Headaches may be classified under two names, viz.—

Symptomatic and diopathic Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly commen and is the precursor of a great variety of viseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, inheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach consituting tick headache, of hepatic disease constituting billions headache, of werms, concipation and other disease of the bowels, as well as ronal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches, Amemia and plethora are also affect tous which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very (common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on sundenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by cepression of spirits or acrebity of temper. In most instance it comes on slowly, heralded by the named Neuralyda.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flosh is heir t," is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often origitating in carcle siness, "resedentary habit; it is regarded as a slight disorder of two little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of many of the most latal and dangorous diseases, and unless early cradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untinely grave—Among the in her evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, C.b.c., Rheum dism, Foul Breatn, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Favers, Abcesses, Dysentery, Diarrhoz. Dyspesy. Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hystela, Hytechoudrissis, Mclarcholy and linsunity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in C netipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an panish originate in C n-tipation, but take on an inde-pendent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention when-ever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Ce-halic Filis on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expect the instituous approagn of disease and destroy this dargerous for to human life.

**Bording of the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgost at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were tor pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of New ous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken a the commencement of an attack immediate relief fro rain and sickness may be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headach o which females are so subject.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Lazative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC FILLS are the result of long investi gation and carefully conducted experiments, having been em or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the observe of any disa greeable tuste renders it easy to administer them to children
