occur, for no encroachments will be made. The disunion feeling in the South is, doubtless, greatly exaggerated. A sort of terrorism seems to Union sentiment. But as the causes for this excitement are all imaginary, the election of a Republican President, in the constitutional mode, certainly affording no excuse for it, it is reasonable to suppose that a reaction will soon take place among the Southern people themselves, which will overthrow the disunionists at home. It is a great mistake to class the supporters of Mr. Breckinridge as disunionists. Some few of them may be, but Mr. Breckinridge himself and his supporters as a glass are I

A Queer Proceeding.

Many of our readers have observed notice that the Sheriff of this county was about to sell a portion of the rolling stock belonging to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in order to satisfy a claim of some $270,000, due the State for tax on tonnage. The State holds two judgments of this amount against the Company, and through her Attorney General an execution was issued out of the Court of this county, directing the Sheriff to levy and seize upon their goods for the purpose of collecting the amount due the State. But after the execution was duly issued the Railroad Company took steps to have the execution stayed, for the purpose of taking the case up to the United States Supreme Court; and Judge Knox, the Attorney General, was applied to to have the writ stayed. That officer, however, promptly refused to comply with the request of the Railroad Company, and the public was assured that the money would have to be paid, and the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund were even solemnly assured, on Tucsday last, that the money would be forthcoming, and in view of those facts were induced to purchase ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS more State stocks than they had intended to announcement that the execution had been stayed, with the consent of Attorney General Knox, until the 10th day of January and misgivings of the intention to collect mischievous government starveling. the money from the Company from the start; but we would ask our amiable False Alarms and Bogus Dispatches. friends, Gov. It is almost too much to hope for. Yet it may happen; and the prayers of all true patriots ought to be directed to that end.

THE STATES that are making such a errible bluster about disunion are only those which would be completely and irretrievably ruined by such an eventwhile those that are battling for the Constitution and the Union cannot, in a single instance, be seriously affected by anything of the sort. It would be a blessed thing for the whole country, if South Carolina could be driven from the confed eracy, or at least suspended from all the rights and privileges thereof for the space of four years. She would then learn by actual experiment the beauty of sitting on pins, and would shut her ridiculous little mouth forever, which she will never do under other circumstances.

JOHN BROWN TALK .- Wm. L. Yancey, the leading secessionist, recently made a speech in Montgomery, Alabama, which he concluded with the following rhetorical nonsense, which sounds very much like abolition talk, such as we sometimes read in Garrison's abolition paper: As for myself, rather than live on, subject to As for myself, rather than live on, subject to government which breaks the compact at lawing secured a Republican Legislature, and ill, and places me in a position of inequality thereby a Republican United States Senator, a government which breaks the compact at will, and places me in a position of inequality —of inferiority to the Northern free negro—though that life might be illustrated by gilded chains—by luxury and by ease—I would, in the cause of my State, gather round me some brave spirits, who, however few in number, would find a grave, which my countrymen, the world, and all future ages, should recognize as a modern Thermooyle! modern Thermopylæ!

SPEECH BY SENATOR TRUMBULL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Tuesday, Nov. 20, 1860. The Republican local celebration came off today, as per programme. The city was crowded with strangers from the surrounding States, all of whom made it a point to see and sliake hands with the President elect.

The evening programme of Wide-Awake pro-cession, illuminations of the city, and display of fireworks, was carried out with enthusiasm. The procession marched to the residence of Mr. Lincoln, where it halted, and gave oneer after cheer for "Honest Old Abe."

the enthusiasm had subsided, Mr. Lincoln spoke as follows:

FRIENDS AND FELLOW CITIZENS:-Please excus me on this occasion from making a speech. I thank you for the kindness and compliment of this call. I thank you, in common with all this call. I thank you, in common with all others, who have thought fit by, your votes, to indorse the Republican cause. [Applause.] I rejoice with you in the success which has so far attended that cause. [Applause.] Yet, in all our rejoicing, let us neither express nor cherish any harsh feelings toward any citizen who by his vote has differed with us. [Loud cheering.] Let us at all times remember that all American citizens are brothers of a common country and citizens are brothers of a common country, and should dwell together in the bonds of fraternal feeling. [Immense applause.] Let me again beg you to accept my thanks, and to excuse me from further speaking at this time.

