HARRISBURG.

Wednesday Morning, November 7, 1860.

Two Victims of Tangleroot, who had been to the election yesterday, imbibed freely, and fell early in the campaign, were picked up by officer Fleck and taken to the asylum in Walnut street, where they passed the night.

A STRANGER CAGED .- A man named James H. Addison, hailing from Lewisburg, Union county, came to this city on Monday and got drunk. He was finally caged in the lock-up, where he remained until seven o'clock last evening, when he paid his fine, was discharged, and took the Northern Central train for home.

OUT OF PRISON.—The young man Thomas Dasher, arrested several days ago on a charge of stealing grain, and committed for trial, was yesterday liberated on bail. His accomplice. Urich, is still at large, the officers having in vain endeavored to ascertain his whereabouts. The grain was stolen from Mr. Levi Care, at Manada Hill, in this county.

NEW RAILBOAD.—The grading of the Ebensburg and Cresson railroad has been completed to the east end of Ebensburg. It was a great undertaking for a town with only one thousand inhabitants ever to attempt to make a railroad of ten miles in length; yet the attempt was made, and the road is so far completed that the cars will be running on it before the New Year. The Pennsylvania Railroad company has agreed to commence the laying of the track has occurred here for several years. Up to the on the 15th of this month.

WEST HARRISBURG METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL. The Superintendent, Mr. Elijah Wise, requests us to return thanks to those of our citizens who last week contributed so liberally towards the purchase of library books. ENGINEER FOR THE WATER HOUSE.—The death of Mr. Joshua Fackler, late engineer at the water house, creates a vacancy there which Council will have to fill. There are several applicants for the position. Mr. John Davis, for some months past the assistant of the deceased. has charge of the engine at present. In our opinion Council could not do better than retain | track, was run over and almost instantly killhis services. He is a practical machinist, an experienced engineer, and in every respect competent for the position.

PHOTOGRAPHED RANK NOTES .- So rapidly are eral W. H. Keim was chosen Chairman, and Major General Keim was requested to issue an order to the Fifth Division Pennsylvania Volunteers to parade at the inauguration of Governor Curtin, and invite the military of the State to participate. A committee of three was appointed to make the necessary arrangements. The committee are Brig. Gen. E. C. Williams. Col. T. J. Jordan, and Col. J. D. Dougherty.-The meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the Chairman. John W. Brown, Sec'y.

TOOK BACK HIS PRESENTS .-- An exchange pub-.lished in a neighboring town tells about a young chap who courted his Phoebs Ann Matilda for a year or more, during which time he presented ther with a considerable quantity of jewelry and other trinkets, but, discovering a short time since, that she had repudiated her first love and taken to another "feller," he, growing desperate, made a descent on the institution, invaded the sanctity of the young female's apart. ment, and laid sacrilegious hands on the finery which he had endowed her with, and with a persevering spirit waded in among a heterogenous mass of petticoats, bustles, hoop-skirts, and what not, and collected every article which had been bought with his money, the young lady and her maternal relative standing by overcome with confusion and rage at such a sacrilegious stumbling of their household goods, and entirely unable to defend their property from wholesale abduction. He was taken for larceny, and the decision in the matter will be looked for residents of Columbia, industrious and honest with anxiety, as a precedent for the decision of men, with families. Their deaths, from the similar cases hereafter.

Parting Scene.—An unsophisticated young escape of the conductor, Mr. Wm. McCaskey, man and buxom lass, from the rural districts, was a mircle. He had left his lamp on another attracted much attention at the Pennsylvania part of the train, and was in the act of going railway station yesterday, by their unrestrained back for it, intending to put it on the engine. demonstrations of affection and grief when they | He had been standing in front of the boiler but publicly took leave of each other. THE FUNERAL of Mr. Joshua Fackler took place yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended by the firemen of this city, delegations being in attendance from the various companies.

Explanation.—The Phillip Weaver arrested on Monday for assaulting his son with a knife, while intoxicated, was a german resident of Cherry alley, and not Mr. Philip Weaver the printer, now employed as Mossenger in one of the State departments.

COUNTERFEITS.—Peterson's Detector gives notice to the public to refuse all five dollar notes on the Western Bank of Philadelphia, as over five thousand dollars of this counterfeit stuff have been recovered. The notes are well engraved, and good imitations of the genuine.

