Pennsylvania Daily Telegraph, Monday Afternoon, December 3, ton-the rescue of my dwelling from fire during my absence-co-operation with me, so earnest, so devoted, so effective in securing the ascendency of the Republican cause throughout than I dare express. May you all find your re-ward in the increasing happiness and growing ward in the increasing happiness and growing greatness of our country. And now we part again. You to lay aside the emblems of your political association, at least for a time, and to return to your industrial pursuits and social enjoyments. I to return to the theatre of public duty at the National Capi-tal. May a kind Providence spare all your lives and continue all the blessings you enjoy, and when we meet again in the coming spring and when we meet again in the coming spring season, when these now naked trees shall have resumed their wonted foliage, may our hearts be renewed in their mutual affections and may all the sullen and angry clouds which seem to b; gathering in the political atmosphere have given place to those serene and auspicious skies which properly belong to the only pure and complete Republican system to be found on the face of the earth. [Loud and prolonged cheering] and the doings of the State Legislature. FULL AND ACCURATE REPORTS OF THE PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE LEGISLATURE will be given, (special reporters having been employed for the purpose at great expense,) in connection with the DOINGS OF CONGRESS, which will be of unusual interest the coming

A large amount of Miscellaneous and Literary reading will also be given in the columns of the WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, rendering it a first class Family Newspaper. Also all the import-ant news of the day, Foreign and Domestic, with full and reliable reports of the Philadelphia, Baltimore and New York markets, alone worth to business men more than the price of subscription.

The present subscribers to the WEEKLY TELE-GRAPH, who desires to avail themselves of the reduction will please settle up their old ac-counts without delay-otherwise they will be tharged $2, as heretofore.

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY. Single subs ribers will be charged $1 per annum invariably in advance. Clubs of 50, directed to one Post Office, $40

TERMS OF THE SEMI WEEKLY.

Single copies semi-weekly during the Groston of the Legislature, and weekly during the re-mainder of the year, $1 50 in advance.

THE DAILY TELEGRAPH.

The DAILY TELEGRAPH was established in 1856, and has now been over four years in ex-istence. Many of our friends considered the establishment of a daily Republican newspaper at the Capital of the State as a hazardous unertaking, but we have succeeded, after expending a large sum of money, in placing the same on a permanent basis, and the public may rely on its prompt and regular publication.

LEGISLATIVE REPORTS. The TELEGRAPH is the only establishment that employs a corps of regular stenographic reporters during the session of the Legislature, South Carolina's Past History. A reference to the past history of South Carolina will show that she took more decided steps towards secession thirty years ago than she has taken thus far in the it was JACKSON'S administration that in- tive as an adoption of some of the articles only. LINCOLN, it is not likely that they can right to withdraw was started at Richmond, and con-sidered as a conditional ratification, which was itself excel their own performances in that line abandoned -worse than rejection. against JACKSON and the Union in 1832. Here is a specimen of the tone and spirit of the South Carolina papers and orators on the reception of JACKSON'S famous FOREVER," as did all the other States. proclamation. Their bluster did no harm then, and it will be equally harmless now. When "Old Abe" comes into power, the treason plotters will find him to be as prompt and determined in maintaining "the Union, the Constitution and the Laws," as was the lion-hearted JACKSON. Here are the extracts referred to, as published in one of our Southern Union exchange papers :---[From the Charleston Mercury, Dec. 17, 1832.]

The declaration of war made by Andrew Jack son against the State of South Carolina, occupie to-day the larger portion of our columns. It will be read with the feelings which so extraordinary a document is calculated to excite.-This unhappy old man has been suffered by his advisers to arrogate the power to coerce a State of the Confederacy. He has issued the edict of a dictator—an edict which time will prove whether he dares or can enforce. He has at-tempted in this proclamation to intimidate the Whigs of South Carolina by threats, and to encourage and foment insurrection and violence on the part of the interval enemies of the State. This document was received here yesterday. and greeted with the indignation and contempt jority over Bell; in twelve a majority which it merits. In every freeman worthy of the name it has excited no other feelings but those of defiance and scorn. Recreants will hail over all:--it as a brave blow to the cause of treason.

