HARRISBURG, PA. Friday Afternoon, November 23, 1860.

"The First Fruits."

In an article under the above caption, our neighbor of the Patriot and Union attributes the present condition of affairs in the South, and the tightness of the money market in both sections, to the election of Lincoln. This is all gammon. The "panic" attempted to be raised now was brought about by just such northern journals as the Patriot and Union, the New York Herald, the Pennsylvania, and others of the same stripe. These papers have been howling over the election of Lincoln ever since the freemen of the North expressed their sentiments in November last, and while like whipped children because their fat Government jobs are about to be taken away from them. The truth is, it cannot be disguised, that the demagogues who control northern Democratic papers are the real instigators of disunion. As a contemporary justly remarks, these journals never make a statement which is not either directly or indirectly a libel upon a great and powerful body of northern voters, composing a majority of its most intelligent, calm-thinking and conservative citizens. These false and malicious statements are eagerly copied by southern Democratic journals, and read by southern people, and thus they contract the prejudices and hostile feelings towards the North, which we find so general in that section. These northern incendiary sheets are eternally warning the South of impending ruin in case of the success of the Republican party, and that its object is to wage a war of extermination against their rights and institutions. The millions of respectable and law abiding men who constitute a party which is no more radical on the slavery question than the old Whig party, and which has elected a President who reads in the footsteps of the gallant old leader of that glorious old party, are invariably and constantly denounced as "Black Republicans," "Abolitionists," "Nigger Stealers," "Negro Equality Men," and so on; and thus the seeds of sectional animosity and civil discord are sown. We have too good an opinion of the masses of the conservative people of the South, to suppose that if they correctly understood the policy and purposes of the Republican party, any serious cause of dissatisfaction would exist in consequence of the election of a Republican President; but not even a glimpse of the truth is allowed to reach them through these Democratic journals. They not only falsify and distort northern opinions themselves, but will not contradict the grossest and most mischievous falsehoods on the part of their Southern contemporaries.

THE GOVERNOR OF ALABAMA has written a letter upon the subject of calling a convention of the people. He regrets that he cannot construe the law as empowering him to call the convention immediately. He will await the election of Lincoln by the Electoral College, and will then issue his proclamation ordering the election of delegates to the convention to take place. The convention will be called to meet on the 7th of January. The Governor urges the selection of candidates at once, with full assurance that the convention will be called. He advises the separate secession of Alabama.

GOVERNOR MAGOFFIN, of Kentucky, has written a strong letter in opposition to the scheme of "secession or rebellion," and alludes to the alleged wrongs sustained by the South at the hands of the North. Yet he says he is opposed to secession. The Governor is evidently reluctant to take this position, and only yields his own personal sentiments to the overwhelming anti-secession sentiment of his State.

THE MURDER TRIAL.—The lengthy report of the murder trial now in progress, occupies our columns to-day to the exclusion of our usual quantity of political and miscellaneous matter. The trial excites considerable interest in this community, the Court room being constantly thronged with people anxious to hear the evidence. The testimony for the defence will probably be closed this evening.

THE HON. ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President elect of these United States, left his home at Springfield, on Wednesday morning, accompanied by his family and several friends, for the purpose of meeting Mr. Hamlin, the Vice President elect, at Chicago. Along the route Mr. Lincoln was greeted with great enthusiasm, and in several places he was obliged to make short speeches in acknowledgment.

THE VOTE ON ENSLAVING FREE NEGROES IN MARYLAND.—The following is the full vote in Maryland on the proposition submitted to the people of that State, to enslave free negroes:

Table with columns: County, For, Against. Includes Charles county, Queen Anne's county, Baltimore county, Howard county, Calvert county, St. Mary's county, Kent county, Worcester county, Total.

There seems to be a disposition to leave the free negroes as they are. The vote of New York is overwhelmingly against giving them the right of suffrage, free of property qualification, and the vote of Maryland is as strong against enslaving those of the race who are free.—Exchange Paper.

