TAKE PARTICULAR NOTIOE

Dr. J. addresses all those who having injured them elves by private and improper indulgences, that secre and solitary kabit which ruins both body and mind, unfitting them for enher business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Beck and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspeptia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions of ceneral Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

the most fearful kind, speedily cured.

TO STRANGERS

The many theosands cured at this Institution within the last twelve years, and the numerous important Surgica Operations performed by Dr. J., wilnessed by the reporters of the papers, and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted DISEASE OF IMPRODENCE.—When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an lil-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, affecting the head, throat, nose, skin, &c., progressing on with frightful rapidity, till death puts a period 1 his dreadful sufferings by sending him to "that bourne from whence no traveller returns." It is a melancholy for that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable To Strangers—The Doctor's Diplomas hang in his office.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the Honorable John J. HEREAS, the Honorable John J. Prakson, President of the Court of Common Pleas in the Twelfth Judicial Listick, consisting of the counties of Lobanon and Dauphin, and the Hou. A. O. Hiester and Hon. Felix Nissley, Associate Judges in Dauphin county, having issued their precept, bearing daic the 15th day of October 1860, to me directed, for holding a Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery and Quarter Sessions of the Peace, at Harrisburg, for the county of Dauphin, and to commence on the 3d Monday of November, being the 19th day of November, 1860, and to continue two weeks.

Notice is therefore hereby given to the Coroner, Justices of the Peace and Constables of the said county of Dauphin, that they be then and there in their proper persons, at 10 octock in the forenoon of said day, with their records, inquisitions, draminations and their own remembrances, to do those things which to their office appertains to be done, and those who are bound in recognizations to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the Jail of Dauphin county, be then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.

Given under my hand at Harrisburg, the 15th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1860, and in the eighty-third year of the Independence of the United States.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, FOR MAKING

Bread. Tea-Cakes, all kinds of Pastry, &c. MANUFACTURED BY

EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO., Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works.

Progrietors of Shawmut Chemical Works.

No. 33 INDIA STREET, Boston.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical research. All its ingredicular are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process; and by the manufacturers submit it, with entire confidence, to the judgment of discriminating house-keepers, bakers, &c.

connected, to the judgment of discriminating house-keepers, bakers, &c.

Bread of all kinds made by using Concentrated Leaven is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreea, ble, natural taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.

whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.

It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates and under all circumstances, it may be adopted, thus obviating all oifficulty of precuring yeast or other ferme t, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less nuwholesome.

It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 por cent. In the common procees much of the saccharine of the flour is Lat by being converted into carbon ic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using Concentrated Leaven this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 198 hs., which, by the con mon method, ordinarily makes about 250 hs of bread, gives by this process 290 hs, thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the odinact statistion may conduct the process and person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process and the conduct the process are the conduct the process and the conduct the process are the conduct the process are the conduct the process and the conduct the process are the process are the process the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.

sult will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

"I have analysed the Concentrated Leaven, manufactured by Messrs. Edw Chamberlin & Co., with reference to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough, and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure material. It raises the dough without comenting the sugar or any other principle in the fluir, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.

invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.

"The experiments made by me confirm the statements made by the manufacturers, and proves this compound worthy of public approval and extended use.

"Respectfully,

"A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer,

"16 Boylston street, Boston, September 25, 1860."

DIRECTIONS:

BEAKFAST AND TAR ROLE.—Two or three teaspoonsful of Leaven. (according to the quality of the flour.) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter half the size of an egg, and make the paste with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit relling out. Much knearing should be avoided. Cut into de sired form, and place immediately in a hot oven and bake quickly.

CHAMBER STREET CARE—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoons of the tear put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold nilk or water to a still batter, add spice to suit the taste,

People. We confess to being agreeably disappointed in the news received from Southern Italy, re-specting the result of the late vote on the annexation question. The returns from all th; provinces except two show that over 99 per cent of the adult male population of Naples and Sicily have declared in favor of union with Piedmont, under the constitutional rule of Victor Emanuel; and there is no reason to expect that this ratio will be essentially modified by the intelligence yet to be received. After all, this is the best justification of the course of Sardinia in her intervention policy lately adopt ed. Considering the influences brought to bear on the Southern Italians by the Papal clergy, and all those interested in the late government, the unanimity shown is almost marvelious, and betokens, not merely a change of rulers for the people of that section, but a po-litical renovation, the infusion of a new life into them, after having lain in a state of semi-torpidity for nearly fifteen hundred years. Wa observe that a similar opportunity to declare their choice will soon be extended to the inhabitants of the Central and Eastern dominions of the Pope. It is idle to speculate on the resuit, after what has already taken place among their neighbors both to the North and South. Italy is no longer a mere "geographical abstraction." There are, however, not a few who still

They recall to mind the days when Rome gave law to the world, and contrast her former greatness with the utter degradation to which she afterwards sunk. They remember the glow-ing period of the greatest of Latin poets, as translated by a modern scarcely his inferior. "Romin I remember thou to rule the world, Be these thy arts—to fix the laws of peace, To shield the suppliant and subdue the proud."

And they contrast this lofty strain with the appearance of the swarthy organ-grinder in our thoroughfares, while his mate accompanies his rotatory efforts with her wild vocal notes. If these were correct specimens of the whole Italian people, their future prospects would, indeed, be sufficiently gloomy. Then, we are referred to a so called "law" which some savans pretend to have discovered, that dominion having doparted from a particular country never returns to it, the star of empire taking its way in another direction. If this were true nothing would remain for that lovely and dreamy country but to compose herself with resignation to an unavoidable fate. But the theory is not sound, and to prove this, it is unnecessary to go further than to Italy itself. Not once, but several times, has it given law to the world. Its first families struggled for seven hundred years with the plebeians and foreign states, finally bringing under their control nearly overly country in the heavener empire. Rome founded a record. Italy was thus a second time the civilized world's law-giver. This greatness, too, passed away, but when it began to wane, that country took its place in the front rank of European states, as the research the molasses, finally bringing under their country to over country in the known world. WILLIAM GUILAGER & BRO, Wholesale Agents, WILLIAM GUILAGER & BRO, Wholesale Ag emerged, have shown the most praiseworthy traits of character. History can furnish few struggles calling out devotion and bravery surpassing that of the Milanese, the Ven-tians, the Palermitans and the Romans, in 1849.— The events of last year and the present have shown that that was no spasmodic feeling, rising, like Jonah's gourd, in a night and perish.

If additional traits were required they would be furnished in the growing love for religious freedem in the minds of the Italians, and the generosity they have evinced towards their vanquished foes. We can well remember when an Italian was considered the impersonation of all that was dark, vengeful, superstitious, and persecuting. Contrast with this impression the magnanimity displayed towards conquered enemagnanimity displayed towards conquered enemies. Consider the popular passions let loose, the state of ignorance in which the masses had been kept, and the examples set by their own rulers, when they had the opportunity. The record appears to be almost miraculous. It may be gallant to win a battle, but that moral courage which will afterwards restrain from expected in infaitly more election. ALLEI, IN THE REAR OF HERR'S HOTEL.

All the revolutionary leaders it may be truly said that they not only win back the soil of their own country; but conquer the hearts of markind everywhere. It is the presence of such traits of national character—love of liberty and independence, devotion to lofty, ideas, heroism, generosity, perseverence; sound practical wisdom—that lead us to anticipate the best effects from the blows now being given for emancipation in that classic soil: emancipation in that classic soil.
