Medical.

I' must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy

DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with reprepared from a formula used by 17. Each will be markable success during several year's practice, we know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for iniantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

For Children Teething. And at this period of infamile life, when your anxious hearts are paired by witnessing the sufferings of your little caes, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gams, Reducing Infammaticia, and Relieving all Pain.

For Diseases attending Teething, such as Diarrhead, Dysenfory, Grining in, the Bouels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Coluc, and Cod in the Head, we confidently offer this as a Cottain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bow(1), and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

In Convulsions. the Confyllisions of the discussion which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved as instantaneously, as if, by magic; and in this die ad complaint a lone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of Dr. Eaton's Infantile Co. dial has become "familiar as a house; old word." We now ask your attentien to a subject of vital interest to yoursell, as well as to you suffering child. Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial contains; of any kind, or of whatever nature, as a fact which we are fully warranted in stating canno be said of any other preparation for unfartile diseases, at this time before the rablic. B. We find that throughout the country, Mothers are becoming convinced of this truth, and of the said and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting remedies; their continued administration being invariably followed by stupetaction, and constipation of the bowels, ending often a convulsions. Herein Dr. Earon's invaring Cordian differs from every other remedy.

No Morphine or Opiate.

Does Not Constipate

PROF. WOOD: BATTLE CREER, Mich., Dec. 21, 1860.

PROF. WOOD: Thee will please accept a line to inform these that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chrone disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through lille having reduced me to a state of dependence, I having not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither, baye i been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head his suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to ray Briggs & Hodges almost the last centil had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hafr Restorative about the first of August last. I have taithfully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and black, though short; it is also coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being destitgte of means to purchase more, I would ask thee if thee wouldst not be willing to send me an order on thine agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the scripture declaration—"the reward is to those that are kind to the widow and fatherless."