METHODISTS TURNING TO EPISCOPALIANISM.—On the 29th ultimo the Independent Methodist Society of Sehon Chapel, in Louisville Ky., came in a body into the Episcopal Church, transferring to that church all the property previously held by the congregation. That society consists of a very handsome church building, capable of holding four or five hundred persons, with school rooms; situated in the heart of the city, and worth not less than $24,000. The members associated themselves as a parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church, under the name of Calvary Church. To enable the new parish to start free of embarrassment, the Episcopalians of Louisville stepped forward and in two days raised $8,500, the balance of debt remaining. The New York Churchman comments upon the event as a hopeful indication.

AN INCIDENT OF LIFE IN THE GOLD REGIONS.—Among the deep defiles of the Rocky Mountains, lately a small company of men stood around the new made grave of a dead companion. With heads uncovered they listened attentively to the words of the preacher as he offered up a prayer. While in the midst of it one of the company discovered "the color" in the earth at his feet thrown up to make room for the remains of the deceased. In a loud whisper he communicated the rather exciting intelligence to his companion. All heard it, even the clergyman, who, suspending his prayer, opened his eyes to see his auditory scatter in every direction to stake off gold claims. Calling in a loud voice to them to stake him off "a claim," he reclosed his eyes, hastily concluded his prayer, and started off on a run to join his fellows in securing a claim.

WIDOW-AWAKE INCIDENT.—THE WIDOW'S MITE. During the march of the Wide-Awakes at Seneca Falls, N. Y., on Wednesday evening, the Auburn Union says that they passed many houses beautifully and some of them generously illuminated. Upon arriving in front of these companies would halt and give the occupants three cheers. While passing through one of the back streets, they came to a small one story frame house, with no windows, and seemingly dark and untenanted, but just as they had fairly arrived in front of it, the door was thrown open and there was seen an old woman standing beside a stone, upon which was placed four burning tallow candles. The whole line of Wide-Awakes seemed electrified by this demonstration, and six loud and hearty cheers were given. It was in truth the widow's mite.

WM. R. YANNEY.—This man seems ambitious of going down to posterity with the infamy hanging about his name of having possessed the power of dismembering the confederacy. Should he succeed, we have no doubt he expects to be assigned by Milton to either Moloch or Belial. The only parallel we know for his wild, fiery course, is found amid that hell-brood of spirits conjured up by Byron's imagination, in Manfred, and who is made to exclaim: "I'm the rider of the wind, The thrasher of the strong; The cloud I left behind Is yet with lightning warm."

THE ROMANCE OF RASCALITY.—Five of a band of ten thieves have been arrested in New York, who are regularly enrolled and banded together for stealing. They have a written constitution by and by, and a set of rules defining each man's duties and privileges, and the obligations of each towards the other. A number of well planned written schemes for committing larcenies were found in their rendezvous. One of their favorite plans was for two of the party to go round to houses with furniture polish for sale, and exhibit its qualities by operating upon some article of furniture. In this way they gained an intimate acquaintance with the interior of houses.

"BEARS" IN THE SLAVE MARKET.—The Raleigh (N. C.) "Standard" throws out suggestions that the great object of those who are now creating such a turmoil in the cotton States is not to produce secession, either now or after Mr. Lincoln's inauguration, but to create a panic among slaveholders of the border States, so that they may be induced to part with their negroes at a great sacrifice. Under these circumstances the "Standard" advises its readers to hold on to that species of property, as the value, which has lately been somewhat depressed, will soon recover its former height.

THE YOUNG LADIES IN MOUNT HOLYOKE (Mass.) Female Seminary at South Hadley, extemporized a Wide Awake display on hearing of Mr. Lincoln's election. About 850 of them provided themselves with lamps and marched through the entire building, from the basement to the fourth story. About thirty, who were supporters of Mr. Douglas, did all they could to blow out the lamps, but without effect. Next day, these disappointed ones appeared at the table dressed in deep mourning, and signified their grief at the "Little Giant's" defeat.—Boston Paper.

JOHN WESLEY'S TOMB.—The well known building in London, the City Road Chapel, the first house of worship built by the Rev. John Wesley, stands upon leased ground, obtained from the corporation of London, eighty-three years ago, and the lease for which will soon expire. The trustees of the church are making exertions to purchase the fee. This they are the more anxious to accomplish, as the ground contains the remains of the founder of Methodism, and many of his co-laborers and successors.

