Tuesday Afternoon, November 20, 1860.

A Secessionist Rebuked.

A gentleman of our acquaintance, recently returned from a trip to Philadelphia, relates the following and vouches for its truthfulness. It was certainly a just rebuke to the blustering impudence with which the Southern fire-eaters have been endeavoring to intimidate the free people of the North with cries of secession and disunion.

Sensation Stories Spoiled.

The character of the secession news continues to be very similar to that first received. The telegraphic despatches look blood-thirsty, while the private letters are meek in tone.

extract of a private letter from Hon. John M. Botts, shows how much reliance is to be placed on some of the alarming reports that reach us from the South over the telegraphic wires, and are well paid "sensation" efforts.

THE CATHOLIC VOTE.—The New York Tablet, is excited over the use of the term "Catholic vote."

Now, it is well that it should be understood also that there is no such thing as the "Catholic vote," and if the concentration of something which does not exist is the only hope of the friends of the Fusion ticket, let it be understood that there is no such thing as the "Catholic vote."

THE WESTERN PEOPLE are so disgusted with those New York merchants who sought to create a financial panic at the close of the campaign, in order to defeat Lincoln, that they have determined to adopt the policy of non-intercourse with every New York merchant who entered into this treasonable conspiracy.

THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT. Mr. John M. Butler will contest the seat of Mr. Wm. E. Lehman, as Representative from the First Congressional District.

Official Vote in Pennsylvania.

The official vote of Forrester county was received to-day, which enables us to give the vote of the State in full. It will be seen that Lincoln's plurality is NINETEEN THOUSAND SEVEN HUNDRED AND THIRTY-FIVE, and his majority within a few votes of SIXTY FOUR THOUSAND!

Will brother Greely, of the Tribune, please give the official vote of Pennsylvania a place in his columns, so that his readers may see how far the old Keystone has excelled the Empire State in her majority for the Republican ticket?

Table with columns: COUNTIES, LINCOLN, FUSION, DOUGLASS, BELL. Lists counties and their respective vote counts for each candidate.

Lincoln's present majority over Reading ticket..... 93,785 Lincoln over Douglas ticket..... 252,320 " " Bell "..... 257,415 " " all oppositio..... 63,785

A BRILLIANT LIGHT EXTINGUISHED.

It becomes our melancholy duty to record one of the most frightful calamities in our political annals. The Postmaster at Orangeburg, Mr. Keitt's residence, has forwarded his resignation, to take effect on the first of January, unless, he says, his most abused and best beloved State of South Carolina shall sooner secede.

THE MAYOR OF SAVANNAH has appointed a day of Thanksgiving for that city. They have reason to be doubly thankful down there—first, that they are a part of this glorious American Union, notwithstanding their great sins; and, secondly, that Abraham Lincoln, an honest patriot, has been elected President of that Union, which is a guaranty of its continued safety and prosperity.

LINCOLN AN INVENTOR.—We were shown at the U. S. Patent Office the model of a steamer combining buoyant air chambers with a steam-turbine or other vessel, for the purpose of enabling that craft of water to be readily lessened, so that they might pass over bars or through shallow water without discharging their cargoes.

SOUTHERN EMIGRATION WESTWARD.—The Shelbyville (Tenn.) "Expositor," says: "Never at any time in the memory of the oldest inhabitant has so great a tide of emigration been witnessed as is daily rolling westward through this town."

Declaration of Independence.

The following "Declaration of Independence," which we find in the Scranton Republican, enumerating the "insufferable wrongs" and impositions practiced upon Luzerne county by the rest of the State, completely "takes down" the grandiloquent document sent to the President by South Carolina.

A FREEMAN'S PROTEST.—We won't stand it any longer. The freemen of Luzerne will not tamely submit further to the impositions of the rest of the State. We have already endured insufferable wrongs, and forbearance ceases to be a virtue.

Our interests are all in that direction, and we will not lose the rest of the State. We will stretch a big newspaper across the Nesquehoning mountain, and guard the passes of the Pocono with a fan-tailed kite. Armed with a thousand pop-guns from Germany, and five hundred hand-pins from Connecticut, we will bid the foe defiance.

The Republicans of Maryland.

The Republican Electors of Maryland have put forth an address to the Republicans of that State, in which they say: We must adhere to our principles, our organization, our name, and our elected Chief Magistrate.

Table with columns: Name, Amount. Lists names and amounts for Washington's Administration and other officials.

THE CHIMAX OF POLITY.—NON-INTERCOURSE.

Ann LINCOLN'S REVIEW SENT BACK.—J. C. Norton received on Monday a large batch of Harper's Weekly, a journal of Civilization. A conspicuous feature of this paper, devoted to the cause of civilization, was a large picture of Abraham Lincoln, sent down South to let the semi-barbarians there know who was to be their President, and what he looked like.

NEW ORLEANS ON DISUNION.—The vote cast in New Orleans at the late election, stood on the question of Union vs. Yanceyism, as follows: Bell, Union..... 6,512 Douglas, Union..... 2,998 Breckinridge, Disunion..... 8210 Majority for Union..... 5565

JOE LANE.—Out West several people are in considerable because the elegant and refined Joseph Lane is not to be our next Vice President. They say that his defeat is a death blow to American literature, and will cause a complete stagnation in that branch of the book trade.

THE VERMONT LEGISLATURE has passed a law against prize fighting—principals, ten years imprisonment or $5,000 fine; aids, seconds or surgeons, five years imprisonment or $1,000 fine; and citizens of the State who attend a prize fight in other capacity, out of the State, to receive the same punishment.

BISHOP SIMPSON, at the last Ohio Conference, said that the Conference was getting too full of married preachers. He said to the young men: "Though you may be surrounded by angels, don't fear lest the angels shall have left the earth by the end of four years."

Miscellaneous.

THE AMBIGUITY OF LANGUAGE.—There is a prevailing tendency in this age to apply the same expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with a great variety of great Headache remedies, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electric-type among others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the man born."

'ardly Realized. His "ad" in "terrible" headache has hitherto, and I stepped into the bath-tub, and says he to me, "Can you please me of an 'ardache'?" "Does it make you feel better?" "No, it does not," says he, "I gave me a Cephalic Pill, and 'pon my honor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'ardache."

HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise pass unperceived, and to be remedied, and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz.—Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common, and is connected with a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism, and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach containing such headache, or of the presence of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism, and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach containing such headache, or of the presence of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism, and all febrile diseases.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found to be a safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the urting index.

BRIDGE.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Pills, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills, but I'm thinking that's not just it either; but perhaps you'll be thinking of it after knowing what it is. X. Y. Z. and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as he saved her before.

BRIDGE.—Och I sure now and you've sed ill, here's the quarter-and-giv me the Pills and don't be all day out of it either.

Constipation or Costiveness. No one of the "many ills of flesh" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits, it is regarded as a trifling ailment, the consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the most serious and distressing ailments. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Puff Swelling, and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fever, Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Dropsy, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Palsy, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate the presence of the system, and this alarming symptom. Not infrequently the disease named originates in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approach of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing. Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache? Mrs. Jones.—Gone I Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I might not be troubled again.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggist. Call for Cephalic Pills I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for there are a real blessing.
