

Daily Telegraph.

HARRISBURG, PA.

Thursday Afternoon, September 20, 1860.

PICTURE FRAMES made to order at the shortest notice and at the most reasonable prices, at W. Knoche's Music Store, 92 Market street.

NOTICE THIS.—All the late daily and weekly Papers, Magazines, etc. publications and new books, are for sale at Bergner's Cheap Book Store, No. 61 Market street.

A MILITARY ENCAMPMENT was held at Muncy this week. Major General Jackson had command, and ten or twelve companies were in attendance.

THE WIDE AWAKE CLUB will meet at the Cameron Guard Armory, in the Walnut street Exchange, this evening at seven o'clock, to take further action relative to the excursion to Carlisle to-morrow evening. Turn out!

FOR LEBANON.—A number of Republicans of this city left this afternoon for Lebanon, to attend the mass meeting which comes off there to-night. The principal speaker on the occasion will be Hon. Carl Schurz, the great German orator and statesman.

FEVER AND AGUE having made its appearance we advise all afflicted to get BANNVART'S ANTI-PERIODIC, which is a positive cure. Sold only by C. A. BANNVART who will also send it post paid to any address on receipt of 17 letter stamps.

THE Lynchburg Republican is a Breckenridge paper, and it announces that "the moment the lightning flash shall convey the intelligence of the election (of Lincoln), it will unfurl to the breeze the flag of Disunion."

Won't that be awful! The universe as well as the Union will go to smash!

THE GOOD WILL FIRE COMPANY of Philadelphia, with their steam engine, are expected to reach here from the West to-morrow afternoon, and remain until the next day. Arrangements have been made by our firemen to give the visitors a fitting reception.

ORGANIZER.—Let every friend of LINCOLN and CURTIS ask himself the question, if his district is organized for the SECOND TUESDAY in OCTOBER. If he does not know that his district is thoroughly organized, attend to it at once. Remember, that what is everybody's business is nobody's, and the only way to make sure that it is done is to do it yourself.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—This morning a German named Benjamin Myers was before Justice Beader, charged with committing assault and battery upon Ideella Dickinson, the mahogany colored female who was bound over yesterday on a similar charge. The details of the affair are too disgusting for publication. Myers gave bail for his appearance at Court to answer.

MEETING AT JONESTOWN.—A Republican mass meeting will be held at Jonestown on Saturday evening, to be participated in by the Wide Awakes of that village and the Equestrian Wide Awakes of Susquehanna township. Major David Mumma, of this city, is announced as one of the speakers, and will address the people in the German language.

THE YOUNG MEN for Lincoln. Hardly one voting on age this year, but will go for him. The reason is plain—there is no opening for young men in business, in consequence of the Free Trade of the Democracy, and they are determined to vote this year for their business interests. We need but point to the Wide Awake Clubs to show where the young men are.

A TALL TICKET.—The standard bearers of the Republican party are all large and fine looking men. Abraham Lincoln is six feet four inches in height. Hannibal Hamlin is six feet three inches in height. Andrew G. Curtin is six feet two inches in height. Making a total of eighteen feet nine inches of candidates of the People for President and Vice President, and Governor of Pennsylvania. If a taller ticket can be "scares up," trot it out.

SCHOOL TEACHING.—With regard to the practice of giving scholars lessons to be studied at home, an indignant writer says: "The whole system of merely HEARING lessons recited in public schools is a cunning fraud of teachers, falsely so called. Those teachers teach nothing. They sit majestically enthroned in their school chairs, to decide daily whether the scholars have done their— that is, the teachers—work at home, and to punish or reward the scholar for the parent's ability or ignorance. When we pay taxes for public schools, or enormous fees for private ones, we want tutors, not magistrates, for our money: we want the men and women employed in schools to do something more than sit up in state and ask questions—we want them to teach our children something they did not know, and not send them home to be taught, that the teachers may diurnally go through the farce of hearing them recite what parents have taught them, and they know already."

A LOOFOCO OPINION.—The State Sentinel, imitating the example of the aristocratic Loofoco leaders who stigmatize free white working men as "greasy mechanics" and the "mud-sills of society," pitches into the Wide-Awakes of our city in the following rough and denunciatory style. Alluding to the parade yesterday afternoon the Sentinel says: "They numbered 123, exclusive of the band, and were as FOOLISH-LOOKING SET OF FELLOWS as we ever saw. It grieved us to see them—not on account of their strength—but because they degraded their strength—and degraded all common sense by appearing on parade as a dressed up BAND OF MEGALOMANIACS. The fool-shooters may go out with certainty bagging any amount of game."

