PICTORIAL BROTHER JOHNATHAN for the Christ mis and New Year Holidays-full of pictures and fun-for sale at Bergner's cheap Bookstore, No. 51 Market street.

SPEAKER OF THE SENATE. -The Pittaburg papers state that the friends of Mr. John P. Penny, of that county, will urge him for the Speakership of the Senate. He is a courteous and dignified gentleman, fully competent for the position, and would make an excellent presiding officer.

GOVE HOME. - The Honorables Wm. M. Stewart, of Mercer, John Covode of Westmoreland, and J. K. Moorehead, of Allegheny, passed through this city yesterday, en route for their homes, the House having adjourned until Monday next. The last named gentleman is a candidate for United States Senator.

In Luck .- Our reportorial brother of the Centre Democrat acknowledges the receipt of a new and elegant hat and handsome coat. We congratulate the Colonel on his good luck .-Here in Harrisburg editors are not so well appreciated, and never have occasion to make such handsomely, however, if somebody would give us an opportunity to "spread" ourself.

CLOSED FOR THE HOLIDAYS .- All the public and private achools of our city closed last evening. in order that the pupils may enjoy the Christmas holidays. The South Ward schools will reopen on Wednesday, the second of January, and those of the North Ward on Monday the 7th. No portion of the community look with more delight to the approach of the annual Christmas festival than the juveniles, or enjoy and Union insists that our course toward Demowith greater zest its pleasures and merry greetings. May they have a good time.

CHURCH DECORATIONS AND MUSIC. — The churches of this city which formally observe the Christmas festival, are now being handsomely decorated with cedar and holly for the occasion. This is a commendable custom, and we hope it will never become obsolete. The church choirs are also tuning up for the occasion, and some excellent music may be expected on Christmas morning. The ceremonies in the Catholic churches will be of a very imposing and impressive character, and no doubt both will be largely attended by citizens of all religious denominations.

Assaulting Women .- The city of Harrisburg is not the only place where women are assaulted and insulted on the streets. In York, the other night, a young woman, who had been at a religious meeting, was approached on her way home by a desperate scoundrel who seized her, thrust his thumb in her mouth to prevent her raising an alarm, and dragged her into an alley, with the design of violating her person. The girl bit his thumb as severely as she could, when the scoundrel made a violent jerk to free himself, and in the effort broke out three of her teeth! She then escaped and got home without further violence.

WM. H. ARMSTRONG, Esq., the young and talented Representative from Lycoming county, delivered his lecture on "Italy" at Milton last Thursday evening. As Mr. Armstrong will be here during the session of the Legislature, we of by all who have had the pleasure of hearg it. No doubt Mr. Armstrong would accept the suggestion for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association, if they choose to act upon it. The gifted and eloquent lecturer would not fail to attract a large audience.

THE LOGAN GUARDS don't like the smell of coal oil, and have resolved not to attend the inauguration of Governor Curtin. There will be a grand parade on that occasion, nevertheless; and the "Logan Guards" will not be missed.— The action of the "bold soger boys" reminds us of the wondrous wise man who "jumped ato a briar bush and scratched out hoth his eyes." After the ridiculous position assumed by the "Logan Guards" on the Wide-Awake question, we sincerely rejoice in their determination not to visit our city on inauguration day. Governor Packer, who made himself equally ridiculous, will appreciate their action, if nobody else does.

School Exhibition .- A series of very interesting exhibitions took place, the past week, in the select school of Mr. Robert M'Elwee and sister, on Front street. The exercises consisted of singing and speaking, and the pupils perform ed their respective parts in such a way as to do credit to themselves and their excellent teachers. The parents of many of the children attended, and were not only highly pleased with the entertainment, but gratified with the rapid progress made by their little ones under the etfective and judicious training of the principals of this model primary school. It is the best institution of the kind in our city, and we take pleasure in comending it to the patronage of parents who have boys and girls to educate.

SINGULAR SCENE IN CHURCH.—We clip the following from the city item department of a late number of one of our Philadelphia exchanges. Mr. Torrence is highly esteemed and well known in this city:-

The estimable agent of the Pennsylvania Bible Society, Reverend I. H. Torrence, delivered a sermon at the Mount Zion Methodist Episcopal Church, on Sunday night last. This church is the leading Methodist Episcopal church of Manayunk. In the course of his sermon the Reverend gentleman alluded to the troubles of the country. It had been ru-mored on the previous evening that President Buchanan was about to resign. In remarking this the speaker used this language: "GoD GRANT THAT IT MAY BE SO." There was an immediate response from every part of the audience: "Amen! Amen!" The scene was one of The scene was one of the most ludicrous and surprising we ever witnessed. The Reverend gentleman had touched a chord in the hearts of the people.

