER JACKSON,
Pastor of the Locust St. Methodist Church.

To C. A. BANNART.—Dear Sir: Having used your Bronchial Trochies, I am free to say they are the best I have ever tried and take great pleasure in recommending them to all persons afflicted with sore throat or huskiness of voice arising from public speaking or singing. Yours, &c.