The "fellow" who penned the above paragraph is welcome to all the political capital he can make by denouncing as "fools" and "megalomaniacs" the intelligent and respectable young men who compose the Wide-Awake club.—Should "the fool-shooter" go out now, he could not have to travel further than the Sentinel office to find "game."

We had the pleasure of meeting our young friend J. Furey Larimer of Pleasant Gap, Centre county, in Harrisburg to-day. He visits the State Capitol for recreation and rest after the labors of the harvest field and the after seedling.

NEW BRIDGE.—The contract for building a new bridge over the Swatara, at Middletown, has been awarded to Messrs. Fisher and Hummel, they being the lowest responsible bidders. Their proposal is $1,484.60. The bridge will be commenced at once.

A SPECIAL MEETING of the Good Will Fire Company will be held at their engine house on Ridge road this evening, to make arrangements for uniting with the Citizen company in the reception of the Good Will Fire Company of Philadelphia, on their arrival from the West.

ARE YOU ASSURED?—Friends of LINCOLN and CURTIS! If you have any doubts about your names being on the Assessor's list, GO AND SEE IT WITHOUT DELAY! Remember that all who desire to vote at the October election must be assessed by SATURDAY THE 23RD OF SEPTEMBER—ten days before the election. Attend to it!

THE LOCK-UP last night contained only one lodger—a rather hard looking specimen of humanity, who responded to the name of John Rushoff. John is a "tramp" from the western country, and in his journey one night got drunk, when one of his companions stole the greater part of his clothing and all his money, leaving him penniless. His honor, the Mayor, gave him some wholesome advice, the best of which was to leave the city, and John left accordingly.

A SLIGHT DIFFERENCE.—The Sentinel estimates the number of Wide Awakes on parade yesterday at one hundred and twenty-three. The local of the Union gives as the result of his count TWO HUNDRED AND THIRTY-FIVE! The former is too low and the latter entirely too high in the figures. The number of equipments owned by the club is one hundred and fifty, and they were all filled. Our neighbor of the Union must have been looking through "a thick bottomed tumbler" when he counted the procession.

FAST WOMEN.—In the last number of Fraser's Magazine, the word "fast," as applicable to the fair sex, is defined as "a combination of the less desirable attributes of women." The writer proceeds in his definition to say that "a fast girl can ride across the country, smoke, shoot, play billiards, bet, and talk about dogs and horses in a truly edifying manner. She wears shorter and more vivid petticoats, smaller hats, brighter feathers, boots with higher heels, and more plentifully decorated with little brass rings than those of her slower contemporaries, and piques herself on 'reading anything.'"

EXAMINATION OF TEACHERS.—The County Superintendent is still engaged in the examination of applicants for the public schools. To-morrow he will visit Conewago township. His appointments for next week are as follows: Dauphin and Middletown on Monday; Reed township on Tuesday; Halifax on Wednesday; Millersburg and Upper Paxton on Thursday; Fishersville on Friday; Jefferson township on Saturday. Mr. Ingram's arduous duties in this branch of his official business will not be completed until the 4th of next month; when, after a brief rest from his labors, he will commence another tour of the county for the purpose of visiting and noting the progress of the various public schools.

HARRISBURG FIREMEN INVITED TO LANCASTER.—The firemen of Lancaster are making preparations for their triennial parade to come off on Friday the 28th of this month. A convention of the various companies in that city was held recently, at which the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention extend a cordial invitation to the Firemen of the boroughs of Reading and Harrisburg, and the cities of York, Columbia and Marietta, and of the other boroughs of this county, to participate with us in the Firemen's parade to take place in this city on the 28th of this month.

We are not aware that any of the companies of this city have acted upon the above invitation, but the probability is that some of them will accept it.

THE LITTLE JOKER.—On the first of March 1855, Stephen A. Douglas, in his place in the United States Senate said:

"I am for a REDUCTION of the Tariff to a strict revenue standard. I AM A FREE TRADE MAN TO THE FULLEST EXTENT, that we can carry it, and at the same time collect revenue enough to defray the expenses of the Government. In other words, I am for no other kind of a Tariff than a Revenue Tariff."

