HARRISBURG, PA.

Thursday Afternoon, December 13, 1860.

See advertisement "Ho, for the Holidays."

"How to PAY RENT" is a pleasant farce on the stage, but a painful drama in actual life, as many know from experience.

ANOTHER NOTARY PUBLIC.—The Governor has appointed Mr. John C. West, of Philadelphia, a Notary Public for that town, in the place of Mr. J. R. Patton whose term expires. Of course the former is a good Democrat.

THE NEW BANK proposed to be established at Lawton, under the General Banking Law, does not get along well, and is not likely to go into operation. The substantial freeholding and moneyed men are shy of it.

TYCOONS' ATTENTION!—You will meet at the Council Chamber this evening at 9 o'clock, fully equipped for parade. Punctual attendance is requested at the hour designated, as the cards will be distributed at that hour. By order of the Chief Tycoon.

G. W. GREY, Secretary.

IN THE HOSPITAL.—Young Simmons, of this city, who is subject to periodical fits of insanity, is again in the State Lunatic Hospital, having been taken there on Tuesday afternoon. He is the young man who some weeks ago purloined a package of paper money from the Adams Express office, and burned the greater portion of it, while partially insane, as is generally believed.

A QUESTION FOR PARENTS TO PONDER.—"What sort of citizens will those young men make who are allowed to frequent rum holes during the day and evening, drink whisky and play cards?" Such iniquitous institutions exist in our midst, and they are frequented by young men of respectable families. These dens are tolerated, because it is the interest of constables and police officers to be ignorant of their existence and locality.

DAYLIGHT MARKETS A SUCCESS.—The Carlisle papers state that the first daylight market in that place, under the new ordinance, proved a decided success. At twelve o'clock, the hour for opening the market, "the stalls were much better filled than heretofore at this season of the year. Everything was abundant, good prices obtained, and many of those who had opposed the movement expressed their entire satisfaction." Daylight markets, wherever established, have proved a decided success, and become popular with both sellers and purchasers. Why is it that our "City Fathers" hesitate about inaugurating this excellent system? It would be an accommodation to the farmers during the winter season, and a great convenience to our citizens. We can assure Council that prompt and favorable action in this matter would be universally and heartily endorsed by the "sovereign people" they represent.

DISTRESSING.—A family in Johnstown recently lost three children, all victims of that terrible scourge Diphtheria. The third was buried a few days ago, at which time the fourth and last child was down with the disease, and was not expected to survive until the return of the parents from the funeral. The malady begins with a cold and soreness in the throat, and progresses with the formation of a membrane in the windpipe, which chokes the little sufferer to death. In view of the present prevalence of this unmanageable and exceedingly perilous disease, parents should be especially careful to guard their children from exposure and cold, and should call in their family physician immediately on the very first manifestation of any of its symptoms. In this, as in many other diseases, delays are dangerous, and an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

BEFORE THE MAYOR.—Three travelers named respectively Frank Smith, John Baker and Charles Myers, the two former from Philadelphia, and the latter from Washington city, were before the Mayor this morning, having occupied the lock-up during the night as voluntary lodgers. They all reported themselves as mechanics in search of employment. Myers is a young man of prepossessing appearance, and has evidently seen better days. The Mayor heard their statements and discharged them. The other occupants of the lock-up consisted of a man named Wm. McKinney, his wife, and a little boy about six years old. They were found on the street drunk, with a can of whisky in their possession, and the child barefooted.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—The employees of the "Harrisburg Car Company," assembled at the works yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, for the purpose of expressing a proper testimonial of respect to the memory of I. G. McKINLEY, Esq., deceased. Mr. JOHN GANZWECK was called to preside, and Messrs. Handshaw and Levan were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. The committee presented the following preamble and resolutions which were adopted:

Resolved, That we have learned, with feelings of unfeigned regret, of the decease of our late officer and friend; and whilst we bow submissively to the mandates of an all-wise and beneficent Creator, who has taken from among us one whom we highly valued and esteemed, we would express the deep sorrow which the event has occasioned, and evidence, by our grief, the tribute of respect which we desire to pay to his memory.

ALL in want of cheap Christmas and New Year's presents should call at BERGER'S.

QUARTERS ENGAGED.—We learn that quarters have been secured at the Franklin House for the Washington Artillery of Pottsville, commanded by Capt. Nagle. The company will arrive here on Monday evening prior to the inauguration of Governor Curtin, and remain until Wednesday morning.