In view of the panic which threatened us, the Presidents of the banks in this city held a meeting yesterday, at 12 o'clock, and decided to immediately suspend all specie payments until further notice. Although it is to be regretted that our banks were obliged to adopt this measure at all, yet it is much better that it was done before the panic reached us to any great extent, as by this means the banks were enabled to give much more relief to our business men than they otherwise would. The good effect of the movement began to show itself immediately after the fact became known, stocks rising with great buoyancy, and great confidence being expressed by everybody on "Change."

MOTHERS, READ THIS.—The following is an extract from a letter written by the pastor of a Baptist church to the "Journal of Commerce," Cincinnati, Ohio, and speaks volumes in favor of that well known medicine—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. "We saw an advertisement in your column of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Now we never said a word in favor of a patent medicine before in our life, but I feel compelled to say to you that this is no humbug—we have tried it, and know it to be all it claims. It is, probably, one of the most successful medicines of the kind we have ever used. And those of your readers who have babies can do better than to say a supply."

From the American Baptist, New York, August 2, 1859. A MINIATURE wooden pagoda which we brought from Burmah, having been broken while on shipboard, we were very anxious to have it repaired, and tried several sorts of glue, but without success, till our attention was called to Spalding's Prepared Glue, sold at 21st Street. This we found to answer the purpose. The pagoda appears now to be strongly cemented, and can be seen by calling at the office of the American Baptist.

From the Freeman's Journal, New York, August 6, 1859. Spalding's Prepared Glue is such a simple and cheap preparation that it is a pity any home should be without it.

Davis' Pain Killer. NO MEDICINE is more prompt in its action in cases of Cholera, Cholera morbus, &c., than Perry Davis' Pain Killer. It is the acknowledged antidote which seldom fails if applied in its early symptoms. No family should be without a bottle of it always on hand. The stain on linen from the use of the Pain Killer is easily removed by washing in alcohol. Davis' Pain Killer seems particularly efficacious in cholera morbus, bilious colic, and other diseases to which the natives of Burmah, from their unwholesome mode of living, are peculiarly exposed. It is a valuable antidote to the poison of Centipedes, Scorpions, hares, &c. REV. J. BEJAMIN, Late Missionary in Burmah. Sold by all druggists, grocers and medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canada. n13-1m

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive terms of other languages, and to use them as if they were our own. Thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will be used as common as Electric-type and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manner born."

Hardly Realized. He had "horrible" headache this afternoon, and I stepped into the apothecary's hand says he to the man, "Can you please me with an 'e'adache?" "Does it have 'ard' says he. "Hexedodically," says he, I had upon that 'e'adache me a Cephalic Pill, and the honor is cured, no quick that I 'ardly realized I had an 'e'adache."

HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indication should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two main heads, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common, and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases among which are Apoplexy, Spasms, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting Sick Headache, of hepatic disease constituting Bilious Headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches, Anemia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion Headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by its name. Its nervous headache sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health, and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or irritability of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, or over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, and the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicates the diseases of which Headache is the ushering index.

Menstrual wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Pills, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills—but I'm thinking that's not just the thing; but perhaps you'll be after knowing what it is. See she's high dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as she's had before.

Bridge.—Och I sure now and you've said it, here's the quarter and give me the Pills and don't be all day about it either.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache? Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can give them to my friends. Physician.—You can get them at any Druggist. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache. Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a Real Blessing.

Facial Worth Knowing.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Nervous Headache, Constipation and General Debility.

GRAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of medication known as Cephalic Pills. Small Pills, the Cephalic Pills for relief of Fevers, either of the Cephalic Pills which never fails, and which is experienced by referring humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

Do you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember those throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills will remove all these feelings from the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness may be obtained. They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject. They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Constipation. For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

THE CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been used in many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach. They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and in cases of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS! The genuine have five signatures of Henry C. Spalding on each box. A Box will be sent by mail pre-paid on receipt of the PRICE 25 CENTS. All orders should be addressed to HENRY C. SPALDING, 48 Cedar Street, New York. n12-1m
