Republicanism in Baltimore.

ORGANIZATION OF WIDE-AWAKE CLUBS. ENTHUSIASM FOR LINCOLN.—ACCES-SIONS FROM THE AMERICAN PARTY.

Baltimore is looking up. With the restoration of order comes the freedom of speech; and, as the New York Tribune says, Baltimore would be another St. Louis all over if she had another Frank Blair to lead her forward. The rapid strides in that city threaten to demolish all the old parties; and if H. Winter Davis will accept a Republican nomination for Congress, his election is sure. The following description of scenes enacted on Thursday last has the right ring about it, and although copied from the Exchange, a pro-slavery Breckinridge paper, it tells the story with so much con-Exchange article is headed with enormous capitals, and the whole tenor of the paper shows that the events described were regarded as of more than ordinary importance. It says :--

Last night the Republican party met in Independence Hall, corner of Gay and Fayette streets, for the purpose of forming a Wide-Awake Club. Mr. Emery, of the Border State, (Republican organ), was called to the Chair, and Wm. Louis Schley appointed Secretary. Soon after the meeting was organized, it was an-nounced that a large number of men from Fell's Point and other portions of the eastern section of the city were on their way to the meeting. This proved to be the case. Men to the number of three or four hundred, who were heretofore identified with the American and Bell and Everett parties, disgusted with the result of the municipal election, had determined to throw off their allegiance to that party and go over, bag and baggage, to the Republican camp.

They gathered at different points in the eastern section of the city, and then met on Balti-more street, [the principal street in that city] and proceeded to the Republican headquarters. All along the line of march, cheers were pro-posed and given for Lincoln and Hamlin. On reaching the corner of Gay and Fayette streets the excitement was very great—there was a continual uproar, and a constant shouting for the Republican ticket. The party proceeded to the entrance of the headquarters, and as they ascended the stairs the cheering continued.

As soon as the head of the procession entered the door of the hall, the Republicans, who had previously assembled, rose from their seats, and met the accession with tumultuous applause. In a few minutes the hall was densely packed. Men were standing on the seats, shouting and yelling for Lincoln, while Wm. E. Coals, Esq., was endeavoring to gain the attention of the meeting. He was standing on the platform, gesticulating violently, and in vain endeavoring to make his voice penetrate to the rear of the hall. The noise and confusion were too great, and some minutes elapsed before quiet stored. Mr Cosle ti new comers to the fold of Republicanism, regretted that the quarters were so small, and pro-phesied that the time was near at hand when Republicans could hold a meeting in Monument

Henry Forrest, of the Seventh Ward, a yesterday American Bell-Everett man, was next introduced. He said he had been an American for the past six years. He, together with other straight-out Americans, had always faithfully clung to their principles and their nominees. The Bell-Everett party professions were a cheat. He was a Republican henceforward, and hundreds of others stood in precisely the some position he did.

At this stage of the proceedings two men entered, carrying huge armfuls of campaign Re-publican documents. They were handed out in bundles and scattered all over the Convention; the men standing on the benches sowed them over the people. There was a scramble for these documents, and the confusion became so great that Mr. Forrest had to pause in his remarks. There were cries of "Throw the truth this way,"Give us a tract," "Where's Father Freeman? A number of men here entered, who were from the headquarters of the "Minute Men," and had come to join the Republican camp. At this some one called for "three cheers for Lincoln," which were vociferousy given. A man standing on a bench moved that the meeting adjourn to Monument Square. Cries of "No! no!"
"We've come to form a Wide-Awake Club—let's

A motion was made to appoint a committee of five whose duty it should be to select officers for the meeting. This was amended by increasing the committee to one from each ward, which was carried. The announcement of the committee was hailed with cheers.

A motion was made to adjourn to meet this evening, the place of meeting to be announced in the papers. Carried.

Cheers were then proposed for Lincoln and Hamlin, and given, and the crowd commenced making its way to the street.

Several hundreds of people had gathered in Gay and Fayette streets, attracted, no doubt, by the uproar in the Hall, and as the Republicans gained the street, they commenced cheering in the wildest manner.

SECESSION RAMPANT.—The election for members of the Legislature of South Carolina and for members of Congress took place on Monday and Tuesday last. The contest, judging from the papers, is purely one of personal merit, all the candidates having vied with each other in pledging their adhesion to a single absorbing issue—that of "secession" from the Union in case of Mr. Lincoln's election. In the city of Charleston the contest must have been quite animated .-less than twenty-two distinct tickets. victor by one.

Mr. Yancey in Faneuil Hall.

It is not often that the people of the New England States—the spot above all others where the abolition sentiment of the country has the most luxuriant growth—have an opportunity of listening to so truthful and forcible an expo sition of the vexed question of slavery as that presented by Hon. Wm. L. Yancey, of Ala-bama, at Fancuil Hall on Friday evening last.

So says the Administration organ at Washington. But that journal is very conveniently blind to the fact that while, even in the place "where the abolition sentiment of the country has the most lin Hall, Sixth street below Arch, was destroyed by fire. The fourth story, in which the flames originated was occupied by Duncan White views can speak publicly with the utmost freedom, and are listened to with respectto Mr. White of about $2,500. ful attention, any man who doubts the divinity of slavery would be tarred and other publishers, had work in the hands of Mr. divinity of slavery would be tarred and White, which was destroyed or badly damaged feathered, or meet even a worse fate, The fire spread to the book-bindery of Chas. H. should he utter such a sentiment even in the confidence of private converse. In which section of the country is the first cardinal principle of the Constitution most honored and obeyed? Perhaps the Washington Constitution may find it convenient to say—and perhaps not—whether it most admires the example of Boston or of certain cities in the Southern States.

