THE FIRE ALABM last night was occasioned by the burning of a quantity of leather scraps in the shoe store of Mr. X. Miller, in Market fire companies.

BEFORE THE MAYOR. -The only person before the Mayor this morning was a perambulating mechanic named John Hughes, who passed the night in the lock-up as a voluntary lodger, having no money to procure tavern accommodations. He was discharged and resumed his ourney northward, his destination being Danville, where he has friends residing.

A NOVAL AND GOOD "INSTITUTION."-A DEDCT published at Bridgeton, New Jersey, notices an organization of young men in that town styled "Zonave Oddities," who have banded together for the purpose of sawing and splitting wood for destitute families the ensuing winter. With wood-eaw astride of horse, and axe in hand, they proceed to the premises, and reduce the wood to stove size with an alacrity unknown to those who labor for money.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY .- This morning a fellow named Aaron Molson was arrested for assaulting Mary Yellets and forcibly attempting to violate her person. Alderman Kline committed him to prison for trial. This Molson is a notorious scoundrel, and has long made a practice of indecently exposing his person to little girls on the street, and insulting respectable women. In two or three instances he re-

A RAILROAD SMASH UP .- On Sunday morning quite a smash-up of freight cars took place on the Northern Central Railroad, at the Summit, about thirty-five miles this side of Baltimore, brought about by the following cause: A coal train, numbering sixty cars, all laden with coal, was on its way to the city, and whilst passing over the highest altitude, the locomotive gave a sudden and violent jerk, parting a coupling joining the ninth and tenth cars of the train. The engineer continued on until Parker station was nearly reached, when he looked towards the end of the train and was surprised at the disappearance of the light usually displayed from the car in the rear. It was very dark at the time, which prevented him from commanding a view of the whole train, and supposing that a portion of the train was detached, was on the point of stopping, when down came the remaining fifty-one cars, and a crash ensued. Four or five of the cars from the breakage of one of the couplings, caused by the intense cold. The affair was at once made known at the several stations, and a large force of hands set to work in clearing the track, thereby preventing any interruption to the passenger trains.

THE OLD FOLKS, now making their annual tour, will probably visit this city shortly, and favor our citizens with one of their inimitable entertainments. Those who listened to their an opportunity to hear them again.

Puns Liquor is a desideratum now-a-days, when the country is flooded with vile compounds calculated to rain the stomachs and craze the brains of those who imbibe them. Our friend the Bank of Commerce will resume business, on | Col. John H. Zeigler, the most extensive dealer the currency basis, at an early day-probably in this city, advertises a large and varied stock this week. It advises note holders not to part of liquors of choice brands, unexcelled in purity and excellence of flavor. Housekeepers who desire good and pure liquors for culinary purposes, during the holiday season, can obtain them at this old and popular house.

FOUR CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH .- On Monday evening a fire broke out in a two story frame house in Marietta, eccupied by a colored man named John Walker, and before it was discovered, or before assistance reached the spot, the interior was a sheet of flame, and four children-three of them belonging to Walker, street The scraps were thrown into a coal and the other a child of his sister-in-law-per ished in the flames. It appears that early in saed the alarm which brought out the various the evening the children were put to bed on the second story, and shortly afterwards the father locked the door and went to church, leaving a fire in the stove down stairs. There was some kindling wood on the top of the stove. which it is supposed caught fire, and hence the cause of the frightful calamity. As soon as the alarm was given, several persons were quickly on the spot, and for a few seconds the terrified faces of the children were seen at an upper window, but they soon disappeared and were not afterwards seen until their charred remains were picked out of the smouldering ruins.

> DROWNING THOUGHTS. - A gentleman accidentally fell into the water; and was nearly drowned. After being rescued, he continued in a state of apparent death for nearly twenty minutes. When restored to consciousness he thus described his sensations whilst in the act of drowning:-

> "They were the most delightful and ecstatic I ever experienced. I was transported to a perfect paradise, and witnessed scenes that my imagination never had, in its most active con dition, depicted to my mind. I wandered in company with angelic spirits through the most lovely citron and orange groves, Celestial palms, and everblooming flowers, basking in an atmosphere redolent of the most delicious perfumes. I heard the most exquisite music proceeding from melodious voices and able women. In two or three instances he received the personal chastisement his infamous conduct so richly deserved.

The well tuned instruments. Whilst in this world of fancy my mind had recalled to consciousness the scenes and associations of my early life, and the memory of the companions of my early life, and the memory of the companions of my early life. boyhood. All the knowledge I had required during a long life recurred to my mind. Fa-vorite passages from Horace, Virgil and Cicero were revived, and pieces of poetry I had been fond of repeating when a boy, came fresh to my recollection."

