SUNBURY AND ERIE RAILROAD .-- A vigorous effort will again be made at the approaching session of the Legislature, to devise the wavs and means for floishing this road. There only remains some twenty five miles to grade, and one hundred and twenty miles of rails to be laid, to complete the road to Erie City.

GOVERNOR PACKER visited Williamsport last week, and the "Press," noticing his arrival there, says:-"It is rumoted in fashionable circles that the Governor intends making Williamsport his permanent place of residence after the Wide-Awakes inaugurate Colonel Curtin." A very "unkind cut," brother Ulmer, considering how sensitive the Governor is on the Wide-Awake question.

On Friday last four gentlemen of Lancaster city went on a gunning expedition to Lebanon county, and shot one hundred and ten partridges and six rabbits .-This is the most successful hunting party we have heard of the present season.

FOR UNION .- While the southern chivalry are ranting about disunion and secession, it will be seen by the following item, that Union is progressing northward, and that the noble "union" as enduring as life :--

SALE OF CITY PROPERTY.—The property in Walnut street adjoining the Franklin House, consisting of a three story brick house, and lot of ground one hundred and ten feet deep, advertised for sale by Dr. Fleming, was purchased the finest we have indulged in this season, and by James M'Cormick, Esq., for the sum of three thousand six hundred dollars. A few years ago, when the lot had a depth of only eightyfive feet, Mr. Verbeke refused four thousand dollars for the property.

An Incorrigible Drunkard .- Last night hopeless victim of tanglefoot, named Monroe A. Coolbaugh, "without a local habitation," was found lying around loose by an officer and conveyed to the lock-up, where he remained with the Lancaster banking institution. He is until this morning, when he paid the usual fine said to be in bad health, and also corroded by and was discharged. A careful examination of all coin received in change is necessary to ensure freedom from fraud.

JUDGE PEARSON ON NEWSPAPERS.-In the course of some conversation during the sitting of Court, yesterday afternoon, between an at torney and Judge Pearson, the former incidentally observed that, according to the newspapers, there would be about one hundred cases for trial. The learned Judge volunteered the assertion that "THE NEWSPAPERS ARE NOT RELIA-BLE." The remark was unwarranted, uncalled for, and in bad taste. Had Judge Pearson read would have discovered that it was based upon information furnished by the District Attorney, who distinctly stated to us that at least one sons of the old Keystone are joining the fair hundred indictments would be submitted to the daughters of Her Majesty's Dominion in a Grand Jury for their action. This is not the first time Judge Pearson has indulged in gratuitous and contemptuous flings at "the newspapers," while occupying the bench. If he knew how little "the newspapers" cared for HIS opinion of them, he would probably have less to say on the subject.

THE STEAM FIRE ENGINE. -- At a meeting of the Friendship Company last evening, a committee was appointed to proceed to Philadelphia and order a steam fire engine, as soon as a sufficient amount of money can be raised to make the first payment of a thousand dollars. They were reprimended and fined one dollar each. > A Woman Killed .- On the Catawissa Railroad, the other day, the engineer discovered a woman lying with her head across the track But it was too late to hold back the train. The engine was reversed, but in vain. It passed over the unfortunate woman, severing her head from her body and frightfully mangling it. It was her evident intention to commit suicide, as she had been warned of the coming of the train a moment before, and deliberately laid herself down waiting for it to pass.

THE ALLEGED SPIRIT RAPPINGS IN LEBANON County.-Two or three weeks ago we published the particulars of a mysterious rapping case at Jonestown, which caused great excitement in that community. The family in whose house the rappings occurred were annoyed beyond en durance by these apparently supernatural demonstrations, and by the crowds of people who flocked thither to see and hear for themselves and investigate the affair. Suspecting that s found him drunk again, and indecently ex- young girl in their employ was in some way posing his person. He was re-captured and connected with the mysterious noises, she was sent home to her parents, who reside about two miles from Jonestown. This proved to be the case, for with the departure of the girl the rappings ceased. The "spirit," however, if it be such, accompanied the girl, and the same kind of knocks are now heard in her father's house skilfully executed that they are calculated to sometimes so frequent and loud during the deceive the shrewdest dealers, if they are not night as to prevent the family from sleeping. carefully examined. They have the weight and Doors fly open as if by magic, and noises are made wherever the girl moves, at times so loud fect being the rough and battered appearance as to be heard a square distant. A gentleman who was in the room with the girl and heard the knocks, informs us that the noise resembled that made by a man striking vigorous blows upon a door or table, the girl meanwhile sitting motionless in a chair, several feet distant. At other times a chair would commence rocking, and continue in motion for some minutes, without anybody touching it. Our friend, who is a shrewd and intelligent man, heard and saw these strange sounds and sights, and although convinced of their reality, and unable to solve the mystery, he is not willing to admit that "spirits" have anything to do with it. Another gentleman, a resident of Camberland county, well-known and highly respected in this vicinity, and a beour article, referred to by the attorney, he liever in "spiritualism," visited the girl recently, and writes to a citizen of Harrisburg, as follows, concerning the mysterious affair. Our readers can peruse the letter, draw their own conclusions, and make their own comments;

All the quack nostrums are giving way before it. Three fourths of the mixtures for reway, before it. Three fourths of the mixtures for restoring and beautifying the hair, do it more injury than good. They burn it up—destroy the life of its roots—make the hair fall off, and produce premature baldness. I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Winks and Liquorse, imported by Udolpto Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schendam Schampers. Mr. Wolfe, in his letted to me, speaking of the purity of his Winks and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty yeers' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Winks which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves.—

We are happy to inform our fellow -ditizens that mere is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality.
We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to v isit Udopho Wolfe's extensive Warchouse, Nos. 18. 20 and 22 Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Mar's etfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also that the large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of wis uncersain mr. Woile, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up asorted cases of Wines and Liquors.