The "little joker" recently made a pilgrimage through the coal and iron regions of Pennsylvania, riding the Profit horse, and with the most unflinching effrontery told the people living in those districts that he was a protective tariff man, as far as would benefit the interests of this State. The "little joker" must be a dishonest man in his political schemes, or a willful falsifier. His stump speeches and senatorial record will prove him one or the other.

[COMMUNICATED.]

The offices of the day belong less to grief and sorrow than to congratulation and joy. It is true that our old friend and spiritual father, JOHN WINEBRENNER, is no longer numbered among the living, but it is a subject of congratulation that he lived beyond the ordinary period allotted to human life, and that he was permitted to die, in his own home, in his own bed, surrounded by his domestic family. The great luminary of his brethren has set forever, but it is a subject of rejoicing that it is set in almost supernatural splendor, obscured by no cloud, not a ray dimmed. Many of our distinguished countrymen live only in tradition; but Elder JOHN WINEBRENNER has made up the record for himself; a record which discloses, clear as light, his moral worth and religious principles—a record containing "no word which, dying, he might wish to blot," or any friend of his desire to efface. He has reared his own monument. There it stands, and there it will stand forever. Allow me, in a few words, to speak of some of the personal characteristics of Mr. WINEBRENNER. I have been long acquainted with him. From all I know, have seen and heard, I am willing to bear testimony that JOHN WINEBRENNER possessed the highest integrity. He always seemed to me to act under the present conviction that whatever he did would be known not only to his contemporaries, but to posterity. "He was clear in office." He regarded the power conferred upon him by his brethren as power in trust; and though always willing and desirous to oblige his friends, yet he would never directly or indirectly violate that trust. I had the pleasure of meeting him often in private circles, and in his conversation I have never known him to express an impure thought, or an immoral sentiment; neither in writing nor in conversation has he ever been known to assail any man. No man has ever been slandered or spoken ill of by JOHN WINEBRENNER. Never in my life, have I known a man whose conversation was uniformly so unexceptionable in tone and edifying in character. No man ever had more tenderness of feeling than JOHN WINEBRENNER. He had his enemies, as malignant as any man; but there was not one of them who, if he came to him in distress, would not obtain all the relief in his power to give.

But it may be asked had this great man no faults? Surely he had. No man liveth and sinneth not. There were veins of human imperfections running through his large heart and large brain. But neither men, nor the works of men, should be judged by their defects. Like all eminent persons, he fell upon evil tongues; but those who best knew his private life, most honored, venerated and loved him. He was a man of strong religious feeling. He had been from his youth upward a diligent student of the Scriptures, and few men were more familiar with their teachings and their language. He had a great reverence for the very words of the Bible, and never used them in any light or trivial connection. He never avoided the subjects of life, death and immortality; and when he spoke of them, it was with unusual depth of feeling and impressiveness of manner. In April last he had completed his sixty-third year, and yet his eyes were not dimmed, nor his natural force much abated. But with the approach of summer he grew weaker, and his looks and voice, when he last spoke to us, a few months ago, forced upon us the mournful reflection that this great light must soon sink below the horizon. But yet when the news came that the hand of Death was upon him, it startled us like a sudden blow. We listened to the tidings which came hour after hour from his chamber, as men upon the shore, in a night of storm, listen to the minute-guns of a sinking ship, freighted with the treasures of their hearts. The grief of his people was sear for the minutest details of his closing hours, and he died with their best wishes around his couch. Of the beauty and grandeur of that death I need not speak, for it is fixed upon the memories and deep in the heart. He died calmly, simply and bravely. He died like a Husband, a Father, a Friend, a Christian and a Man; with thoughtful tenderness for his flock and for those around him, and a firm reliance on the mercy and goodness of God. He was not (comparatively speaking) tired of long and hopeless suffering; nor were his friends saddened by seeing the lights put out before the curtain fell. His mind, like a setting sun, seemed larger at the closing hours. Such a death narrows the dark valley to a span. Such is a midsummer at the poles, where sunset melts into sunrise, and the last rays of evening are caught up and appear once more as the first beams of the new morning.—Elder JOHN WINEBRENNER has passed from amongst those who loved him. The dignity of life has given place to the dignity of death. His smile has vanished forever from the earth, and the hand and form are silent, cold and motionless. A lover of Nature, he seemed to be gathered into her maternal arms, and to lie like a child upon a Mother's bosom. Slowly and sadly did the vast multitude of his friends follow his remains to the tomb in mournful silence, and silently they laid him down to rest among dear and kindred dust. There, among the scenes that he loved in life, he sleeps well. He has left his name and memory to dwell forever upon those hills and valleys, to breathe a more spiritual tone into the winds that blow over his grave, to touch with finer light the line of the breaking wave, to throw a more solemn beauty upon the hues of Autumn and the shadows of twilight. But though his mortal form is there, his spirit is here with us still. His words are written in living light. May that spirit rest upon us and our children! May those words live in our hearts and in the hearts of those who come after us! May we honor his memory, and show our gratitude for his life by taking heed to his counsels, and walking in the way in which his wisdom shines.

