CHAIST, DAVID MUMMA, JR., DAVID TAGGART, THOMAS R. HULL, FRANCIS B. PENNIMAN, ULYSSES MERRILL, GEORGE BRESSLER, A. BRADY SHARPE, DANIEL O. GEHR, SAMUEL CALVIN, EDGAR COWAN, WILLIAM MCKENNA, JOHN M. KIRKPATRICK, JAMES KERR, RICHARD P. ROBERTS, HENRY SOUTHER, JOHN GREER.

This Week for Work and the Next for Triumph!

Our friends have only a few days to consolidate their strength for the great battle next Tuesday. Because our majority for Governor was so large, we must not neglect to vote for Lincoln. If for this reason one man should determine not to vote, why may not another, and another, until the emulators of a bad example are swelled to thousands, whereby a good cause would be utterly lost. The fusion Democracy have their hopes that they may possibly be able to carry Pennsylvania against Lincoln by the overconfidence of the Republican forces. They think they may be able to lull the Wide-Awakes to sleep by pretending to give up the contest. Let the Wide-Awakes and all other friends of Lincoln turn out on Tuesday next, and not allow a single vote to be lost by apathy or neglect.

EFFECT OF LINCOLN'S ELECTION!

Extensive Bank Failures!

Since it has become a fixed fact that Abraham Lincoln is to be our next President, our neighbor of the Patriot and Union is horror-stricken at the consequence and is as piteously crying for assistance. Some time since the consequential editor was President of the Holidays Bank, and this institution has already gone by the Board, no doubt because Lincoln will be President. Now another calamity is staring them boldly in the face, the extensive Post Office advertising, the fat jobs from the Treasury and other departments at Washington, the $1,800 clerkship held under Bigler's Committee on Patents by the editor is also to be vacated, with the departure of its distinguished head from the Senate. All these misfortunes occur on account of the election of Lincoln. Verily misfortunes never come singly, and we pity our neighbor. Can't the people be induced to avoid all these calamities? cries our neighbor.

A Large Majority!

What we desire to accomplish in Pennsylvania is to give Abraham Lincoln the largest majority among all the large State majorities he will receive next Tuesday. By doing so, Pennsylvania will establish her influence beyond all question or doubt hereafter. We will prove by such an act that our laboring masses are in earnest when they ask for the protection of the great resources of this Commonwealth. Our farmers will prove their determination to establish a home market for the products of their soil. Our mechanics will prove that they mean to be protected by act of Congressional legislation, to enable them to compete successfully with the pauper labor of Europe and the slave power in our own midst. We can certainly double our majority, and if every man does his duty, it can be trebled as easily. Here is the point at which we aim. A large majority will give Pennsylvania a prestige she has never before enjoyed. But this can only be accomplished by strenuous and unremitting labor. It will depend as much on individual as on a general Republican effort. It therefore behooves every man to contribute his share to the success of Lincoln and Hamlin, as a duty which he owes to himself and his posterity, his religion and his country.

The Retort.

A friend and correspondent writes to us in regard to the mathematical presumption of our Breckinridge neighbors, observing that "in that decent paper, the Patriot and Union of the 6th ult., the very intelligent editor informed his glib readers as follows: 'Giving the Republicans nearly all they claim in the heavy counties; and estimating the Democratic counties at less than they promise to do for Foster, we still elect him by over eight thousand majority.' The italics are mine.

Now to show how that promise was nipped in the bud by the frosts of the 9th inst., as well as to establish the character of the Patriot man for both truth and political information, I ask you to publish the following contrast:

Table with columns: COUNTIES, Pat. & Union, Retort, and Total. Lists counties like Allegheny, Beaver, Butler, Cambria, Clarion, Fayette, Luzerne, Lycoming, Mifflin, Northumberland, Philadelphia, Schuylkill, Lancaster, Westmoreland, Blair, Crawford, Chester, Delaware, Erie, York, Lawrence, Lebanon, and Union with corresponding vote counts.

Errors in twenty-four counties only..... 26,253

We have no idea that the editors of the Patriot will assume the responsibility of these gross and deliberate mathematical blunders and misstatements. So far as that is concerned, neither the public or ourselves care a jot. It serves our present purpose to have these misstatements detected and exposed, in order to illustrate the manner in which the central organ of the divided Democracy attempted to deceive the people at the last election. It is sufficient to serve the cause of truth that a contemptible falsification has been exposed, and its authors convicted of a scheme to deceive the people in a crisis in which all their interests and welfare were involved.

The Wide-Awakes.