Year's presents should call at Baroure's.

DIPTHERIA. -The number of deaths from diptheria in the United States, during the past year, is said to be no less than 10,000.

EVERYTHING to please the children in the way of brightly colored Toy Books, A B C Blocks, &c., &c., is for sale at Bergner's Cheap Book store. 51 Market street.

IN THE CITY. -Among the strangers in our city at the present time is Elisha W. Davis, Esq., of Venango county. This gentleman is a member elect of the next Legislature, and a prominent candidate for speaker of the House. He has experience and ability to qualify him for the position.

PRESERVED FRUITS .- Peaches, Pears, Plums. Pine Apples, &c., can be had at BANNVART's. Imitation fruits in every style and quality, looking as natural as the real article, with a large and beautiful assortment of French Confectionaries, have just been received at No. 2. Jones Row.

For Christmas.—If you want Jewelry or Fancy Cabas and Work Boxes, handsome and cheaper than at any other place, go to Dr. Barr's, as he is selling out his entire establishment, with the intention of engaging in the manufacturing of his Ice Cream Freezers, which are pronounced the best in use. See his advertisement in to-day's paper.

THE BAND CONCERT .- All lovers of music who wish to enjoy a rich treat, and spend a pleasant evening, should attend the State Cap-'acknowledgments." We could do it right ital Band Concert to-night. The members will appear for the first time in their new and beautiful equipments, consisting of a blue cap with white and red plume, blue frock coat trimmed with gilt lace and buttons, black pantaloons with gilt stripe, and black patent leather belt. The uniform is the neatest of the kind we have ever seen, and our excellent Band will now excel, in appearance, any similar association in the country. Go and take a look at them.

> INFLUENCE OF THE TELEGRAPH.—The Patrio crats "took the Convention of last winter to Reading, instead of being held here." If this statement be true, we think the mass of our people will acknowledge that we did the city good service. Hope our efforts to drive away the equally corrupt "borers," mercenary "black-mailers," and gamblers, who infest the Capital every winter, may be equally successful. The Patriot and Union is unceasing in its efforts to keep the Republican Wide-Awakes from visiting our city on the occasion of Governor Curtin's inauguration; but whether its "personal abuse" of them will have the desired effect, remains to be seen.

> FAT Hog Mania. - The mania for raising fat hogs, so prevalent for some years past, seems to be on the increase. Almost every paper we open contains accounts of the slaughter of hogs weighing five or six hundred pounds. Similar announcements have been made in this paper within a short time. We have no exalted opinion of hog diet, especially of those overgrown animals, and think there is entirely too much of it used for health. It is well known that plants and animals are variously affected by the food aud nourishment used in sustaining them. It is therefore not surprising that the greasy accumulations of these fat porkers should engender not only diseases of the skin, but have the effect of assimilating the mind and temperament of the individual to that of the animal upon which he depends for subsistence.

THE HOLIDAYS. - Seasons roll around, and we are nearly on the threshold of another Christhope an effort will be made to induce him to mas day. Nothwithstanding the fluctuations favor our citizens with the same lecture, or his of stocks, the rise and fall of grain, or the exlecture on "Egypt" which is so highly spoken citement of political strife, there is one season, the anniversary of the advent of our Saviour, when there comes a calm in human m an invitation to that effect, and we throw out and all hearts are earnestly engaged in preparing votive offerings to friends and relatives. This is certainly a beautiful feature of the human family, and one which we trust will always be cherished. Now the loving wife is carefully considering whether a new dressinggown, an elegant but comfortable pair of slippers, or an embroidered vest, each of which are to be in part or whole representatives of her handiwork, will be the most appropriate as a Christmas gift to her spouse. While he, on the other hand, is divided in his thought as to whether that new set of furs, that elegant dress or some other beautiful female adornment shall be his memento of the festal season. It is a busy time for the girls, too. The Misses, from ten years of age, and upwards, are now engaged in high and mighty conclave—cheneilles and twists, Shetland and Berlin wools. beads, etc., are to be seen mysteriously lying about, and wonderful are the expedients for keeping all this paraphernalis out of the sight of fathers and brothers. The little prattlers are now carefully examining their past years savings, and anxiously computing how many "Christmas Presents" their little all will compass-generously appropriating something for every member of the household, from the domestic to the grandmother-totally regardless of the rules of arithmetic. Now the good housewife is mindful that at the coming season every member of the family must be remembered-a gay dress for Annie or Mary is provided-collars and warm cuffs are contributed by the junior members—and Biddy, the family "help," is not forgotten. Even the little "swill" boy,". whose patient visits during the year are remembered, is provided with something that will cheer his own humble home. Thus all hearts are warmed and expanded on the occasion of this blessed anniversary. That most lovely all the virtues, benevolence, is brought into active play, and the bright spots of human nature are seen in bold relief. We do not counsel extravagance—let every one keep within his proper bounds-but we do regard it as exercising a most benificent effect upon our natures, this revered custom of gifts PROYESSOR ANDERSON, the unrivaled "Wizard,'' will give his opening exhibition on Monday evening, and we have no doubt that all who attend will be pleasantly entertained. He is said to be fully equal to Anderson the elder, who drew overflowing houses for several successive nights when last in this city.