WILD GEESE. Several flocks of wild geese numbering about sixty in all, passed over this city on Monday evening in a southern direction. The flight of these birds to the sunny south is a certain indication of the near ap proach of cold weather.

Still Rising. -The Susquehanna river, already unusually high for this season, is still rising. Several rafts and arks have passed this place, which may be regarded as only the advance fleet of large numbers yet to come. We have heard of no damage to property along the main stream, or the branches tributary thereto, caused by the flood.

THE ELECTION IN THIS CITY yesterday passed off qu'etly and peaceably. We noticed but very few intoxicated men about the polls during the day, and no fighting occurred. Considering the importance of the election, it was attended with less excitement than any that time of closing the polls, at which hour this item was penned, no serious disturbance had taken place in any of the wards.

THE SEASON -Bland but deeceitful as a coquette, Indian Summer smiles upon us. This is the time for aches, colds and diseases, to last the western section of our city, and should be furred and overcoated, like so many Russians. among you, on yesterday, tempting Heaven with muslins and bareges. Did your "anxious mothers" and husbands know of the impru dence? Again we say, be careful!

ANOTHER FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.-A few nights ago an old man named James George, while walking home from a Republican meet. ing at Latrobe on the Pennsylvania Railroad ed by the lightcning train. The engineer saw him when about twenty feet ahead of the locomotive and whistled for him to get out of the way, but it was too late, for the train went very easily detected; the best and surest way is on some distance before it could be stopped. to apply a solution of Cyanide Potassium, when One of the brakesmen ran back to attend to way is to draw your fingers over the bill, and the mutilated remains, his own father. A large number of lights were also broken at the hotel, although the engine was at the moment of the explosion several rods to the east of the building. A very heavy rain was falling at the time and the track was flooded with water. Mr. Fry, the Engineer, was leaning down and in the act of drawing the reverse lever .-It was applying a match to powder. He was thrown up into the air and fell on the other track, his head striking the rail. The train hands immediately ran to him, lifted him up and carried him into the hotel. He continued to breathe but a few seconds after they reached him. The fireman was found on the engine, which had broken loose from the train and run some distance beyond the station. His neck and the upper part of his body was badly scalded. He also suffered serious internal injuries, causing hemorhage and resulting in death at an early hour on Sunday morning. Both the unfortunate victims of this disaster were appalling circumstances connected with it, has cast a gloom over the entire community. The STORE ROBBED.—On Monday night the store of Mr. David Martz, in Susquehanna township, was forcibly entered by some person or persons, and robbed of goods to the amount of five or property was taken away in a wagon or canal 92 Market street. boat. Mr. Mariz offers a reward of fifty dollars for the recovery of the goods and arrest of the thief or thieves.

A BURGLAR FOILED .- About four o'clock yesterday morning the wife of Mr. Henry Raday baugh, residing in Third street next door to this office, having occasion to get up at that hour, discovered a man in the yard, and communicated the fact to her husband, who immediately arose, descended to the yard, and attempted to capture the necturnal intruder. The fellow took to flight, and was pursued some distance by Mr Radabaugh, but finally made his escape. The supposition is that he designed forcing an entrance into the shop of Mr. Harry Cunkle, who occupies a portion of the building.

DEATH OF PROMINENT CITIZENS OF LANCASTE COUNTY .- Hon. Jacob Grosh, of Marietta, died on Saturday last, in the 85th year of his age .-He served eleven years in the Senate and House of Representatives of this State, was ten years Associate Judge, and commanded a company of volunteers in the war of 1812. He died at a ripe old age, in the full enjoyment of the confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens. Hon. Michael Carpenter, ex-Mayor of the city of Lancaster, died on Sunday morning, in the 65th vear of his age. The deceased filled the office of Mayor for about nine years with great credit to himself and acceptability to the people.