[From the Charleston Mercury, Dec. 19, 1532.] The crisis for which every intelligent and resolute Carolinian Whig has long been pre-pared is come. The efficacy of our remcdy has been demonstrated. We were told it would be nefficient; it has proved so potent that an infuriated administration has been compelled, in despair of otherwise beating us, to resort to brute force. We have always said that our remedy was of right peaceful; we never said that it would necessarily be peaceful; it is al-ways in the power of a bad man to outrage right by violence, if unrestrained by principle or a fear of consequences personal to himself. General Jackson has not furnished the first ex ample. There has been a Cæsar, a Cromwell and a Bonaparte-men of towering geniuswho have stooped to play the usurper. Why may not an inferior spirit without as much heart as either, and with none of their genius, aspire to imitate them in those actions of their lives, which he alone can imitate, because they are criminal?

In the Legislature, Mr. Pickens declared "he believed the contest would end in black True description of the resident was none less than the edict of a tyrant; and if they were for war, he was ready, and it behooved all the citizens of the State to meet the storm with becoming manliness. He, for one, never would submit-if driven from the scaboard, he was for carrying on the war in the interior—if driven from the interior, he was for a guerilla warfare in the mountains, and if at last compelled to yield, he would die contending to the last drop of blood he had, to sustain the ordinance and the authority thereof.

Southern vs. Northern Aggressions.

tional ratification ; that it does not make New York a member of the new Union, and conse quently that she should not be received on that plan. Compacts must be reciprocal ; this prinago than she has taken thus far in the present emergency. If it is LINCOLN'S Constitution requires an adoption in toto and rong year. And election that drives her to secession now, adoption for a limited time would be as defeccited her to disunion in 1832. If the people are blameable now for supporting virtue of the power to admit new States, may be able and disposed to do in such a case, I do be able and disposed to do in such a case, I do not inquire, and I suppose that is not the ma-terial point at present. I have not a moment to add more than my fervent wishes for your success and happiness. The idea of reserving the JAMES MADISON. Yours.

New York finally abandoned her claim, and "adopted the Constitution in toto, and Republicanism in the South.

It is a significant and cheering fact that the vote for LINCOLN in the slave-holding the vote for LINCOLN in the slave-holding States is more than twenty times as great as the vote for FREMONT four years since. The party has now attained a permanent position is discussed to-day. It is said that foothold in the South and will steadily several prominent Republicans have already foothold in the South, and will steadily and rapidly increase there. It is not too much to predict that by the time another Presidential election comes round, there will be Republican States at the South as well as at the North. Thus far the Republican vote is largest in cities and towns whose commercial transactions with the North open the way for abetter political understanding of us, and a removal of unfounded prejudices against us. The following is the Presidential vote of sixteen Southern towns. In five of them Lincoln has a majority over Douglas; in five a ma. over Breckinridge, and in two a majority PERSONAL LIBERTY LAW IN VIRGINIA.-It is a little remarkable that Virginia has a personal liberty law. It enacts that any person, con ceiving himself to be unlawfully detained as a slave, is authorized to sue for his freedom Such person, during the pendency of the suit, must be kept in custody at the expense of the person claiming to be the owner. Or the claim-ant may take the custody of such person on giving bonds, in a penalty double the value of the petitioner ($1000), by the fugitive slave law, to have him forthcoming on the trial. Counsel is assigned the petitioner by the State to prosecute his suit, and he is allowed free of cost, all needful process, services of officers, and attendance of witnesses. The suit has pre-cedence of all other cases on the docket of the and the question of freedom or slavery is to be tried by a jury. If the petitioner obtains a verdict in his favor he is to be declared free, and the claimant is mulcted in damages and costs.

A MODEL COMMUNITY.-The Choctaw nation would seem to be a model community, and one furnishing an example which should excite all emulation. All lands, it is said, are held in common, and each Indian, or those connected with him by affinity or consanguinity, settles down, and nobody is allowed to come nearer

In the opinion of the meeting, as expressed by resolutions, "the permanent cotinuance of the Union and the ultimate peaceful and profitable existence of slavery in the Southern States depends upon the continuance of the barrier which the border slave States now afford them against Northern aggression. In view of these great interests Kentucky is compelled to maintain the Union, and she appeals to the South, as a brave and chivalrous people, to stand by the Union as the only hope for the preservation of our great na-