The New York Tribune does nothing more than an act of simple justice when it describes the Wide-Awakes as the most influential and potent political organization which has ever existed in this country. They have been the salient characteristic of the campaign. They have thrown into the canvass an incalculable amount of enthusiasm. They are the terror of the Democracy and its allies. The future historian, who shall depict the incidents which will make the political revolution of 1860 memorable in our annals, will devote one of his most glowing chapters to the achievements of the Wide-Awakes.

But, the multitudinous Clubs which have infused such energy into the contest should remember that they were organized not merely to throw a flood of brilliancy over the preliminary stages of the fight, but mainly to make sure the victory upon the trial day. In plain English, the prime object of these Clubs is to secure a majority of the Electoral votes for Lincoln and Hamlin on the first Tuesday of November. So far as they are concerned, that is the day for which all other days were made. Two or three suggestions may not be unprofitable:

- I. The Wide-Awakes should regard all that they have yet done as mere drilling and disciplining for the battle on the day of the election. II. They should now doff their caps and ruses, and set aside their lamps and lanterns, and go to the serious work of preparing to bring every Lincoln voter to the polls. III. To do this, they should divide themselves into squads, assigning to each a special portion of the work. They should have squads to perfect poll-lists, to confer with doubtful voters, to distribute ballots, to rally legions to the polls, to challenge illegal votes, and the like. IV. They should take thorough measures to prevent illegal votes going into the boxes. If need be, they should offer rewards for the detection and punishment of fraudulent voting. On this point they should not permit themselves to be thwarted, but should prevent the prostitution of the franchise at all hazards. V. They should see that fair play is allowed to all legal voters in their attempts to deposit their ballots. They should permit no citizen of any party to be brow-beaten or frightened from the exercise of his rights. VI. When the day is closed, they should see that the ballots are honestly counted and canvassed. VII. Finally, Wide-Awakes! don't waste your time from now to the election in idle parades. You have done gloriously in keeping up the field while and shedding brilliancy over their respective positions. The real fighting is now about to begin. On the day of battle, don't be preparing a programme for celebrating the victory. Don't be burning your banners and filling your lamps. Work at the polls from early dawn to set of sun. And then, when the triumph is achieved, and all is made sure, and the lightning flashes "victory" along the wires, set apart a day for a General Jubilee worthy of the great event. But, till then, get to WORK! America expects every Wide-Awake to do his duty!

EVERY MAN who voted for CURTIN should be careful to be on hand and vote for LINCOLN.

CONSERVATISM AND COWARDICE!

What Pennsylvania Wants.

The disunion panic is raging. It had pretty much subsided at the South a little while since. Stump orators and newspapers had begun to look calmly upon the inevitable results of the election; and had made up their minds to meet any attacks upon their State Rights in the Union and not out of it. Peace seemed brooding over the South, and there were not wanting those who were not only reconciled to Lincoln's election, but rejoiced at it. All at once the howl is begun again. It resounds in the columns of the New York Herald and Express. It is echoed by all the lesser lights of journalism which sail in the wake of those alarmists. We are told that a disunion organization exists in the departments at Washington; that Mr. Cobb, Secretary of the Treasury, is at the head of it; that the election of Lincoln will be the signal for secession. And this treasonable talk is to be kept up incessantly until the polls are closed. Its object is plain beyond question. It is designed to intimidate Northern conservatives, and frighten them into voting against their deliberate convictions and their honest impulses.

Now, if Conservatism means Cowardice; and if the two terms are synonymous; if we have reached that degraded state of serfdom when we dare not vote without the consenting nod of Southern dictation, then let us assign our share in the government to South Carolina, and humbly request that chivalric State to do our thinking for us, and assume the charge of our federal interests. The North has stood firm by the Union under Embargo Acts and low tariffs. It has seen its commerce swept from the ocean by the former; and when it turned its active energies to manufactures it has seen them also swept away by the free trade theories of the southern dictatorship. Beggary and starvation have been endured. Merchants have seen their ships rot at the wharves. Manufacturers have seen their spindles lying idle and their workmen gaunt and famished for food. And yet the North was true always to the Union of States, seeking no remedy except within the Union and beneath the Constitution. And now when the hour of the remedy has come, when the twenty millions of the North are reaching out their hands to right themselves in the way provided by the Constitution, seeking only their own rights and not the wrong of any man, they are met with the cry of Secession and Disunion! Shame on the cowards who regard it! There is a limit to forbearance!

