SEE advertisement "For the Holidays."

MRS. Downy says that one of her boys don't know nothing, and the other does. The question is, which knows the most?

DON'T FORGET, that the place to get your Christmas presents is at BERGNER's, 51 Market street. See advertisement "For the Holidays."

IN SEARCH OF HIS MOTHER. -It is said that a stray infant, found on the steps of a gentle. man's residence, in a neighboring town, a few evenings since, has been named Stephen A. Douglas, for the reason that the "little sucker" was in search of his mother.

AN OYSTER FEAST .- We are indebted to Sheriff Davis for some large and delicious bivalves, a specimen of the kind he serves the public with at the eating saloon recently opened by him on the corner of Second and Pine streets. The Sheriff has fixed things up in good style, and deserves to be patronized.

BEFORE THE MAYOR .--- Two drunken "vags," who were found lying around loose last night, and caged in the lock-up, appeared before the Mayor this morning. One of them, a tramping journeyman tailor, paid the fine imposed and was discharged. The other customer was sent to the reformatory institution across the street. ----

DISTURBING A RELIGIOUS MEETING .--- Last evening a genteel looking mulatto girl was before the Mayor charged with having by improper conduct, disturbed the colored Methodist con: gregation, during time of religious service .--The prosecutor, however, failed to "make out a case," and the girl was dismissed.

ANOTHER APPOINTMENT .- We learn that Governor Packer has appointed Mr. C. O Zimmerman, of this city, State Tonnage Agent. He is a very worthy and deserving gentleman, and competent for the position ; but the office is a snecure and ought to be abolished. We hope this will be done by the incoming Legislature.

ASHES .-- We must remind the public that, although there is an ordinance forbidding the throwing of ashes on the street, it does not prevent the sprinkling of the same upon slippery side-walks. Persons are frequently injured by slipping upon icy side-walks. This would be avoided if householders, during slippery times, would sprinkle their pavements with ashes.

DEATH OF ANOTHER AGED CITIZEN .-- Mrs. Su sanna Haverstick, for many years resident near this city, died on Wednesday last at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Simon Cassel, near Hoernerstows, in the 70th year of her age .--She was buried at Shoop's Church yesterday affernoon in the presence of a large concourse of relatives and former acquaintances.

THE HUNTING SEASON .- The mountains in the northern section of the State are daily visited by scores of hunters in search of Deer. The accounts from the hunting-grounds are highly encouraging, and we constantly receive intelligence of the abundance of game and the success of the hunters. Three 'gentlemen of Bellefonte recently encamped near Beaver Mills, in Centre county, and during the short space of four days encountered fifty-three Deer, and captured a m should visit th ner for the difference, which amounts to $690. owing to his non-compliance with the condi tions upon which the property was struck down to him at the first sale.

MARRIED.—On Wednesday morning last, at Gloucester, N. J., by Rev. R. M. Mitcherson, Mr. ROBERT R. BARR, of this city, and Mise ADELIA METZ, of the former place.

Our young friend and townsman has done wisely in acting upon the Bible doctrine that "it is not good for man to be alone." For their kind remembrance of us amidst the festivities of turkeys, ducks and chickens. Rabbits and incident to their wedding occasion, we return the young couple our sincere thanks. May peace. happiness and prosperity-choice gifts of Heaven-ever abide with them ; and may they realize, as others have, that----

"Though fools spurn Hymen's gentle powers, We, who improve his golden hours, By sweet experience know That marriage, rightly understood, Gives to the tender and the good A paradise below."

THE TYCOONS .--- At a special meeting of the Tycoons, held in the Council Chamber on the evening of the seventh day of the twelfth month. the Chief Tycoon made the following appointments for the forthcoming parade : Chief Tycoon-Hi-En-Finiungus.

Grand Adviser-Ido-Tsu-Sima and NoKami-Barraita.

Grand Herald-Isawa-Minasaki-Geetyoski. Grand Chieftain-Nokamio-Earnestly. Body Guard-Tsoesocki-M'Allistum, Socroe-ga-Colestumb, Nokami-Groffibus and Matsmou Snyderumdum.