EFFECT OF FUSION IN NEW YORK .-Charles Hindman, of Port Plains, New York, one of the charter members, and to $3,000. an active worker in the getting up of various American clubs, has written a letter in which he annouces his determination to abandon the party which recently attempted to fuse with their opponents, and to work for Lincoln and Hamlin .sistency, that it is decidedly stirring. The following items indicate how the "bargain and sale" is working in New York :-

The Essex county Republican publishes a list of two hundred and ten names of men who, up to this time, have voted with the American party, but now declare for Lincoln and Ham-lin. The Albany Journal publishes the names of forty-three hitherto German Democrats, in Bethlehem, in that county, who have come out for Lincoln and Hamlin. The Nunda (N. Y.,) News says: "We learn, from reliable authority, that over one hundred voters, nearly all Germans, in the town of Grove, about eight miles from here, who formerly voted the Democratic ticket, have with scarcely an exception, declared their intention of voting for Honest Old Abe." The Tribune says: "Dr. Joseph D. Friend, American candidate for Congress in the tenth district, two years ago, and a promi-nent and leading politician of that party, a few days ago, at a crowded and enthusiastic Republican meeting, in a frank, manly and eloquent speech, announced his intention to support Lincoln and Hamlin, and denounced with scorn the corrupt bargain and sale of Brooks, Hunt & Co."

THE great Wide-Awake demonstration at Poston, on Tuesday evening, numbered nearly eight thousand five hundred torches, and was an imposing display.— The procession occupied an hour and a quarter in passing a given point. The whole route was thronged with people, who were drawn from other sections of the city, indeed from all parts of New England. The houses were very generally illuminated, in many instances displaying brilliant colored lanterns, flags, fireworks and pleasing devices. When some especially brilliant house, or some anusually large group of ladies were passed, the Wide-Awakes gave hearty cheers, each company having some particular cry of its own, which caused an agreeable the gift of President Lincoln, and those who are to occupy them. We have heard of three or four different applicants for Postmaster in this city; among the letter we hear mentioned the proprietor of the TELEGRAPH. We take the earliest opportunity to deny the story, so far as he is concerned. Mr. Bergner is not now, nor does he expect to be, an applicant for any office. He has fought the Locofocos from principle for the last twenty-five years; and if he has assisted in achieving the present glorious triumph, he has done so without any selfish motives on his part.

Andrew G. Curtin, our victorious standard-bearer in the recent State contest, and who has been proclaimed the choice of the people of this Commonwealth for Governor by a majority of upwards of thirty thousand, is still enlisted in the war, and intends to keep his armor on until the final battle has been fought and won. He has recovered from his hoarseness, and is ready to take the stump for Honest Old Abe. He will speak for Lincoln at various places in this State and New Jersey before the close of the Presidential contest.

THE IMPORTANCE OF ONE VOTE. -- It often happens that one vote decides elections. Governors have been elected by one vote, and in minor offices one vote has frequently decided it. At the recent election, the Republican candidate for That city is entitled to twenty members Clerk of the Sessions in Schuylkill counin the lower house of the State Legisla- ty, John B. Reed, was defeated by one ture, and we observe in the Courier no vote. Charles A. Rahn is the happy

The third floor was occupied by Wm. S. Young, general job printer. Mr. Young's establishment was deluged with water. Several religious newspapers and periodicals are published here, and the fire will interfere seriously with the issue of some of these papers. The forms of the Christian Instructor and the Continental Journal, were knocked into pi, and printed sheets were destroyed. A considerable portion of the edition of the Presbyterian Qu ly Review, was destroyed. Mr. Young can form no estimate of his loss.

Smith & Peters, stereotype printers, occupied the second floor. They had a number of valua-ble works on hand, which were ruined by wa-

The building belongs to Hulings & Cowperthwaite. The loss to building, stocks, machinery, &c., roughly estimated at from $10, 000 to $15,000, is entirely covered by insurance. The fire was the result of accident.

Special Elections in Virginia.

RIHMOND, October 19.

Elections were held in this State yesterday to fill vacancies in the State Senate. In the eighth district Gen. Cox (Douglasite) is ahead as far as heard from. Dickinson, (Breckinridge,) in Pryor's district, is elected.—The twentieth district is not heard from. For the House of delegates, Crump is elected over Campbell from Amelia and Nataway counties— a whig gain. In Patrick and Flavuna countie the Breckinridge delegates are elected.

TIONS OF THE SKIN.

This Cintment bears no resemblance to any of her external remedy at present before the world. The mode of its operation is poculiar.

It penetrates to the basis of the disease—goes to its very source—and cures it from the flesh beneath to the skin on the surface.

Other outward applications for Scrofula, Salt Rheum, sc., operate deunward, thus driving the disorder inwards, and often occasioning terrible internal maladies.

Norrow's Ountains, on the contrary, throws the poisen of the disease upward, and every particle of it is discharged throu. The pores.

Thus the cures it effects is complete. Not only are the sores healed—the eruptions removed—the swellings reduced—but the seeds of the disease are expelled from the flesh; consequently there can be no relates.

Victims of ulcerous and eruptive complaints, who have tried every professional mode of treatment and every advertised curative without relief, here is a certain, safe, and expeditious remedy for the evils you endure. A ingle box will satisfy you of the truth of all that is here tated.