What Pennsylvania wants in this contest, is neither conservatism or conciliation. She has already suffered by her concessions to the South. She suffered when she yielded to the purchase of Florida and Louisiana; she suffered when the northwestern boundary was settled. She suffered by the Mexican war, the entailment of debt and the creation of Slave States, whose Senators are now the most rampant disunionists in the American Senate. She suffered by her conservatism in allowing her interests to be neglected, in order to quiet the threats of the nullifiers—and she has suffered in every department of her trade and industry, in connection with every Northern and Western free State, merely to gratify this spirit of conservatism preached by the dough-faces in our own midst, and claimed as constitutional by the disunionists of all sections, whenever they are forced to practice what they preach.

What Pennsylvania now wants is prompt, energetic and decided action. We want the election of a Republican President as the only means of restoring peace to the country. We want the election of Abraham Lincoln, because by an administration founded on the principles which he advocates, only can the vexed question of slavery be settled, its boundaries declared and limited, its rights defined and proclaimed, and its responsibilities, crimes and shames confined to those who are so avaricious in its defence and so zealous for its support. We want to establish in the government, by the aid of a Republican policy, the right of labor to protection and encouragement—preserving it untrammelled by an unfair and illiberal competition with foreign pauper labor, and uncorrupted and humiliated by an association with slavery in the territory. This is what Pennsylvania wants. This is her conservatism. And to promote these objects, she will cast her electoral vote for Lincoln and Hamlin on Tuesday next.

ANOTHER DISTINGUISHED ACCESSION. Ex-Lieut. Gov. Beale, of Wisconsin, hitherto an emulating Democrat, has come out for Lincoln and Hamlin. Mr. Beale was Lieut. Governor of Wisconsin from 1849 to 1851.

HON. EDGAR COWAN.—We invite the attention of the readers of the TELEGRAPH to a communication in another column urging this gentleman on the Legislature as every way qualified to represent Pennsylvania in the United States Senate.—Our correspondent writes nothing more than the truth in reference to Mr. Cowan, who, if elected, would undoubtedly reflect great credit on the Keystone State in the Senate of the United States. We ask for this communication a careful perusal.

ARREST OF AN AMERICAN OFFICER.

New York, November 2. The steamer Northern Light has arrived from Aspinwall. Her California advices have been anticipated. The U. S. sloops of war Lancaster and St. Mary's were at Panama, and the steamer Brooklyn and storeship Palmouth at Aspinwall, on the 25th ult.

Advices received from Valparaiso to the 2d, and Callao to the 15th of October. The steamer Moses Taylor and tonnage of the ultimatum of the American Government had been rejected by Peru, so far as the Lizzie Thompson, Georgians and the Victoria claims are concerned. This refusal would compel the American minister to demand his passports. The ship Lucy M. Hale was partially burned on the 5th ult. at Callao.

A frightful accident occurred on the 10th ult. in the dry dock at San Lorenzo, involving the entire loss of the Peruvian frigate Callao, formerly the Aupurimac, and great loss of life. The frigate was docked, with all her crew on board, when some kind of accident occurred, causing the vessel to pitch over, and rapidly filled with water and sunk. A great number of people were below, including men, women and children, and the sick in the hospital, all of whom perished.

All the particulars of the disaster were not known at the latest date, but it was believed that the number of killed would reach one hundred and fifty. The number of the wounded, with broken heads, arms and legs, was very great. The Callao was a 44 gun frigate, built at Blackwell, England, six years ago. The deck was also damaged and rendered useless.

BOLIVIA.—The revolution in Bolivia has been suppressed. Several officers were shot. NICARAGUA.—Advices from Nicaragua state that the news of Walker's capture reached there on the 30th of September, causing much rejoicing. Martinez was again at the head of affairs. Mr. Dimotry was pressing the government for the appointment of a convention to settle American claims, but unsuccessfully. Martinez, however, had consented to call a meeting of Congress on the 15th of December, so that the ratification of the Lamar Yelton treaty might be effected within the time expected.

Mr. Vanderbilt had made the Government an offer for the transit, but it was not accepted. Advices from Guayaquil state that Flores was disbanding his forces, but that the Peruvian President, Castilla, still maintained a hostile attitude, and was seeking permission from his Congress to declare war again with Ecuador. The United States steamer Narragansett left Callao on the 8th ult. for Panama.

A difficulty had arisen at Panama between the United States and British naval forces, owing to the arrest of an American officer, and American citizen, for refusing to respond to the challenge of a British guard which had been stationed in the streets since the recent disturbance. Communications had passed between flag officer Montgomery and the British commander, in relation to the matter, but the result was not known.
