Wednesday Afternoon, November 7, 1860.

MACHINERY, the caption of a sketch on the first page of this afternoon's TELE-GRAPH, is from the pen of Charles B. Forney, of Lebanon. It is a well written one else. and eloquent essay on a very prolific subject, a perusal of which will amply repay Pennsylvania sends Greeting to the DAILY TELEGRAPH our readers.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE.

Abraham Lincoln Elected President.

The following States have cast their Electoral votes for ABRAHAM LINCOLN and HANNIBAL HAMLIN, viz:

Maine
New Hampshire
New York
Massachusetts18
Rhode Island 4
Connecticut 6
Vermont
Pennsylvania27
Ohio
Illinois11
Indiana13
Michigan 6
Wisconsin
Town 4
Minnesota4—169
PROBABLY.
Oregon

It requires 152 electors to elect a President. Lincoln is therefore elected without a doubt. The Southern States are divided between Breckinridge and Bell. The indications are that Douglas has carried the State of Missouri.

The Syrian Christians.

The correspondent of the Boston Traveller gives the Christians of Syria rather a bad name. He says their character is so low, mean and despicable, that were it not for the fact that they belong to the common brotherhood of man, and are now great sufferers, they would receive but them well. They are entirely deficient in what is called, in civilized countries, a sense of honor-and are so deceitful, treacherous and ignoble that they furnish the best illustration in the world of the natural depravity of the human heart, and the inadequacy of their forms of religion and their religious teachers for the work of civilizing and Christianizing the people. The people are dreadfully Priestridden, while they detest and despise their Priests. The Bible is kept from all but the Pretestant sect, which is very small not numbering in all Syria and Palestine more than one thousand men, women and children, and the Greeks, Greek Catholics, Maronites and Jesuits are all quarreling among each other and among themselves. The Greeks and Greek Catholics have been known to unite with the Druses in waging warfare against the Maronitesand are their most uncompromising foes Among themselves they have no peace.

The country has been convulsed by quarrels growing out of the Gregorian Calendar. In Tyre the Bishop who attempted to force it upon his people was driven from the Church, from his house, and finally from Tyre altogether. His property was confiscated by his impoverished people, and now he is a beggar at the doors of the American and English Consuls for restoration to his home and property. They are represented as selfish and unprincipled. Thus, for instance: The Patriarch of the Gregorian party has recently been to Egypt to collect funds for the poor of Syria, but he furnishes relief only to those who adopt his calen dar, and obey his will. Others retain all their collections, and furnish relief to no one. One priest still has over sixty thousand piastres intended for distribution. and his people make loud complaints against his avarice and dishonesty. The priests who went to America a few years ago to collect funds for schools and hospitals, have also defrauded the people, who have now lost confidence in them almost entirely. Many Christians of Damascus, for the sake of money, give certificates of good character to Turks and Arabs, knowing at the same time that they murdered many of their brethren. The Christians cf Sidon who witnessed the massacre of their relatives and friends, and who have since been constituted agents for the Turkish government to pay out the daily allowance to the poor refugees from Hasbeyia and Rasheyia, have just been detected in an attempt to rob them of one fourth of the scanty allowance provided by the Moslem authorities for the purpose of Damascus are overwhelmed with fear, that when the strong arm of power is renoved the Moslems will take vengeance upon them for the punishment that they nto houses without furniture, comfort or ties in the Senate. conveniences. They are idle all day. The sickness among them has increased to a frightful degree, and seems increasing.-The mortality is great and augmenting. They have no medical help, and it is thought if sickness and death continue to increase, there will soon be few Christians there to trouble the government or any Nation!

70,000 Majority!

Below we give the returns from this State, so far as they have been received. Of course they are all reported, but judging from the vote at the October election, we are satisfied that they will spare his life. The vote of New Jersey has vary little from the official. We must ask pardon of our Democratic friends for not being able to find more than two oral College, and will be our next President. done so the "telegraph" has failed to inform us. Republicans in the places of Messrs. Bigler and Fitch, and hence we put them down, though their successors have not yet been elected. Mr. Douglas' position is such that he may or may not act with the South, and hence we class him with neither. If Dr. Gwin is re-elected, the Democrats and conservatives will have thirty-five instead of thirty-four, and if he is defeated, it will stand thus :

Additional Election Returns.

We give below all the aditional returns returns received to-day. Enough is known to render it certain that Lincoln is elected by the people, and that he will administer the government for the next four years, should Providence been cast for the fusion ticket, but that will not effect the result. Mr. Lincoln will have more than the requisite number of votes in the Electcounties that have given "Fusion" any The spirit of Disunion has been crushed out at majority.
