PARISIAN MODE OF ROASTING APPLES -Select the largest, scoop out the core without cutting quite through ; fill the hollow with butter and fine, soft sugar; let them roast in a slow oven and serve up wi h the syrup.

ANOIHER SUDDEN DEATH. -- We learn that Mr. Phillip Dock, of Newville, died suddenly, of appoplexy, at his residence in that place on Monday. The deceased was a brother of Hon. Wm. Dock, of this city, and served his country in the second war of independence.

RAEBIT HUNTING .--- The light fall of snow yesterday was highly favorable for Rabbit hunting, and the country lads captured large numto market this morning and sold for a shilling tial gum overshoes. each. We learn that the rural districts are overrun with Rabbits this season.

A TALL FAMILY .- There are now living in this county eight sturdy farmers, sons of the late Paul Lingle, of East Hanover township. whose aggregate height is fifty-one feet! The youngest of the brothers stands six and a half feet in his stockings. All of them are good Republicans, and voted for "old Abe" at the last election. A sound as well as a tall family. ---

ATTENTION MOUNT VERNON .-- A stated meeting of the Mount Vernon Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, will be held in their hall this (Wednesday) evening at 71 o'clock. A full attendance is desired as it is the time to make nominations for officers for the ensuing year. By order. J. A. CARMAN, Sec'y.

Collided.-Last evening a "yankee jumper" and a young lady pedestrian collided, on Second street. The latter left the impression of her person on the snow ; but in going down, which feat was very gracefully accomplished, her expansive crinoline broke the force of the fall. and prevented serious damage. The lady took the mishap good naturedly, "gathered herself up" quickly, adjusted her rumpled crinoline, and with a smiling countenance and crimson cheeks, she pursued her way up street, without waiting for the apology of the lad whose care. lessness caused the accident.

More CANDIDATES. - The list of aspirants for the Adjutant Generalship continues to increase. In addition to the names already announced, we notice that Major Peter Fritz and General to figure at the head of military affairs. There are at least a dozen applicants already in the field, eleven of whom will, of course, be disappointed. The suggestion of a cotemporary to abolish the office, we consider, a sensible one, and commend it to the consideration of the in-coming Legislature. WZT

THE WAR-OF 1910 -- EIGHTH OF JANUARY .--The surviving soldiers of the second war of independence Throughout the country, are requested to celebrate the coming anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, on the eighth of and adopt resolutions to be forwarded to Congress, asking pensions for the poor old soldiers of the war of 1812, and the aged and infirm widows of such as are dead. This recommendation is sent forth by the President of the National Convention, at the request of many of the members of that Convention, residing in different sections of the country. We call altention to the subject at

THE LOCK UP contained three "vags" last ight, all trampers in search of employment. Having no money to procure lodging, and no seek shelter in the asylum for vagrants. The accommodations, however, were not such as they expected, and it is not likely they will

evening Mr. Dunwoodie, freight conductor on the Cumberland Valley Railroad, met with an accident at Chambersburg which resulted in his death. The deceased had been in the em ploy of the Company for a number of years, and was highly respected by all who knew him.

PASSING AWAY .- The snow that fell yesterday is rapidly disappearing before the melting

> Since penning the above, the weather, unre liable and coquettish as a spoiled beauty, has changed again. At the present writing the bright face of old Sol is obscured by murky clouds, and there is every indication of another snow storm. Great climate this !

BEFORE THE MAYOR .- Yesterday a tramper answering to the name of John Benhart, who spent the night in the lock-up, was before the Mayor on a charge of vagrancy, having been picked up on the street by one of the constables. He stated that he was on his way to Philadelphia, and having no money to obtain tavern accommodations, was forced, like some disappointed politicians, to "stay out in the cold." The Mayor discharged John, and he resumed his tramp eastward.

A PROPOSITION TO MINISTERS .- A correspondent of one of our religious exchanges suggests that next Sabhath be devoted to religions exercises looking towards the perpetuity of the American Union. The ministry of all denominations, it is thought, might review from the pulpit our national history, the providence of God towards us in times past, and God's obvious design, by our agency, of Christianizing the world, and spreading abroad the blessings of civil liberty. A sermon on such themes might awaken grateful memories, and enhance the value which we attach to the American Confederacy. And the ministrations of the pulpit, it is thought, might be attended with prayer that the Lord our God may continue to bless us and make us a united, peaceful and prosperous people We think the suggestions worthy Wm. F. Small, of Philadelphia, are ambitious of consideration. It is a time to call upon God. We need the guidance of His infinite wisdom, the protection of His almighty power, and the gracious influence of His holy Spirit .---We commend the proposition to the attention of the ministry and churches where the DAILY TELEGRAPH circulates.

IMPORTANT LIQUOR CASE .- At a recent term of Court in Lebanon county, Judge Pearson presiding, Mr. Jacob Fink, keeper of a tavern at Annville, was mulcted in the sum of $254 intemperate habits, a teamster named Jacob Garman, who afterwards, while under the effects annary, and at the same time to sign petitions of the liquor, fell off his horse, and was run over by the wheels of his wagon and killed .--The suit was brought by Rebecca Garman, widow of the deceased, under the rection of the law of 1854 which makes liquor sellers civilly responsible for the consequences, when they sell liquor to persons of known intemperate habits, minors, insane persons or to persons while drunk. The case was a very interesting one, and employed some of the best legal

THE POFFENBERGER CASE .--- The motion for a new trial, in the case of Wm. Poffenberger, lately convicted of manslaughter, was ably arfriends to take them in, they were obliged to gued by counsel this forenoon. The application was not granted, and this afternoon Judge Pearson sentenced Poffenberger to three years imprisonment in the county jail, and to pay a fine of one dollar and costs of prosecution

> THE SECOND SOIRES of the "Harrisburg So BRYAN'S TASTELESS VERMIFUGE. ciables" comes off at Exchange Hall this evening. Of course the young folks of both sexes, who love to "trip the light fantastic," will be on hand to indulge in that exhilarating exercise, to the inspiring music of the fiddle and the bow. "Go it while you're young !"