The Wide-Awakes having cheered Mr. Lincoln to their hearts content, resumed their march to the Wigwam, where an immense con course of people had already assembled. prevail in some places, which, for the time, appears to have crushed out any manifestation of Fellow-Citizens: It is meet that Republicans should make merry and be glad, for the spirit of liberty, which, with our rulers, was dead, is alive again, and the Constitution, orwith our rulers, was dained to secure its blessings, which was lost sight of, is found. In view of the recent political triumphs, Illinois Republicans have espe-cial reasons for congratulation. In common with their political brethren througout the Union, they rejoice in the general result which secures to the country a Republican President, who, we trust and believe, is to bring back the Government to the policy of the fathers, and thereby restore the fraternal feeling which existed between the different sections of the coun try in the purer and better days of the Repub and the power to enact the necessary laws to prevent illegal voting and to give to every part of the State, according to the population, its proportionate share in the legislation of the State. And, more than this, we Illinoisians have especial reasons to rejoice in the fact that the standard-bearer in this wifican hosts to victory, is our own fellow-citizen, the pure, incorruptible, patriotic and talented Lincoln, than whom the Constitution in all parts has not a more faithful supporter, nor the Union an abler defender. But, while we rejoice over a victory so complete, let it not be by way of triumph over political opponents, for we are all, by cate, the maintenance of which we believe esential to the preservation of our free institutions and the perpetuity of constitutional lib-erty. Mr. Lincoln, although the candidate of the Republican party, as Chief Magistrate, will neither belong to that one of the care of the constitutions. When inaugurated he will be the President of the country and the whole country, and I doubt not will be as ready to defend and protect the State in which he has not received a solitary State in which he has not received a solitary vote against any encroachment upon its constitutional rights, as the one in which he has received the largest majority; while they by whose votes he has been designated as Chief Magistrate of the Republic, will expect him to maintain and carry forward the principles on which he was elected, they know that in doing the present will be made on the reso no encroachment will be made on the re-served rights of any of the States. They know that the Federal Government is one of delega-ted powers; that it can do nothing except the authority fer the act can be found in the instrument which created it, and that all powers not conferred are reserved to the States, or the people of the States. Hence when their political opponents have charged them with Aboli-tionism, or attributed to them a desire to interfere with Slavery in the States, or some fanatic has insisted they ought to do so, the reply has invariably been that the people who made the Federal Gouernment did not think proper to confer on it such authority, and it

Miscellaneous.

THE AMACCAMATION OF LANGUAGES—There is a rw. ing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word tepholoc when is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. spaldings great Headache remedy, but it will soon bouseful a more general way, and the world Cephalic will become as common as Electritype and many others alone distinction as foreign words has been worm away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born"

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'cadache th's hafternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hesse me of an 'cadache?" ''Do s it hacke 'can you hesse me of an 'cadache?" ''Do s it hacke 'cauve me a Cethalic l'ill, hand 'pou me 'oner it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'cadache.

AT HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise oscape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz:—Symptomatic and Idiopathic Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gour lit is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting but loous headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the boweis, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with He. daches, Ansemia and plethora are also after tons which trequently occasion headache. Idiopathic tons which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headacho is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical owergles, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or accribity of temper. In most instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or accribity of temper. In most instances the comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or accribity of temper. In most instances the print is take front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtile power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

I ander.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Caphalic Glue, no, a bottle of Frepared Fills,—but I'm thinking that's not just it maither; but perhaps ye'll be after knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her betore.

Druggit.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Fills.

Bridget.—Coh! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarter and giv me the Fills and don't be all day about it aither.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir t." is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carele-sness, resedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of two little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of many of the most fatal and dangorous diseases, and unless early cradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untinuely grave.—Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, files and others of like nature, while a long train of rightful diseases such as Malignant Favers, Abcesses, Dysentery, Diarrhoza, Dysepsy, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondrissis, Meiancholy and Ineanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in C-mstipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it tollows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Filis on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expect the instinous approach o disease and destroy this daugerous f.e to human life. No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so preva-

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Weil, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache?

Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill your nt cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Bruggists. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never init, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a hard-cetty, and shall tell all my suffaring.——5 for they are a real blessing.

tell all my suffering. They are a real blessing.

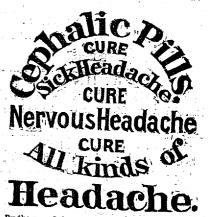

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DELLERS SAVED.—Mr. Spaiding has sold two millions oi bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furmiure, thus making an aggregated it wenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valu. ble invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are us good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

Over Excitement, and the mental care and anxie ATOVER EXCREMENT, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cophalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear.—It quiests the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relates the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggrava es the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING .—Spalding's Cephalic Fills are certain cure for Sick Headache, Billious Headache, curvous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vacefonation for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Fill for relief of Headache, and the use of Quinine for the provention of Ferers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

Age Did you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the favered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the englaring which you then aversioned. For this and suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Ner rous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness may be obtained.
