STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Addiny of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburns, Loss of Appletite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Sierding Piles. In all orrows, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Soenhave Its reputation at home produced its introduction here, the demar decommending with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truy wonderful medicinal virues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have usen impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

KOTICE.—Wheever expects to find this a beverage will be disapprointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited. It will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, pessessed of of singular remedial properties.

And testimonials, new, and almost without number, might be given from ladies and gentlemen in all grades of society, whose united testimony new could resist, that Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will restore the bald and grey, and preserve the bair of the youth to old age, in all its youthful beauty.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Dec. 21, 1860.

PROF. Wood: Thee wilt please accepts hime to inform thee that the bair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chrone disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life hoving reduced one to a state of dependence, I having not been able to outton up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induces me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last. I have tailathfully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and black, though short; it is also eming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being destrige of means to purchase Lore, I would ask thee if thee would: to be willing to send me an order on thine agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the scripture declaration—"the reward is to those that are kind to the widow and fatherless."