THE TYCOONS will be out in full force, fully equipped, at eleven o'clock to night. Look out for novel fights and strange noises. Nervous people, whose sleep is easily disturbed, should not retire too early. The object of the demonstration is a complimentary serenade to two young "Tycoons" who recently formed matrimonial alliances, and returned home to-day.

LARGE FUNERAL.—The funeral of Mrs. Mary C. Baxters, daughter of Kirk Fow, Esq., of this city, who died at Bellefonte a few days ago, took place to-day and was largely attended. The remains of the deceased arrived here by Railroad, from Elizabethtown, accompanied by two car loads of relatives, friends and acquaintances, and were interred in the Cemetery. The funeral cortege was the largest witnessed here for some time. The deceased had been married but a few months, and was only eighteen years of age at the time of her death.

THE TONNAGE TAX.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company are now busily engaged in drilling their forces for effective operation during the session of the incoming Legislature. The immense influence of that mammoth grasping corporation, with all the corrupt "means and appliances" that can be brought to bear, will be wielded to effect a repeal of the tonnage tax and swindle the Commonwealth out of hundreds of thousands of dollars justly due her. Every member of the Legislature who votes for this iniquitous measure will damn himself politically; and should it be forced through, an outraged and indignant people will rise in the majesty of their strength, and crush the mercenary who betrayed them. The repeal of the tonnage tax, this winter, will result in the overthrow of the Republican party next fall, just as certainly as effect follows cause. Every Republican who favors the infamous scheme, will go home disgraced, to return here never more in a legislative capacity.

THE CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL.—Notwithstanding the "signs of the times," which are believed by alarmists to forebode evil—and which are certainly not of a very cheering character, although they look brighter than they did a week ago—preparations are already evident for the festivities of the approaching holidays. Many of our stores are gay with an unusual display of elegant goods for the adornment of the person, while the book establishments are rich in treasures for the improvement of the mind. The toy and picture shops, also filled with articles calculated to delight the juveniles, are by no means behind their more wealthy competitors, but abound in rattles, guns, drums, balls, innocent and instructive games, and painted histories and puzzles that will cause many a young heart to throb with the desire of possession. Thus, there is much amusement and happiness in store for many a merry family meeting. But while those of our citizens who are well to do, and have an abundance of the good things of this world, participate in the enjoyments of the season, we hope that the wants of the poor and destitute will not be forgotten.

THE BALL SEASON.—The cotillion soiree at Exchange Hall last evening was well attended and passed off pleasantly. The weather has been almost too mild as yet to dance with real hearty zest and vigor. Balls are like celery—they want a touch of frost to give them that crispness necessary to enjoyment. After the Christmas holidays, when the nights are long and the days keen, the dancing spirit becomes more generally diffused. The girls have all their dresses made, and know in which they look the prettiest. Sleigh rides and social parties suggest balls—one kind of amusement always creating an appetite for another. We would just whisper to the girls, that, in the present financial "crisis," they must not be too exacting. Balls are an expensive item to young men on small salaries; and if they endeavor to make the bills as light as possible, it will be remembered and appreciated without a doubt. We often hear young men say: "Well, I should like to ask Miss so-and-so to go to such a ball, but she is so particular about a carriage and other things, that I can't stand the expense." Now, young ladies, remember, "a word to the wise," etc.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—The employees of the "Harrisburg Car Company," assembled at the works yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, for the purpose of expressing a proper testimonial of respect to the memory of I. G. McKINLEY, Esq., deceased. Mr. JOHN GANZWECK was called to preside, and Messrs. Handshaw and Levan were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the family and relatives of the deceased in their heavy bereavement; that we extend to them, under this afflicting dispensation, our sincere condolence; that we will cherish with them the memory of his many virtues. "To know him was to love him."

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be transmitted to the family of the deceased, and published in the daily papers of this city.

DAUPHIN COUNTY BIBLE SOCIETY.—In our last issue we published the proceedings of this Society, with the annual report of the Treasurer, &c. We now give the reports of the various Auxiliary Societies, for the last year, as returned to the Secretary, prior to the anniversary meeting at Millersburg on the 20th of last month:

HARRISBURG.

The Harrisburg Bible Society celebrated its forty-sixth anniversary on the 19th of February last, in the First English Lutheran Church of this city, upon which occasion the Rev. Mr. Gans, of the German Reformed church, delivered an appropriate discourse, based upon the words, 2 Thess. 31—"That the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified." Twenty-three persons added their names to the list of members of the Society and a collection was taken amounting to $22 60. From the annual report of the Executive Committee it appears that the year then closed had been one of unusual activity in the Bible cause in Harrisburg, as well as in the rest of the county, in consequence of the untimely and successful labors of Brother Brady, who was employed by the Dauphin County Bible Society to explore and reap the whole territory. The city has now been thoroughly canvassed, but its population is increasing so rapidly that we shall doubtless have constant occasion to open our hands for the supply of the spiritually destitute at our very doors. The Treasurer reports receipts, as follows:

From Mr. Brady, collected in the city of Harrisburg..... $113 67

Contributions of Members..... 22 60

Collection at Anniversary..... 22 60

MILLERSBURG.