"His suffering ended with the day; Yet lived he on its place; And breathed the long, long night away In state-like repose." But ere the sun in all his state, Illumed the eastern skies, He passed through glory's morning gate, And walked in Paradise." J. M. B.

A BATTALION PARADE will come off at Lykens to-morrow, in which several military companies are expected to participate. The "Flying horses" are on hand, the lads and lassies of the rural districts will turn out by the acre, tons of gingerbread will be consumed, spruce beer will flow in continuous streams, and a "high old time" generally is anticipated.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On Tuesday last Major E. STILES EOE, of Carlisle, a gentleman of extensive literary attainments, whose fame as a poet is State-wide, died very suddenly. While at the supper table conversing with his fellow-boarders, his head fell forward on his breast, and in three or four minutes he was a corpse! The deceased was well known in this community, and his death will be sincerely lamented.

MIDDLETOWN WIDE AWAKES.—A delegation of about fifty Wide Awakes from Middletown, under the command of Capt. Elijah Embick, attended the parade at Lancaster city yesterday. They drilled exceedingly well, and made a fine impression along the entire route of the procession. Much credit is due the gallant Capt. Embick for their proficiency in drill. The company is a credit to Middletown. We expect the club to make a large turn-out on the occasion of the mass meeting here next Wednesday night.

DISMEMBERING CASE.—About four months since a son of Mr. Elias Powell, of Fishersville, in this county, aged about thirteen years, took a pain in his left arm, which was sometimes very agonizing. The arm finally opened and has kept up a running sore ever since. Last Friday an incision was made into the arm to examine the bone, when, it was ascertained to be in such a condition as to make amputation necessary to save the boy. The arm was amputated at the shoulder joint by Dr. Nonamaker. The lad is doing remarkably well since the operation.

ANOTHER MYSTERY.—We learn that the workmen engaged in disinterring the remains of the dead in the old colored burying ground at the corner of Chestnut and Canal streets, yesterday came across a rough pine coffin about two feet below the surface of the ground, which exhibited such slight evidences of decay that they were induced to open it, and found therein the remains of a white man, with his boots, hat and clothing on, and wrapped in a blanket. As no burials have been made there for ten years or more by the colored people, there is a mystery connected with this affair which remains to be solved.

FOR CARLISLE.—An excursion train will leave here to-morrow evening at half-past five o'clock for Carlisle, to afford the Republicans of this city and vicinity an opportunity of attending the mass meeting to be held there. Bridgeport, New Cumberland, Shiremanstown and Mechanicsburg intend sending large delegations of Wide Awakes and people. The Wide Awakes of Shippensburg and Chambersburg will also be in attendance. Half fare tickets will be issued by the Railroad Company. It is uncertain whether our Wide Awakes will attend the meeting. They meet to night to take final action on the invitation. The excursion will be a cheap and pleasant one, and we hope to see a large turn out from this city.

THE PRICE TO BUY CHEAP DRY GOODS.—Just received 50 pieces of new styles Calicos, warranted fast colors, 10 cents; 10 dozen of all Linen-White Toweling, 25 cents a piece; 10 pieces of White all-Wool Flannel very cheap; a lot of Fancy and Plain Satinets; 20 pieces of White Cambric, Jaconnets and Nansuks, and a good many other new and cheap goods. AMONG desirable articles, we may name as foremost the want of a useful, gluing, easy use, and of general and universal application, for the repair of furniture, crockery, shell work and other serviceable and ornamental purposes. The prime qualities of a good glue are its adhesive power, its use at all times, and its reliability as a hold-fast. And this is the article we have introduced. It has been so fortunate as to introduce. In convenient bottles with a handy brush; Spalding's Prepared Glue requires no day's preparatory softening in water; no heating for use, and no tedious delays to secure its junction and cohesion—being held in solution chemically, and capable of being applied instantly, and to every variety of wood and furniture. Spalding's Glue, thus proves itself to be a true Household Friend, and will be welcomed heartily in all parts of the country. We have given full trial, and we have found it quick as lightning in taking hold, and firm as death in holding fast. mar12-daily