TURKEYS .- Where do all the Turkeys come from? Next Tuesday one or more will be erved up on the table of nearly every family in this city; and were twice the number demanded, the turkeys would be forthcoming.-Witholding does not seem to increase their number, nor giving with a liberal hand to diminish them. Where do they come from? You may travel in the country for days and hardly see a dozen "goblers." But with every threatened to kill the first man who entered his demand comes an ample supply; and now, in anticipation of Christmas, our markets are overrun with turkeys, and every description of poultry. The Turkey is indigenous to America. ACCIDENT TO CAROLINE RICHINGS .- This sweet warbler, who is so great a favorite in musical circles here, narrowly escaped being burned to death in the Richmond (Va,) Theatre a few nights since. She was playing in a piece caled the Magic Circle, in which she appears in a dress of gossamer texture. In passing too. near the lights, her dress took fire, and but for the presence of mind of one of the actors, the would undoubtedly have met with a serious, if not fatal, accident. Having escaped, however, she is playing a brilliant engagement at Louisville, assisted by her adopted father, the venerable Peter, who is one of the most accomplished actors on the stage.

THE HISTORIES which, at this inclement season, commend themselves to every benevolent heart in community, are "The short and simple annals of the poor." The times are becoming pressing and hardpoverty will prevail more generally than usual during the present winter. Something must be done for the relief of the unfortunate and destitute. Each family should contribute a little, which would hardly be missed by them, amounting in the aggregate to a large sum, making many family groups to rejoice, and calling down the blessings of the widow and the orphan upon your heads. Here in the populous city of Harrisburg, scores of cases of the most pitiable want can be found in various localities-privation at which the pen falters and fails to give any adequate description. When starvation stares the unfortunate father in the face, can it be a matter of surprise that, driven to desperation, he steals in order to get bread for his children? Is it astonishing that the fragile inexperienced woman resorts to crime and shame in order to keep the current of life circulating in her yeins? To moralists, who prate over the vices and immorality of cities, the best way to stem the current of crime is to relieve the sufferings of the famishing and shivering poor.

An Exciting Time in Prison .-- Yesterday morning the Keeper of the county prison, while going his customary rounds, discovered that Sam Willis was making arrangements to escape from his cell, and had already succeeded in digging a hole nearly through the wall next to the corridor, large enough to admit of his exit. His design, as stated by himself, was to complete the work last night, (which he could have effected in a few minutes), get into the corridor, and waylay and kill the under-Keeper, Captain Nevin. After the discovery of his operations yesterday morning, Sam became exceedingly desperate, and Mr. Boyd and his Assistant fearing to approach him, summoned the Directors, and constables Wickert and Becker. Armed with a piece of his bedstead, which he had broken up. Sam defied the whole party, and cell. He seemed especially desirous of injuring Capt. Nevin, swore that he would be revenged upon constable Wickert, and avowed a determination to kill his father and other persons if he lived to get out of prison. After a protracted struggle, however, the desperado was disabled by a few well-directed blows, captured leted his work, that the removal of the outside Christmas and Thanksgiving feasts. PROP. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—This Restorative for making the hair grow, stopping its falling out, and restoring gray hair to its original color, is becoming celebrated. All the quack nostrums are giving way before it. Three fourths of the mixtures for restoring and beautifying the hair, do tt more injery than good. They burn it up—destroy the life of its roots—make the hair fall off, and produce premature baldness. But Prof. Wood's Re-torative may be relied upon as containing nothing which can in any manner be injurious to the hair, while its success in accomplishing what it pretends to do has been verified in hundrods of cases. We advise gray heads, and heads getting bald—all who wish to save their wool or obtain a new stock, to get a bottle of Wood's Restorative.—N. F. Democrat. d's Restorative .- N. P. Democrat.

SPALDING'S PREPARED GLUE.—Prepared Glue: a very useful and convenient article for housekeepers and others, is "Spading's Prepared Gue" It is one of those invent.ons, small in themselves, which, nevertheless, go far in the e. onomies of household management, and are an ever-present aid in saving time, expense and trouble. The number of small repairs to furniture, picture-frames, crockery, children's toys, leather, shell und other fancy work, with the almost innumerable uses to which in every household a really good and ever-ready article of this kind may be applied, will at once suggest themselves to the ladies. Damaged book-covers, loceened leaves, dilapidated maps and herbariums, will remind the student and book-worn of its value. This Glue is compounded with chemicafs which hold it permanently in solution until it is applied, without affecting its strength, and which serve to give the adhesive matter a firmer hold on the surfaces to be united, after which they quickly eveporate, leaving the glue to harden with rapidity and tenacity. Wolfe's Pure Cognae Brandy.
Wolfe's Pure Maderia, Sherry and Port Wine.
Wolfe's Pure Jamaica and St. Croix Rum; Wolfe's Pure Scotch and Irish Whisky.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquosa, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Sourman Sconnarys. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquosa, says: "I will stake my reprutation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Bhandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves.—For sale at Retail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

Read the following from the New York Courier:

ENORMOUS RUMENESS FOR ONE New YORK MERCHANT.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality.

one place in our city where the physician, spothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive basicess, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive Marchouse, Nos. 18. 10 and 22 Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Mark eiffeld street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Soutch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, Some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large collars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., incasks, under Custom House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and tunger for medical was should seed their orders discontinuation.

shelves, and repeated to the accommodation of the understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to health and human happiness.