Pursuant to appointment, a number of the citizens of Millersburg met in the Evangelical Church on October 6th. W. J. Seal, President, having taken the Chair, stated the object of the meeting. S. R. Steward delivered a short but appropriate address.

We have now subscribed and collected the last year $78 90. The Executive Committee met on the 16th of November and elected two efficient agents to canvass the entire town and enter every house, sell Bibles and Testaments where they can and give them where necessary. Owing to the brief time our Society has been organized I am unable to say much as to its practical operation, but judging from present indications, I hope much good will be accomplished by and through our Society. It numbers at present forty-five members.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—This Restorative for making the hair grow, stopping its falling out, and restoring gray hair to its original color, is becoming celebrated. All the quick nostrums are giving way to the safe and reliable of this Restorative. It restores and keeps the hair, do it more injury than good. They burn it out—destroy the life of its roots—make the hair fall out, and produce premature baldness. But Prof. Wood's Restorative can be relied upon as containing nothing which can in any manner be injurious to the hair, while its success in accomplishing what it pretends to do has been verified in hundreds of cases. We advise gray heads, and heads getting bald—all who wish to save their hair or obtain a new stock, to get a bottle of Wood's Restorative. N. Y. Democrat. no19-1m

MOTHERS, READ THIS.—The following is an extract from a letter written by the pastor of a Baptist church to the "Journal and Messenger," Cincinnati, Ohio, and speaks volumes in favor of that world-renowned medicine—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children's Teething:—"We use an advertisement in your column of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Now we never said a word in favor of a patent medicine before in our life, but we feel compelled to say to our readers, that this is no humbug—we have tried it, and know it to be all that it claims. It is a safe, reliable, and successful medicine for the teething child, because it is one of the best, and the best of your readers who have babies can do better than to lay a supply."

Davis' Pain Killer.

No medicine is more prompt in its action in cases of Cholera, Cholera Morbus, &c., than Perry Davis' Pain Killer. It is the acknowledged antidote which seldom fails if applied in its early symptoms. No family should be without a bottle of it always on hand. The stain on linen from the use of the Pain Killer is easily removed by washing in alcohol.

Davis' Pain Killer seems particularly efficacious in cholera morbus, bowel complaints, and other diseases in which the natives of Burnham, from their unwholesome style of living, are peculiarly exposed. It is a valuable antidote to the poison of Centipedes, Scorpions, hornets, &c. REV. J. BENJAMIN, Late Missionary in Burnham.

Sold by all druggists, grocers and medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canada. n18-1m

WE call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confused with any of the patent nostrums, or medicines of the day. It is Food for the Blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are afflicted with cholera morbus, or any other disease of the blood, and who are suffering from indigestion or any other ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health. We notice that our Druggists have received a supply of this article, and also of the celebrated Dr. J. C. B. BLOOD FOOD. It is said to contain no purgative or opiate of any kind whatever, and of course must be beneficial for all infirmities of the blood. It is also said to be a good remedy for cholera morbus, in process of teething, and at the same time regulate the bowels. Let all mothers and all who are afflicted with cholera morbus, or any other ailment, take of this, prepare a supply and be at once relieved. n18-1m

SPALDING'S PREPARED GLUE.—Prepared Glue: a very useful and convenient article for housekeepers and others, is "Spalding's Prepared Glue." It is one of those inventions, small in themselves, which, nevertheless, go far in the economy of household management, and are an ever-present aid in saving time, expense and trouble. The number of small repairs to furniture, crockery, glassware, children's toys, leather, shell and other domestic work, with the almost innumerable uses to which in every household a really good and ever-ready article of this kind may be applied, will suggest suggestions to the ladies. It is applied without affecting its strength, and which serve to give the adhesive matter a firmer hold on the surfaces to be united, after which they quickly evaporate, leaving the glue to harden with regular tenacity. It is so simple and so useful that there are at least five millions of households in the United States, and that an outlay of from one to ten dollars is annually required to make small repairs to furniture, crockery, glassware, children's toys, leather, shell and other domestic work, with the almost innumerable uses to which in every household a really good and ever-ready article of this kind may be applied, will suggest suggestions to the ladies.