Sword Bearers-Dzulo-Klineiger, Koka-Kin Sinigeribus. Standard Bearers--Isedero-Johnsmokin, Tatsenoski-Brennerum, and Sank-Kewchung-Hnm-

On motion, it was resolved that the above proceedings be published in the daily papers of the city, and that a copy of the same be filed mong the archives of the Council

On motion, it was resolved that the Tycoons assemble again in Council at the order of the Chief Tycoon.

Extract from the minutes of the Council.

THE SNOW FALL.—The following lines are by ames Russell Lowell, though not included in the latest edition of his works. Aside from their sweetness and beauty, there seems to be a sort of appropriateness in their publication to-day

The snow had beg un in the gloaming, And busily all the night Had been heaping field and bighway, With a silence deep and white.

Every pine, and tur, and hemlock, Wore ermine too dear for an earl, And the poorest twig on the elm tree Was fringed inch-deep with pearl.

From sheds, now roofed with Carrara, Came Chanticlear's mulled crow, The stiff rails were softened to swap's down-And still fluttered down the snow.

I stood and watched by the window The noiseless work of the sky, And the sudden flurries of snow birds, Like brewn leaves whirling by.

I thought of a mound in sweet Auburn. a little heads How the flakes were folding it gently, As did robins the babes in the wood.

Up spoke our little Mable, Saying "father, who makes the snow ?"

REAL ESTATE SALE .--- We direct the attention of our readers to the sale of the real estate of street, between Second and Pine, was sold at Margaret Ingram, deceased, in Market Square, public sale to Abram Freaner, Esq., for the John Swiler in Chestnut street, and Elijah S sum of $3,000. Dr. Durbin will preach a Missionary sermon in the Locust street church to-morrow morning, to be followed by the Mission Sunday School Anniversary in the afternoon, and Missionary addresses in the evening. The usual services will be held in the Vine

POULTRY AND GAME --- There was a profusion of poultry in market this morning, which our "country cousins" disposed of at fair prices -We have seldom seen a more abundant sopply of Possums were also plenty, and sold at remuner ative prices. There was a small supply of Partridges, which were readily bought up at two shillings a pair. As Christmas approaches the poultry market will continue to increase in quantity and quality.

MORE SNOW.-The prospect for sleighing is decidedly favorable just now. A very respectable snow storm visited "these parts" to day, and at the present writing the earth is covered with white to the depth of three or four inches. We expect soon to see the streets crowded with fancy sleighs and fast nags, and to hear the merry music "that so joyously swells from the tintinabulation of the bells, the silver bells." Such an opportunity as is now afforded our citizens to gratify the healthy and merry pleasure of sleigh-riding will no doubt be seized upon with avidity, and the livery stable keepers are likely to reap a rich pecuniary harvest. Sleigh riding is a "luxury" which editors cannot afford to indulge in; nevertheless, it is a source of pleasure to us to see others enjoy themselves.

THE LATEST FASHIONS FOR FURS.-The once lespised "mink," taking rank only one step nigher than the musk-rat, has got into such high favor from its close resemblance to the Hudson Bay sable, that importations have been displaced to a large extent, and now the American sable takes the precedence in comparison with almost any of the rival furs .--Stone marten, fitch, squirrel, &c., are less inquired for. Success in winning popular favor results, in this case, much as it does in the higher walks of animal life, and whole communities of mink creation have been brought to sorrow from the effects of extensive adulation. In other words, the demand for mink has tended to surfeit the market, so that prices are about twenty per cent. lower than last year's. In styles, there is no essential change, except that the half cape leads, owing to the use of the modernized Arabian hood in cloak making, which does not permit of covering. The stock of furs on hand is about as usual in quantity, but it will speedily be reduced after the winter fairly sets in fairly sets in. FASHIONABLE FOLLY.—One of the follies which "fashion" imposes upon members of society is the wearing of moruning apparel on the decease of friends. The custom has no foundation in good sense or propriety, and there are many reasons why it should be discarded. It is often a pecuniary burden upon the bereaved. Mourn-ing garments are more expensive than others, and when the head of the family is cut off, it is a severe task upon the diminished resources of the household to add to the expenses of sickness