Do not let this medicine overcome you better reason; do not look upon this as only like other drugs; do not let your despair, after trying every thing else, prevent you from using these. Now we never said a word in favor of a patent medicine before in our life, but we feel compelled to say to our readers, that our children have tried it, and know it to be all that it is. It is, probably, one of the most successful medicines of the age. It is a good thing for the mother, and it will purify and cleanse it as sure as the sun will rise to-morrow. Sold by all Medicine Dealers. 38-1m

ERUPTIONS, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS.—It is now generally admitted that all eruptive diseases depend upon some internal or constitutional cause, and that to use washes or ointments for them is a sure way to injure the system, and only to drive the disease into the blood. HUMPHERY'S SPECIFIC HOMOEOPATHIC SALT RHEUM PILLS are a true specific for all such diseases. They cure Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Erysipelas, Pimples on the Face, Itching and Nettles Rash, by curing the cause upon which they depend, and by restoring the skin to the state of health and purity. Thus, not only is the disease cured, but the softness and beauty of the complexion restored. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, use the Blood Purifier, and be restored to health. We have the honor to inform our readers, that all our bottles are now supplied, and we are at once relieved. For sale by C. A. BANNVART, sole agent, Harrisburg, Pa. mar12-daily

This was rejected as unfair and unequal, as the friends of Breckenridge could not, with such an arrangement, have more than five or six electors. HOW TO PRESERVE BEAUTY.—Nothing is more precious to a man or woman than a luxuriant head of hair, and a woman's beauty is certainly incomplete without a fair complexion, and she who neglects these two great and important adornments of nature must expect to suffer the mortification of premature baldness, and a wrinkled face and a sallow skin. Nothing is necessary to preserve these essential attractions but the use of Prof. Wood's Restorative—Lancette France.

Prof. Wood's HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We have had occasion to use this famous preparation of Prof. Wood's and after thoroughly testing its qualities we find that where the hair is thin it will thicken it, if gray it will restore it to its original color; likewise, it gives a glossy appearance, as well as keeps the hair from falling off. This invaluable preparation is sold by a certain Store, 70 South-east corner Frederick and Baltimore Sts. by Mr. J. C. Given.—Baltimore Clipper. Sold by all good Druggists. $12-1m

BUY THE BEST. NORTON'S OINTMENT

FOR SALT RHEUM AND SCROFULA, PERMANENTLY. SALT RHEUM, SCROFULA, SCALD HEAD, FEVER SORES, AND ALL ITCHING OR BURNING SORES AND ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN. This Ointment bears no resemblance to any other of its kind, and its operation is peculiar. It penetrates to the basis of the disease—goes to its very source—and cures it from the flesh beneath to the skin on the surface. Other outward applications for Scrofula, Salt Rheum, &c., often operate demoralizing, thus driving the disorder inward, and often occasioning terrible internal maladies. NORTON'S OINTMENT, on the contrary, throws the poison of the disease outward, and every particle of it is discharged through the pores. Thus the cure it effects is complete. Not only are the sores healed—the eruptions removed—the swellings reduced—but the seeds of the disease expelled from the flesh; consequently there can be no relapse. Victims of ulcerous and eruptive complaints, who have tried every professional mode of treatment and every advertised curative without relief, will find in this safe, and expeditious remedy for the evils you endure. A single box will satisfy you of the truth of all that is here stated. Since its first introduction, the properties of the Ointment have been tested in the most obstinate cases—cases and upon which the best medical skill in the country, and upon which the most experienced and skillful surgeons produced no effect—and in every instance with every success. Sold in Large Bottles, 50c. Gents. GERRIT NORTON, Chemist, Patentee, New York. Wholesale DEPOT at BENFOLD, PARKER & MOWERS, Wholesale and Retail Druggists, 107 Broadway, N. Y. Sold by Geo.