WINTER IS HERE .- The old frost-crowned Winter-King has arrived on the steam-car of PROF. WOOD'S HATE RESTORATIVE.—This Re-storative for making the hair grow, stopping its falling out, and restoring gray hair to its original cutor, is be-coming celebrated. All the quack nostrums are giving way before it. Three fourths of the mixtures for re-storing and beautifying the hsir, do it more injairy than good. They burn it up-destroy the life of its roots-make the hair fail off, and produce premature baldness. But Prof. Wood's Re-torative may be relied upon as con-taining nothing which can in any manner be injurious to the hair, while its success in accompliching what it pre-tends to do has been verified in hundrens of cases. And soon the snow-tassels will hang like some gorgeous fancy work of an allpowerful genii from every bough, and frostplumes will hang on every shrub. The sharefs of happy homes and fire-lit hearths are hurrying along the streets to get out of the way of the moaning winter winds. God keep and protect those whose homes know none of the comforts of wealth, and whose hearths are cheerless, and chill, and cold. ARRIVALS. - The meeting of the Electoral College to-day, attracted a large number of Republican politicians and office-hunters to this city, from distant sections of the Commonwealth, and the scenes in and about our principal hotels were quite refreshing. We had the pleasure of meeting several of the quill-driving fraternity, who illuminated our sanctum with the light of their blooming countenances. Among the "outsiders" in attendance we noticed several members of the Legislature, a couple of aspirants for Senatorial honors, and numerous applicants for positions under the new President and Governor. The special mission of the latter class was to secure an endorsement of their claims by the Presidential Electors. Hope ALL were successful.

OLD RESIDENTS .- One of the oldest-probably the oldest-inhabitant of Dauphic county, is Mr. Martin Hocker, of Derry township, now in his ninety-fourth year. He is as healthy and vigorous as a man of sixty, and personally superintended his own farm and business affairs, with great success, until very recently. Mr. Hocker bids fair to live to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of his birth day. In the same township there are three old ladies, all in the enjoyment of vigorous health, two of them aged cighty-four, and the other eighty-five years-making an aggregate of two hundred and fifty-three years! A few years ago we chronicled the death of a lady, in the same township, at the advanced age of one hundred and two years! The people of "old Derry' are proverbial for their longevity. We have some notion of migrating to that township.

THE FIRST SNOW STORM of the season in this locality occurced yesterday. The white flakes commenced falling early in the forenoon, and continued to descend fast and thick until evenprospect all round." The happy-hearted ju- who were fortunate enough to be present, apveniles brought their "yankee jumpers" into preciated. requisition, and were in all their glory, occupy-ability in Lebanon and Dauphin counties, among whom we notice the names of District Attorney Wiedman, Hon. John C. Kunkel, Levi Kline, Esq., and Mr. Funck. A new trial was moved for by the plaintiff, and an arrest of judgment asked for by the defence. The defence proved that Garman was subject to fits of dizziness, or faintness, and attributed his sudden fall from his horse to that cause. Competent witnesses also testified to the good character and standing of the tavern keeper.

MEETING OF PREACHERS. The Association of Preachers, composed of some fifteen or twenty Methodist clergymen located in this section of the South Philadelphia district, which met in the south rinkderpha district, which met in the Locust street church vesterday afternoon, is still in session. Last evening a public ser-mon was preached by Rev. Mr. Tilliot of Lan-caster, to a large and intelligent congregation. His theme was the Prohecies, and his object to show how literally they had been fulfilled, in the birth, suffering, death, resurrection and final triumph of the Saviour of mankind. The subject was a deeply interesting and instructive one, and the learned Divine handled it with great ability. We have seldom listened to a more eloquent and impressive discourse.— A Methodist minister from Nebraska was present, having arrived here yesterdey, en route for home. At the close of Mr. Elliott's dis-course he gave a brief history of the suffering condition of the people in that famine-stricken territory. According to his statement, which is corroborated by letters and newspaper reports, there was an almost total failure of the crops there the past season, and hundreds of people are destitute of the necessaries of life, and with out money to procure them. He closed with an eloquent appeal for material aid, which was liberally responded to by the audience. A very interesting feature of the evening's exercises was the excellent music by the Choir, the members of which acquitted themselves creditably, ing, when snow to the depth of three inches or singing several new anthems with fine effect. more covered the roads, and " whitened the It was a treat that all lovers of good music.

Kora Lup Following from the New York Courisr : Exonators Bränkess van Oxe New York Courisr : We are happy to informour fel ow -diizous that there is, one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality: We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well re-pay aby stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's ec-tensive Warehouse, Nos. 18. :0 and 22 Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Mar ethicid street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand caves; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases - Wintages of 1836 to 1856 ; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and 84. Croix Rum, somo very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filed with Brand v, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one huadr: and eight thousand dozen, and we hope in lass than two years he may be equally successful with his Brrudies and Wines. His business merits the patronage of every lover of his speckes. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land maze up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

shelves, and replace it with wonces pure wises and Luçcoss. We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of Smell dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of op-ponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imita-tions, ruinous alike to health and human happiness. sep6-davémi C.
