CONCENTRATED LEAVEN FOR MAKING

Bread, Tea-Cakes, all kinds of Pastry, &c

MANUFACTURED BY EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,

Mistellaneons.

Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works. No. 33 INDIA STREET, Boston.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical research. All its ingrediouts are prepared in the highest state of purity; and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process; and by the manufacturers submit it, with entire confidence, to the judgment of discriminating housekeepers, bakers, &c.

Bread of all kines made by using Concentrated Leaven
is lighter, more digestible and nuturitious; has an agreea. ble, natural taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes. No. 33 INDIA STREET, Boston.

munes. It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be minutes.

It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates and under all circumstances, it may be adopted, thus obvisting all difficulty of precuring yeast or other ferme t, which is frequently of an inferior quality, ret dering the bread more or less unwholesome.

It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common procees: much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of genorating gas to raise the dough. By using Concentrated Leaven this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 ms, which, by the common method, ordinarily makes about 250 ms of bread, gives by this process 290 ms, thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invarlably be highly satisfactory.

sult will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

"I have analysed the Concentrated Leaven, manufactured by Messra. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with reference to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough, and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure material. It raises the dough without conseming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.

pastry cook.

"The experiments made by me confirm the statements made by the manufacturers, and proves this compound worthy of public approval and extended use.

"Respectfully,

"A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer,

DISKASES OF IMPRUDENCE —When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability can atome befriend him, delaying till the consitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, affecting the head, throat, nose, skin, cc., progressing on with frightful rapidity, till death puts a period to his dreadful suiterings by sending him to "that bourne from whence no traveler returns." It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, ruin the constitution and make the residue of lite miserable.

NNOUNCE to the citizens of Harris-

United States Senator.

The question of the election of a United States Senator from Pennsylvania, to succeed William Bigler, is receiving much attention.— The large Republican majority in our State Legislature not only ensures the election of a Republican Senator, but has also had a tendency to bring many candidates into the field. The men whose names have been presented for the office are generally good men, well fitted to adorn that high position. But of all the candidates, there is one, who, by his abilities as a statesman, by his powers as an orator, and by his great services to the Republican cause, stands pre-eminent. That man is David Willmot. Many are aware, while perhaps some, are not aware, of the vast debt which the victorious party that has just carried Pennsylvania, by ninety thousand majority, owes to Judge Wilmot. When the repeal of the Missouri Compromise against the prayers and remonstrances. promise, against the prayers and remonstrances promise, against the prayers and remonstrances of the united North, demoralized and destroyed the Democratic party, leaving the opponents of slavery extension without a party name or or ganization, it was through the wise counsels and under the calm guidance of Sudge Wilmot that order was brought out of chaos, and the friends of freedom in this Congressional District—once the Gibralter of Democracy, as it is now of Republicanism—were organized and united into one harmonious party. Susquehan now of Republicansm—were organized and united into one harmonious party. Susquehan na county was the first in the State to organize a Republican party, and in the first organization Whigs and Democrats, in about equal numbers, united, forgetting old differences and animosities, and agreeing with their conjoined strength to resist the dangerous aggressions of the State Power. What led the freesed! Thereo. the Slave Power. What led the free-soil Demothe Slave Power. What led the free-soil Demo-crats of this region, so far in advance of those in other parts of the State, to sunder old party sies, and join in the formation of the Republi-can party? Their principles would naturally have ultimately led them to it, but by the sa-gacious and far-seeing counsels of David Wilmot, they were prompted to take the lead and form a nucleus from which has grown the pow-erful and triumphant Republican party of Penn-sylvania. We believe that without the aid of Judge Wilmot we should still have had a atrong Republican party in Northern Pennsylvania; but we are firmly convinced that his influence brought to our organization thousands of voters that would otherwise have been to this day arrayed against us, either as part of the Democratic party, or of a third party. Let, then, our friends in other parts of the State bear in mind, while they point with pride to the great Republican majorities in Northern Pennsylvania, that these are due in no small degree to the personal influence and exertions of David Wilmot.

But we would not urge any man's claims to high office merely on account of services ren-dered to the party, however eminent. Judge Wilmot has other and still stronger claims to consideration. His intellect is of the highest order, clear, sagacious, and practical. We have heard the slavery question discussed by many distinguished speakers, but we never heard any who brought to the discussion of the subject so many original ideas, so many evidences of profound thought, and a statesman-like consideration of the whole question, as the author of the Wilmot Proviso. His knowledge of national questions, his eloquence as a speaker, his boldness in advocacy of right, and his eminent to the contract the man for the services, alike point to him as the man for the hour. Pennsylvania has made some woful mistakes, in days past, in the selection of men to represent her in the Senate of the United States, but by the election of David Wilmot to that position she would do herself honor and the whole country a service.

Those who advocate the claims of other candidates generally seem disposed to treat Judge Wilmot fairly, acknowledging his great services and eminent abilities; but a few are inclined to make old party connections the test of merit and the basis of advancement under the Republican organization. Such a course would be both unwise and unfair. The Republican party derives its strength from a union of men from all the old parties. It is composed of men having a common political faith on the great questions of the day; and and what these men formerly thought, on other, or even the same questions, is wholly foreign to the inquiry concerning their stress for the same of the same o cerning their fitness for office. What are they now? Are they Republicaus—representing fairly and with the ability to represent forcibly the principles of the party? In Judge Wilmot's case, the answer must be most emphatically in the affirmative. He is recognized throughout the Union as one of the most eminent exponents of Republicanism. Republicanism.

The election of Judge Wilmot to the Senate would have a political significance that could not be mistaken or misunderstood. It would be an assurance and guarantee to the country be an assurance and guarantee there in every particular.

In accordance with the abnouncement above I will sell their splendid Sewing Machines at prices from $45 the great questions at issue in the late election, the fine full case machines. talned. With regard to the Tariff question, we are sure that no true friend of the Republican par-ty will make the difference of the past a ground of objection to any member of the party. We all agree that the revenue necessary to meet the wants of the Government shall be raised by duties upon foreign imports. We agree in sup-port of a Homestead bill, thus cutting off that source of revenue. We agree that protection to our manufacturing interests and home labor, is a proper basis of discrimination in the adjust-ment of a tariff. We agree that certain articles of universal consumption, not produced in this country, (tea and coffee, for example,) shall be admitted free. Agreeing upon these points, and having seventy or eighty millions of revenus to raise, no serious differences can arise in adjusting the details of a tariff bill. Judge Wilmot's lette to Mr. Brown, in the Fall of 1857 was entirely satisfactory to the party. It was approved and endorsed by the entire Republican and Ameri-can press of the State. It is now too late to call in question his soundness upon the tariff. It is DENTISTRY.

endorsed by the entire Republic to call in question his soundness upon the tariff. It is ungenerous, and betrays a spirit of selfishness,
and disloyalty to the party of which we are all members, and equally deserving of confidence and entitled to a fair field for honorable advancement. Those who, in their eagerness to grasp honors, thus ungenerously and unfairly assail a rival, by attributing to him opinions on the tariff which he does not hold, are, whether they intend it or not, striking at the integrity of the Republican party.

The effort to impeach the soundness of Judge Wilmot on the tariff, is illiberal and unjust, not only to him but to his friends in this Gibralter of the State, who deserve kinder treatment at the hands of their political brethren, who but for our constancy and fidelity would have been to day in a honeless minority, in the have been to-day in a hopeless minority in the State and the Union.—Independent Republican.