THE TRAVELER'S RETREAT, in Walnut street, contained four lodgers last night—one from Buffalo, two from Danville and one from Bellefonte. Two other applicants, after taking a view of the interior of the "retreat," disliked the accommodations, and concluded to go in search of more comfortable quarters.

CURR FOR DIPTHERIA. - A lady of Port Byron, Cayuga county, N. Y., has cured six children (five of them her own) of diptheria, by the following remedy: "When the symptoms are first discovered, take Spanish flies, pound and mix them with Venice turpentine, spread it on a piece of soft cloth and bind it on the throat, which will raise a blister, and soon remove the disease from the throat."

GETTING READY .- Preparations are everywhere making for the advent of Christmas.-The young folks are likely to have a merry time of it, for never was there larger stocks of beautiful presents to tickle the palate and dazzle the eye, than can now be seen displayed in the windows and on the shelves of the confectionary and fancy stores of our city. Among those who advertise "Christmas Gifts." none resent a more tempting display than our friend KELLER, the enterprising Druggist, No. 91, Market street, and we advise all in search of gifts, useful and ornamental, to drop in at his elegantly arranged store.

A PROFUSION OF POULTRY.-There was an unsually large supply of turkeys and geese, ducks and chickens, in market this morning, which sold at fair prices. Judging from the large number of well-filled baskets carried home, the tables of most of our citizens will be loaded with "good things" on Chistmas day .--Yet, sad thought, there are scores in community whose limited means will not permit them to indulge in the pleasures and luxuries incident to this festive, gift-giving sesson. Therefore-

Ye who live 'mid ease and plenty,
Hope e'er smiling on your way,
By your firesides in comfort,
Gally whiling night away,
Should a weary, care worn stranger
Sick at heart, friendless, poor,
Ask but a pittance, do not turn
Your back upon him; do not spurn
Him rudely from your door.

THE AGE OF TALK. - We have too many talkers in community these times. Who has ever attended a school examination, the dinner of a society of any description, or any scene where people congregate, without meeting with the inevitable bore or bores, who cannot be laughed down nor gagged by any hint that can be thrown out? Not only are sensible people who sometimes atlend political meetings insulted by the unfledged spread-eagle fustian of halfgrown boys and fellows to whom years fail to impart discretion; but society is afflicted by pests who can no more think of permitting a the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpita. number of people assembled within earshot to escape without inflicting on them a dose of rigmarole, than Jem Baggs would "move on under shilling." In the case of men of superior intellect, who have given their days to thought and their nights to the "midnight oil," who have discovered new secrets of nature, or found a clue to the mysteries by which human existence is environed, or whose grasp of thought and power of influencing the minds of others. enable them to lead their fellow-men through the peril of a national crisis, it is a duty on their part to speak and a privilege for auditors to listen; but such men can no longer find a hearing; and their voices, if raised, would be drowned in the general splutter of garrulous mediocrity, as a caged nightingale would find it useless to compete with the cacklings of a barn yard. A little more thinking and a great deal less talk would be a vast improvement. and would lead to an increase of dignity and wisdom in legislation, and relieve society from a boredom, submission to which shows that there must be a fund of patience at the command of the people which, if exercised in the right direction, could not fail to compromise all the political difficulties that can ever arise among the different members of the confederacy.