IRON BRIDGES FOR RAILROAD PURPOSES. Many of the railroad companies are substituting as fast as they can, iron bridges for the old wooden structures, which often look as scarcely able to bear their own weight. Some of the roads out west are having a number constructed in Philadelphia, on the Murphy Whipple plan. The demand for these, and other iron bridges. continues so urgent that we understand it is the intention of the Phœnix Iron Company shortly to commence the construction of the lattice bridges, all parts of the structure to be of wrought iron. A model, representing a 150 feet span, has been made and put-to a number of tests, all of which, it is said, were highly satisfactory

THE SECOND WARD ELECTION PLACE.-The

Patriot and Union of yesterday came out in defence of the lessee of Herr's Hotel for refusing the election to be held in his house, and charges us with making an "ungenerous attack" upon Mr. Benford. The facts are simply these: Mrs. Herr consented last winter to have the election held at her house, and Mr. Benford rented the house from her with this injunction upon it. The October election was held there, and subsequently Mr. Benford sent a bill of one hunthundering over the unfortunate man before dred dollars to the County Commissioners. The paper must be sized for photographing, which is not done in printing, and when finished, photographs have a varnished appearance. A little rubbing with the singer will blur the engraving and give the bill a greasy feel.

> MATRIMONY.-Mrs. Geo. Washington Wylle, a lady writer whose name is familiar in literary circles, frequently says some good things. The latest of these is contained in a magazine article headed "What is the Price?" from which we make the following extract, for the benefit of young gentlemen readers of the TELEGRAPH, who have a weakness for crinoline:

"You're going to enter into the matrimonial state, are you Mr. Brown? And you think you're coming into possession of an angel? Yes, but angels cost money. Did it ever occur to you what an expensive article your fashionable young wife was likely to prove? Bless your unsophisticated soul! you've no more idea of it than you have of the price of onions, or the market value of a wash-tub. You'll find out one day, however, to your grief. You're doing a remarkably foolish thing when you marry one of these camelia-japonica divinities, white-handed, helpless, and knowing just as much of real, every day life, as a canary bird might be expected to understand. If we were a man, we should as soon think of marrying a frail hot-house plant, as one of these delicate sprigs of the ornamental. Give us the appleblossom type of woman—sunny, cheerful and useful—something equal to every emergency—something that understands the handling of a broom, and knows what the kitchen poker is made for, and can calculate to a nicety the exact amount of mince-meat requisite in a model pie, besides liking a bit of fun as well as the next woman, and possessing a pretty weak-ness for lively books and spicy newspapers! That's the article for our money. A wife who would select gingbam instead of silk, when she went shopping, and freshen up her old bonnet with a bunch of satin violets and a new ribbon ears were put in requisition to render what aid thrown over his shoulders, and was fastened a woman's natural penchant for such things, but because she wanted to save money-be day to contribute something toward releasing your satin-robed doll sweep contemptuously twice about it. JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS. -How strange JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS.—How strange and wonderful it often reems to us that a medicine composed of simple mountain herbs and roots, should so certainly search out and cure disease. How surprising that the ladians should know and preserve so long and well a secret that has escaped the search of the greatest physicians the world has ever seen. True, the ancient inhabitants of Mexico were a strange race, found by the Spaniards, living in large cities, and, allowing for their strange customs and religion, as well civilized as their conquerors. In the words of a writer of some celebrity, "They have perished from the earth, their cities are girantic piles of ruins, their kings and Princes so mighty in their life, are forgotten; their ruins and their medicine alone are left." The united testimony of all intelligent persons is, that JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS are the most accessful medicine in the world in curing disease.

ALMOST EVERYBODY has heard of "Wood's ALMOST EVERYBODY has heard of "Wood's Hair Restorative." That the word "Restorative." in this case, is no missomer, we have the testimony of individuals whose elevated position in the country, as well as their acknowledged and honorable character as gentlemen, render whatever they publicly assert in the past degree reliable. Several of these have tested, personally, the hair preparation we are now speaking of, and certify to its amazing efficacy in the most public manner possible. Their certificates can be seen at the proprietor's Depot, 512 Broadway, New York, and once seen and properly appreciated, we have no hesitation in saying they will impress conviction on the most skeptical mind. I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquous, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schendar Schnapps. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquous, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of Now York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a lac simile of his signature on the certific the. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves.—

Read the following from the New York Courier:
FNORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCANT.—
We are happy to inform our fel'ow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality.
We do not intend to give an eliborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive Warehouse, Nos. 18: 70 and 22 Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Mart etfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for ship, ment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Soutch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom House key, ready for bottling. Mr.
Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one houdred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years be may be equally successful with his Brradies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and iquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of Sherves, and replace it with motions particularly the understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accummodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to health and human happiness sape-dawomi
