We publish to-day the resolutions adopted by this body yesterday, from which it will be observed that the leaders in this county...

A lively time was anticipated, from the fact that several contested seats were in controversy; but the crowd who had assembled in the room soon discovered that 'fair play' was a stranger to the Convention...

Our amiable friend Sir RICHARD, of the Patriot and Union, worked his way into the Convention as a substitute for his partner, O. BARRETT...

WHEREABOUTS OF FREMONT.—California papers report that Col. Fremont's family and household are encamped upon the top of Mount Bullion, two thousand feet above Bear Valley...

The ticket nominated by the Convention on Monday needs no comment on our part. It is enough for us to know that it is the weakest that they could have possibly nominated.

We are sorry that the Convention thus followed the blind beasts and obeyed the command given them from Washington so eagerly.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Dauphin county reassert their unflinching devotion to the Federal Union and the Constitution...

Resolved, That the growing power of sectionalism and disunionism, should awaken the profoundest indignation...

Resolved, That the Democratic party, which has distinguished for its determined advocacy of the sovereignty of the people...

Resolved, That the Senator and members of Congress from Pennsylvania, should receive a vote of thanks from true Democrats...

Resolved, That the ticket which we to-day have nominated, of good men and sound Democrats, we pledge our most earnest support...
